PINEAPPLES AND MOVING PICTURES. H. P. Wood Doing Good Work Along the Boardwalk—Juice Makes Hit by Itself.

Hawaii is the one big name along the Atlantic City Boardwalk this summer. Secretary Wood of the promotion committee, who is in charge of the Hawaii bureau there, has made good, and the Hawaiian products are selling like hot cakes.

Secretary Wood has also cabled to Assistant Secretary Cooper to duplicate the original order for Hawaiian articles, including fans and curios of all kinds.

Nearly a hundred league members thoroughly enjoyed a fascinating display of moving pictures showing many curious features of life in the Pacific islands, interestingly explained by Secretary Wood, and made doubly enjoyable by intermissions with music by the quintet of musicians and soloists brought to this city for the Hawaii exhibit on the Boardwalk.

John Peterson, leader of the Hawaii quintet, suggested that the business men should send a delegation of its members to Hawaii to study the sport, acquire a supply of the riding boards,

SUPERVISOR SAYS BRIBE WAS OFFERED

(Continued from Page One.) lan had hinted at graft at recent meetings of the board and he had asked to be taken into confidence if there was any suspicion of such. He stated that he would endeavor to have a meeting of the board called at once to investigate.

Gilman Makes Frank Statement. J. A. Gilman had by that time been convinced of the necessity for publicly denying the report and make a complete statement of the status of the contract and the work done in connection with it, denying in toto any attempt to bribe anyone.

Statement of J. A. Gilman. "I have seen the statement in the Star that Supervisor Aylett states that he was offered $1600 for his vote in support of the bitulithic pavement contract," said J. A. Gilman in a formal statement made yesterday afternoon.

"Several weeks ago Supervisor Cox told me that Supervisor Ahia had told him, Cox, that he had been offered $1600 to vote for the bitulithic pavement contract. I met Supervisor Ahia immediately afterwards, on the sidewalk in front of the supervisors' building and asked him if he had made such a statement to Supervisor Cox. The only reply that Mr. Ahia made to me was 'I think too many people talk loud with their mouths.'

"I asked him again what authority he had for making the statement and he again gave me the same kind of an answer. "I then said to him, 'Mr. Ahia, I want you to distinctly understand that there has been no such offer made and that I have authorized nobody to make any offer of money for a vote on this contract and I never will do so and that I am the only one that has anything to say about this pavement.'

"The statement was so utterly preposterous that such sum or any other sum should be offered for a vote in favor of the contract that the thought never entered my mind to pay any more attention to it. "I want to say in the most positive terms that so far as I or the bitulithic company are concerned, there is absolutely no foundation for any statement that any money has been offered to either Supervisor Aylett or Ahia, either directly or indirectly, to affect their vote upon this subject.

"I am in a position to speak positively for I alone am in a position to take any action concerning the bitulithic contract here. "The status of the matter is as follows: "Some time since I heard such strong statements made in support of the bitulithic form of pavement that I concluded it would be a good thing for Honolulu. Being in the States on other business, I visited the controlling owners of the pavement and made an arrangement with them by which I am the sole representative and the only one having authority in connection with bitulithic pavement in this Territory.

"Returning to Honolulu I organized a company to establish a bitulithic pavement plant in Honolulu, the stockholders of which are as follows: J. A. Gilman, president and manager; J. P. Cooke, vice-president; Harold G. Bishop, secretary; John Waterhouse, treasurer, and W. B. Warren, director.

"The other stockholders are: E. F. Bishop, F. J. Lowrey, Robert Shingle, A. M. Brown, Walter Dillingham and R. J. Graham. There are no other stockholders. "All the corporation papers are completed but they have not yet been filed, awaiting to see if there is any business to be done here. "No money has been paid or promised to be paid to any of the supervisors or any other person whatsoever to influence the obtaining of an appropriation for bitulithic pavement or a contract to install bitulithic pavement here.

"I want to make this statement as positive and broad as it is possible to express in words. "I understand that Messrs. Aylett and Ahia say that they were offered $1600 apiece by W. H. Crawford. "I have not only not authorized Crawford to make any such offer but have had no negotiations whatsoever with him to secure his assistance, directly or indirectly, in any way whatsoever in behalf of this contract. "I do not know what he may have said or done, but nothing that he has said or done has been with any authority of myself."

Many Contradictions. Others who had been mentioned in connection with the affair were then hunted up, with the following results: Willie Scorns Story. Crawford denied that he ever discussed the matter of the bitulithic contract with Aylett at all. As to Ahia, he denied ever having offered any money or intimated that any money could be got. "The only conversation I had with Ahia on the subject was at the fish-market one afternoon," said Crawford. "We talked loud, in the presence of a number of witnesses who could hear what we said. "I asked Ahia if he was going to run for supervisor again, and I told him that if he wanted another term, there was a chance for him to make a hit with the merchants of Honolulu by voting in favor of the bitulithic contract for Fort street. His reply was that there was no money in the county treasury to do the work. "This is all the conversation I had with Ahia, and the only conversation I had with him. As for Aylett, I have never discussed the bitulithic paving contract with him at any time or place whatsoever."

Crawford was asked if he had been working for the bitulithic contract, and said that with the exception of his remark to Ahia, he had not supported it. Crawford denied that he had ever been asked by Brown, or anyone else, to work for the bitulithic contract. "Where am I to get the sixteen hundred dollars?" said Crawford.

ARMY OFFICERS DO NECESSARY MARATHON. Lieutenant-Commander Houston, U. S. N., and Doctor Lane, surgeon, U. S. N., on Saturday completed their fifty-mile walk, complying with the official requirement of an annual double marathon. They made the trip into the country, being examined at ten o'clock Thursday morning, after which they started. The regulation gives all officers the privilege of making the fifty-mile walk in three days, the half-cent to be divided into three parts.

haven't it and didn't have it, and if I had wouldn't be offering it to any supervisors. I would go to San Francisco and see the prize fight."

Brown Detailed Crawford. A. M. Brown in answer to a question said that he did not know where the reports of the $1600 offer came from. He had talked with supervisors with whom he was acquainted, in support of the paving contract, and they had readily agreed that it was a good thing. Brown said he was not particularly acquainted with Ahia, and had told Crawford to speak to him about it. Crawford knew Ahia and might be able to influence him. But any story of an offer of $1600 or any other sum, was, said Brown, an invention.

Crawford mentioned M. C. Amann as one who was within hearing when he had his conversation with Ahia at the fishmarket. Amann was seen, but said he did not recollect anything about it. According to Crawford there were many other Hawaiians present who heard what was said.

Milvorton Wants to Know. Deputy County Attorney Milvorton was very anxious to find out where the reports of attempted bribery started. He was present when The Advertiser representative questioned Crawford, and he asked questions of his own. "I have tried very hard," said Milvorton, "to find out where these rumors started and who is responsible for them." Milvorton intimated that the authorship of the rumors might possibly explain them, as a backhanded opposition to the paving contract.

Ahia Denies Everything. Later, Supervisor Ahia denied that he had been offered any sort of a bribe for a vote for the paving ordinance. He turned down the whole story of attempted bribery, declared himself in favor of the paving ordinance anyhow and said that he had not heard any sixteen-hundred-dollar proposition, or any other proposition, to influence his vote.

"I am in favor of the paving ordinance anyhow," said Ahia, "and have been all along, except that there is not enough money in the county treasury to carry out the proposed contract."

"The statement has been made that Willie Crawford told you that you could get $1600 by voting for the paving ordinance," Mr. Ahia was told. Ahia repeated an emphatic denial. He declared that at no time had Crawford or anyone else ever offered him anything for a vote.

Ahia was asked if he could explain how the $1600 rumor started, and said he could not account for it. None of the discussions he had had with anybody interested had developed any intimations of money being put up. "If any such proposition had been made to me," said Ahia, "I should have stated that I was not on the board for that kind of business. If the paving contract is a good proposition and can be carried out, I am for it. All I have said in answer to those I have talked with, just as I have said publicly at the board meetings, is that we have not enough money to do the work.

"I had a discussion with Mr. Gilman in his office. I agreed that the paving contract was a good one, but could not see that the county treasury could handle it. Never at any time during the discussion did Mr. Gilman drop any hint as to $1600 or any other sum. There is absolutely no truth in any reports of efforts to offer me any money."

Ahia is one of those on record as opposed to the paving contract. He declared, however, that he believed it a good proposition, and said he would have supported it but for the fact that he thought the city and county had not enough money available.

Aylett Fears Label Suit. In view of Crawford's contradiction and the denial on Ahia's part that he knew anything about the matter, Aylett was again interviewed last night. This time he was not so outspoken and would not allow Crawford to be named as the one who knew where sixteen hundred dollars could be found. He appeared amazed at Ahia's lapse of memory but made no comment. He again repeated his story of the attempt to buy his vote, but declined absolutely to say who had tried to do the buying. As a reason for not giving the name, he said that there were no witnesses, and he might be personally used for libel.

The Advertiser representative suggested to him that if he would give the name of the party who made the offer, the Advertiser would take all chances of any damages for libel resulting from publishing it, but Aylett said he wanted to consult his attorney first.

"I told the young man," said Aylett, "that my vote was not to be purchased either for sixteen hundred dollars or a million dollars." Mr. Aylett was asked again what was his objection to telling who had made the offer. "I had no witnesses, and it would be my word against his and I might be sued for libel if I gave his name," was the reply.

Aylett then gave as a further reason for not telling about who made the alleged offer to bribe him that the scandal affected many prominent citizens. It was pointed out to him that the scandal, as far as there was one, had already had full effect, and that the best way to clear all that might be connected with it was to name the "young man" who had offered a bribe. "It would be his word against mine," insisted the supervisor.

Aylett chined in with Ahia's remark that the paving contract was a good one, but said there was not money enough available for it.

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition of affairs which doctors are nearly unanimous in holding to be purely understood. It is simply weakness—a break-down, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be the cause (for these are almost numberless), its symptoms are such as the name implies: being sleepless, loss of concentration, nervousness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. None, who are in any way constitutionally weak, should neglect to take this.

ARRESTED, BECAUSE WOULDN'T TELL AGE.

PORTLAND, Oregon, June 7.—As an aftermath of the federal census, comes the arrest of a woman who refused to tell her age. Mabel Lake, a resident of Hood River county, declined to confide in the enumerator, even after flattery, cajolery and all the persuasion at his command had been brought into play to extract the desired information. The woman's failure to comply with the regulations of the "round up" of American citizens brought about her arrest. She will be held before the federal court.
