Miss Dunlop, daughter of the late Bishop Dunlop of Arizona, a missionary to Honolulu, is spending her vacation in Long Beach and yesterday gave a very interesting talk to the ladies of St. Andrew's class of St. Luke's Episcopal church, on her work and surroundings in Honolulu. Miss Dunlop's mother and sister are with her here—Santa Cruz Sentinel.

H. N. ALMY AND MRS. BAILEY WED

Henry N. Almy, United States Shipping Commissioner, and Mrs. Bailey, proprietor of the Art Theater, were married at noon Wednesday at the Knutsford Hotel, corner of Beretania and Union streets, Rev. Henry Parker, of Kawaiahao church, officiating.

The news of the wedding was surprise to even the intimate friends of the bride and groom. Only a few were present. The honeymoon will be spent in town, as both bride and groom have business interests which require their present attention.

Mrs. Bailey came here about two years ago from Santa Cruz and built the Art Theater, her partner being Mr. Lawson, who is still connected with the theater and the construction of the new vaudeville amusement house adjoining. Mr. Almy has been a resident of Honolulu for many years and has occupied his present federal position for the past three or four years. He is a Chieftain.

sion demands. In October of 1907, his aged wife obtained a divorce from him. The court, in granting the divorce, ordered Paalubi to pay her alimony in the amount of $25 a month. Paalubi pleaded poverty at that time, claiming that he was a poor man and owned little or nothing. The wife died a few days later. This week Paalubi came into court and qualified as being worth more than $10,000.

Secretary Wood submitted the following report:

Secretary's Report.

Honolulu, Aug. 26, 1909.

Chairman and Members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee.

Gentlemen: We have just concluded mailing copies of our folders to all of the parties throughout the Old World to whom we purpose sending copies of the 1910 Floral Parade Poster. A letter from Mr. Harry Mist, dated August 2, acknowledges receipt of package of signed letters and addressed envelopes which we forwarded to him to be sent out with the mailing tubes containing posters, when he is fully ready, which he expects to be by the end of this month.

Mr. Mist writes, "I am doing all the drawing on the lithographic stones at the publishing house myself and there are six stones to make. It takes me from one to two days to finish a stone. As soon as a proof has been made of the poster, will begin at once on the post cards and stickers."

We are now preparing for mailing copies of our latest folders to the eight hundred odd addresses throughout the United States and Canada to which copies of the Floral Parade Poster will be sent by our agent at San Francisco, Mr. Scott, upon receipt of the same from Mr. Mist. Special letters in addressed and stamped envelopes were forwarded to Mr. Scott by the Manchuria to be sent out by him when he mails the posters. I believe we have arranged for some very effective advertising along these lines, advertising that should secure early and good results.

Mr. J. A. McCandless, who has always taken a keen interest in promotion work, writes under date of August 12, from Ellensburg, Washington, that he had visited the Hawaii Building a number of times and said it gave him pleasure to state that Mr. Childs, Mr. Cooper and the young ladies were doing splendid work for Hawaii.

A prominent grower of pineapples in Florida writes that "The pineapple business in Florida being in danger of becoming abandoned, I want to know something of Hawaii as a possible future residence and what the chances are of continuing pineapple growing there, asking for all information available."

From a friend traveling in Switzerland, who subscribes herself a member of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, we are in receipt of a large number of addresses of prominent people throughout Europe who are likely to come this way and to whom we are asked to send our printed matter.

I am pleased to be able to report that our folders may now be had at Brentano's, Fifth avenue and 27th street, New York, also at their Washington, D. C., house and their European establishments as well.

The following extracts from a letter just received from our agent at Los Angeles, Mrs. Headlee, are of general interest:

"I now have six of the separate lectures arranged as follows:

Monday—"Hawaii, Old and New."

Tuesday—"Honolulu and Oahu by Automobile."

Wednesday—"Hawaii, Its Resources and Opportunities."

Thursday—"The Volcanoes of Hawaii."

Friday—"Touring the Hawaiian Islands."

Saturday—"Life in Hawaii."

I am very much pleased with the appreciation shown.

I am so hopeful of results for this season's work. I shall make a special effort with the public school teachers this winter and have already asked a place on the program of the Teacher's Institute to be held here during the holidays. I am planning to fill the assembly hall every day if persistent effort will do it. We have had good audiences all the time thus far.

I find from the local office of the Pacific Coast S. S. Company that negotiations are still under way for Salt Lake Elks excursion but that the difficulty lies in securing sufficient cash guarantee."

The excursion outlook seems to be brightening right along.

Mrs. C. R. Hamlin writes from Santa Barbara, Cal., under date of August 9, as follows:

"I am preparing to take a party of California and Pacific coast people to the islands early in January. If this trip is successful, I intend to take several parties each year.

I was advised to write to the Peck-Judah Company of San Francisco for rates of hotels, cost of touring the islands, trip to Hilo and Kilauea, etc., and they referred me to you.

If you will advise me as soon as possible what rates I can make at the best hotel (we expect to be there about seven days) what it will cost to take all the trips by automobile and trolley, the tour to Hilo and the volcano, I shall appreciate it. If there are other trips of note please tell me about them. I hope this will not give you too much trouble but if it is out of your line will you be kind enough to ask the proper persons to send me their rates?"

I hope to have fifty in each party; I shall not take fewer than twenty-five. If you will send me literature on the islands I shall be under great obligations to you."

It is needless to say that a full line of our advertising matter will at once be sent to Mrs. Hamlin.

The following letter from Mr. Franklin Matthews, the New York Sun's brilliant editorial writer and general correspondent, is of decided interest:

New York, Aug. 13, 1909.

My Dear Mr. Wood: Your recent contributions, very handsome indeed, to my peace of mind and, I hope, to our mutual advantage, in the way of more photographs of Hawaiian scenes have arrived in due time and I am simply delighted. They are exactly what I wanted and I am most grateful. Depend upon it, Hawaii is getting a powerful boost as I can give it every time I speak. I always advise those in my audiences to try to go there. I declare it the Dreamland of the universe and the grandest looting spot in the world. I run over its charms and I'll venture to say that your little paradise never had a more earnest booster than I am; it may have had a better one, but none more glad to do this work of love.

I am sure that after my work of next winter you'll hear from my talks. Again I express my deep obligation to you. I hope we'll meet again some day.

Cordially yours,

(Sig.) FRANKLIN MATTHEWS.

Respectfully submitted, H. P. WOOD, Secretary.

PERSONALS.

(From Wednesday's Advertiser.) Thomas McTigue writes that he will take passage to the Alameda leaving San Francisco for Honolulu on Saturday next.

Walter F. Drake, Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of Hawaii, left on the Mauna Kea yesterday for Hawaii on business.

Rear Admiral Hoidgday, U.S.N., is coming on the same boat as the Congressional party, to renew his inspection of the Pearl Harbor works.

Senator C. H. Dickey and his son Lyle Dickey leave next week on a world tour. They will take in the Seattle Fair first of all and then cross the continent, stopping for brief visits en route. They will pass through Europe, Suez Canal, India, China and Japan.

The postponement of the wedding of Miss Nora Broderick and Edward Cudahy, which was to have been a pretentious affair at the Catholic church at San Mateo last Saturday, has caused much gossip in San Francisco society as to the possibility of the engagement having been broken. Miss Broderick once lived in Honolulu. The bridegroom-to-be is the Cudahy who was kidnaped several years ago by Pat Crowe.

Town Talk—Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brodie of Detroit who have been visiting California, left for Honolulu during the week for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Brodie was formerly Miss Ann Tallant, daughter of the late well known banker, D. J. Tallant. Her first husband was Austin C. Tubbs who died several years ago. She married Dr. Brodie last year in Washington, D. C. I am told Mrs. Brodie dislikes Detroit where Dr. Brodie is one of the leading and most prominent physicians; she longs for her old California home and friends and is trying to persuade Dr. Brodie to take up his residence here.

(From Thursday's Advertiser.)

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bierbach died yesterday morning.

Eight motor cars were registered Tuesday. On the first of the month, the new ordinance will go into effect and the registration fee will become $5. Thus there was a rush on the part of owners of new cars wishing to get in on the $1 rate.

Senator E. Quinn, who has been spending a vacation on the Coast, is reported to be on his way back to Hawaii, and is thought to be on the steamer with the Congressional party. If he is, they will know a few things about the islands before they get here.

Demurrers were filed yesterday on behalf of John P. Colburn and Jonah Kalaniannalo to the complaint in the suit of George H. Smith, trustee of Stella Keomailani Cockett and Stella C. Cockett, beneficiary, versus John P. Colburn, executor of the estate of David Kawannanuk and Jonah Kalaniannalo.

Charles A. Reynolds was thrown from his delivery wagon yesterday and sustained a fracture of the collar bone as well as some minor injuries. As he climbed into his wagon, the reins became entangled in the wheels, and the starting of the horse sent him head first to the ground. He was taken to the Queen's Hospital for treatment. It is not believed that his injuries will prove dangerous.

Willie Vida has taken out a hackman's license. Vida called at the police station Tuesday, and secured the necessary permit, and will soon embark on his new enterprise. Vida's little game was broken up by an Advertiser reporter some two weeks ago, and since that time the police have been entirely too vigilant to make it healthy to tempt the Goddess Fortune, particularly in the role of a professional gambler.

L. Withington came in on the Claudine yesterday morning.

W. D. Alexander was an incoming passenger on the Claudine.

Miss Alice E. Mudge is at the Queen's Hospital, rapidly recovering from an operation.

H. A. Broderick, Ruth Broderick and Nora Broderick were incoming passengers on the Claudine yesterday.

L. Withington and E. B. Withington were among those who arrived on the Claudine yesterday morning.

Judge Robinson yesterday granted a divorce to Yukino Suwa from Kabe, Suwa on the grounds of desertion and non-support.

Judge Parsons and his clerk started from Hilo on Monday, August 23, on their way to Honolulu, Hamakua, on the way the August term of the fourth circuit, which opened on the 18th, but adjourned over for one week. There is only one civil case for trial, one divorce case, and some naturalization business.

Judge Andrade stopped a runaway yesterday afternoon. A horse, hitched to a wagon of the Honolulu Iron Works, took the bit in its teeth and dashed up King street. The driver tugged at the reins but could not stop the frightened animal. In front of the Union Grill, Judge Andrade jumped out and, catching hold of the bridle, brought the horse to a standstill.

Work at the dispensary is considerably heavier just now than is usual at this time of the year, and the City and County Physician is finding his hands full. The dispensary is open for the treatment of the indigent sick from 1:30 to 3:30 o'clock every afternoon, and between the hours of 9 to 10 on Saturday. Medicines are issued to those who can not afford to pay for them, and medical advice is given free of charge.

What I wanted and I am most grateful. Depend upon it, Hawaii is getting a powerful boost as I can give it every time I speak. I always advise those in my audiences to try to go there. I declare it the Dreamland of the universe and the grandest looting spot in the world. I run over its charms and I'll venture to say that your little paradise never had a more earnest booster than I am; it may have had a better one, but none more glad to do this work of love.

I am sure that after my work of next winter you'll hear from my talks. Again I express my deep obligation to you. I hope we'll meet again some day.

Cordially yours,

(Sig.) FRANKLIN MATTHEWS.
