THE DEATH OF ELIZA HINSON

Passed Away Sunday Morning at the Family Residence in West Keokuk After a Long Illness.

Sunday morning at 6:00 o'clock at the family residence, 1729 William street, occurred the death of Mrs. Eliza Hinson, wife of J. L. Hinson, an old soldier.

SCHWAB CHARGED WITH A SWINDLE

Former President of the Steel Trust Made Defendant in Big Suit.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Chas. M. Schwab, former president of the United States Steel Corporation, was today served with a summons in a suit to recover ten million dollars in Mexican mining property...

—Word was received in this city today of the death of Peter Auwerda, which occurred at his home in Ottumwa.

CITY NEWS

—Watch Gate City; watch Cook. —The case of Wayne Hancock, charged with assault and battery, in the Superior court, has been continued.

—Orchestra at Rink tonight. —Friends of Mr. Earl Hemenover will be sorry to learn that he is seriously ill at his home, No. 112 North Fourth street.

—The dancing party, which was planned for this evening by the Knights of Columbus, has been postponed on account of advent.

—Word has been received from Ell Camp in Kansas City that his daughter, Mrs. Elmer Terry, is greatly improved. He was called there Saturday by her dangerous condition.

—The K-Line train was on time today. The result was that there was rejoicing the postoffice among the employees, who were able to get the mail out on time.

—Funeral services for the late William Mayhew were held Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Trinity M. E. church and were conducted by Rev. J. W. Potter. Interment was made in Oakland cemetery.

—Watch out for Cook. —Keokuk people interested in live stock will probably attend the live stock exposition which is being held in Chicago, the dates being November 23 to December 10.

—Keep your eye on Coe. —Contractor Cameron is having one of the wagons that hauls the mail from the postoffice to the depot and return repainted and repaired.

—Something doing at Cook's. —Special lot of men's work shoes at bargain prices this week. Star Shoe store, 726 Main.

—Rev. McDermott, assistant pastor of St. Peter's Catholic church, has received the sad news of the death of his mother, which occurred in Ireland. Mass will be celebrated this week in St. Peter's church for her.

—Don't miss the exhibit of real coral, mosaics stone and shell cameos at Hornaday's.

—The case of George Boyd, charged with assault with intent to commit rape, was to come up this morning in the Superior court at 10 o'clock.

—Direct from Naples! Beautiful hand-carved coral shell and stone cameos. Inspection invited. Hornaday.

—Keokuk and Hamilton friends will be surprised to learn that Rob Shepherd, the crack amateur twirler is to desert the Hamilton City league team and will try his luck at professional base ball.

—Land, loans and homes, north south, east and west. Edward J. Hall, 18 North fifth street, 30-6t.

—According to Coach Merrill the Thanksgiving day football game in Keokuk should have been a tie, for all three touchdowns were made on forward passes crossing the goal line.

—The two touchdowns made by Fort Madison and the one made by Keokuk all resulted in this manner, the ball being batted by the player and receiving the forward pass and going over the goal line.

—A star pitcher has been signed by Keokuk for next season. He is Charles Vann of Indianapolis, who comes recommended by Shortstop Bush of Detroit.

—Besides this Hannibal has two railroad shops, twelve cigar factories, machine shops, planing mills, box factories and various other industries that lend aid to the support of base ball as a popular pastime.

—Hannibal stands ready to meet any requirements that may be exacted from other applicants for a berth and any other facts that the committee of the association may desire, or the president of the league will be willingly and cheerfully answered.

—Your Truly, B. L. HOUGH, Pres. Hannibal B. B. Ass'n.

(The figures given for Hannibal above, are not guess work or estimates but actual counts, and the admission include nothing but paid admissions.)

MISS PAULSON LEAVES

Will go to Quincy Where She Will Give All of Her Time to That Association in the Gymnasium.

Friends of Miss Pauline Paulson will learn with regret that her work in Keokuk has been discontinued for the present as she has decided to give all her time to Quincy teaching and will take charge of the athletic and expression work in that city at once.

A Growing Association.

The gymnasium classes for the present term were organized under the direction of Miss Paulson and much good work has been done in this line and will be continued.

THANKSGIVING DAY IN WARSAW

Observed by Union Services Held in the M. E. Church, Sermon by Rev. Martyn.

[Special to The Gate City] WARSAW, Ill., Nov. 30.—Thanksgiving was observed in the usual way in Warsaw, Union services at M. E. church at 10:30 a. m., sermon by Rev. Martyn of the Presbyterian church; there was a good attendance.

There were a number of family reunion dinners in the afternoon; most of the business houses were closed.

At 2:30 p. m. Warsaw "wiped the ground" with Carthage at football, at the fair grounds, the score standing 26 to 0; an uninteresting game.

The Electric Theatre did a good business, afternoon and evening, "Blue Bird" was special program.

December will be full of amusements, mostly at opera house; six and perhaps nine dates are promised, the first being the Parland Newhall Bell Ringers on Friday, Dec. 4th, the third event in the Star entertainment course.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rinckel are rejoicing in the advent of a 10 pound boy at their home.

A German band of seven pieces discoursed sweet music on the streets on Friday, and then passed the hat. They are recent importations from the mother country.

The Marsh farm is to be sold December 16th.

Misses Georgia Reiner and Helen Donnie left this afternoon for a visit in Fort Madison.

Mrs. Theodora A. Craig has returned from a two weeks visit with her sister in St. Louis.

Major Charles Renaud and little daughter of Pearce, Arizona, returned to their home last evening after a pleasant visit with his mother.

Miss Genevieve Kiser has returned home from a five weeks visit in St. Louis.

Master Irwin Wolf of Chicago is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. H. R. Hardesty of No. 517 South Second street.

CHEFOO, Nov. 29.—700 persons are believed to have been drowned in a collision between two Japanese steamers off this port.

Two Japanese Steamers Collide off Chefoo and but Few Could be Saved.

RITCHIE TRIAL NOW GOING ON

Jury Secured This Morning and the Evidence Being Taken in the Assault Case.

In the District court this morning was commenced the case of the state vs. George Ritchie and Luther Ritchie, charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

The Ritchie brothers are colored and are charged with having assaulted Jack Roost one Sunday morning in September in the Collins saloon at Fifth and Johnson streets.

Roost entered the saloon to buy a drink and after showing his money, a number of negroes asked him for some of it to buy beer. He refused and they jumped on him, cutting him in the neck with a knife.

The jury was secured this morning and sworn in at 11 o'clock, court then taking a recess until this afternoon when the case began.

THE JURY CASES ARE SET AGAIN

Some Changes Made in the Order in Which the Cases Will Come Up in District Court.

This afternoon in the District court a reassignment was made of the jury cases and some changes were made in the order the cases had been set before.

The next jury case will be that of M. C. Craig vs. City of Keokuk to be followed by that of Amanda Ginyard vs. the city.

The demurrer in the case of Paddelford vs. City of Fort Madison was overruled in two points today.

A decree of divorce was entered in the case of Josie L. Williams vs. Harlan F. Williams.

A Christmas dance will be given on December 23 by Archer Miller and J. McGrath in Hawkes hall.

Several young gentlemen of this city gave a private dance in Hawkes hall on Saturday evening.

An early evening wedding was solemnized Thursday, November 26 at the home of Mr. Wm. Niemeyer in Warsaw, Ill.

The service was simple but very impressive. At 6:30 p. m. the bride attired in tan batiste and carrying bride's roses, took her place with the groom, beneath a canopy of smilax and wedding bells, where the vows were taken.

After the service, congratulations were extended and then all were seated at a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner.

RETURN the furs taken Sunday from No. 517 High street and no questions will be asked. If not returned, prosecution will follow.
