FINE BAZAAR AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Ladies Aid Society are Holding their Annual Christmas Bazaar There this Afternoon and Evening.

This afternoon and evening the Ladies Aid Society of the First Christian church are holding a Christmas bazaar in the pretty parlors of the church. Many ladies attended during the afternoon and evening and purchased from the many concession booths that were built around the room, in a pretty and tasteful manner.

From the center of the room was suspended an immense Jap umbrella from which were depended a dozen or more large Jap lanterns making a pretty effect among the other tasteful decorations of many colored crepe paper in which the booths were trimmed.

The booths in order were in charge of the following ladies: The candy booth, Mesdames Greaves and Brown, who sold fine home made candies. The fancy table on which a large amount of fine fancy work, the handiwork of the ladies, was presided over by Mesdames Talley, Singleton and Love.

Pretty aprons were sold at one of the booths by Mesdames Harsin, Moseley and Davidson. The Japanese booth was in charge of Miss Nina Moseley and Miss Alma Pyles and was one of the pretty features of the affair.

Tomorrow the ladies will hold a market in the church parlors and those in charge will be Mesdames Smith, Perrigo and Botts. Tonight a social will be given for the benefit of those who were unable to attend the program has been arranged: Violin solo, Marie Moseley; piano solo, Jessie Parks; duet, Dorothy and Margaret Aldrich; vocal solo, Mr. W. C. Hughes; recitation, Charles Payton.
