

REGISTRATION IS PAST 2000 MARK

Up to Last Evening There Had Been 1958 Names of Voters Entered in the Registry

THE FIGURES IN DETAIL

Registry Boards Will be Open Until Nine O'clock Tonight to Accommodate the Tardy Ones.

The total registration this afternoon at 1 o'clock in Keokuk was 2,225.

The first day 1,036 voters were registered in the six wards of the city and on the second day there were 922, the figures for the two first days and up to 1 o'clock this afternoon, being as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Ward, Thurs., Fri., Total. Rows include First ward, Second ward, Third ward, Fourth ward, Fifth ward, Sixth ward, and Totals.

According to the above figures, the total registration on Thursday was 1,036. The total on Friday was 922 and up to 1 o'clock this afternoon there had been but 267 more names added.

There should be quite a heavy registration this evening as many voters registration this evening as many voters tantly excepting on Saturday night and the books will close tonight with close to 3,000 names enrolled.

One Last Chance. Unless a voter registers this evening before 9 o'clock, he will have but one last chance to get his name on the books, for the registry boards will be in session on Saturday, October 31, from 8 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night for the benefit of those who had not registered up to this evening.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Table with 4 columns: Commodity, Price, High, Low, Close. Rows include Chicago Grain Market, Kansas City Live Stock, Hogs, Sheep.

Chicago Live Stock. CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Cattle—Receipts, 300 head; market unchanged.

New York Produce. NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Poultry—Dressed, weak; live, quiet.

New York Stocks. NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Little outside business for a few members composed the trading on the stock exchange today.

FOR RENT—815 and 817 Concert street, modern houses, practically new. Apply 722 Franklin.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kledaisch and children left this afternoon for Poplar Bluffs, Mo., for a visit.

Will Smith or "Trig" as he is known by his many young Keokuk friends left this afternoon for his home in Quincy after a short visit at home here.

Dr. O. T. Clark returned to his home in Canton, Mo., this afternoon after a business visit in the city.

Mrs. T. D. Ferguson of Burlington and grandson, Charlie Geer of Kansas City were Keokuk visitors yesterday with relatives, stopping off here on their way from Kansas City to Burlington.

George W. Rutledge expects to leave this evening for Chicago on a business trip.

A. B. Ayers of St. Louis, traveling passenger agent for the Rio Grande System, was a visitor at local railroad offices this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cole have returned home from a few days stay in Chicago.

Dr. Guy Carleton Lee left on the 2:40 train for Burlington this morning where he will deliver a lecture. From there he will go to Kansas City and from Kansas City to Leavenworth where he will deliver a course of lectures.

Mrs. W. O. Francis and children left this morning for Louisiana for a visit with Mrs. Francis' sister, Harry Talley is home from Canton to spend Sunday.

Jas. Gordon of the O'Brien Worthen Co. made a business trip to Burlington yesterday.

W. J. Branscomb of Van Wert, Iowa, has returned to his home after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Crane.

Mrs. C. H. Fiesbach returns this evening from a visit at Leighton, Ia. J. S. and H. S. Long of New York are in the city today greeting old acquaintances.

Sherman Soule of Wayland was in the city yesterday on business. M. L. Boyles left this morning for a trip south. He will be in Oklahoma for Christmas and intends going to Kansas City and a trip through Texas.

John N. Gillier and wife of Warsaw are in the city today visiting friends. A. F. Ainsworth of Canton is in the city today on business.

TODAY'S WEATHER FORECAST.

Indications for Iowa, Illinois and Missouri Wired From Chicago.

For Keokuk and Vicinity: Threatening with showers tonight and possibly Sunday.

For Illinois: Threatening with showers tonight and possibly in north portion Sunday; cooler in north and central portions.

For Iowa: Threatening with showers tonight and possibly in east and central portions Sunday.

For Missouri: Showers tonight; Sunday cloudy with warmer west portion.

SUNDAY MEETING AT THE Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Edgar Gardner of Hamilton Will Speak and an Interesting Talk is Assured All Who Attend.

Mrs. Edgar Gardner is to be the speaker at the Y. W. C. A. woman's meeting tomorrow and will come from Hamilton to deliver an interesting talk, the subject of which will be "Influence" to those who attend the meeting.

Special music will be arranged for the occasion and the meeting will be a helpful one for all who attend. Women and girls are cordially invited to attend.

The juniors did not hold their picnic today which was to be held on the lawn at the home of the Miller-Kilbourn residence but owing to the inclement weather it was decided this morning not to have the picnic until some future time.

Bible classes are to be formed at the association and a bible worker is expected to arrive soon, announcement of which will be made later.

WORK TO START NEXT WEEK

Water Works Bonds For the Warsaw Plant Have Been Disposed of and Work Will Begin at Once.

NEW THEATER OPEN

Warsaw is Bustling With Activity at the Present Time According to the Late News.

WARSAW, Ill., Oct. 24.—The Warsaw waterworks bonds have been disposed of in Chicago, and Mr. Geo. Cadagan Morgan, hydraulic engineer, will be here next week to start construction on the works. The system will be complete and so constructed that it can be enlarged for the Greater Warsaw that is sure to come.

Ole Olson had a full house last night and well deserved it. Some of Warsaw's citizens will hardly be able to get their faces straight again because "Ole he was such a funny fellow" and kept them in one continual laugh.

About 10 a. m. Thursday, fire partially destroyed the summer kitchen of Mrs. Jas. Scott on South Fourth street. Damage was small owing to the prompt arrival of the fire department.

Marshal Welman arrested a young man named Morgan on a street corner yesterday, and phoning to Chief Kenney, Keokuk, turned him over to the latter on his arrival. The young man protested that his name was not Morgan, but Johnson, and that he came down here from Keokuk to see his girl. He robbed the Keokuk Canning Company's plant this week, and is suspected of other recent robberies.

Ensign Lemuel Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stevens of this city, has been transferred from the battleship Alabama to the battleship Chattanooga of the Asiatic squadron and is now at Shanghai, China. Added responsibilities have recently been laid upon him and he has promptly met them with ability. He will make his mark.

Hartley and Robbins opened their Electric Theatre on Thursday evening, and gave two performances of one hour each, to good houses, proving that the venture will take well. They give a matinee this afternoon, and two performances this evening.

Word was received here yesterday afternoon that at 2 o'clock Rev. Jagdstein had submitted to a second amputation of his leg, this time three inches above the knee. He was doing as well as could be expected. Heart action was good and no fever.

Friends and relatives of Mr. Edmund Worthen, son of Geo. Worthen of Warsaw have recently received invitations which read as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jefferson Woolman request the pleasure of your company at the wedding reception of their daughter Xenia May and Mr. Edmund Worthen Thursday evening, Nov. 5, 1908, from eight to ten o'clock, at 1909 West Oregon street, Urbana, Ill."

Mr. Worthen is a capable and most worthy young man, now occupying a position in government service, another Warsaw boy that has made good in a large measure. His friends wish him and his estimable young bride much happiness.

Alexandria Egypt, is making inquiries of Warsaw Milling Co. about their flour. This company ships carloads of flour to many foreign cities and has for years.

The remains of Wm. Giesen of Hamilton who died this week of consumption, were brought here Thursday and buried in Oakland cemetery.

Married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. Kamps, Tuesday, Oct. 20, 1908, at 6 o'clock, Mr. Fred A. Ringold and Miss Ida Kamps. Rev. H. Kasiski, pastor of the German M. E. church, officiating. Bride and groom are well and most favorably known and enjoying the esteem of many friends, who are a unit in wishing them unbounded conjugal felicity. Fred is foreman of the Bulletin office and is a valued employe.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Christian church were entertained on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Payton, 422 South Second street. A large number were present. Choice refreshments were served and a pleasant afternoon spent.

Woman Interrupts Political Speaker. A well dressed woman interrupted a political speaker recently by continually coughing. If she had taken Foley's Honey and Tar it would have cured her cough quickly and expelled the cold from her system. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Wilkinson & Co., and J. F. Kledaisch & Son.

Use The Gate City want column. Telephone in your wants if you are not down town. More people read Gate City wants than ever before.

CITY NEWS

Can't make you register, but you ought to do so. "What is it?" Oak Hall candy store sells it.

A marriage license was issued this morning to LeRoy Smith and Alice Highlan, both of Keokuk.

Orders taken for Halloween parties for clean cider fresh from the presses. B. F. Crow, Iowa Phone, 564.

A Wabash extra left for Illinois points at 7:30 this morning aside from the regular freight train. You are losing an opportunity to go and register if you have not already attended to that important duty. The registration boards will be in session this evening until 9 o'clock.

The ladies of St. Peter's church are making arrangements for their Christmas bazaar which is to be given in the large St. Peter's hall.

Stove room special for Monday from 7 a. m. till 9 p. m., regular $1.50 celebrated Griswold Patent Waffle Irons at 85c. Limit of one to a customer. Duncan-Schell Furniture Co.

How about that registration? Have you enrolled your name on the poll books? If you have not, go and do so right away. A failure to register will be the cause of losing your vote.

St. Mary's church is preparing for a big Christmas bazaar to be given the latter part of November. The bazaar will continue for three days and is to be quite an extensive affair.

A coal car jumped the tracks at Fourth and Bank street yesterday and being loaded with coal to overflow, deposited the fuel all over the road at that place, much to the delight of a number of coal consumers.

Capt. I. A. Sawyer hands The Gate City copies of the New York World and the New York Herald giving forecasts of western states with reference to the presidential result. Both papers report favorably Taft returns.

Invitations for the banquet next Tuesday evening at St. Peter's hall have been extended and include about fifty persons. The banquet is given by Rev. Thos. O'Reilly to the choir and ushers of the church.

George S. Ferguson, city jailor, who has been sick all week with pneumonia, was able to get up from bed today and come down stairs. Being next door to the registration clerks, he had them step inside and take down his name so that he will be able to vote. His many friends will be glad to hear that he is getting along so well.

Quite a crowd was at the depot this afternoon to depart on the 1:30 south bound train. The 2:05 was about twenty minutes late and the K. & W. which is due to arrive at 1:30 was over a half hour late.

On next Thursday evening, a number of colored republicans of the city will go to Fort Madison where a colored men's club of that city will hold a political meeting. D. W. Anderson, and Reverend Green will be two of the Keokuk speakers who have been invited to make political talks at the meeting and a number of others will attend. Chris Trump will hold a meeting in the court house in this city on that evening and a big meeting is looked forward to by the colored republicans of the city.

In last evening's water power article the last line on the special dispatch from St. Louis was omitted leaving the matter in doubt. The closing sentence should have read as follows: "Persons who are in a position to know say the plant will be ready for operation within two years."

Dr. W. P. Sherlock, P. Scanlon, and Lawrence T. Carr, have received certificates from the state board of examiners, they having successfully passed the state board examination. Dr. Sherlock is now associated with Dr. Armentrout in his practice of medicine.

The LaGrange (Mo.) Weekly Indicator, has the following to say of a former Keokuk girl who used to keep the police department busy: "A copper colored dame giving her name as Birdie Robinson was arrested Tuesday morning for disturbing the peace by using profane language. She was tried before Judge Sanderson and fined fifty dollars. Being unable to pay the fine she was locked up in the city jail. Birdie got her feathers ruffled at something—she doesn't seem to know what—and when Ed Triplett, living next door, went over to smooth them down she flew into her next room and secured a revolver and ordered Mr. Triplett to vacate her premises—which he willingly did under the circumstances. Triplett then came down town and swore out a warrant for her arrest and had her caged."

The Spaulding Institute, a boy's school in Nauvoo, has been quarantined on account of scarlet fever in the school.

The St. Louis news appearing in this paper last evening with reference to the probable signing of the contract by a St. Louis company for power means that should the contract be signed it would afford a market for a large amount of the local power and put the promoters in a position to go to capitalists for money to build the power as a sufficient market would be assured to make the enterprise profitable from the start. It is a big deal and one that Keokuk sincerely hopes will be consummated.

St. John's church (Episcopal), corner Fourth and Concert streets, Rev. R. C. McIlwain, rector: Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon at 11 a. m.; evening prayer and song service at 4:30 p. m. The offertory at the morning service will be "O Saviour, Hear Me," by Gluck, sung by Mrs. Bence. Mr. Young will sing "Gethsemane" for the offertory at the afternoon service. Everybody is welcome.

Bethel A. M. E. church, corner Seventh and Morgan streets: preaching at 10:30 a. m., subject, "Christian Soldier"; class meeting at 12 m.; Sunday school at 2:30; preaching at 7:30; official board meeting Monday evening; teachers' meeting Tuesday evening; prayer meeting Wednesday evening; class meeting Friday evening. W. A. Searcy, pastor.

There will be English services at the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran church, corner of Twelfth and Morgan streets, Sunday evening at 7:45 p. m.

CHURCH SERVICES. G. I. S. St. Paul's German Evangelical church, corner Eleventh and Exchange streets, Rev. J. Nuesch, pastor: Sunday school at 9 a. m.; preaching services at 9:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. This is our annual Mission day and the pastor will deliver a short address in English to the Sunday school. Rev. Ph. Hillgardt of Sutter, Ill., will preach in the morning and Rev. C. D. Reichle, Pa. D., of Kahoka, Mo., and Rev. M. Hoepfner of Fort Madison, Iowa, in the evening. Their subject, "Home and Foreign Mission." The special collection of the day is for mission. All are cordially invited and made welcome.

CHURCH SERVICES

The services of the First Baptist church will be held in the Jewish Synagogue, Eighth and Blondeau streets, Rev. J. F. Sanders, D. D., pastor. Residence, 202 Blondeau street.—Preaching services at 10:45 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Morning theme: "The Great Example." Evening theme: "The Faithful Sayings." Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Baker Mission Sunday School at 2:30 p. m. The Baptist Young Peoples Union at 6:30 p. m. Good music by large chorus choir. We extend a cordial invitation to the public to worship with us.

The Swedish Mission church, corner of Fourteenth and Morgan streets, Remius Johnson, pastor—Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be services and the Rev. Anderson of Red Oak, Iowa, will speak. Friday evening Bible class. Other announcements to be made at the pulpit.

First Congregational church, High street near Sixth.—The services at this church will be as follows: In the morning at 7:30, the pastor and members of the building committee will meet the members of the congregation for a dedicatory prayer meeting. At 11:00, there will be a meeting of the church and congregation in the new building. The dedication services will be held at 2:15 in the afternoon, when the Rev. N. Osborne of Burlington will preach. The ministers of the city will take part in the services. It is hoped that every member of the church and congregation will be present at the 11:00 service. The C. E. Society will meet at 6:30 in the evening, and there will be no evening service.

United Presbyterian church, Ninth and Blondeau streets, Harry B. Foster, pastor; residence, 803 Franklin street: Bible school at 9:30 a. m.; preaching service at 10:45 a. m., theme of sermon "Discouragements and How to Meet Them." The evening service at 7:30 will be the annual thank offering service of the Women's Missionary society. A special program has been prepared for this service, and the friends of the congregation are invited to join with us. Christian Union at 6:30 p. m. Preaching and communion at Summitville at 3 p. m.

Second Presbyterian: Morning subject, "Perilous Times," evening topic, "Christ Our Example." Endeavor topic, "Foreign Missions—Fidelity Fisk and Missions in Persia," leader John Harmon; main Sabbath school at church at 9:45; Rock Hall on Palestine near Fifth at 2:30. Workers needed in this interesting mission. F. O. McGaw, pastor.

Christ church Fifteenth and Bank streets: Mrs. Emily Collins will have charge of the services both morning and evening, conducting a praise service. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. Public cordially invited.

The First Methodist Protestant church, 824-826 Main street, Rev. J. Carleton McCaslin, pastor, 1423 Des Moines street: Bible school at 9:30 a. m., W. C. Thon, superintendent; morning service at 10:45, subject, "Visions and Missions;" Junior C. E. at 2:30; class meeting at 3 p. m., Mrs. Lottie Butcher, leader; evening service at 7:30, subject, "St. John and the Voice." Special music, Prayer meeting each Wednesday evening. Chapter for study and prayer, Matt. 25. Come and bring your bibles. A cordial welcome for all.

First Westminster Presbyterian church, Seventh and Blondeau streets, Rev. E. B. Newcomb, D. D., pastor: Preaching by the pastor at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the public, Bible school at 9:30 a. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30 p. m.

Seventh Street Baptist Church, corner Seventh and Concert streets, Rev. William Alex D. Venerable, Ph. D., pastor; residence 1724 Main street: Preaching at 11 a. m., subject, "A Tricky Mother and a Deceptive Son." Sunday school at 12:45 p. m., Mrs. M. E. Dixon, superintendent; reception to strangers and visitors, 12:50 to 12:55; preaching at 7:30 p. m., theme, "Weighed and Found Wanting." All are welcome.

St. John's church (Episcopal), corner Fourth and Concert streets, Rev. R. C. McIlwain, rector: Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon at 11 a. m.; evening prayer and song service at 4:30 p. m. The offertory at the morning service will be "O Saviour, Hear Me," by Gluck, sung by Mrs. Bence. Mr. Young will sing "Gethsemane" for the offertory at the afternoon service. Everybody is welcome.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, 716 Main street, second floor: Services Sunday at 10:45 a. m., subject, "Probation After Death." Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Wednesday evening meeting at 7:45. Reading room (same address) open Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

First Unitarian society, corner of Fourth and High streets: Public services at 11 a. m., sermon by Rev. M. Rowena Morse, Ph. D., minister. Sunday school at 9:30, topic, "The Last Supper;" lesson text, "This do in remembrance of me." I Cor. xi:25. Luke xli:19. Women's Alliance will meet with Miss Minnie Noelgli, 1411 Johnson street. Large attendance desired. Unity Circle will meet with Miss Jennie Holt, 705 Main street, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

CLEARANCE SALE

Monday Oct. 26

Commencing and continuing till Saturday October 31st we will hold our annual October clearance sale, and will offer some unusually attractive bargains.

- 3 dozen percale wrappers in assorted colors and sizes, $1 value 57c
200 rolls of white cotton batts, our regular 6 1-4 c grade for 4 1/2c
Light and dark patterns of outing cloth only 4 1/2c
Wright's health underwear with wool fleece for men $1.00 grade 79c
15c grade of double fold fleeced flannelettes only ... 9 1/2c
Ladies fleeced lined vests and pants in all sizes 15c
15 imitation wool scotch flannels in neat stripes 9 1/2c
75c grade full bleached all linen table damask 52c
Men's 15c fancy socks in all colors and sizes 10c
All colors of our fine $1.25 broadcloths, 52 in wide 97c
Children's 15c fast black fleeced hose only 11c

DON'T FORGET to see us for LADIES TAILORED SUITS and CLOAKS if you want to save money. No line shown this season compares with ours in lowness of price and attractiveness, and for fit, style and workmanship they are perfect. Come and see them.

Winger Bros.

702 MAIN STREET.

church, corner of Twelfth and Morgan streets, Sunday evening at 7:45 p. m.

Just Received Something Entirely New Engraved Glass Price ranging from $5.25 to $21.00

Swedish Methodist church, corner Twelfth and Concert street, N. Pearson, pastor Sunday school at 9:45 and preaching at 10:45 a. m., subject for the morning service: "Great Miracles Through Small Means." Epworth league at 6:45; English preaching in the evening at 7:45. Topic: "The Prince Who Was Not Given a Royal Welcome." Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:45. You are heartily invited.

Trinity M. E. church, Rev. John Wesley Potter, pastor: Preaching services at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. There will be an anthem by the choir in the morning, and a solo by Miss Louise Kline at the evening service. Sunday school rally at 9:30. The public is cordially invited. Junior league at 2:30; Epworth league and Epworth Volunteers at 6:30.

German M. E. church, Fourteenth and Johnson streets, F. L. Litzrodt, pastor Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; quarterly meeting, preaching by Prof. John Helmer of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; love-feast at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. All are invited and made welcome.

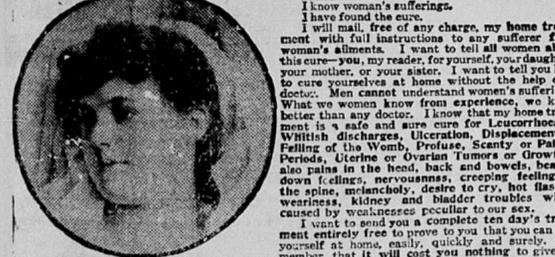

First Church of Christ, Scientist, 716 Main street, second floor: Services Sunday at 10:45 a. m., subject, "Probation After Death." Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Wednesday evening meeting at 7:45. Reading room (same address) open Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

On Tuesday morning most of the students of the Keokuk Medical college will leave over the Rock Island day school at 9:30, topic, "The Last Supper;" lesson text, "This do in remembrance of me." I Cor. xi:25. Luke xli:19. Women's Alliance will meet with Miss Minnie Noelgli, 1411 Johnson street. Large attendance desired. Unity Circle will meet with Miss Jennie Holt, 705 Main street, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

On Tuesday morning most of the students of the Keokuk Medical college will leave over the Rock Island day school at 9:30, topic, "The Last Supper;" lesson text, "This do in remembrance of me." I Cor. xi:25. Luke xli:19. Women's Alliance will meet with Miss Minnie Noelgli, 1411 Johnson street. Large attendance desired. Unity Circle will meet with Miss Jennie Holt, 705 Main street, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Liver Pills. It is impossible, simply impossible, for any one to enjoy the best of health if the bowels are constipated. Undigested material, waste products, poisonous substances, must be daily removed from the body or there will be trouble, and often serious trouble, too. Ask your doctor if he knows a better pill for a sluggish liver than Ayer's Liver Pills. Then follow his advice. Ayer's Pills aid nature, that is all. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER

Free to You and Every Sister Suffering from Woman's Ailments. I am a woman. I know woman's sufferings. I have found the cure. I will mail, free of any charge, my home treatment with full instructions to any sufferer from woman's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—you, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. I will also send you free of cost, my book—"WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISOR," with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for herself. Then when the doctor says—"You must have an operation," you can say to yourself, "Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy. It cures all old and young. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually cures Leucorrhoea, Green Discharge or Painful or Irregular Menstruation in Young Ladies. Pleasure and health always result from its use. Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell you how to cure this Home Treatment really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours, else the book. Write today, as you may not see this offer again. Address MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box H. Notre Dame, Ind., U. S. A.

CANCER. I send the most astonishing, absolutely true testimonials ever written, proving the wonderful success cure have made with my medicine. I will give the positive evidence of cured, living witnesses. Write me today for free and startling proof direct from people cured. Address DR. RUPERT WELLS, 1505 Grand Blig., St. Louis, Mo.