

AD CLUB RECEIVES REPORT ON FINANCES FROM CITY AUDITOR

Detailed Account of Condition of Municipal Treasury Prepared Under Direction of Mayor

HOW FUNDS ARE FOUND AND DISBURSED SHOWN

Fixed Charges Established by Legislative Enactment Appear To Be Greatest Drawback

A detailed description of the condition of city finances has been prepared by Auditor James Bicknell, in response to question from citizens who are trying to find out what is the matter with Honolulu's municipal finances.

On receipt of the letter Mayor Lane conferred with the auditor and the result was a lengthy statement which shows the city administration's position in connection with the present much criticized financial situation.

Seven Funds in Operation In response to the inquiry as to how Honolulu funds are collected and disbursed the auditor's statement, which the mayor will transmit, says that there are seven funds under which the city operates.

The general fund is the flexible fund. Its purpose is to meet the general expenses of the city and county.

The road tax fund, it is explained is a fund that can be used only on roads. The permanent improvement fund, derived from taxes on real estate, is a permanent fund.

Income and Disbursements Replying to a question in Mr. Farrington's letter as to what was the total income of the city and county of Honolulu during the year of 1915,

General fund $694,293.26 Road tax fund 91,017.37 Permanent Improvement fund 157,099.46 Special School fund 63,175.00 Waterworks fund 189,079.69 Sewerworks fund 30,251.25 Game Bird fund 640.00

Against this income there are fixed charges, established by legislative enactments, of $91,017 for roads, $157,099.47 for permanent improvements, $46,175 for schools and $640 for operation of game birds, leaving $994,293.26 to cover the current expenses of the government and assist the road tax fund in maintenance and upkeep of the roads.

The charges fixed by the legislature and applying against the general fund amount to $108,580, of which $70,680 is for salaries in the city departments and the circuit court. In the cash books fund, it is stated, the sum of $108,783.20 had accumulated by January 1, 1916.

HAWAII JAPANESE SHOULD NOT THINK OF GOING TO CUBA

Government Investigator Says United States Is Rapidly Attaining Industrial Supremacy

AKIUCHI UCHIDA, former chief of the civil administration of the Hawaiian Islands, passed through Honolulu last Friday in the Tenryo Maru, on his return to Japan. Mr. Uchida is a well known expert in industrial fields and lately made a tour of inspection through the United States, Cuba, Peru and Chile.

In the eastern section of the United States he was astonished in witnessing the remarkable progress and advancement made in the manufacturing industry," he said when interviewed during his short stay in Honolulu.

"America is fast taking the place of Germany and England in the industrial field and can manufacture almost anything Germany ever turned out. Science is now so well and practically applied in the manufacturing industries in the United States that it is truly marvelous to witness the extent already attained by human ingenuity."

"The soil in Cuba is so fertile that only in places it is necessary to use a little fertilizer in order to help the crops. It was told that some sugar plantations secure good crops without using fertilizer for stretches of twenty to thirty years."

"Not only is the country blessed with a natural fertility, but irrigation of the year round is very feasible and cheap. I found the sugar mills in Cuba very modern. With labor costing less there than almost anywhere else, the planters are reaping large profits."

"I found only sixty Japanese laborers on the Cuban plantations and they are all looked upon as sober, honest, faithful and industrious by their employers. I have wondered why Japan has not concluded a treaty of commerce with Cuba, and going to Cuba would be to begin all over again."

"One thing I noticed particularly in Cuba was the high cost of living. I stayed at a small hotel in Havana and was charged as much as I paid at a first-class hotel in the Eastern States."

LIHUE MAKES SURVEY FOR HOMESTEAD ROAD But Materials Are Too Expensive For Immediate Building

Hans Isenberg, president of Lihue plantation, arrived from Ahukini in the Inter-Island steamer Maui yesterday morning.

Mr. Isenberg said that surveys were being made for the railroad which Lihue will build to the Kapaa homestead under license issued by the Governor. The route is that finally chosen by the plantation, crossing the Waialua river near tidewater and tunneling under the Linderman lands to the homesteads.

Lihue will not attempt to build the road so long as materials are so expensive. Mr. Isenberg said. Steel in particular, is rocketing. The plantation has obligated itself to take off some from trans-ruer lands, and to do this, must build a trolley across the river gulch, regardless of when it should start the railroad work. This trolley will serve until the railroad has been put through.

The homesteaders are getting on nicely, Mr. Isenberg said. Rains have been plentiful.

DOCTOR SCUDDER CALLED TO JAPAN

Central Union Pastor Will Not Decide Until He Returns From Mainland

A cablegram received here by the Nippon Jiji from Japan states that the Protestant Ministers' Association of Japan had extended an invitation and call to Dr. Dorsman Scudder, minister of the Central Union Church of Honolulu, to accept the pastorate of the Tokio Union Church.

The despatch says further that Doctor Scudder would leave Honolulu for Japan in October. Doctor and Mrs. Scudder will leave in the Manoa next Tuesday for the mainland, which they will tour, going as far east as Maine. Doctor Scudder said last night that he and Mrs. Scudder will return from the states in September.

Doctor Scudder admitted that a tentative call to Tokio has been received by him, but that nothing definite had been decided on by him.

"We have not reached any decision in the matter as yet and I have not been appointed to the charge, but I have been in correspondence with the church authorities in Tokio for some time and have given considerable thought to the matter," Doctor Scudder said.

"I will probably not decide as to this step until Mrs. Scudder and I return from our visit to the mainland. In any case we would not hurry our going, and would give the Central Union Church time to make such arrangements as may go along with the change, so that it could adjust itself to the change."

Doctor Scudder, who has been pastor of the Central Union Church here since the coming of October, has held the local pastorate longer than any of his several predecessors. He was four years in Honolulu previous to accepting the local pastorate and six years before coming here he spent in Japan as a missionary under the American Board of Missions, most of that time in the ancient city of Niigata. He is well known in Tokio, which he has many friends among the English and Japanese-speaking residents.

"The Tokio Union Church is very similar in its work to the Central Union Church here," Doctor Scudder explained, "but it is not large in a numerical sense, although its influence in the Christian movement throughout Japan is very broad and marked."

"As Japan has always had a great fascination for me, I should enjoy the work there very much and life there would be very delightful. However, we shall not arrive at a decision until a completed offer has been made."

JAPANESE REPORT BONUSES UNPAID

The Japanese papers print a number of letters received from plantation workers at Honokaa, in which complaint is made that the anticipated payment of bonuses for April and May has not been made. The reason for the refusal to pay the bonus, the Japanese say, is given by the plantation as its own depressed finances. The company is credited in these reports with having an indebtedness of $20,000 at the present time and is said to feel that its prospects do not warrant the wage increase.

J. W. Waldron of P. A. Schaefer & Co., said last night that no word of this has come from the plantation management but that he expected to hear something by Tuesday's mail.

"It is probably simply a misunderstanding which will disappear when full explanations are made," he said. "The plantation certainly will take no action."

CITY ENGINEER WORKS OUT BIG STREET PLAN

George M. Cullinan, city engineer, is at work upon a general plan of street improvement for Honolulu, under the proposed bond issue. He probably will have his plan ready for submission to the board at the meeting to be held Tuesday evening.

Club's Future Plans It is probable that in future all races held under the auspices of the club will be governed by the rules of the National Steeplechase & Hunt Association and the National Trotting Association.

While nothing definite has been done with regard to the program for the proposed Labor Day meet, it is likely that there will be a free-for-all race for two-year-olds, and a handicap on the second day, providing racing takes place on Saturday and Monday as has been suggested.

YANKEES MAKE HASH OF INDIANS

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.) CLEVELAND, June 19.—An immense crowd witnessed yesterday's game between the American League leaders, in the expectation of witnessing a battle royal. The game developed into a farce the Yankees pling up the mammoth score of 19 against their opponents' 3. The Yankee swashman batted to a fore-yo-well, and the Indians helped out the general scheme of things by innumerable and inexcusable errors. It was one of the most sensational and one-sided games of the present season. By their victory the Yankees are now within striking distance of the leaders. Yesterday's games:

NATIONAL LEAGUE At Cincinnati—Cincinnati 6, St. Louis 2. AMERICAN LEAGUE At Chicago—Boston 5, Chicago 1. At Detroit—Detroit 8, Philadelphia 2. At St. Louis—Washington 5, St. Louis 1. At Cleveland—New York 9, Cleveland 3.

FAMOUS TENNIS COMBINE BROKEN

The world famous tennis combination of "McLoughlin and Bundy," synonymous of unbeatenship and national championships in the past is likely to be no more and the partnership dissolved.

Such at least is the word that comes from Los Angeles where the two tennis stars are engaged in a business partnership, and the ultimatum is credited to no less an authority than McLoughlin himself. The close application required by their business interests will prevent Bundy from going east this summer and McLoughlin is not at all sure that he will be able to get away for participation even in the gigas tournaments.

"My plans are indefinite as yet and I am not even sure that I will play in the Pacific coast doubles in July," McLoughlin is quoted as saying. "There is a bare possibility of my hooking up with a player like Johnny Strachan and playing in the Pacific Coast doubles. Whether I do secure another partner or not, I may go East, but even that was not been positively decided on as yet. I hope to go."

Some years ago Bundy stated to friends that the famous pair would play together until it was beaten. Defeat came last year at the hands of Johnston and Griffin.

CORNELL VICTOR OVER QUAKERS AT BASEBALL

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.) PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—In a fast game of baseball here today Cornell University beat the University of Pennsylvania by a score of 3 to 2.

DENEROO MAY HAVE NEW RIVAL

MAUI NEWS—Time for receiving entries for the big Fourth of July races at Kahului has been extended to June 24. This same date has also been fixed as the time for closing entries for the cowboy sports. It was first intended to close the race entries on the 15th, but the prospect of getting a number of additional entries from the Coast caused the time to be extended.

Mr. Phee and Leovy, who returned from Honolulu on Wednesday night, are enthusiastic over the outlook for Maui's big day. Practically all the horses that made any showing at all at the Kapiolani track last Saturday and Monday, will be entered, they say, and besides two and possibly three speedy starters are expected to arrive from the Coast between now and the Fourth to enter the trotting-riding event against Denaroo. A number of Honolulu horsemen, it is claimed have this project on foot.

It is not known whether or not Tom Hollinger will again be on hand with Wilshire Boy. The defeat in Honolulu last Monday by Wilshire's speed was so decisive, that it is said Hollinger admits that Denaroo is the best horse.
