

ST. MARYS TEAM LOSE AGAIN

Were Defeated by the Independents Last Evening on Their Own Alleys by Over Two Hundred Pins.

SCORES WERE LOW ONES

Match Was an Uninteresting One and Few Good Scores Were Made by the Bowlers.

Table with columns: Play, Won, Lost, Pct. Rows include Keokuk Club, Independents, Grand Leaders, Drexel, St. Peter's, St. Mary's.

Monday, Dec. 29. Drexel vs. Independents at Drexel alleys.

Tuesday, Dec. 29. St. Peter's vs. Grand Leaders, at Drexel alleys.

St. Mary's vs. Keokuk Club, at Keokuk Club alleys.

At St. Mary's alleys last evening the Independents won another game, defeating the St. Mary's team in a poorly rolled contest.

The totals made last evening were extremely low. The Independents finished with but 223 pins, while the St. Mary's team completed the series with but 205.

The Independents lost the first game of the match by 10 pins. This is the second game St. Mary's have won this year and a golden opportunity was lost last evening when the bowlers slumped.

The score in detail is as follows:

Guilty of Counterfeiting. Passing counterfeit money is no worse than substituting some unknown worthless remedy for Foley's Honey and Tar, the great cough and cold remedy that cures the most obstinate coughs and heals the lungs.

Shortly after the noon hour, Miss Bertha R. Nichols and Farmer L. Hensley of Marietta, Illinois, were married by the popular Justice, who a few minutes later was called upon to perform a similar function for a couple from Sciota, Illinois.

These were Miss Leona Kirkbride and Joseph E. Solomon, it being the second marriage of the bride.

The following is comment on Herbert Leon Cope, who will appear at the Grand next Tuesday evening: The last of the course of entertainments came off Monday evening—Herbert L. Cope. It was a one-man entertainment, but he proved to be a loaded bomb. His entertainment was in the form of a running lecture interspersed with impersonations and character sketches, mostly in the lighter vein, with just enough of the somber and tragic side of life to show men and women what they are.

In the main, he presented the gospel of mirth and good humor, and he did it to the great pleasure of all present.—Hincley Review.
