

GAME IN CONTACT WITH LIVE WIRE

Oliver J. Manning, employe of Mississippi Valley Telephone Co., Had Bad Fall Yesterday.

INTERNAL INJURIES

Rendered Unconscious For Some Time and Was Removed to Graham Hospital For Medical Attention.

Oliver J. Manning, an employe of the Mississippi Valley Telephone Co., fell from a telephone pole on Ninth street between Main and Blondeau yesterday afternoon, and is now at the Graham hospital suffering internal injuries that may prove serious.

His fall, which occurred yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, was while he was doing some line work on a pole with Verling Van Ausdall and Elmer D. Hanwalt, and resulted from his coming in contact with a live wire.

Rendered Unconscious.

The fall rendered him unconscious and he was removed to the Graham hospital where medical attention was given him.

He remained unconscious for but a short time and today had fully regained consciousness.

In falling those with him and nearby say that he alighted partly on one foot which served to break his fall and then struck his side and hip.

Telephone men say his escape from death was miraculous as they thought sure he was more seriously injured than developments show.

He has been in the employ of local telephone companies for some time and is well known in Keokuk. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known.

GREAT MOVEMENT TO BE LAUNCHED

Have Ultimate Purpose of Bringing About Evangelization of the World in this Generation.

Keokuk evangelical churches are well represented at the Laymen's Missionary Movement convention which opens today in Des Moines.

The Register and Leader of that city contains quite an extended interview with Dr. Trimble, who spoke in Keokuk only a short time ago on this subject, and prints the following objects as outlined by this well versed man:

"The object of our laymen's missionary conference in Des Moines is to send the delegates back to their respective churches thrilled with the inspiration that must come from such a gathering," declared Dr. J. B. Trimble of Kansas City, secretary of the foreign board of the Methodist Episcopal church, and one of the organizers of the work in Iowa.

Dr. Trimble outlined the method of conducting the campaign in the state. Iowa was divided east and west, he taking the western part of the state and Dr. Pierce the eastern half.

The plan was to visit several of the larger towns, meet two or three representatives from each of the churches and perfect organizations. Each of these little boards chose a chairman and a secretary.

A number of smaller outlying towns were then allotted to each of the denominations and the organization was perfected in them along the same lines.

"I was surprised and gratified to see the readiness with which the various churches responded to the call for a conference," continued Dr. Trimble. "It has been planned to set a date for meeting the representatives of the various towns so that when I arrived they would be in readiness for my coming and we could proceed to business without delay.

To give some idea of the success that we have attained, I only need to mention that I met 75 men at Boone, 26 at Marshalltown, 40 at Fort Dodge, 60 at Sioux City, 40 at Council Bluffs, 25 at Keokuk, and the Rev. Mr. Pierce met from 25 to 50 in each of the towns in his territory. In all we have visited approximately 150 towns."

Campaign of Education. In outlining the purpose of the movement Dr. Trimble said: Our plan and aim is first, to project a campaign of education among the laymen; second, to devise a comprehensive plan in conjunction with the board secretaries looking toward the evangelization of the world in this generation; third, to endeavor to form through the various boards a commission of laymen, fifty or more in number, to visit as early as possible the mission fields and report their findings to the board at home.

"It is our hope and our prayer that the conference in Des Moines will be conducive of great good. The delegates will go back to their churches inspired and these churches will in turn lend inspiration to the smaller towns in their districts. The result will be a quickening along the lines of religious thinking and activity. We want to make the realization of the kingdom of Christ a vital thing of the present and we feel that we have struck upon the proper plan for success."

Hundreds of delegates will arrive today and when the session opens at the Auditorium on Wednesday morning it is thought that more than 1,000 will be in attendance, going to 1,600 before the close of the conference, Thursday. The banquets will have 1,000 in attendance and there will be two of them held to accommodate the large crowds who desire places. One will be held at the First Methodist church this evening and the other at Plymouth Congregational church. J. Campbell White of New York City and Col. Elijah W. Halford, formerly editor of the Chicago Inter Ocean will alternate as the after-dinner speakers.

Bishop Morrison to Speak. The opening address on Wednesday morning will be given by R. Rev. Theodore N. Morrison, bishop of Iowa, with shorter addresses by Rev. H. B. Dickson of Assam, India; Dr. J. B. Trimble of Kansas City and Edwin F. Procase of Bombay, India. The day

TWENTY PASSES FOR EACH CLUB

This is the Number of Daily "Dead Heads" Who Will be Admitted to Every Game in the League.

BASEBALL OF INTEREST

Spencer is Slated For the Blow Car as Soon as the Right Train Comes Along—Other Ball Notes.

In the list of supplies sent out by President Justice to each club in the league the baseball passes were included. Each club has received twenty books which will be furnished to the newspapers and such other as are entitled to them.

Actual working baseball players, which is meant the men who "cover" the games for their respective papers, will not be issued these passes, but will instead be admitted to the grounds in the circuit on the presentation of their membership card in the Central Association of Sport Writers, according to the provision of the constitution of that body.

There is little doubt but that Spencer is slated for the minors as he has been carefully tried out by Comisky, who has formed the conclusion that the Central Association pitcher needs a little more seasoning before he will be fruit for the major leagues.

Manager Frank Belt writes to President M. E. Justice concerning baseball matters and among other things offers the name of Pat Wright as an umpire in the Central Association.

George Zackert who displayed good form last season with the Ottumwa team, has been secured by Manager Boyle to take a place on the flinging mound for the Waterloo Champs.

The Ottumwa baseball team will wear white suits, trimmed in black during the coming season. The Ottumwa team has now three sets of suits including the latest order.
