

GERMAN DRIVE ENDS AND ALLIES FORCE FIGHTING

Minor Clashes Only Along the Wide Battlefield, With French and British Taking Initiative At All Points

UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO BOMBARD PARIS

Allies, With Reserves Intact, Make No Move To Indicate At What Point They Intend To Launch Offensive

NEW YORK, April 3—(Associated Press)—There is increasing evidence in all the despatches from the warring capitals that the great German drive, with Paris as the announced objective, has almost spent its force. Yesterday the Germans declined to force the fighting at any point, even the despatches from Berlin admitting that the great army of invasion is on the defensive.

At every point where there were clashes yesterday it was the Allies who took the initiative, the British and French each forcing local actions and taking prisoners. These were minor operations, however, and there is no showing that the Allies are ready for their proposed counter offensive on any large scale, although their reserves are practically intact and the steady stream of transports has guaranteed their supplies.

ALLIES ADVANCE SOME

There were only minor operations along the British front, with mainly artillery duels on that section of the new line held by the French. The British attacked and captured positions in the Luce Valley, driving back the enemy with the loss of a number of men after a brisk engagement. Here the Germans lost fifty prisoners and thirteen machine guns.

Further south, at Hebuterne, a German attack was beaten back with the loss of seventy prisoners left in British hands and a few machine guns. The German loss in killed was considerable.

ARTILLERY IN FLANDERS

North of the Somme the only activity was a big gun bombardment of the British lines before Paaschendaele, in Flanders. The Germans made no attempt, however, to follow up their shelling with an infantry attack.

The main movement of fresh German troops has been into the Montdidier salient, but there were no new German offensives at this or any other point. The shelling of some of the French positions was heavy at times.

The French premier, who has been much at the front since the German offensive was launched, visited the French front lines on Monday night, where he was under the hostile guns. Shells burst all around him and pieces of one struck his auto, breaking the windows, but Clemenceau was not hurt.

OFFICIAL REPORTS BRIEF

The report from the British war office last night was brief, stating merely that the day had passed quietly and without serious fighting at any part of the front in France.

Paris reports an unsuccessful attempt on the part of the enemy to carry out an air raid against that city last night. The raiding machines were numerous, but none was able to pierce the air barrage and all were driven back.

The official report from Berlin, which refers to the fighting of Monday, says: "Enemy counter attacks near Hebuterne and against the heights between the Luce and the Avere Rivers, captured by us, broke down with heavy losses."

AMERICA TO RUSH TROOPS TO FRANCE

War Department Decides To Send Nearly All In Country Not Later Than August

WASHINGTON, April 2—(Official)—Military chiefs and the nation generally as represented through the press rejoice in the war department's reported decision to send to France, not later than August, all the soldiers still in this country, except about fifteen percent of the regulars, who will be required to assist in the training of the additional million coming to the training camps this summer.

The United States forces awaiting transportation abroad are regarded now as having sufficient training for immediate, effective fighting. The plans for the disposition of these troops and the ports from whence they will soon sail for France are already made and selected. Several hundred thousand men of the American army perhaps will reach Europe in time to participate in the present great battle, if it should last for months as did the great battle for Verdun.

An army corps of General Pershing's men, it is stated, is already actively engaged in cooperation with the Allies against the Germans on the western front.

Despatches from France note that the American made armored cars have proved highly valuable in checking the German rush and have inflicted enormous losses upon the enemy.

The semi-official French estimate of the German losses, which fixes them at three hundred thousand, is regarded here as too low.

HOW TROOPS WILL BE SENT ACROSS SECRET

WASHINGTON, April 3—(Associated Press)—No announcement has been made by the war department as to how it is planned to rush to France nearly all of the soldiers now in this country. It is probable that only the highest officials of the administration know, and they are keeping their plans to themselves.

Announcements made in London, according to despatches from that city received here, indicate that the American troops as they arrive in France will be used to replace the losses sustained by the Allies in the desperate struggle with the German forces.

The London despatch adds that it is believed there that President Wilson's reason for sending Secretary of War Baker to Europe was to bring about the recent momentous changes which have resulted in the decision to send the American troops into the great Pearly battle and to rush other troops to France as fast as possible.

CONGRESS PLANS SEVERE PENALTIES FOR DISLOYALTY

WASHINGTON, April 2—(Associated Press)—Drastic penalties for disloyalty in the United States are planned by congressmen.

The senate judiciary committee favorably reported today the bill to impose penalties for disloyalty, with amendments providing severe punishment for those who are pro-enemy.

One amendment prescribes twenty years' imprisonment and a fine of $10,000 for whoever shall by act or word support or favor the cause of Germany in the present war, or by act or word shall oppose the cause of the United States.

The same penalties are approved by the committee for any persons who obstruct the sale of war bonds or obstruct recruiting.

DECLARATIONS OF WAR AGAINST BULGARIA AND TURKEY ARE INTRODUCED

WASHINGTON, April 3—(Associated Press)—A joint resolution, declaring that a state of war exists between the United States and the Empire of Turkey and the Kingdom of Bulgaria, was introduced into the senate yesterday by Senator W. H. King of Utah.

The senator, in presenting his resolution, pointed out that the American forces under General Pershing are now on the battle line in France and engaged, or about to engage, in battle with the troops of Bulgaria, aligned with those of Germany and Austria. The situation, with Americans actively opposed to Bulgarians, is such as to demand a formal recognition of the war that exists.

Against Turkey war should likewise be declared, said the Utah senator. The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations without debate.

Berkeley No Place For Professors Of Hun Tendencies

University of California Regents Promptly Fire Two of the Faculty Shown To Be Not In Sympathy With America

BERKELEY, April 3—(Associated Press)—Declaring that their words and actions have been "injurious to the United States government," two members of the faculty of the University of California were discharged yesterday, the regents taking summary action upon evidence officially presented before them. Prof. Alfred Forke, head of the department of Oriental language, is one of the dismissed men, the other being I. W. D. Hack, assistant professor of chemistry.

Evidence of the disloyal attitude of these two men was supplied the regents by naval officers of San Francisco, who have had the two under surveillance.

Both the men discharged are natives of Germany. Professor Forke is a noted Chinese student and at one time was adviser to the Chinese legation, at Washington.

Cessation in Use Of Wheat Flour Is Faced By Nation

People May Be Required To Stop Eating It In Order That Army and Allies May Be Supplied; Limit On Sugar Is Raised

WASHINGTON, April 3—(Associated Press)—Intimation that the use of wheat flour by the people of America may be entirely prohibited in order that there may be a sufficient supply for the Nation's soldiers overseas and for the Allies is contained in an official notice issued here yesterday. The notice says:

"While the Nation faces total cessation of the use of wheat flour so that the Allies can be supplied overseas, restrictions are relaxing somewhat on other commodities. The food administration has given permission for the purchase of twenty-five pounds of sugar, and more if it is used for the purpose of canning fruit. The former limit was two pounds.

"The people of the Nation are learning to eat vegetables instead of flour, pork and so forth which are needed abroad. Millions of 'war gardeners' have been started."

LONG RANGE GUN OF HUNS EXPLODES

Cannon That Will Hurl Shell Ninety Miles Invented By Portuguese

LONDON, April 3—(Associated Press)—One of the four huge long range guns with which the Germans have been bombarding Paris from a distance of more than seventy-four miles burst yesterday, killing its crew of gunners, according to a statement made by a German prisoner. A despatch to this effect was received from Paris.

The bursting of the gun came during another bombardment of the city which began yesterday morning.

The Huns are liable to get a taste of their own medicine, according to a despatch from Lisbon, which says that the newspaper Seculo publishes a story to the effect that Bento Osires, a captain of artillery in the Republican Guards of Lisbon, has invented a gun that will throw a shell ninety miles. That is more than fifty miles in excess of the distance that shells are hurled by the German gun.

An American woman, Mrs. Edward Landon, niece of Levi P. Morton, former Vice-President of the United States and also minister to France, was among those murdered in a Paris church last Sunday by the Germans when one of the shells of the long range gun exploded in the midst of the congregation.

It is possible, also, that her two daughters were among the victims. They were with her at the time and are missing. Mrs. Landon was the wife of a retired attorney who has recently made his home in France.

HAMAKUA ATHLETE REJECTED FOR ARMY

British Recruiters At Chicago Tell W. Gordon Walker He Has "Athlete's Heart"

CHICAGO, April 2—(Associated Press)—W. Gordon Walker, formerly connected with Hakalau plantation, is land of Hawaii, who came seven thousand miles to enlist in the British Canadian forces, was rejected today by the examining surgeons of the British recruiting service, because of an "athlete's heart."

Mr. Walker, who was assistant book keeper of the plantation at Hakalau for several years, left Honolulu about three weeks ago on the steamship Niagara, in company with about a score of Britishers, who were brought to gether by the British recruiting service here, and given a big sendoff by the British Club. Mr. Walker desired to visit relatives in California before proceeding to England, and after arriving at Vancouver, left the Hawaiian contingent and went to San Francisco and other Pacific Coast cities.

"It is a surprise to me that Mr. Walker was found physically unfit," said George Husted of the British Club last night, "as he was a fine type of young man, about twenty-seven years old, an athlete and seemingly just the kind of man any army would want."

Mr. Walker is a university man, well read and popular along the Hamakua Coast. If he has been definitely rejected he may return to Hawaii, and in all probability will be given his old position.

CONSTANTINE'S AGENTS ARE PUT TO DEATH

ATHENS, April 2—(Associated Press)—Quick action has been taken by the Greek government against agents of ex-King Constantine who came here and were proved to have planned an espionage system.

Lieutenants Calamaras and Hothkopulos were members of a party which came to Greece on a German submarine as agents of the ex-king. Their activities were discovered and both men were court-martialed, found guilty and put to death. Their attorney Compuhas, has also been sentenced to death. The sister of Calamaras has been sentenced to life imprisonment.

Other States, in the order of their ratification, have been: Virginia, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Dakota, Maryland, Montana, Texas and Delaware, the last named ratifying the amendment on March 18.

None of the soldiers was killed in action, but two died of wounds received in previous actions. One death was accidental, four from disease and two from other causes.

Secretary Baker cabled to the war department yesterday that hereafter all information concerning the American expeditionary forces will be published only from the Expeditionary Headquarters in France.

CHICAGO REBUKES SUSPECTED MAYOR

Every Thompson Candidate and All Socialists Beaten For City Board

CHICAGO, April 3—(Associated Press)—Every candidate for the board of aldermen who received the support of Mayor Thompson was defeated at the polls yesterday by the Chicago voters, who took this first opportunity of showing their disfavor of the alleged anti-American attitude of Mayor Thompson towards the war.

Socialism and Thompsonism were treated equally, no Socialist candidate being elected. Practically every new alderman ran on the Democratic ticket and the aldermanic board is now Democratic and in opposition to the mayor.

The result of yesterday's polling was watched with eager interest in view of the announcement of Mayor Thompson that he is a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator J. Hamilton Lewis.

Ship Builders Fall Behind Schedule, Asked to Explain

Output of Yards For March Only 166,700 Tons While Estimate Called For 197,075 Tons; Hurley Keenly Disappointed

WASHINGTON, April 3—(Associated Press)—The March output of the shipyards of the country fell behind their schedule, and the shipping board wants to know why.

Chairman Hurley, of the shipping board, sent messages to the heads of the ship building yards yesterday asking them to explain why their output was not up to schedule.

"I am keenly disappointed at the results," Chairman Hurley said in his message. "Don't overestimate," was his caution to the ship builders. This was occasioned by the fact that the estimates for March submitted by them aggregated 197,075 tons of shipping, while the amount actually produced was only 166,700 tons.

We Will Not Stop Until We Win War, Says President

WASHINGTON, April 2—(Official)—Writing to Bishop T. S. Henderson of the Methodist Church, President Wilson says: "You are perfectly safe in using the words you mention from my messages as expressing my unaltered thought and unbroken purpose." Bishop Henderson's letter had cited the following words from the President's message: "German power, a thing without conscience, honor or capacity for covenanted peace, must be crushed. Our present immediate task is to win the war and nothing shall turn us aside until it is accomplished."

The President's letter will be read from all Methodist pulpits next Sunday.

DEFEAT FOR LAFOLLETTE

Senator Lenroot, while running as a Republican, made his primary campaign as a loyalist and what he stands for in the war. He was opposed for the Republican nomination by James Thompson, who has the open support of LaFollette. Lenroot beat him after a sharp campaign.

NO TIME FOR THIS

Berger, who is one of the leading Socialists of the United States, is under indictment from the Chicago federal grand jury on a charge involving his loyalty. He ran on a "peace" platform, declaring in his platform: "I demand, and if elected will work for, an immediate general and permanent peace—a peace of the peoples, by the peoples and for the peoples, of the countries now at war."

"I demand, and if elected will work for, the withdrawal of American troops from the invasion of Europe, and for their use, as far as may be necessary, to procure absolute security for this country, on land and sea, against invasion by any hostile power, if such invasion be possible."

"Your Administration at Washington is preparing for five more years of war—not to defend this country against invasion but to invade European countries."

MILWAUKEE, April 3—(Associated Press)—Irvine L. Lenroot, Republican, has been elected senator from Wisconsin, to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Paul O. Husting, unless the returns from the outlying polls go much more strongly against him than is expected.

At midnight Lenroot was leading over his Democratic rival, Joseph E. Davies, with Victor Berger, the Socialist candidate, a bad third.

Newspaper reports show that Lenroot's plurality over Davies will be between eight and twelve thousand. Forty-three counties out of seventy had been heard from at midnight, when the vote stood: Lenroot, 69,373; Davies, 64,810, and Berger, 44,514. All the missing counties except one are normally Republican.

DEMOCRATS STILL HOPE

The Democratic campaign managers refuse to concede Davies' defeat, in spite of the normal Republican majorities to be expected from the missing counties. Their hope is based on the fact that the results in the counties heard from have upset all the political calculations. In a majority of the counties that are usually Republican, Davies has secured the majorities, while in the normal Democratic counties the vote has gone strongly Republican.

In those precincts where Thompson, the LaFollette candidate for the Republican nomination, polled a big vote in the primaries, Davies the Democratic candidate yesterday secured the larger vote.
