TO CONSIDER PARTY TROUBLES

West Calls Committee to Consider the Troublesome Illinois Legislative Situation.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 11.—Instead of lessening in intensity the legislative-gubernatorial situation continues to grow more severe and absorbing.

Though none of the members of the house or senate were in the city Saturday, political gossip was not idle and rumors, some reasonable, some fantastic and many grotesque and novel, filled the air and in view of the happenings of the week any of them seem possible.

The most important development of the day was the call by State Chairman Roy O. West for a meeting of the Republican state central committee in this city next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The meeting was called no doubt after consultation with Governor Deneen. The object is not stated except indefinitely to be to learn whether there is a Republican party in Illinois.

It will consider the situation and determine what is to be done. Governor Deneen, it is understood, will send a peppy, if not blistering message, dealing with the present situation.

SUICIDED ON WABASH TRAIN

Mrs. Anna Moore of Chicago Kills Herself on Train by Cutting Her Throat.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Jan. 11.—Mrs. Anna Moore, 40 years old, wife of William Bennett Moore, of 5955 Prairie avenue, Chicago, well dressed and wearing considerable jewelry, committed suicide on a Wabash train by cutting her throat with a razor on the toilet room while the train was between Sibley and Forrest, Saturday afternoon. Blood flowing under the door led to the discovery.

The woman was dead when found. In a purse was found $15 and a telegram to William Bennett Moore, of 5955 Prairie avenue, Chicago, stating she was going to Mt. Sterling, Ill., for a brief visit. The body was taken to an undertaking establishment at Gibson city.

CANAL OUTLOOK DEEMED BRIGHT

Congressmen Return From the Isthmus Greatly Encouraged—Kennedy Among Them.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Predicting completion of the Panama canal by 1915 and expressing satisfaction with the Gatun dam site, which he had carefully inspected, Representative Murdock of Kansas, returned today with four other congressmen from a brief tour in the canal zone and the examination of the work being done on the big ditch.

A party comprising Representatives Murdock, Haugen, Kennedy, Groom and Lindberg left for the isthmus before the members of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce, now in the canal territory, had begun their investigations. Members of the returning party all expressed themselves as pleased with what they observed on the isthmus.

Murdock said he had experienced a complete change of heart on the question of the advisability of a lock canal as against a sea level cutting, which later the government had abandoned as impracticable.

"There is nothing for it but a lock canal," said he. "The conditions are such that the construction of a sea level canal would be wasteful and foolish. My colleagues and I all went down there strong sea level men, but we are all coming back, with one exception, strongly in favor of the lock construction."

REVIVAL MEETING AT DOWNING, MO.

Evangelist Joel Brown of Des Moines, in an Interesting Revival at Downing.

DOWNING, Mo., Jan. 11.—Evangelist Joel Brown of Des Moines is holding a revival meeting for the Christian church. The services are conducted in the large hall on the ground floor of the Odd Fellows building and the house is crowded every evening and much interest shown.

Geo. ("Badger") Smith, the young man who was arrested in Keokuk a short time ago, as a deserter from the U. S. army, has returned to Downing. It seems he had a furlough in his pocket which had not expired and the charge on which he was arrested was groundless.

Almost every winter Downing has a small pox scare and this winter has been no exception. A young man named Hugh Tolbert came over from Kirksville, Mo., and was staying at the home of Jack Mullikin two miles west of town. The first of last week he was taken sick and Wednesday came to town to see a doctor when it was discovered he had small pox.

He left town but returned at night, going to the depot intending to take the train for Kirksville, but the health officers were on the look out for him and sent him back to Mullikin, where arrangements were made to care for him. Some time Thursday night he escaped and it is supposed had his way back to Kirksville. The depot and all places where he was had been thoroughly disinfected and no fear is felt that the disease will spread.

MRS. DEILING PASSED AWAY

Death this Afternoon of a Long Time Resident of Keokuk.

Mrs. Agatha Deiling, an old resident of Keokuk since 1855 passed away this afternoon at 2:10 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jos. Lafeber, No. 1428 Des Moines street. Death was due to pneumonia and came after a sickness of about ten days.

The deceased was a well known citizen of Keokuk, having made this city her home since 1855 and had a great many friends. She was a member of St. Peter's church.

She was born in Holland on July 21, 1831, and is survived by two sons, three daughters, 17 grand children and one great grandchild. She was the widow of the late John H. Deiling.

The sons are B. J. Deiling and Dr. N. J. Deiling. The daughters are Mrs. Sabina Schneider, Mrs. H. L. Vongers and Mrs. Lafeber.

DEAD LOCK UP TO DENEEN MEN

Shurtleff Men Put the Question of Breaking the Deadlock up to Deneen Men.

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 11.—With the demand of a senatorial caucus of the Republicans of the general assembly held without reference to the present deadlock over the recount of ballots on governor, the Shurtleff and Deneen Republicans have put the question of breaking the deadlock up to the Deneen men. The Shurtleff men are beginning to show more interest in the Hopkins senatorial candidacy. The Shurtleff men are insisting the governor take his chances and are today making great sport of the governor's fears that preparations have been made to arbitrarily throw him out of office.

P. L. Kennedy has postponed his dance from this Friday evening until a week from that date on account of the Auxiliary A. O. H. dance on next Friday evening.

NEW YEAR RALLY HELD YESTERDAY

Congregational Sunday School Held a Rally Yesterday Morning at Which All Were Present.

TRINITY BROTHERHOOD WAS AN OLD RESIDENT

Officers Were Installed Last Evening by the Pastor, Rev. J. W. Potter of Trinity Church.

On Sunday morning at the Congregational Sunday school, a mid-winter rally was held at which time almost all the members of the school were present, making a fine showing for such a bad morning.

During the week, superintendent of the Sunday school, C. F. McFarland had sent out letters to every member of the school urging them to be present on yesterday and make the rally a success. In each letter was enclosed a small white tag with a number on it in gilt figures. The members were requested by the superintendent to wear these and with each one present the chain of numbers would be unbroken.

The showing was excellent and the school is in an excellent condition, a number of the classes having formed clubs for the bettering of their church work and good fellowship among the members. Four of such clubs were reported on at yesterday morning's meeting and the purpose of each with the results obtained.

The young men of R. B. Smith's class have formed a club called the L. M. R's, these letters being known only by the members themselves and the club having drawn up a fine constitution and by-laws by which to carry on their work. The Baraca class composed of the older members of the school is in fine shape and the class is a large one. Reports of all the classes were made at yesterday's roll call.

Brotherhood Installed.

The Brotherhood of the Trinity M. E. church installed its officers at last night's church services. The officers were installed by the pastor Rev. J. W. Potter, just before the evening services at 8 o'clock.

Before the installation, the pastor made a talk to the members, speaking on and commending the good work that is being done by the society. The pastor told of the women who heretofore were expected to do all the work of the church were now being helped by the fine organized brotherhood of the church. The talk was a very interesting one to all who were present.

During the coming revival meetings which will begin at the church on next Wednesday evening, the Trinity Brotherhood will have an important part in the good work which is carried on at the meeting.

Those who were installed at the meeting last evening as officers of the Brotherhood for the coming year are the following:

- President—E. S. Patterson. First vice president—Dr. Courtwright. Second vice president—E. W. Pierce. Third vice president—C. E. Alling. Fourth vice president—J. N. Damsell. Secretary—V. R. Mackey. Chairman of finance committee—A. Lofquist.

PERSONALS.

Frank Wilmering left for Chicago on Saturday evening on a business trip.

Alf Larson has returned from a business trip east.

Dr. Geo. R. Narley returns tomorrow to St. Louis after an extended visit in the city.

Harold Brownell leaves tonight for Chicago. Miss Clara E. Castle, of Quincy, Ill., was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Brownell the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Berryhill, of Kansas City, are in Keokuk visiting with Mr. Berryhill's brother, L. A. Berryhill.

The Wednesday Bridge Whist club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Johnson, Fourth and Orleans street, this afternoon.

Mrs. Bert Thompson entertained a few friends at bridge waist at her home on High street Saturday evening.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. CAMPBELL

Occurred Sunday Morning Between the Hours of Two and Five at Family Residence in West Keokuk.

WAS AN OLD RESIDENT

Had Made Her Home in Keokuk for Forty One Years and Was Eight Five Years of Age—Body Sent to Burlington.

Between the hours of 2 and 5 Sunday morning at the family residence, 1225 Missouri avenue, Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, wife of the late Henry K. Campbell, crossed her hands on her bosom and sank to a final rest.

Her death was very sudden, although not unexpected. For the past four weeks she had been bedfast and was almost constantly attended by relatives. At 2 o'clock in the morning she was visited by her daughter and was found sleeping, but on the return of the daughter at 5 o'clock she had passed away. The body was still warm and death came but a few minutes before that hour.

Mrs. Campbell was one of the old residents of this city, having lived here for the past forty-one years. She was born in Pennsylvania on August 3, 1823, and spent her early years there. During the many years that she has been a resident of Keokuk she was respected by all who knew her and in death leaves many friends.

The health of Mrs. Campbell has not been the best for a number of years and for the past four years she had been paralyzed. This made it impossible for her to enjoy things as in her younger days, but she took great pride in her children, grandchildren and even great-grandchildren. She was a member of the Trinity M. E. church.

The following survive: Four sons, George and John of this city, and Robert of Butte, Mont., and David of St. Louis; daughters, Mrs. Anna Leach of Keokuk, and Mrs. Kuhn of Burlington; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The body was sent to Burlington this afternoon at 2:05 o'clock to be interred.

Died.

HENRY SEYMOUR JOHN—January 10, 1903, Henry Seymour John, son of Daniel John, Jr., and Annie Seymour John, age two years, eleven months and eight days. Funeral from the home of his parents, 428 South Seventh street, Tuesday at 3 p. m.

The death of this young child of Mr. and Mrs. John came at the end of a two weeks' illness of spinal meningitis. The sympathy of many Keokuk friends are extended in this late sorrow.

REV. CARMICHAEL AT CARTHAGE

toward him as being the much wanted fugitive, or that he contemplated taking his life.

There is no belief here that the stranger is any other than the Adair minister who is wanted for the brutal murder.

The Murder Mystery. Rev. Carmichael is suspected of having committed a most foul murder in his church at Columbus, Mich. The remains of a human were found in the Methodist church furnace, of which he was pastor and the first report was that the minister had been murdered and his body burned. The walls of the church were covered with blood, showing evidence of a desperate struggle and the minister had disappeared.

Afterwards, the body was found not to be that of Carmichael, but was identified as that of Gideon Browning, a carpenter. A pin, buttons from the overcoat and the teeth found in the ashes, led to the identity of the body as that of Browning.

A search was then started for the minister and he had been reported as being seen in many different places, but he was never reported being seen in this vicinity.

Numerous theories were advanced, one being that no murder had been committed but that an animal's blood had been sprinkled about the church and a body from a grave yard had been placed in the furnace, the whole plot for the purpose of securing the $8,000 life insurance carried by the minister, but that did not explain the absence of Browning.

The confession and statement of Carmichael, found in his pocket this morning at Carthage, clears up all of the mystery surrounding the case.

Carmichael ead. CARTHAGE—Carmichael died at 12:45 this afternoon. His confession letter was as follows:

A Higher Health Level. "I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer, of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at Wilkinson & Co., and J. F. Kiedaisch & Son drug store, 25c.

will demand a thousand dollars insurance on his life. She says the insurance is in her name. Port Huron, Mich.

Mr. Way, County Sheriff.

I write this letter to tell something in connection with the Cumberland church tragedy. I am guilty only because I am a coward. This man had such hypnotic influence over me that I felt something must be done. I felt greatly ashamed that a man could be so short minded. He was able to compel me to yield to his will.

At first he said it was all right. Don't be afraid. Then he began to talk about how we two could get rich. Three times he came to the rear of my barn and talked to me through the manure hole. Once when I was going to Columbus, he was on the pike near the big school house. He asked me to ride which I could not refuse. Asked me if I had ever driven up the pike to Port Huron, to which I answered no. Then he said, "lets drive up." He got out while I went to the barn with the rig. He gave me a 1/2 dollar and said he wanted me to buy a small hatchet for his boy. I began to tell him to do his own buying. Then he set his eyes upon me. He had a queer look in his eyes, something like a snakes eyes. All the while I felt his influence, so I went in intending to go into the store and out the back way and get the horse and rush home. When I turned to close the door, he stood looking upon me through the window and I bought the hatchet and came out again. But by that time he had disappeared. I went to the barn, got my rig and started for home. Then as I made a turn out Military street, he was at the corner to get in. He rode as far as the south park where he got out to take the car. He took the hatchet with him and said nothing, nor did I think anything at the time about the change.

Once at the depot at Adair he came out of the house in his shirt sleeves and exercised me and compelled me to walk the rails. All the while I felt as small as a bantam chicken. When he agrained with me about the wedding he said he would go to Port Huron to get the license and meet me on the road between that place and the church. I thought he really meant to get married and use my service, but when we were on the road and alone, I began to feel uneasy. But he said it was all right, the others would come in a carriage and we went into the church.

I wanted to light a lamp to which he said "No." No light unless they should come. Then he said we had better have a little fire and then I put in what I thought would be enough wood. The moon was shining on the front door and he told me some one might see me come in that way. Just come in the window, he said.

I brought a few sticks, piled them across each other, from the top of which he helped me into the building. I let the window down and watched to see the others come down the state road. Presently he took a big hearty laugh and said, there's no use looking, there ain't going to be no wedding. He was sitting where the light fell on his face and his eyes were brilliant and I was thrilled through and through with a queer sort of feeling.

When I asked him what he was there for, he said:

"Well, elder, I just want to have a little fun. You consider yourself an educated man and look down upon a poor, ignorant fellow like me and I thought I would show you what I can do. I know if I can handle you, I can handle other men and make a big thing out of it. Now if I say, raise your hand up, up she goes. That's no cream, and I felt my hand raising without effort. Then he made me let down my hand. Bby this time I was so alarmed that I was in a cold sweat. I then leaned over to see if anyone might be on the road when he began to laugh again and I saw him holding a weapon up his sleeve. I made a grab for it and grabbed the hatchet from him.

The Murder. The letter then describes the murder, stating that the man came at him with a knife and that they backed across the church. The minister struck him twice in the head with the hatchet.

When he thought he had killed him and started to cut the body up and hide it, the man raised himself and tried to stab him.

The letter tells of the minister thinking that he would freeze to death and of cutting up the body, putting it in the stove and making his escape.

He says that he was tired of hiding and that he had eluded the detectives so far, but upon receipt of this letter for the officers to come after him, that he would be near Carthage, Ill.

Browning took a knife out of his overcoat pocket and the minister was armed with the hatchet. The battle was desperate according to the letter.

Carmichael ead. CARTHAGE—Carmichael died at 12:45 this afternoon. His confession letter was as follows:

A Higher Health Level. "I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer, of West Franklin, Maine.
