

THREAT TO KILL JUDGE BANK

Fort Madison Woman Had a Revolver and Said That She Would Murder the Court Official.

WAS ARRESTED AT NOON

Mrs. Helen Bentley is to be Tried This Afternoon to See Whether or She is Insane.

A Fort Madison woman threatened to murder Judge Bank. She had a revolver and several days ago made threats to the judge that she would murder him.

Arrested at Noon. She was arrested at noon today and this afternoon at 4 o'clock was to be tried for insanity, it being thought that she is insane.

Her name is Mrs. Helen Bentley and her fancied grievance at the court of trial arose over the settlement of an estate. County Attorney W. G. Blood left for Fort Madison this afternoon on the 2:45 o'clock train to be present at the hearing, when Mrs. Bentley was to be examined by the board of commissioners for the insane.

May be Insane. Since the threat was first made, the matter has been investigated by the officials and it was not known whether the woman is insane or was prompted by malice in her threat to kill Judge Bank.

She was arrested this noon at Fort Madison and locked up in the county jail there and this afternoon the commissioners were to find out whether or not she is insane. In case she is found to be insane, she will be sent to Mount Pleasant, but if found sane, information will be filed against her and she will face the charges.

RIOTING REACHED THE HIGH POINT

Secessionists Barricade the Streets and Oppose the Police and Soldiers.

PRAGE, Dec. 2.—Rioting secessionists reached their height today when the streets were barricaded by the rioters who resisted the police and soldiers. They are in great numbers and able to hold their own against the combined forces. Many have been killed, the hospitals are full of wounded. A spirit of anarchy is spreading throughout Bohemia and the situation is considered serious. Representations are made to the government asking the strictest repressive measures be adopted.
