

SALOON FIGHT ON IN IOWA

Defeat of the Rankin Bill For Law Enforcement Adds to the Bitterness of the Controversy.

MARSHALS JOIN FIGHT

Railroads Will Not be Penalized For Failure to Comply With the Order of State Railway Commissioners.

Des MOINES, April 3.—The drys and the wets will make Iowa their battle ground for the next two years. Both parties will use every possible effort to secure the control of the next legislature. That this contest was coming has been apparent since the prohibition constitutional amendment was hung up in the senate committee. This amendment went through the house with little opposition, but its opponents got busy in the senate and by a small majority secured its reference to a hostile committee.

Rankin Bill is Defeated.

The house defeated the Rankin bill providing for the appointment of two law enforcement commissioners, to have charge of the enforcement of the liquor laws in all parts of the state. This bill is the outcome of Col. Rankin's crusade for a state marshal law, passed originally upon the Maine state constabulary law.

For a number of sessions this bill has been before the legislature, but its friends believe it could be passed at this session in view of the law enforcement program, which seems to have been adopted by the leaders in both houses. Today, however, the bill came up in the house, and after a long discussion it went to a vote and was defeated by thirty to sixty-six, with twelve members absent or not voting.

The State Poem.

The proposition to establish a state poem was disposed of by the house when Chas. Miller called upon his bill recommending as a state poem the one written by Bailey of Britt. The members of the house were quite unanimous in the opinion that though good farmers, druggists, bankers, lawyers, etc., they might be poor literary critics. So they referred the bill to the committee on penitentiaries.

Roads Will Not be Penalized.

This afternoon the senate killed the bill which has as its provision the penalizing of a railroad $50 per day for failing to comply with the orders of the state railway commissioners.

Aims Death Blow at Lumber Trusts.

The Kull bill, which prohibits combinations of lumber concerns in Iowa and aims a death blow at the lumber trusts now operating in the state, passed the house today by a three to one vote. It provides imprisonment of 12 months and a penalty of $200 to $5,000 for violations of the anti-trust law.

lies in a keen, clear brain, backed by indomitable will and resistless energy. Such power comes from the splendid health that Dr. King's New Life Pills impart. They vitalize every organ and build up brain and body. J. V. Harmon, Lilemore, W. Va., writes: "They are the best pills I ever used." 25c at Wilkinson & Co. and J. F. Kleidatsch & Son.

"Nonsense Song," or "The Song that Came out Wrong."

The music is by Liza Lehmann and the lyrics by Lewis Carroll and taken from "Alice in Wonderland." Wm Lehmann has shown remarkable clever in setting these inimitable lyrics to music.

Much of it is in burlesque style.—In the chorus—"They Told me You Had Been to Her—a part of the trial scene is incorporated, and is in the style of the old school of Italian grand opera.

The double quartette who will render it consists of, Mr. James Young, Mr. H. T. Graham, Miss Martha Baldwin, Miss Julia Sample, Miss Harriette Carter, Mrs. C. R. Joy, Mr. Fred Dressel and Mr. Diver with Mrs. H. I. Sawyer as accompanist. Following is the program:

1. Double Quartette, How Doth the Little Crocodile.
2. Bass Solo, Fury said to a Mouse—Mr. Dressel.
3. Duet, You are Old Father William—Mr. Young, Mr. Dressel.
4. Contralto Solo, The Duchess Lullaby—Miss Kastner.
5. Double Quartette, Will You Walk a Little Faster.
6. Recitation—Miss Kastner.
7. Tenor Solo, Mock Turtle Soup—Mr. Young.
8. Soprano Solo, Queen of Hearts—Miss Baldwin.
9. Double Quartette, They told Me You Had Been to Her.
10. Double Quartette, Epilogue—To Alice.
