A most pleasing social event was the skating party so highly enjoyed at the Rool-a-way last evening. Promptly at 8:15, Mr. Isaac Blom led the grand march, in which seventy-five couples participated, music being furnished by the Fiftieth Iowa band. The merry skaters lingered until a late hour. There are many graceful skaters to be seen at the Rool-a-way every afternoon and evening, and scores are fast learning the pleasant and healthful pastime. Great enjoyment is being taken in Keokuk's new and popular amusement place, and the efforts of the management to conduct their place in a manner that will be most pleasing to the large number of patrons is being appreciated.

Last evening at Hawkes hall, one of the most enjoyable masquerade dancing parties of the season was given by P. L. Kennedy, Keokuk's well known dancing teacher. A large number of those attending were masked in an original and comic manner and much mirth was caused by the various costumes worn by the dancers who enjoyed the evening from 9 until 12 o'clock. Colored folk in gay attire were much in evidence last evening and a Happy Holligan with an electric tin and the ever present tomato can on his head was carried out and masked to perfection by one of the dancers. About seventy-five couples were in attendance at the affair. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Agne orchestra.

The Young Men's Club of the Trinity M. E. church held a very pleasant social and business meeting last evening at the home of Edward Wustrow, 1223 Blondeau street. C. E. Alling was elected vice president of the club to succeed F. E. Shook, whose future home is in southwest Kansas. The possibility of organizing an indoor baseball team among the young men's classes of the various churches in the city was discussed at length and a meeting will be called soon for the purpose of effecting an organization. Following the business a social session was enjoyed. F. E. Reynolds gave several guitar and mouth organ numbers, and Miss Wustrow, a sister of the host, gave several piano numbers. Refreshments were served previous to the departure of the guests.
