Pearl Street, and No. 61 Chambers Street, New York, would say to Merchants and dealers generally that, having established a Cash House in this branch of trade, they are fully convinced that they can sell Crockery, etc., at such prices as will pay the purchaser a fine profit to retail. Experience has proved very conclusively to us that, by adhering strictly to the cash system, we can afford to sell from ten to twenty per cent. below the regular credit trade prices.

To this end we ask an examination of our styles and prices, a list of which will be forwarded by mail to any party desiring.
