

WERE BURIED SIDE BY SIDE

Remains of Herman Bartlett and Belva Pugh Were Buried This Afternoon in the Frazee Ceremony.

THE CORONER'S INQUEST

Girl Was Shot in the Left Temple and Boy in the Right, Showing That He Did the Double Killing.

This afternoon at the Frazee cemetery at Alexandria, the bodies of Herman Bartlett and Belva Pugh were buried, side by side, as requested in the note left by the young couple Sunday evening just before they left the girl's home and wandered off into the country south of town and took their lives.

The bodies were recovered yesterday afternoon, as stated in this paper, being found about two miles south of town, lying upon the bank of a slough and each one dead, a revolver lying between them.

The two were found about six feet apart, the girl with a bullet hole in her left temple and the boy with one in his right temple. Both had been dead for several days and the supposition is that the horrible deed had been committed either Sunday night or Monday morning. Nothing in the way of further letters were found.

From the wounds in the temple, it is evident that Bartlett shot the girl first and then ended his own life.

The Inquest. Coroner Dr. H. S. Rees of Wayland held the inquest last evening at about 6 o'clock, the jury consisting of Wm. Bates, Wm. Baldwin, Leo Breitenmeyer, Wm. Koerber, Nang Wisley and Robert Bryant. The verdict was that to the best of the knowledge of the jurors the death was the result of a love affair and caused by shots from Bartlett.

The funeral of Miss Pugh was held at 2:00 o'clock from the Presbyterian church, of which she was a member. Rev. Hutton having charge. The funeral of Bartlett was held from the home of his father and the burial of the two took place in the Frazee cemetery, where they were tenderly laid side by side.

The incident will long be remembered by the people of Alexandria, as one of the most pathetic and strange cases of that vicinity. For Coription. Mr. L. H. Farnham, a prominent druggist of Spirit Lake, Iowa, says: Tablets are certainly the best thing on the market for constipation. Give these tablets a trial. LEARNED STUDENT IN THE CITY

Brother of Dr. W. P. Sherlock Arrived Last Evening From Heidelberg and May Consent to Speak.

A brother of Dr. W. P. Sherlock, J. H. Sherlock, arrived in the city last evening for a short visit with the doctor, arriving here recently from Heidelberg, Germany, where he has been for the past several months studying extensively in Germany and France for the past eight months and during that time taking in a large part of the European countries, including Great Britain, Germany, France, Belgium, Italy and a number of other countries.

During his travels, Mr. Sherlock has been a close observer of the government and laws governing each in every place visited and being a student well versed in parliamentary laws he is indeed a pleasing speaker and has already had numerous requests since coming to the city to appear before Keokuk audiences and speak of his travels.

This he will probably consent to do and Keokuk persons interested in foreign lands and the laws governing the various European countries will be entertained by Mr. Sherlock on this subject. Mr. Sherlock is a gentleman with a pleasing personality and has already made many friends during his short stay in the city. He is a scholar of note and much interested in this state particularly because his home is at Emmetsburg, Iowa, and on account of his having been raised here. He is particularly interested in Ireland and her welfare, being of good old Irish descent and a student of the laws, customs and situation in general in that Isle.

Father Pregonzer, C. S. R., gave an excellent sermon last evening at St. Mary's church on "The Real Presence," which was heard by a crowded church. This was the last lecture by this missionary father and shortly after the services the two missionaries who have been here for nearly two weeks departed. Father Pregonzer, C. S. R., left for St. Louis, and Father Merke, C. S. R., for Kansas City.

AN ITCHING PALM

NO Cure for It. Other Forms of Itching Preferable.

There is no cure for an itching palm—the money kind. Even psalm, the new skin discovery, cannot help it. But when it comes to eczema, the most annoying of itching skin troubles, psalm will stop the itching at once and cure the worst cases in a few days. So with hives, rash, scabies, split toes, piles, and scaly scalp, all of which are different forms of eczema, accompanied by severe itching and caused by imperfect digestion and careless diet.

Psalm comes in two-dollar jars, but fifty cents' worth will answer in curing any of the diseases mentioned. It can be had of any druggist. Wilkinson & Co. make a specialty of it.

That results are immediate will be amply demonstrated over night by the use of the experimental sample which the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-Fifth Street, New York City, will send free by mail, in plain wrapper, to any one who will write for it.

OBITUARY OF MRS. J. D. NEEL

Passing of Highly Esteemed Resident of Gorin on Wednesday Evening, After Illness Extending Over 6 Weeks.

GORIN IS IMPROVING

New Residence of Luther Williamson Completed—Many Cement Walks Laid and Other Buildings Contemplated.

[By a Staff Correspondent.] GORIN, Mo., April 9.—The death angel hovered over the home of Mrs. J. D. Neel and called her to the great beyond Wednesday evening at 10:00 o'clock.

She was the wife of Jas. D. Neel, who is now the city marshal. She has been a sufferer for the past few years with cancer, and had recently just returned from Kansas City where she had been for treatment, but which proved to be of no avail. For the past six weeks her case grew to very serious character until death relieved her of her sufferings.

She was a kind and lovable woman and was greatly enthused over her church work, being a member of the Christian church, and she will be missed among those who knew her. Mary J. Thomas, being her maiden name, she was born in Green county, Pennsylvania, and came here during her early childhood. She was united in marriage to Jas. D. Neel, October 8, 1871. Since then she has always lived in this immediate vicinity.

To this union were born seven children of whom six are to survive her. Mrs. Ida Kraus of Gorin; Mrs. Bessie Wise, of Memphis; Mrs. Stella Park of Mystic; Mrs. Lucy Summers of Memphis; Geo. W. Neel, Sedwick, Kansas, and Burley Neel of Gorin. She was a member of Rebecca lodge. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. V. Pierce, pastor of the Christian church, interment being in the Gorin cemetery.

Chas. Kelfer, the butcher, who has been confined for the past week with the grip, is again able to be at his shop.

Miss Lizzie Peterson has returned to her home in Kansas City after spending a week visiting at the home of her parents. A. S. Gagner left Tuesday for Kankakee, Ill., to attend the funeral of his brother, who was killed there a few days ago, by the explosion of an automobile which was caused by igniting the fumes by striking a match. This was a horrible death he met, and caused a considerable loss by fire.

Luther Williamson has just moved in his beautiful new residence which was just completed at the cost of $3,000.

B. F. Hookey has commenced to build a large barn 40x60 which will cost him about $1,500, which will be used for stock purposes.

P. J. Russell is building a four room addition to his residence of which will make a decided improvement to the same.

Harry Rathesford has also commenced to add an addition to his residence. There has been considerable comment of late date of building a cement sidewalk to extend to the cemetery and the expectations are that they will start on the same in a brief period.

Other improvements have been commented upon in the busy little town here and will be ready for publication in a short time.

A baby boy came to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Moreland last evening, this being their first child. It is reported mother and child are doing well.

AN EXTRA PROGRAM AT DODGE'S THEATRE

Patrons Will See an Entirely New Program Tonight, and it is a Fine One.

Manager Dodge was in no wise satisfied with the last program sent to the theater for the Cameraphone and immediately sent for a new one, which has arrived and patrons will this evening see an entirely new program, both for the Cameraphone and for the motion pictures. Among the new numbers will be Ross and Stringer, in a most laughable Ethiopian sketch, Side walk conversation, Dutch comedy that is killing, and Down on the Farm, another comedy number, insuring great fun for those who attend.

There was a large turnout of the children yesterday, the little folks certainly enjoying their week's vacation, and the matinee. All the motion pictures change today, and there will be another large turnout of the children this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon.

On Saturday evening there will be three shows and on Sunday evening three shows will be given.

UNCLE SAM TO KANSAS CITY

Excursion Steamer Which is Well Known Here to be Taken There After Inspection.

OTHER NEWS OF RIVER

Steamer Gallardo, Renamed the Adeline to be Taken to Burlington by the Mary K.

The steamer Wenona arrived last evening at 8:25 from Burlington and left this morning for that port at 3:35. The Keokuk arrived at nine o'clock from Quincy with a good bunch of freight from down river.

The steamer Henry Bosse came up the river yesterday afternoon at 3:45 with an empty coal barge and took down a loaded barge of coal this morning to Quincy where the boat is stationed with the dredge Hecla which is working full time on the removal of the bar from Quincy bay.

The Burlington Gazette of last evening contains the following concerning the Gallardo, which has been stationed above the second lock the past winter:

The steamer Mary K. will go to Keokuk to bring up the steamer Adeline, formerly the Gallardo, purchased from the Illinois river by Alex Moir of Burlington. The Murray Iron Works have the contract for putting in a new boiler and the boat will be brought to this port for this purpose. Capt. Thomas Peel will take charge of this boat during the summer months.

The steamer B. B. which was brought to Burlington several seasons ago and used as a ferry boat by Capt. Elmer Hill, has been sold by the Bott Brothers of Alexandria and the boat goes to Quincy this year.

Uncle Sam.

Quincy Exchanges: The Uncle Sam is being made ready for the inspection which must be made before the boat can start on her trip to the Missouri. The Adamses stated last evening that they expected to start the boat on her trip to Kansas City some time next week if nothing happened to prevent, but that only a part of the money had been paid and that the boat would not start unless the balance was received, which they expect to get in the next few days.

There are now eleven merchant steamers in service in the United States bearing the name of Uncle Sam, but there is only one on the Mississippi, and that is the boat ready for the departure next week for her new home port.

REFUSED TO ACCEPT BONDS

Every Effort Being Made to Head off a Recount of the Ballots of the Election of Last Monday.

When the notice of contest was filed this afternoon with Clerk Moore at the city office he refused to accept the bond filed with it.

The law requires that a bond be filed to pay for the expense of a recount and a bond for $500 was filed, signed by Louis Sterne and George S. Tucker.

The city clerk refused to accept the bond and stated that if it was for $1,000 he would not accept it, intimating that he would not accept any kind of a bond.

If the advisors of the city clerk welcomed a recount of the votes, there would be no quibbling over the bond and the one offered would have been accepted.

It was stated this afternoon that an answer would be filed to the petition, the democrats resisting a recount.

Those who insist upon a recount are ready and willing to put up any amount of bond and are acting in good faith in the matter. The refusal of the clerk to accept any bond, gives rise to the belief that the democrats are not anxious for a recount to be made of the ballots.

Are they afraid?

It is claimed to be a blessing to those who are physically impaired; gloomy, despondent, nervous and who have trembling of the limbs, dizziness, heart palpitation, cold hands and feet, insomnia, fear without cause, timidity in venturing and general inability to act rationally. By preparing the treatment at home secretly, no one need know of another's trouble.

The S. S. S. club was entertained last evening by Miss Hazel Langley at her home No. 327 Bank street. All members of the club were present and an enjoyable evening was spent. During the evening a tempting luncheon was served.

The following from the Times-Herald of Mason City tells of the wedding of a former Keokuk girl, who has many friends here who extend congratulations:

A very pretty and quiet home wedding occurred last evening at nine o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Getz, when their daughter Miss Pearl, was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph E. Meyer. The rooms of the home were decorated with large bouquets of cut flowers and ferns and in one room was an immense lower made from carnations, ferns, and potted plants, beneath which the ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. Carlton of the Methodist church. Before the wedding was performed a sumptuous dinner was served the guests assembled during which time each one enjoyed him or herself. The ring ceremony was used, and although being very simple, was, nevertheless, very impressive. The bride was gowned in white wore a wreath of flowers upon her head, and carried a large bouquet of white bridal roses. A dainty luncheon was served at ten o'clock, after which congratulations were given and received by the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer will make their home for the present with the bride's parents at 215 North Jackson street, and are now at home to their friends.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer of Alexander, parents of the groom, and daughters, the Misses Julia, Mayme and son Raymond.

The young married couple are well known in this city. The bride has been employed at the Iron's Tea & Coffee store previous to a few weeks ago and the groom is employed at the Milwaukee freight depot. His home is at Alexander, but he has been residing here for the past three years.

DES MOINES RIVER AGAIN NAVIGABLE

A Big Barge of Wheat Was Brought Down Stream Yesterday For a Distance of Thirty-Five Miles.

FIRST GRAIN SHIP

T. R. Sawyer of Athens Opened Season by Piloting a Ship Down Stream to the Warsaw Mill.

Toot, toot, the Des Moines river is again filled with steamboats. Barges of grain are being carried down the stream to the market and the old familiar steamboat times of fifty years ago have come back.

The little stream is again navigable and is again one of the great arteries of commerce of the west, for yesterday the season opened and the first big boat passed down the river.

For the past few years there has been quite a deal of interest in the proposition to have the stream fixed up and put in running order again so that steamers can ply its waters.

Those most interested in the movement have secured the ears of Congress and a survey has been ordered of the river to make an estimate of the cost of making the river navigable again.

Fifty years ago steamboats ran from Keokuk to Fort Dodge, carrying freight and passengers, but for many years past there had been times when a mud turtle had a hard time in making any headway along parts of the stream and it was given up long ago as a navigable river and given up to such mental things as skiff riding, fishing, ice cutting and washing purposes.

The Sleeper Awakens. For years and years the little stream has been asleep with occasionally a nightmare in the shape of a flood but since all this agitation about its being used again for steamboats, it has awakened and yesterday for the first time in 33 years it carried a barge load of wheat from this place.

A launch, being used to tow the barge which contained between 500 and 600 bushels of grain. The barge was brought down the Des Moines river, out into the Mississippi and taken across to Warsaw where the grain was delivered to the mill. It was a thirty mile run and was made successfully, showing that the Des Moines is still useful for other purposes besides washing.

This trip, made at the very start of the season, will likely result in other trips being made, perhaps from a further point up stream and possibly before the season is over, there will be a daily packet running.
