

The coming battle royal between the Spreckels and Harriman interests for the control of the freight traffic on the Pacific furnishes the San Diego-Sun with additional reasons why San Diego should be made a regular port of entry by the steamships of the American-Hawaiian line, both on their east and west-bound trips. The Sun says: "It is the announced intention of the Spreckels interests through an arrangement just perfected with the Hawaiian-American company and the Tehuantepec railroad to ship everything possible over that route. For years past the Harriman interests, through the Pacific Mail Steamship line and the Panama railroad have practically monopolized this traffic on account of the Hawaiian steamers having to make the trip around the Horn.

"With the inauguration of the new line this will be all changed, and it is estimated by the Tehuantepec officials that fully one month will be saved.

"This means gigantic support for the Hawaiian line, as the Spreckels interests are consuming a considerable amount of material in Southern California all the time and heretofore has been shipped in by rail. Much of this will be used in San Diego and vicinity.

"The Tehuantepec officials announce that the line will be ready for trans-continental traffic in December, and as three new steamers for the Hawaiian line are under contract to be completed at that time, a ten-day service is assured for this port."

ALASKAN ARRIVED YESTERDAY.

The American-Hawaiian S. S. Alaskan, from New York via San Francisco, arrived yesterday morning, eight days out from the Coast. She brought forty-five sacks of mail and 1400 tons of freight, principally of building materials. The officers report a pleasant run all the way from New York, making San Diego, from that port, in fifty-four days.

The Alaskan will be here until Saturday, discharging her cargo and taking on 5000 tons of sugar. From here she will sail for Kaunapali to finish out her cargo for Philadelphia.

The Alaskan is one of the American-Hawaiian boats chosen to go on the line between San Francisco and the Mexican ports and will return to the Pacific at once after discharging her return cargo at Philadelphia.

EDWARD MAY FOR MAKAWELLI.

The bark Edward May was cleared in San Francisco for Makaweli July 18, with cargo valued at $3485, and including the following: 69 bbls. flour, 1500 gals. wine, 180 cts. barley, 4900 lbs. middings, 20 cts. wheat, 9 cts. corn, 800 lbs. bread, 35 cts. potatoes, 3 cts. onions, 245 lbs. garlic, 1500 lbs. salt, 7 bxs. dried fruit, 375 lbs. butter, 1240 lbs. lard, 1040 lbs. codfish, 27 cts. canned goods, 16 bxs. paste, 500 lbs. bread 11 pkgs. candy, 3 pkgs. millwork, 425 lbs. tobacco, 6 pkgs. paper, 5 cts. candles, 1540 gals. distillate, 3 cts. and 1 bbl. oil, 17 bxs. glass, 3 cts. paints, 200 cts. dynamite.

ALAMEDA MADE QUICK TRIP.

The S. S. Alameda, after less than a six-day run, arrived at this port Friday from the coast, bringing a fair number of passengers and about 900 tons of freight. The trip was a pleasant one, no incidents out of the ordinary having been reported.

In spite of the strike on the San Francisco waterfront, the Alameda had no difficulty in securing a crew, signing her men without making any distinction between union and non-union, although all but one prove to be union men.

Among the passengers was Mrs. W. P. Porter, wife of Captain Porter of the Mongolia. She will spend a short time here on vacation. A. G. Wakefield of Davies & Co. returned from a trip to the Coast. G. D. Cheshire, a retired merchant of San Francisco, and his wife are here to visit the islands, as are also Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Baldwin. Dr. Baldwin was for some time physician on board the Ventura.

MANY JAPS SAIL FOR COAST.

In exchange for the 688 Japs landed here on Thursday by the S. S. Manchuria, the big liner took 740 away with her when she sailed Friday morning for the Coast. There was also a large number of cabin passengers. The amount of outgoing freight from this port was small and the liner might have pulled out much earlier had it been expected that the 3500 tons consigned for here could have been so quickly discharged, which was done before 10:30 on Thursday night.

NEW LINERS TO BURN OIL.

Following the lead of the Oceanic Steamship Company, the Toyo Kisen Kaisha will before long substitute oil for coal as fuel on its transpacific line. The two big liners now being built in Japan are to be equipped with oil-burning apparatus. They will be in commission in about a year. When the opportunity offers the Nippon, Hongkong and America Maru will be converted into oil burners. It is also understood that the T. K. K. has arranged for a supply of California oil, and that the Standard Oil Company did not get the contract.

ARRIVED AT COAST.

The bark P. Ribbet arrived in San Francisco from Honolulu July 16, with 2549 bags of sugar.

The bark Paeonia arrived in San Francisco from Elsie July 16, after a trip of twenty-eight days. She encountered light winds and calm. The vessel carried 40,000 bags of sugar.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Notice is hereby given that San Joaquin Middle Ground Light and

THERESA'S BIG STUNT

Princess Theresa Wilcox has determined that the pa-u-riding, hula-dancing and luau glories of the land shall be Bonined and sent to the mainland for the amusement and entertainment of the population thereof.

With this end in view she has organized the Naniola Pa-u Riding Club and she and her followers will give an exhibition of the ancient and picturesque practice in Kapiolani Park tomorrow afternoon.

There will be fifteen ladies on lively steeds and they will assemble at Kapahulu Palace, going thence to the park, where the picture sharp will be waiting. Various equestrian evolutions will be gone through and transmitted to the truthful film.

Mrs. Apf and another dancing girl will hula-hula for the benefit of the machine, dressed or rather undressed, as the traditions of the sprightly dance demand.

Sheriff Brown and several members of the police force will be there and will give exhibitions of how to look dignified through a policeman.

The Concordia band will grace the occasion and a number of automobiles are expected to turn out to help out the general effect.

After Expert Bonine has done his worst the police and the pa-u riders will return to the residence of the princess, where a luau will be served. Just whether the luau will be photographed or not has not been definitely decided upon. Sheriff Brown will be the guest of honor.

The gentlemen who will escort the fair pa-u riders to the park and to the luau are Sheriff Brown, Sheriff's Assistant Vida, Captain S. F. Leelle, Frank Andrade, F. W. Lynch, M. J. Scully, J. D. Cook, F. Wright, N. T. Neilsen, L. Twoomey, Chas. Rose, E. S. Holt, J. White, R. Lane, W. Fernandez, R. P. Reuter, J. F. Melanphy, J. Leal.

Princess Theresa wouldn't name the ladies who will do the pa-u.

"They're all young and pretty," I've been told, "and I'll be one of them." I've been to great pains to pick out the nicest girls in town. We don't want anything ordinary to get in those pictures; no, sir!"

ACTING JAPANESE CONSUL TAKES UP KOMORA CASE

The man Komora, it appears, was accused of an assault upon a child, although no formal charge was entered, and was taken to the police station where an effort was made to get him to leave the country. In an affidavit sent to the Acting Japanese Consul, he denies most emphatically that he was guilty of the thing of which he was accused.

The case of Hideidi Komora, the Japanese who was arrested and held in the police station for nineteen days without any charge being made against him, and then set free, has been taken up by Acting Japanese Consul Matsubara, who has called the matter officially to the attention of the Governor. Mr. Matsubara writes that he has asked Sheriff Brown for details of the affair and that the letter of that official in response is not of a tenor altogether calculated to give satisfaction to the complainant. As the acting consul has no power to deal with minor officials, and no wish to do so, he has accordingly referred the case to the Governor to take such steps as he may see fit.

Governor Carter will institute an investigation on his own account.

LIGHTFOOT SAYS HE CAN PROVE VIDA'S BRUTALITY

"We have written a letter to the Japanese Consul, enclosing a copy of Yi Marn Young's affidavit, in the hope that the Consul will bring the thing to the attention of the Governor," said Attorney Joseph Lightfoot, of the firm of Magoon & Lightfoot, yesterday, speaking of the case of the Korean who has accused Assistant Sheriff Henry Vida of extorting a confession of crime from him by means of the "water cure."

The matter, moreover, is to be brought to the attention of the Washington government. And so it arises at once to the status of an international incident.

Judge Robinson yesterday refused to hear affidavit or argument, regarding alleged cruel treatment of Yi Marn Young while in custody, on the motion of Magoon & Lightfoot to reduce the Korean's bail. Owing to the defendant's poverty, however, the court reduced his bail from $1000 to $500. He is awaiting trial for assault with intent to commit murder, the charge specifying that he shot and wounded a fellow-countryman. In the affidavit rejected by the court, the Korean alleged that a confession was extorted from him by Henry Vida, assistant to the County Sheriff, by means of "the water cure," beating and starving, his ill-treatment as deflected extending over several days.

Vida is quoted as saying that the charges against him by the Korean are "absolutely without foundation," and that the man voluntarily confessed, after making various false statements, when confronted with another Korean to whom he had sold the gun wherewith the shooting was done.

MR. LIGHTFOOT'S STATEMENT.

"Judge Robinson held that the matter of the man's brutal treatment in jail was not material in an application for a reduction of bail," said Attorney Lightfoot, continuing his discussion of the case after the adjournment of court. "Therefore, no evidence was taken. Probably the ruling of the Circuit Judge is correct.

"Our one desire is to have a complete investigation made of the affair. We believe every word of the story told in the affidavit of the accused man to be true. If it be true, there ought to be the fullest investigation of it.

"The Attorney General's department did not see fit to deny the allegations that we made, although that department had the opportunity to do so. The department, indeed, appeared not to want to be bothered about it."

PLENTY OF PROOF.

"We have heard, in the past, a good many stories of cruelties practiced by the police, which could not be substantiated. These have been denied, and have come to nothing. We are now in possession of facts which we believe will satisfy any jury that the alleged confession of Yi Marn Young was wrung from him by the tortures that he has complained of.

"We have been accused of going into this thing for political reasons. The firm of Magoon & Lightfoot is not in politics. If we had been in politics, and if this had been a political move, we would certainly have filed this affidavit before the Republican Precinct Club elections were held. The Korean is without means. We have not received, nor do we expect to receive, any fee from him. We have adopted the course that we have followed solely from motives of humanity.

"I see that Mr. Vida denies that there was any brutality. Of course his denial will be taken for what it is worth. But we should like an opportunity of adducing the proofs in our possession. In this particular case, the brutes of the Police Department have not so carefully hidden their tracks, as it is their custom to do."

HOME RULERS NOMINATE NOTLEY

THE RESUMPTION.

At 1:30 p. m. D. Kalauokalani, Sr., moved that the convention go ahead. Notley took the chair and the meeting proceeded, the calling of the roll of delegates being next in order.

The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with on the ground that the convention was a new one and was entirely separate and apart from the former meeting.

AGAINST FUSION.

A letter of protest from Nuihi, N. Kohala, Hawaii, signed by 55 voters, was read. The kick was against the proposition to fuse with the democrats. It was referred to a committee consisting of D. Kalauokalani, Sr., and J. K. Kookoo.

Another protest, from Kalaupapa, Molokai, objecting to any fusion proposition, was read. The protest was addressed to C. L. Kookoo. The protest further stated that two-thirds of the Leper Settlement are Home Rulers.

Mahoe moved that the protest be returned to the writer because it was not addressed to the convention but to Kookoo personally.

Poepoe objected to the objection to the protest. He said it should not be rejected as Kookoo, to whom it was addressed, represented the people of the Settlement.

It was finally decided that the protest should be handed to the committee.

Poepoe introduced a resolution that the Home Rulers should not consent to fusion with the democrats or any other political party.

Kalauokalani moved that the resolution be turned over to a committee consisting of J. W. Kalua and C. L. Kookoo (Maui), D. Kalauokalani and J. D. Poepoe (Oahu) and two delegates from Kauai.

A motion by J. Kaumakole that the executive officers of the territorial convention be straightway elected, found no second.

A VOTE OF THANKS.

G. Poepoe proposed that the thanks of the convention be returned to the ladies, the real home rulers, who had prepared the luau for the delegates.

D. H. Kahauliello said that there should be no undue haste in returning thanks. It would be ample time to show gratitude when two or three luaus had been served. The motion of Poepoe was unanimously adopted.

THE PLATFORM.

The reading of the Home Rule platform was next proceeded with. It runs as follows:

1. That time is not ripe for the Hawaiians of this territory to affiliate with any political party other than the Home Rule party and will not be until Hawaii has become one of the states of the Union. Wherefore we favor statehood.

2. We favor county government inasmuch as it gives the Hawaiians some share in the government of the different counties of the islands.

3. We protest against the drawing of the color line in politics as un-American and misleading, but maintain that in the interests of the territory the delegate to Congress should be of the Hawaiian people.

4. We thank the Congress of the United States for bestowing on the Hawaiian people the privilege of franchise.

5. We favor the purity of the ballot, the operation of which must be above suspicion, which was not the case in the election of 1904.

6. We favor the introduction of American labor in the territory at the American scale of wages.

7. We are of the opinion that fines, costs of court, and all moneys collected for licenses by the county, should be devoted to the use of the county.

8. We favor the election of county assessors and tax collectors by ballot.

9. We favor increased taxation of both real and personal property exceeding the value of $2000 at the rate of 1-1/2 cents on the dollar.

J. W. Kalua moved that the platform be referred to a committee. The following committee was named: J. H. Kekoakulana, J. L. Ahia, C. L. Koo, D. H. Kahauliello, J. W. Kalua, J. M. Poepoe, J. Makinani, J. Kaumakole, S. Mahoe, J. Nakoookoo, Kahoukahi, J. W. Kalua was appointed chairman of the committee.

The platform was adopted and on the request of Chairman Kalua, J. M. Poepoe read the platform in Hawaiian. Kalua made a statement in favor of the platform which was loudly applauded, and in response to a request from certain delegates, Poepoe read the platform in English.

EVERYBODY SMOKES.

While the committee were wrestling with the platform Senator Kalauokalani suggested that the dignity of the convention would not suffer if everybody had a smoke. Most everybody took the Grand Old Man's hint and lit up.

A PRINTER'S ERROR.

S. K. Kanakookae of Waiehu, Maui, called attention to an article in the Hawaiian Advertiser (Nupepa Kookee) of July 27, 1906, which stated that Kalauokalani and Notley had turned democrats. He asked to be set right on this vital point.

President Notley, for himself and Kalauokalani, denied the soft impeachment and announced emphatically that they were Home Rulers, first, last and all the time.

NOTLEY WONT.

President Notley stated that on account of being compelled under the bad laws to live on a homestead on

KAUHI GETS THE PLACE

The Superintendent of Public Works has appointed George K. Kauhi poundmaster at Kalapana, Hawaii. That, of itself, is not much. And the office of poundmaster at Kalapana, Hawaii, is not an office of great distinction. Kalapana itself is a remote little settlement of the Puna coast, remarkable in the main for the things that it does not have, chief among these being mosquitoes. It is a native settlement, most primitive in its manner and customs, away from the world, and with little in it that animals astray might harm.

But Kauhi—well, Kauhi is deserving. Secretary Atkinson met the man, on the trail between the Volcano House and Kalapana, on his recent trip to Hawaii, and was led by the circumstances of that meeting and the personality of the present appointee to ask Kauhi if there was nothing that could be done for him. Kauhi said that he was making his living. He could always do that. But, he had once applied, a long time ago, for the place of poundmaster at Kalapana. He was a good Republican. If that place was still open, as he knew it was, it might ease his case somewhat. Anyway, it would be less hard than packing sweet potatoes over the rough trail to the Volcano House at fifty cents a day, which was the way he made his living.

Secretary Atkinson promised to see what could be done—and now he has seen. Kauhi gets the place. And, if you had seen the man, standing beside the mule train that he had himself unsaddled, although he has no hands, you would have done what you could for him, too.

Kauhi is not an ordinary man. He is a native of that school that fears God—and does not offend the kahunas. Wherefore is the wisdom of offending any god? Kauhi has lived long at Kalapana—or on the coast immediately along there. Of course he has fished. That is the occupation of many natives. Well, forty years ago Kauhi was in the prime of his youth. He is an old man now, as may well be believed, a strong, self-reliant old man, with stumps where his hands were. Forty years ago he was out in a canoe, fishing off Kalapana when the boat was attacked by a monster shark and upset.

The beast made for the men in the water, and Kauhi struck at it and it bit off his right hand. He struck with his left, and the fish bit that off. Then he kicked at it, and, after tearing the flesh on his leg horribly, it became frightened and ran away. Half dead from pain and loss of blood, the man made his way to shore, and after long sickness got well.

Since then he has lived by his own exertions. The office of poundmaster will only make his life easier. He did not complain because he did not get it at the first asking. He will perform its duties faithfully, now that he has it.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY IN INDIA.

Mrs. Sd. L. Hfcocks writing from Clure Road, Byculia, India, says: "I have used and still require a good many bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have found it invaluable as a cure as well as preventive of cholera. I have found it most successful and so far have never known it to fail if given early in the stages." For sale by all Dealers and Druggists, Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Agents for Hawaii.

The Iwawani and the W. G. Hall, which arrived on Sunday, were lying alongside the ship Atlas yesterday, discharging their sugar cargoes directly into the big vessel. Another Inter-Island steamer, the Helene, was tied up alongside the just-arrived American-Hawaiian S. S. Alaskan, in one hatch of which sugar was being stowed.

Hawaii for a certain period, he could not very well accept the nomination as delegate to Congress, were the honor offered him. If, however, another suitable man could not be found, he would sacrifice his interests for those of the Hawaiian people.

NOTLEY WILL.

Kaumakole moved that Charles Kahilani Notley be the Home Rule delegate to Congress. The motion was unanimously adopted and all present rose and joined in Hawaii's national anthem, "Hawaii Pono!" Three cheers and a thir were lustily given for Notley.

A MOONLIGHT MEETING.

On the motion of Judge Kalua it was decided that the convention should meet at Aiea Park in the evening and listen to the speeches of those who had say to make.

Thanks were again returned to the luau ladies and a glass club, stationed on the platform immediately behind President Notley, obliged with a selection.

TAKING THE OATH.

It was decided on the motion of Poepoe that the delegate to Congress and all the delegates present be put under oath to support the platform of the party. The oath was administered by D. Kalauokalani, Sr., administered the oath to Notley and the delegates.
