WARSAW TO HAVE POULTRY SHOW

Will be Held December 16th to 19th and a Unique Feature is Being Planned For the Occasion.

SEVERAL PRIZES GIVEN

Harry Choate is Visiting Old Friends in Warsaw and Keokuk and Arranging to Put on Dramatic Show.

WARSAW, Ill., Nov. 25.—Harry Choate of the popular Choate Dramatic company which played here and in Keokuk twenty odd years ago, is here among old friends, and has lost none of that fire and vigor, in voice and manner, that characterized him in his younger days among us, when he and his charming wife, Mrs. Mattie Choate, delighted large audiences with some of the best plays ever presented on the stage.

On December 8 at the opera house Mr. Choate will present a domestic drama, "The Unequal Match" with a large company of local talent, himself taking the leading role. The play is to be given for the benefit of the M. W. A. Concert band and will draw a full house. Music by a fine orchestra.

M. C. Eckbohm, Truman Plantz and Whit Lemon left for a two weeks' stay at Excelsior Springs, Mo., on Sunday night.

Mrs. Mary Andrews and family, left here for Oklahoma on Tuesday morning, where she will join her husband, Frank Andrews, and will there make her home. She will be greatly missed in Warsaw.

On Tuesday, Gus Brault, held a shooting match at his home east of town, in which a number of local sportsmen participated. Some good scores were made, and Thanksgiving turkeys captured.

The much needed rain of Sunday and Monday night was of great benefit to the farmers, but did not spoil the roads as it fell so gently.

Warsaw and Carthage will chase the pigskin at the fair grounds on Thanksgiving day at 2 p. m.

The big Marsh stock farm is advertised to be sold at auction on December 16.

Joseph Drouot, field superintendent of the Brittain Oil company of Beaumont, Texas, who lives in Saratoga, Texas, writes under recent date that his father from Carthage, Ill., is visiting him and is delighted with the country. Joe is another Warsaw boy that has "made good."

Oscar Weinhaber, is attending the School of Mines in Rolla, Mo.

Chlee Kirkbride, baggage and express man at the T. P. & W. railway depot, has resigned in favor of

ANIC ON BIG LINER SARDINIA

Robert Hopkins. He will leave for his old home about December 1. Warsaw camp, No. 340, M. W. A. will hold its annual election of officers at its next regular meeting, December 3, Thursday evening, after which a "mcheon will be served, and the evening will "end in smoke." Stogies and rope barred. A big turnout is expected.

A unique feature of Warsaw's coming poultry show, December 16 to 19, will be the taking off of a Warsaw incubator hatching of chicks. The Warsaw incubator company furnishing the machine. Elegant prizes will be offered for prize breeds of poultry, silver among which are the three large silver loving cups, before mentioned, and which were purchased by J. W. Kirkpatrick, the jeweler, one of the cups being a gift from him. Warsaw's show will be as interesting to poultry fanciers and breeders, as is the present show in Keokuk.

The Electric theater still draws nightly crowds, and the programs presented are equal to the best in large cities, and are, change, three times a week. For Thanksgiving a special program has been prepared for matinee and evening, "The Blue Bird," a French hand colored film being the leading attraction. Monday's and Tuesday's program was the most laughable yet presented, consisting of "The Tale of a Shirt," "Cupid's Realm," "The Phantom Clock," and "Uncle Bill's Bull Pup." Hartley and Robbins deserve credit for providing innocent amusement for the young at a nominal cost, and it is hoped that success of all sorts will crown their efforts.

A plumbing shop will be established here soon in anticipation of the completion of the water works.

The Warsaw and Alexandria ferry will run as long as the river keeps open. She will not go into the canal at Keokuk, but will be hauled up on the shore at Alexandria for repairs when the season is over.

It is much regretted here that the trolley does not run late enough to accommodate those who wish to attend the men's meeting of the Y. M. C. A. every Sunday at the Grand opera house, eKokuk.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held tomorrow morning at 10:30 in the M. E. church, Rev. Martin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will preach the sermon.

tained a large quantity of naphtha, which exploded.

British Among Missing. A hundred passengers including mostly of the British are among the missing. It may have been picked up and landed elsewhere. Levantines and Greeks made up most of the passengers. They were half crazed when the disaster occurred. The tugs have picked up a few passengers but they were unable to get an account of those who are missing.

The Juniors of the high school will enjoy a party at the school building this evening.

The Unity Circle of the Unitarian church met this afternoon with Mrs. Luft at her home, No. 1120 Exchange street.

Mrs. Harry Phillips will entertain at cards on Friday afternoon.

The Keokuk club will give a private dance at the club rooms on Friday evening.

A dance will be given in Hawkes Hall tomorrow afternoon which promises to be an enjoyable one.

Kelley-Neyens. This morning at 9:00 o'clock at St. Peter's Catholic church was solemnized the marriage of Mr. John B. Kelley and Miss Anna A. Neyens, both of this city and a couple who have a host of friends in Keokuk. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Thos. O'Reilly in the presence of a church full of friends and acquaintances. Although the wedding was a quiet one the services were very pretty and the music beautiful. Leonard's Mass in B flat was sung by a full choir, with Mrs. Joseph Furlong in solo parts and Miss Leonore Dickey as organist. Mrs. Furlong sang the Ave Marie. The bride was a tired in a very pretty traveling suit of blue and the couple was unattended. Both Mr. Kelley and Miss Neyens have been among Keokuk well known people and during their future residence in the city will doubtless make many more friends. The groom is a member of a number of fraternal orders of the city among them being the Knights of Columbus. The bride has a host of admiring friends who extend congratulations. The couple will spend their honeymoon in Philadelphia and will be gone for nearly a month.

Remember the matinee at the Grand tomorrow at 3 o'clock.

In a number of the public schools of the city this afternoon Thanksgiving stories were told and read, pieces in connection with the day were spoken and songs of Thanksgiving and big turkeys were sung. An enjoyable time was spent by the little folks in many of the schools and Thanksgiving souvenirs were taken home in the form of paper turkeys which when unfolded disclosed to view the names of all good things to eat on tomorrow.

Matinee at the Grand, 3 o'clock tomorrow. Prices 25 and 50 cents.

Fort Madison Gam City: At about 11:30 Monday night a small cyclone struck the section of the west end vicinity of Payne Bros' store. The blow lasted only for ten minutes but in that short period of time considerable damage was accomplished. The roofs of several sheds were blown off and bill boards wrecked. One of the street car lines poles was broken and the wires of the telephone and electric light tangled up. At one residence a refrigerator was blown from the porch where it was standing.

Thanksgiving greeting post cards are numerous going through the mails and almost as many post cards go through the mails as Thanksgiving greetings as do other holiday cards. Some people still make the mistake of sending unsealed cards through the mail without putting them in an envelope and these are sent to the dead letter office. The mistake of not putting a two cent stamp on the outside of the tissue envelope in which post cards are sent is also frequent. Most of the time a one-cent stamp is put on the inside of the envelope where it cannot be cancelled and consequently it is sent to the dead letter office.

Barney, the world's strong man, arrived in the city this afternoon and was a visitor at the Dodge theatre until the Rock Island train pulled out. It is thought he will be secured to give an exhibition in this city which will call for large crowds at each performance and it may be that he will come. In his match in Quincy last evening with Chas. Hackenschmidt, the strong man was bested by one fall by the Russian who is also a wonder in the wrestling art. C. L. Barney weighs 180 pounds and is a six-footer having wonderful strength. He puts on a vaudeville act over the country demonstrating his strength and wrestling.

Two little colored boys who had ran away from their home at Centerville, one giving his name as William McKinley were picked up on the levee McKinley and the other Foy Edward Young were picked up on the levee this afternoon by Officer Pearson and brought to the police station. They were put on the second floor of the jail and will be held until word can be received from Centerville. McKinley had 50 cents and the other pick-aninnie had a nickel.

SEVEN LOTS SOLD AT ONCE

Deeds Filed For Transfer of Lots in Hawkeye Addition to Citizens of Town of Milton.

REAL ESTATE RUMOR

Story Being Told That a Big Tract of Land in West End of City Had Been Sold Recently.

Seven deeds were filed with the recorder today for lots in Hawkeye addition to the city of Keokuk, each deed being for a $55 lot and each purchaser being a citizen of Milton.

The deeds were as follows: H. E. Craven, lot 4 in block 12, south side of Twenty-fourth street between Poplar and Spruce streets.

W. H. Craven, lot 14 in block 3, north side of Twenty-fifth street between Hickory and Poplar streets.

Anderson Boyd, lot 16 in block 1, north side of Twenty-fifth street east of Pine street.

A. B. Hall, lot 13 in block 3 north side of Twenty-fifth street between Poplar and Spruce streets.

E. E. Hargrove, lot 3 in block 12, south side of Twenty-fourth street between Poplar and Spruce streets.

R. L. Sexton, lot 16 in block 3, north side of Twenty-fifth street between Hickory and Poplar streets.

J. C. Mort, lot 15 in block 3, north side of Twenty-fifth street between Hickory and Poplar streets.

A Real Estate Rumor. The day of real estate rumors is now here and hardly a day goes by but what there is not a report current of some big deal being made.

The one for today is that St. Louis parties have just purchased all of the land in the west end of the city from the Des Moines river bridge up to the lumber yards.

No deeds have been filed for any such a transaction.

The water power prospects and the idea which is prevalent that Keokuk real estate is going to do some great acrobatic feats during the next few months, causes numerous rumors to gain a foothold in the city.
