

FLEMING ENGINE HAS BEEN SOLD

Scott Manufacturing Co. Being the Highest Bidder the Large Engine Has Been Purchased by Them.

NEW ENGINE WAS COSTLY

The Cross Compound Tandem Corliss Engine Will Arrive Some Time Soon and Be Installed Very Quickly.

The large 600-horse power Fleming engine which figured prominently in the explosion of the large fly-wheel at the power station two weeks ago has been sold to the Scott Manufacturing company of this city...

What is to be done with the big Fleming engine has not yet been definitely decided by the Scott plant, though in all probability the firm will have the engine overhauled and the same will be sold to one of the several parties who have made a price to the manufacturing company for the engine.

What the engine was sold to the Scott people it will be put into scrap, being thrown into the cupola in the large foundry and turned out as a part of the immense brick plants made by the company.

If the engine is not sold by the Scott people for could not be given out but the original price of the engine was $7,000 and with only three years' usage the machine should bring a good price on the market after being overhauled.

The new Corliss engine which will arrive some time soon to be installed at the plant will cost in the neighborhood of $14,000 and will be over a thousand horsepower engine for the plant, being larger in proportions and a better engine than the Fleming. The contract for installing the engine will probably be let to the Scott Manufacturing company.

BIG BUSINESS DEAL COMPLETED

Duncan-Schell Furniture Company Has Purchased Collins-Heaslip Carpet Company.

On Monday next, the Duncan-Schell Furniture Company will absorb the Collins-Heaslip Carpet Company, having purchased all of the assets of the company and the enlarged firm will retain the name of the purchaser and be known hereafter as the Duncan-Schell Furniture Co.

The deal has been on for some time and the sale was practically completed several weeks ago, when an invoice was commenced. The sale has now been made and the company takes possession on Monday.

All of the force of the Duncan-Schell Company will be retained. The only change which will come from the deal will be the retirement of J. A. M. Collins from the business, although he still retains a substantial holding in the firm as a stockholder, but will not be actively engaged in the business and will take a much needed rest.

The consolidation of the two large concerns, makes the new company one of the largest in the west, including not only the Keokuk store, but the branch at Carthage.

There will be practically no change in the business as far as the public is concerned and the two stores will continue as before.

PINE KNOTS MACERATED IN WHISKY.

The shavings of a pine knot macerated or soaked in Whisky is the remedy of the old mountaineer and backwoodsman for rheumatism and pain in the joints and limbs. From time immemorial the medicinal properties of Pine have been valued highly. Whenever possible, physicians recommend that consumptive patients camp out in the Pine forests, where, asleep or awake, they must constantly inhale the pine-laden atmosphere, bathing the lungs with the healing, health-giving and invigorating air.

Unfortunately, there are but few whose circumstances will permit them to leave home and work to live in the open. Those who must stay at home will find in the genuine Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure that therapeutic virtue for which the Pines are famous. It is a combination of the active principles of the Pine and Santalwood, carefully compounded to retain the well-known healing properties of these trees.

A half-ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure mixed with two ounces of Glycerine and a half-pint of good Whisky will break up a cold in twenty-four hours, and cure any cough that is curable. Take a teaspoonful every four hours. It is better to purchase the ingredients separately and prepare the mixture at home. Be sure to use only the genuine Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, prepared by the Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O.

WHAT GRANDMA AND GRANDPA SAY IS TRUE.

Advertisement for Pe-ru-na medicine featuring portraits of Mrs. S. J. Edwards, Mr. J. R. Prince, Mrs. Martha Avery, and Mr. Henry Merz, with testimonials about their health improvements.

Good Health at Seventy-Seven. Mrs. S. J. Edwards, Union City, Tenn., writes under date of Nov. 7, 1904, the following: "On the 7th day of February, 1905, I'll live, I will be seventy-seven years of age. I enjoy the best of health, thanks to Peruna, and have not had a spell of sickness since I began using it five or six years ago."

"I consider it the grandest medicine on earth, and whenever I feel a little badly a few doses of Peruna put me right. "I can do as much work as I could forty years ago. I think all old people, who feel the effects of age, should benefit their health by using Peruna."

Mr. J. R. Prince, R. 2, Cattaraugus, N. Y., writes: "I am not very well satisfied with the picture that I am sending you, but when the reader looks at this picture if he could only realize that the original suffered for forty-five years, the best of his life, until your kind advice and prescription cured him, he would know from whence these wrinkles came. Next month I shall be sixty-six years old."

Nervous Prostration. Mrs. Martha Avery, 28 Graham St., Leominster, Mass., writes: "Four years ago I had nervous prostration. I employed several doctors. One would say I had catarrh of the stomach and bowels, another nervousness and another enlargement of the liver. My stomach was in a bad shape."

People who Object to Liquid Medicines Should Buy Peruna Tablets. sider it a neat compliment. If elected Mr. Chambers and Mr. Vaughn will strive earnestly to merit the endorsement.

SUICIDE AT HOTEL YESTERDAY

Burlington Youth Went to Fort Madison and Blew Out His Brains in Bed.

Coroner Korschgen went to Fort Madison this afternoon to hold an inquest over the remains of a young man from Burlington who came down to that place, took a room at a hotel and ended his life by shooting himself in the temple with a revolver.

The Burlington Hawk-Eye gives the following particulars of the suicide: A telephone message from Fort Madison at an early hour last evening brought the sad news that Irvin Timmermann had been found dead in bed at a hotel there. The family were notified, and the father left for Fort Madison on the next train to take charge of the remains. The young man arrived at the Waverly hotel at Fort Madison about 2 o'clock Friday morning. There was nothing unusual in his appearance. He was well-dressed and perfectly sober. He was given a room and retired immediately. Nothing was seen or heard of him until 7:30 o'clock last evening, when the room was opened by an employe of the hotel. The young man was found dead and his body cold. There was a bullet hole behind the right ear, and the revolver was found in the bed. On the dresser he had left a note asking that his father, William Timmermann, of No. 1006 South Central avenue, Burlington, be notified.

Irvin Timmermann was born in this city nineteen years ago, and had lived here all his life. He was employed by Pettit & Brown, and was well-liked by his employers, who had quite recently advanced his wages and were intending to do more for him in the near future. He had many friends in the city, who will be grieved and shocked by the sad news. He was living with his sister, Mrs. Hunger, on South Thirteenth street, and had been at home Thursday evening as usual. Nothing strange in his actions was noted at the time. He changed clothes and went away, and that was the last that was seen of him there. It is deemed quite likely that a love affair was the cause of his unhappy deed.

Deceased is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. William Timmermann. The father has long been engaged in the butcher business on South Hill, and is widely known. There are two brothers and five sisters living with the parents and many friends. The stricken family have the sympathy of all who know them. The remains will be brought here for interment and the arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

CONGRESSMAN KENNEDY

Wapello Republican: Next in importance to the election of Taft is the election of a Republican congressman in the First district. The Republicans have nominated a man who is an honor to the party and district he represents. Charles A. Kennedy is serving his first term in congress, and he has made a record which any man might be proud of. He has made a good campaign for re-election, and the voter of the district will return him with an increased majority.

Donnellson Review: The Democratic papers throughout the First congressional district are using every means to get Congressman Kennedy, in case he is re-elected to congress, and in case Joseph Cannon is again re-elected to congress to state whether he will vote for Cannon for speaker or not. Mr. Kennedy knows his own business best, and when the time comes, if it should come, our Democratic friends will know just where Mr. Kennedy stands on this foolish question. Congressman Kennedy is a gentleman, and has the respect and attention of every member in the hall of congress, has been regular in his attendance; his record is above being sneered and he has done more for the First district than any previous congressman. The Review believes in keeping the right man in the right place be his politics Republican or Democratic. Vote for Charles A. Kennedy for congressman on Tuesday, November 3. Put a X in the square before his name.

Don't You Mind? Trouble—don't you mind it, and don't you mind the care, Push 'em all behind you and dream of heavens fair. The sorrows that, like shadows, come falling 'cross the way Will fade before the sunbeams and blossoming of May.

Don't you mind the thunder and skies that threaten low; Don't you mind the wind sighs that keep a-wailing so; For every sigh we hear, dear, there'll come a liltin' tune— For every bit of trouble there'll come the smiles of June.

Don't you mind the grieving—grief must play its part; Tears must blind the sight, dear, ere joy creeps in the heart. Don't you mind the thistles that wound the weary feet— We must know the bitter that we may know the sweet.
