

TRINITY PEOPLE ARE PRAISING GOD

The Very Best Meeting Since the Revival Started—Attendance is Steadily on the Increase.

DECIDING FOR CHRIST

Revival Spirit Moves Forward—Rally Service Tonight—Big Time is Expected on Next Sunday.

The Trinity Methodist revival is growing in interest. Last night there was present the largest audience as yet for a week night's service.

The service opened as usual in song during which Rev. Potter so nicely commented on the splendid sentiment in the old time hymns.

Following the song service, Rev. Litzrodt led in prayer, and following this there was a solo by Roy Lofquist "A Clean Heart" in which the choir joined in chorus.

Tonight will be the last service of this week, and is to be known as Rally night. Preparations are being especially planned whereby, next Sunday is to be a big day in the church.

The subject for last night was "Disposing of a friend." It was the story of Jesus in the hands of Pilate. Pilate was the Roman governor of Judea, he was a politician, he was a coward, he lacked moral courage, and because of these traits he was afraid to do right.

and was therefore afraid to act according to the dictates of his own conscience, and because of this fact that when Barabbas the robber, and Jesus were brought in and stood before the chief priests, and the governor said unto the priests and elders, "Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you," they demanded that Barabbas be given his freedom and that Christ be crucified.

What is a moral coward? A moral coward is a man that has a belief and does not bring his life up to acting in accord with their belief. Pilate was such a man, as the following Scripture will prove for Pilate said, "What evil hath he done? and notice too the following which is the 24th verse of the 2nd chapter of St. Matthew, "When Pilate said that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person; see ye to it."

This speech showed the weakness of the man. A man ought to be strong, a burden bearer and be doing the work of the world.

And today the reason because the women have so much work, is because there is so many lazy rascals laying around. Many of the girls today would rather work and earn their own livelihood than marry some two-cent man, and take in washing to support him.

Pilate, a weakling and coward tried in a weak way to liberate Jesus, and on account of his weakness in three years' time lost his governorship and a little later his life.

Brave and strong men forge ahead. Weaklings always lose out. The same question that Pilate had to answer is also the question for each one of us to answer, "What shall I do with Jesus?"

The answer is, accept Jesus and be saved. Do nothing and be lost. Christ is either accepted or rejected. Then the question was forced home, "What shall I do without Jesus?" and this point was forcibly presented by relating a dream, which answered the question nicely.

Rev. Potter now took the question "What will I do with Jesus," and turning it around, asked it in this manner, "What will Jesus do with me?"

The answer to this problem is, "Jesus will do with you, just what ever you do with Him.

Two currents are always at work, one influence is up the other is to drag down to defeat. Which current is influencing your life?

Prayer was now offered by Mr. Heitz of Mt. Pleasant, after which the invitation was given and seven souls took a stand for Christ.

A special invitation was now extended for the people to get out this evening and crowd the church, it being the last meeting for this week. The meeting was now dismissed.

For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy. Wilkinsons & Co., and J. F. Kiedaisch & Son.

TOMMY HACKETT BEST CATCHER

Former Keokuk Catcher Leads Oakland, California, in Outlaw League in all Pound Playing Average.

RAISING TEAM MONEY

Some Names Which Will Appear in the Central Association During the Coming Base Ball Season.

Spaulding's official baseball record is the first to give the official records of the outlaw California state league. In the figures of this league Tommy Hackett, the former Keokuk player shines. Tommy leads the catchers of that league in total chances. He played 65 games, had 393 put outs, 86 assists and 19 errors, an average of .922. He batted .255, scored 63 runs and stole 14 bases, which is certainly moving some for a man of Tommy's avocation. The race in the California state league was a freak during the past season. Oakland played 75 games and lost all but 4. San Francisco did but little better, winning 3 out of 76.

The Quincy baseball club is making arrangements to give a big dance at Highland park in the near future. The purpose is to derive money from it for the training season.

At the recent meeting of the Central league the Grand Rapids, Mich., franchise was sold for $10,000. If a franchise in a league with a salary limit of $1,800 is worth $10,000, the membership in a league having a limit of $1,400 ought to be worth $2,500 easily. Hannibal has no kick coming.

The following list of names of prospective Central association players may be of interest to the fans of this circuit. They are given now to give the fans a chance to familiarize himself with them before the season opens. The sport writers and scorers will have all season to get familiar with the writing of the names. Burlington has a Wojtalewicz, an Indian with a name that has a Russian odor. Egan also has a player by the name of Spillane. Waterloo has a Ting, a Turnipseed and a Goodman. Keokuk will be proud of Prough, DeSilva and Cannoughton. Jacksonville has a Morgenthaler. Keokuk has both a Kivly and Kirby. Quincy will introduce Dingeman and Hilliker. There is evidently a chance for a John J. McCloskey in this league. John J. has a knack for cutting down long names. He made Koney out of Konechey, Higgins out of Higginbotham, Hostetter out of Hoelskoetter, etc.

Rube Waddell will soon deprive President Roosevelt of the national championship for strenuousness. Here is an account of what Rube did in one week: Trained the long distance runner Smallwood, a mere matter of running 20 miles a day; built a track at the Coliseum; acted as sporting editor; bought a dog; took part in an all-day target shooting contest; played a game of association football and bor-turned from a visit with relatives in Peoria, Ill. Harley Jenkins returned Thursday from an extended visit in Billings, Montana.

Frank Sturdivant and wife are visiting friends in Davenport. Harold Page is visiting friends in Des Moines.

Mrs. Ella Swerer returned to Chicago, after an extended visit with relatives in this city.

COL. HEPBURN NOT GIVING UP

Will Demand a Recount in Three Counties of His District in Effort to Defeat Jamieson.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Representative Hepburn asserted today that he was going to stay in his contest with W. D. Jamieson until there had been a recount of Page, Appanose and Deatur counties. He said he had been advised by a committeeman of the congressional committee not to drop the contest until there had been such a recount, and he was going to have it.

This means that Colonel Hepburn intends to carry the contest to the house, and wants one of the house committees on elections to recount the votes of those counties.

Colonel Hepburn says he has not heard from Colonel Temple.

"If I am counted out," said Colonel Hepburn, "I will not run for office again, but will go back to Clarinda and live and probably write my memoirs."

Came Near Choking to Death. A little boy, the son of Chris. D. Peterson, a well known resident of the village of Jacksonville, Iowa, had a sudden and violent attack of croup. Much thick stringy phlegm came up after giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Peterson says: "I think he would have choked to death had we not given him this remedy."
