IS DOOMED TO A SLOW DEATH

A Massachusetts paper has the following about Rev. John E. Dodge. Mr. Dodge was a missionary on Maui in the employ of the Hawaiian Board. His son, the Rev. Rowland B. Dodge, is now at Wailuku in general charge of work at that important station for the Hawaiian Board; Rev. John E. Dodge, founder and first pastor of the Adams-square Congregational church, one of the best known ministers in Worcester county can live but a few months. This was the sad intelligence that reached The Telegram last night from the hospital in Somerville where Rev. Mr. Dodge was operated on yesterday. It was found that he had cancer of the stomach and bowels and his case is declared incurable. The physicians announced that any attempt to remove the cancer by a surgical operation would mean instant death. All they could do, they said, was to leave him to his fate.

The exact nature of his trouble was a great surprise to his friends and to Mr. Dodge himself, who had up to this time been unable to definitely locate the seat of his disease.

Mr. Dodge only recently returned from Hawaii where he passed a year in quest of health, but finding that he did not gain as rapidly as he desired, he decided to return to this country. It was noticed that upon his arrival in Worcester he was greatly fatigued, but little was thought of this by his friends, most of them attributing it to the long journey.

Soon after coming home he stopped for awhile with his son, John Harold Dodge, who lives with his father-in-law, Prof. J. E. Sinclair, at 4 Northern avenue, but feeling restive, Mr. Dodge began to travel about, visiting friends in Westboro, and later going to West Boylston, where for some time he has been the guest of his brother, Rev. George S. Dodge. But all the while he had been falling. Mr. Dodge decided to go to Somerville last week to visit his sister, Mrs. L. L. Hawes, and it was while there that he had a severe attack of sickness, and it was found necessary to call in a physician, who in turn called in another doctor. They had a conference and decided that it would be necessary for him to go to the hospital to be operated upon, in order to save his life.

The operation took place yesterday forenoon, and was undertaken for intestinal trouble, but it was discovered in the course of the operation that he was afflicted with a large cancer in his stomach and bowels, any interference with which would be fatal. It was said to be one of the largest cancerous growths that the physicians had seen in a long time. The only hope they can give him is that he is to make himself as comfortable as possible and await the end.

His brother, Rev. George S. Dodge, West Boylston, said that when he left the hospital in Somerville yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock Mr. Dodge was just coming out from the influence of the anesthetic and the doctors thought he would recover the shock within a reasonable time. His son is now with him at the hospital and his brother from West Boylston expects to go to his bedside again today or tomorrow. His brother is of the opinion that the cancer has been of long growth and has been so deep-seated in the system as not to be suspected. Under the circumstances, he says, it can be readily seen why the climate of Hawaii did not improve his health.

There have been a great many inquiries in regard to his health ever since his return and there was much disappointment recently when he was unable to appear at the celebration of the 10th anniversary of the church, at which it was expected he would make an address.

Mr. Dodge is fifty-seven years old and has had pastorates in Paxton, Sterling, Lake View and at the Adams-square church. His wife died about seven years ago. Mr. Dodge has received great praise for the work he accomplished in starting the Adams-square church, and by all the parishioners of that society his name is greatly revered. The committee had several meetings, and in May, 1897, requested Mr. Dodge to make a neighborhood canvass and learn how many were interested in the work and would become members of the church. The canvass was so successful that Rev. Mr. Dodge was instructed to get rooms for services and to raise $500 for the furnishings. This was done, and in the following November Mr. Dodge was engaged for six months to take charge of the work. Mr. Dodge resigned as pastor in January, 1901.

RAILROADS WANT TIES FROM MANY LANDS

Manila Times—That the American railway interests are looking to the Philippines to supply them with hardwood ties and hardwood lumber for their vast development projects planned throughout the country, is evidenced by the visit to Manila yesterday, on the Kumano Maru, of E. O. Faulkner, of Topeka, Kansas, manager of the tie and timber department of the Santa Fe railway system. Mr. Faulkner is on a buying trip for his company, being under orders to go to Hawaii, Japan, the Philippines, and Australia, to seek an available supply of hardwoods, owing to the increasing scarcity of this product in the United States.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT ASKS ABOUT ADVERTISER

Just what is going to happen to the Advertiser is not known, but the French Consul has been instructed by his Government to find out all about it as respects ownership, politics, attitude towards France and various other things. The Consul came around with a blank, the other day, which was filled out and in due time the unexplained curiosity of the French government will be satisfied. Mr. Marques, the French representative here, hasn't the slightest idea what it is all about.

MRS. SPALDING'S HEALTH.

"Col. Z. S. Spalding received a cable message last Monday announcing that his wife had suffered a stroke of paralysis," said F. W. Macfarlane yesterday morning. "And this morning he received another message saying that she was sinking rapidly. She has been living in Los Angeles and of late had been very much improved in health." Col. Spalding called by the Alameda in response to these cablegrams.
