

JILTED, HE KIDNAPS THE GIRL ORIENT AND OCCIDENT CLASH

Western Love Making Idea Too Much for Eastern Editor.

He Steals His Lady and Now Languishes in City's Jail,

Kidnaped by two well known Koreans, one an editor of a Korean paper, and the other his assistant, Miss Mary Lim, a Kawaiabao Seminary girl disappeared early Saturday evening. All day yesterday the detective staff of the local police force searched for her. She was finally discovered at three o'clock yesterday morning by John Woo, Korean interpreter and detective on the special staff.

Now in jail, facing charges of kidnaping, preferred against them yesterday by Chief McDuffie, Seung Sung Chin, the editor and Kim Sung Yuen, his assistant, are being held in one thousand dollar bonds each. Once more in the care of her friends Miss Lim is preparing to continue her way to Korea for which purpose she arrived Saturday morning from her father's home on Hawaii.

The arrest yesterday morning terminated a weird oriental replica of the sad, sad masterpiece of the lady novelist, an accidental romance written in all the conventional distortion of the Orient. Even to officers, long accustomed to the vagaries of Korean cases, the facts of this one added new ones to their long collection as one by one they came to light in the examination of witnesses last night.

He Falls in Love.
Miss Mary Lim was a student in the Kawaiabao Seminary of good standing, a respected and well-liked pupil taking to the culture and manners of the Occident with the facility and ease of most oriental girls, Seung Sung Chin, a fellow countryman, influential with certain factions of the Koreans in the Territory became a suitor for her hand, pressing his suit according to the recognized tenets of his own country and eventually obtaining the assent of her parents to the match.

Keeps His Compact.
Seung did the honors to the last turn of the wheel. No attention usually bestowed upon a fiancée was omitted by him and he sent her gifts, "took her out" and other wise paid his court adeptly in a fashion made familiar only by the influence of la belle passion which is served the same a la orientals as a la Parisian.

England Sends China Warning.

TELEGRAPHIC, China, September 1.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Consternation has been caused in the government circles at Peking in consequence of the attitude of Great Britain regarding Tibet. The line taken is regarded as a prelude to the partition of the country. The Chinese expeditionary force has been ordered to suspend operations pending instructions.

Teddy Replies to His Foes.

WASHINGTON, September 1.—(Special to The Advertiser)—That the United States will not oppose the action of Great Britain in forwarding a note to the Chinese government demanding that the British government be consulted in regard to any action contemplated in Tibet became known here today. While Great Britain concedes Chinese suzerainty in Tibet it takes the position that its own interests there must be cared for by any action taken by the Peking government in that country.

Want Duke as County Clerk Democrats Boosting For Him

Everybody knows that Duke Kabanamoku III is the champion swimmer of the world—in salt water, or even a tank—and he's on his way to Honolulu, back to his childhood beach and eke it's surfboards.

But there is a surprise in store for him: He will probably be asked to enter another race, even more strenuous than the Olympic one at Stockholm, where he only had to swim a short distance in short time. Here he will be asked to buck some champion politicians and in spite of his swiftness in the salt sea he may be swamped in the political ocean.

The fact of the matter is that Duke, who should be acclaimed by all parties and factions in Hawaii as a champion, is now being claimed exclusively by the Democrats as the champion candidate for county clerk.

This news is not supposed to be made public as yet, consequently anybody who reads this please keep it confidential. But the little hui of Democratic lunas who desire to gobble up the inheritance of the good Republicans of this prosperous city, have their eyes on the office of the county clerk. This is a stronghold which has long been held against all comers by David Kalanika-lani, Jr., and it will take some shouting to shake his props.

"Only a champion can do it," remarked one of the members of the county central committee, last Saturday evening, "and Duke's the boy that can win a race for the job."

Just how the leak from headquarters got loose is still a secret, but Saturday evening all along the half block, from Fort street up on King to Cunha's alley, which is known as the political roost, there was discussion in confidential whispers of what would happen when Duke and Dave took horns in the struggle for jobs when the "Champeen" is nominated by the Democrats to "break the solid phalanx."

"There'll be something doing, sure!"

NEW YORK, Special Cable from London, September 1.—(Special to The Advertiser)—With the exception of the hardy and still loyal Ghoukha and Pathan soldiers, all the Indian regiments of England are to be disbanded, and their places taken by troops to be sent from the homeland. England has decided to adopt a recommendation made by Lord Kitchener, when commander-in-chief of the army in India. General Baden-Powell is to be recalled to active service according to a high official of the Indian office, and given the command of India, with authority to quell the threatened Islamic revolution with stern measures.

Sir Edward Grey admits the seriousness of the situation, but he says with the disarming of the disloyal Sepoys there will be no danger of another Indian mutiny.

G.O.P. IN VERMONT BETTER, THANKS

Leaders in Green Mountain State Declare That the Skies Are Brighter.

RUTLAND, Vermont, September 1.—(Special to The Advertiser)—It is generally admitted in this State, even by the adherents of the Bull Moose party that the Republican skies have brightened to a degree within the last few days of the three-cornered National and five-cornered State campaign which will come to a close at the polls next Tuesday. Although the Democrats have put forward an unusually strong candidate for governor in the person of Harold A. Howe, the feeling is plainly evident that the election will show a nearly normal Vermont majority for President Taft and also a satisfactory plurality for Allen M. Fletcher whom the Republicans have put up for governor.

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, September 1.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Assurance that immediate action will be taken to protect the foreign residents of Cananea, Sonora, was given to Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson who, acting under instructions from the state department at Washington, protested against the withdrawal of troops.

Rebels under command of Masarolos and other leaders have drawn close and have sent a message that they soon will take possession of the rich mining camps.

HUGH E. MCINTYRE CRITICALLY ILL

Stricken With Paralysis Last Saturday Morning—Now Resting Easier.

Lying in a critical condition in his beautiful home at 1030 South Beretania street, Hugh E. McIntyre, president of Henry May & Co., Ltd., is suffering from a stroke of paralysis, and while there is some hope for his recovery, his age helps to make the chances against his ever recovering his health.

Late last evening Dr. George F. Straub, Mr. McIntyre's family physician, who is attending him, stated that his patient was resting easily, although in a critical condition.

Mr. McIntyre was taken with the stroke early Saturday morning. For something over a year he has been in failing health and Friday evening was taken with a choking spell which greatly exhausted him. He rested easier that night, but was seized with the attack of paralysis the next morning.

Mr. McIntyre was born in Tahiti, Society Islands, in 1844, and consequently is now seventy-eight years old. When still a small child he was taken by his parents to San Francisco, but came to be a resident of these Islands ever since, known and respected throughout the Territory.

While still a young man he entered the employ of Allen and Company and was with them for several years. Later he engaged with his father in the grocery business. In 1867 he started the firm of H. E. McIntyre and Brother, with a store at Fort and King streets, general dealers in groceries, provisions and feed. But his brother went to the mainland and Mr. McIntyre kept up the business by himself under the old name.

In 1902 Mr. McIntyre was elected president of Henry May & Co., Ltd., which position he has held ever since. Until within a short time he has taken an active interest in the business of the company.
