Out Today

WELL-DRESSED men will welcome the fall and winter edition of our fashion magazine, "Hand-made Smart Clothes," which we mailed last week to a list of 3,000 names near Keokuk.

This magazine is authority on correct style. It illustrates the new models in fall and winter suits and overcoats, tells "what to wear" and has correct dress chart for all occasions.

We publish it to further the acquaintance of careful dressers with Weil Hand-made Smart Clothes, which, because of individuality, exclusiveness and the excellence of the tailoring, are recognized as correct by the man who knows.

We shall be pleased to send you a copy of this magazine to your address free on request, or give you one if you ask for it at the store. We have but 500 left.

Justice A. C. Landes was under the weather today and unable to come down to his office this morning.

The board of directors of the Commercial club will meet this evening in the Commercial club rooms.

H. P. Jensen, who was married in Quincy yesterday to a young lady who came all the way from Germany to wed was a Keokuk visitor today. His marriage to Miss Emma Rose Beier attracted wide attention in that city.

The leaders of the boys' bible study classes of the Y. M. C. A. met last evening and enjoyed a supper following which plans for the bible study work were discussed. Talks were made and a great deal accomplished at the meeting.

The meeting at the Keokuk club this evening to which the bowling enthusiasts of the city are invited should be largely attended as the sport is one that many would like to see advanced. Present indications point to a large attendance and an organization should be effected.

Chairman Mattern of the republican county committee has asked the members of the Keokuk republican committee to meet in the district court room at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday evening of this week for conference concerning campaign matters. Keokuk republicans generally are cordially invited to meet with the committee and it is hoped that many of them will do so. Don't forget the place and date.—District court room at 7:30 on Thursday evening next.

Q. train No. 12 lacked two minutes of being an hour late this morning. Two sleepers were given accommodations over night at the police station, but there were no other lock ups.

James M. Bradford has deeded to Harry H. Bradford, the undivided half of lots 6 and 7 in block 10, Mason's upper addition, the property beling on Tenth street between Leighton and Grand Avenue. No consideration is given in the deed.

According to the constitution and by-laws of the Keokuk Base Ball association the annual meeting is to be held the first Tuesday in November. This meeting will be held in the superior court room and will be open to all fans of the city.

A brand new set of stamps are to be issued soon, according to the following dispatch from Washington: The bureau of engraving and printing has completed designs suggested by Postmaster General Meyer for a new issue of United States postage stamps. The new stamps will be of the following denominations One-cent, 2-cent, 3-cent, 4-cent, 5-cent, 6-cent, 8-cent, 10-cent, 15-cent, 50-cent and $1. The new issue has been designed with the object of obtaining the great simplicity commensurate with artistic results. The profile has been taken in each instance instead of a full view, giving a bas-relief effect. All the stamps are of a similar design, containing a head in an eclipse, the only decoration being laurel leaves on either side of the ellipse.

Twenty Greek laborers are putting in new tracks in the yards at this place for the C. B. & Q. railroad.

The regular monthly meeting of St. Joseph's auxiliary will be held at the hospital Wednesday, Oct. 14th, at 2:30 p. m.

No trust or combination prices when you get AaA1 or Grace Mills flour. They are superior brands of flour at reasonable price, and every sack guaranteed.

James W. Lobb and Ann Web, an elderly couple from Warsaw, came up to Keokuk and were married this morning at 9 o'clock by Justice James S. Burrows in the clerk's office.

The pennant winner's banquet at Hamilton last evening was of sufficient length that the Keokuk people missed the car and were the guests of C. R. Joy, who conveyed them on the return trip in his automobile.

David Brown who has been with the Irwin-Phillips Co. wholesale store for a number of years, has resigned his position to go south to New Orleans, where he will assist the cook on one of the government fleets at that place. At the regular meeting next Thursday evening of the Elks, a class of candidates are to be initiated and a social session will be enjoyed after the meeting.

Extra switch engine 1094 lost her frog while doing some work at the foot of Bank street this morning and some little time was taken in replacing it.

Fair and warmer weather is predicted. The wind shifted around during the night and was blowing from the south this morning, making today a mild and pleasant one.

Street Supervisor Farrell will clean up Main street tomorrow morning, putting a large force of men at work and remove the trash and litter left from last week's celebration. The laborers are to meet him at Twelfth and Main streets at 7 o'clock in the morning.

The Keokuk base ball directors will have a meeting this afternoon at which a financial report will be made by Louis Sterne. The finances are in excellent shape for the year but there are a number of old debts hanging over the association which the directors feel should be cleared up.

One of the small detached buildings of the cereal plant was the scene of a small fire this morning at 10 o'clock, but before the fire department arrived a line of hose from the company's plug had protected the structure. The damage amounted to $50. The fire originated from a live electric wire in one corner of the building.

H. P. Jensen, a genial traveling man, was married in Quincy late yesterday afternoon and came to this city on the 7:20 last evening with his pretty bride, stopping at one of the city's hotels and intending to leave today. The other guests of the hotel got wind of the fact that the couple had just been married and proceeded to have some fun with the happy pair. On arriving at the hotel the commercial man had told the clerk not to divulge the fact that he had but recently been married but the news was evidently too good to keep and spread like wild fire much to the expense of the newly weds.

Marshalltown Republican: A resolution, passed by the rising vote of the congregation at the union meeting at the Methodist church Sunday evening, asked "Billy" Sunday, the noted revivalist to come to this city and hold meetings during February. The resolution asked that an immediate answer be given. A copy of the resolution will be sent to Mr. Sunday. The resolution was endorsed by the pastors' association. The meeting, which was well attended, was addressed by C. F. McFarland, a business man of Keokuk. Mr. McFarland addressed an audience of about 400 men at the Odeon theater in the afternoon under the auspices of the Railroad Y. M. C. A.

Frank Pfeffers, who was reported implicated in the disappearance of some cash at the Grand hotel, called on The Gate City this morning and denied that he was in any way responsible for the alleged disappearance of $25 in cash. Mr. Pfeffers says he did not take the money, that he did not leave the city and while there was some dispute between himself and the proprietor about a shortage he is not in anyway responsible for the financial deficiency reported. Mr. Pfeffers says he has been a resident of Keokuk for a number of years and does not wish to rest under such an impression and asks for this publicity to his connection with the reported disappearance of cash. As stated in this paper last evening Mr. Pfeffers has always maintained a good reputation in this city and he wishes to retain it. Mr. Pfeffers says other shortages have been reported at the hotel but so far as his connection with any of them he is entirely innocent.

ST. LOUIS MAN POSTPONES RACE

Race Will be Run This Sunday if the St. Louis Owner of the Independence will Bet $500.

Ft. Madison Exchange: Commodore Ernest Corsepius has received a letter from the secretary of the St. Louis Power Boat association stating that the river regatta they would take place on Sunday, October 18, intimating that they would expect him and his champion boat, Minnie C. II, and also his friends of this city, but said nothing about a purse.

Dr. J. M. Hobbs has also received a letter from Mr. Ed. C. Koenig, owner of the Independence, conveying the same information and requests, but there is no mention of a $500 purse.

Mr. Corsepius has indicated a letter in answer, and saying that a $500 purse would be necessary to bring down the Minnie C. II, and her Port Madison friends. The trip would cost Mr. Corsepius half that amount, and if St. Louis wants to see the fastest boat on the Mississippi they will have to put up something, like Fort Madison did when they wanted to see the Independence. If Fort Madison can put up $500 to see the Independence St. Louis ought to be able to put up $1,000 to see the fastest boat on the river, but $500 would bring results and if they don't want to see it that bad the Minnie C. II, can afford to stay at home.

Surprising, What Kodol Will Do

For you, when you need it. But the longer you neglect indigestion, the more you will suffer before Kodol can restore Good Digestion.

And, of course, indigestion if neglected long enough, brings on serious diseases in which Kodol cannot benefit you. Some of these there is no help for at all.

There are, in fact, very few ailments which cannot be traced directly to impure blood. And impure blood is always due to a disordered stomach.

Use Kodol and prevent Nervous Dyspepsia. Kodol will effectually assist Nature to secure a complete restoration of good digestion. It does this by at once digesting all food in the stomach and keeping it digested, until the stomach is rested, and can resume its own work. Kodol removes the cause—and the effect quickly removes itself.

When it is recalled that Apoplexy, Heart Disease, Cancer—and even Consumption—are due to poor digestion and poisons thus transmitted to the blood, and throughout the system—the importance of maintaining good digestion is at once realized.
