

MOTOR BOAT MICROBE WORKING

Peoria and Burlington Boat Enthusiasts Are Attacked by the Little Insect, 'Motor-Boatia.'

BECKWITH'S SPEED BOAT

The 'Blanche B,' Which Was Seen in Keokuk Last Sunday, is Said to be a Twenty-Six Miller.

In speaking of the motor boat microbe which is manifesting itself at the present and has been every since the announcement of the immense regatta which is to be held in that city in August, A. T. Griffith, motor boat editor of the Peoria Herald Transcript, has the following to say of the little insect which is eating on the minds of the Burlington motor boat enthusiasts:

Same Microbe at Burlington. Burlington, Iowa, has the same microbe. That river city has gone boat crazy. Their races and carnival occur July 5 and 6. Fleets of motor craft are going there from St. Louis, Peoria, Chicago, Dubuque, Clinton, Rock Island, Davenport, Muscatine, Quincy, Fort Madison and Keokuk, while every little city will be represented by individual craft.

A Peorian who visited the Hawkeye city one day recently returned with the story that when a rumor drifts up the streets there, that a new boat is being tried on the river front, the whole town lays down its affairs and goes to stand on the river bank. Talk of engines, boats, propellers, firing gear and number of revolutions per minute has superseded everything else. Warren Beckwith, secretary of the boat club and owner of a couple of swift crafts, has become a more important individual than the mayor of the city. The question now is, not how many people or how many boats will be there, but how in the name of the great horned spoon, that city will accommodate everything and everybody that they know positively is going to be on hand.

Like Peoria, Burlington boat fans are beginning to discuss speed in classes. The fact that a great free-for-all to determine for the time being the western speed champion, is scheduled, is attracting no more discussion than the question "Who owns the fastest 26-footer, or 20-footer?"

The Minnie C. II will be compelled to defend the title to the western flyers' free-for-all championship under 40 feet. Against the champion will be opposed the "Independence" of St. Louis, "Planet" of Muscatine, the "Gooshy flyer" from Davenport, possibly the "Stillman" and "Truitt," product of the Ives from Chillicothe, Ill.; the "Ringless" and other flyers from this city, and "dark horses" to the number of three or four.

Blanche B. a 26-Miller. Burlington figures that Beckwith's "Blanche B" can do as many miles an hour as she is feet over all—that is 25—and her owner fears only "Teaser" from Quincy, but he may have others to contend with, for Peoria has one or two under 26 feet which can shoot along some.

Peoria's championship material will be revealed to some extent on Saturday, June 19th, when the Ivy fleet starts the Peoria-to-Henry Endurance grind. Free-for-allers, 34-footers, 26-footers, 20-footers and cruisers will all have a try-out and should remarkable speed be developed in any of these classes, the boats undoubtedly will be taken around to Burlington next month. In return the champions of all classes at Burlington will compete in Peoria in the following months, where opportunities to win fame and big money will be held out and chances to take down Western Association titles to be added to Mississippi Valley association's titles will be afforded.

Doan's Kidney Pills never fail you. Keokuk people know this. Read this Keokuk case. Read how Loar's stood the test. For many years. His local testimony and can be investigated:

Martin Kelleher, 913 Palean street, Keokuk, Iowa says: 'Nov. 1908.' 'I can still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills highly, as I have had no return of kidney trouble since they cured me several years ago.'

On August 13, 1906, Mr. Kelleher said: "Six years ago I caught a heavy cold and soon after I began to suffer from rheumatism in my limbs. The pains gradually extended into my back and at times I could hardly get around. The kidney secretions also began to bother me, passing so frequently that I would be obliged to get up four or five times during the night. When telling a friend my trouble, he told me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a supply at Wilkinson & Co.'s drug store. They soon cured me."

Tuesday, June 29, of Miss Lorene D. Townsend, a popular and accomplished Keokuk girl and ar. Reno Sayles of Butte, Montana. The wedding is to be a church wedding and will take place at 9 o'clock in the evening at St. John's Episcopal church, with special musical numbers by a selected choir of twenty-four voices. A reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride on High street. After the wedding the couple will go to Butte to reside, Mr. Sayles being a mining geologist at that place and having just erected a new home for himself and bride. Miss Townsend is one of Keokuk's most charming daughters, being a great favorite with all and a member of one of Keokuk's best families. She is a finished musician, soloist of the Congregational church choir and during the past school term has had charge of the music course in the Hamilton schools.

At her home on North Fourth street this afternoon, Mrs. E. S. Baker gave a 1 o'clock luncheon, in honor of Miss Florence Johnstone, whose marriage to Mr. John R. Irwin is to take place on July 7.

A very pleasant affair for the senior and junior classes of St. Peter's high school was the junior-senior banquet at St. Peter's hall last evening, William Smith, the lone graduate of 1909, being the guest of honor. The hall was very beautifully decorated in the school and class colors and the occasion proved an enjoyable one. A sumptuous menu was served and a social time followed. The gathering was one which will be long remembered and it will likely be made an annual one.

A party of high school young people of the class of 1910 went to Cedar Glen at 4 o'clock yesterday for a picnic. After amusing themselves liberally at the Glen and getting supper, they walked to Warsaw, returning from there on the 9:20 car. The following composed the party: Margaret Hanwalt, Grace Jester, Madeline Narrey, Madeline McGrath, Lelia McGrath, Charley King, Harvey Duncan, Van Hayden, Glenn Parsons and Harry Horn.

Married at Mt. Pleasant June 2, E. L. Chambers, of Mt. Pleasant, and Miss Gertrude L. Brown, Rev. Mr. Wesson, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, of Salem and has many friends who wish her a happy married life. The groom is a real estate agent now located at Ottumwa, where the newly wedded couple went soon after the ceremony.

On Wednesday, July 7, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson, will occur the wedding of their daughter, Miss Florence, and Mr. John R. Irwin, the wedding being a quiet home affair. The couple intend to go to Quebec for a brief honeymoon and upon their return will occupy the Irwin home on Grand Avenue during the absence in Europe of Mrs. Irwin and Miss Irwin, remaining there until their future home at No. 600 Orleans street is ready for them, where they intend to go to housekeeping. This coming wedding unites members of two of Keokuk's most prominent families.

ELECTION DAY TO BE JULY 1

Double Dose For the Voters of Two of the Wards While All Can Vote on Commission Plan.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

Sets Time For Expression of Voters on Commission Plan and Also Election of Two Aldermen.

July 1 will be election day in Keokuk.

That date has been set for the election on the commission plan, when Keokuk voters will give their opinion as to whether Keokuk should accept the commission plan of government or not.

This date has also been set as the date for the election of an alderman in the fourth and sixth wards, to fill the unexpired terms of Charles Off and W. Frank Brown, resigned.

Within a few days, the election notices will be made, giving the location of the polls, the hours of voting, etc.

The Mayor's Proclamation.

Mayor Off issued his proclamation last evening, calling the special election for July 1, in answer to the petition which was handed him some time ago, signed by hundreds of citizens and asking for a special election on the commission proposition. The question for the people to vote on will be whether to adopt the commission plan of government for the city. If a majority are in favor then Keokuk will have the commission plan of government and primary elections and election of commissioners will follow, but if the proposition is lost, the matter cannot come up again for a certain length of time.

The Two Aldermen.

Every voter in the city will have a chance to vote on the commission plan proposition, but the voters in the fourth and sixth wards will have an extra vote coming, being given a chance to vote for an alderman in each ward. Primaries will be held in these two wards in a few days by both parties, for the purpose of selecting candidates and after the candidates are named, the campaign will be on, in which the residents of the other wards can sit idly by and look on, but everyone can join in the commission plan campaign and argue on whichever side they wish.

The Proclamation.

I, Charles Off, mayor of the City of Keokuk, Iowa, do proclaim that having received a petition signed by more than 25 percentum of the qualified electors of the City of Keokuk, as shown by the last municipal election, requesting me to submit to the said electors, the question:

"Shall the proposition to organize the City of Keokuk, Iowa, under chapter fourteen (14 C) of the supplement of the code 1907, as amended by the Thirty-third General Assembly be adopted?"

THEREFORE I, the said Mayor, do declare that a special election will be held in the City of Keokuk, Iowa, on the first (1) day of July, A. D., 1909, at the usual places of holding an election, and this question to be submitted to voters at said election shall be: "Shall the proposition to organize the City of Keokuk, Iowa, under chapter fourteen (14 C) of the supplement of the code 1907, as amended by the acts of the Thirty-third General Assembly be adopted?"

I further declare that a special election for one alderman in the Fourth (4) ward and one in the Sixth (6th) ward shall be held at the same time. The alderman in the Fourth (4th) ward to fill the unexpired term of Charles Off resigned, and that in the Sixth (6th) ward to fill the unexpired term of W. F. Brown resigned.

Witness my hand this 9th day of June A. D., 1909.

CHARLES OFF, Mayor of the City of Keokuk, Iowa.

CAN GO FISHING IN ILLINOIS

False Alarm About a License Fee of $5.50 Being Charged For Iowans to go Across the River.

COMMISSIONER'S LETTER

Col. Bartlett Writes That the Proposed Law Failed to Pass the State Legislature.

Keokuk fishermen will not have to pay that $5.50 license which this paper announced in the Monday evening issue, the proposed amendment to the Illinois law having failed to pass according to information received from Col. Bartlett of Quincy, a member of the Illinois Fish Commission.

Several days ago a St. Louis newspaper writer, who never could catch a fish in his life, got mad and tried to keep all other Missourians from going to Illinois to fish, by declaring that a license of $5.50 would be charged, stating that such a law had passed.

Such a law was proposed but it was not passed and Keokuk fishermen who wish to go to Round Pond, Fisherman's Lane, or Devil's Elbow, can do so without any fear of being placed in the penitentiary.

Letter from Bartlett.

Alderman J. P. Christy who goes fishing about as much as anyone around here, wrote to his friend Col. Bartlett for information regarding the Illinois fishing laws and received the following reply today, which explains the situation:

Quincy, Ill., June 9, 1909. Mr. J. P. Christy, Keokuk, Iowa, Dear Sir:

Yours at hand. In reply would state that the proposed amendments to fish laws, failed of passage.

We are now operating under the old laws, with the exception of license clauses, which were declared unconstitutional by Supreme court.

In other words, the fish law as passed by the General Assembly two years ago is now in effect in all respects except there is no license required for anything outside of Lake Michigan.

Yours respectfully, S. P. BARTLETT, Superintendent and Secretary.

Barber Also Hears.

A. D. Barber of Hamilton, the deputy game warden for that district has also received a similar letter from Col. Bartlett, reading as follows:

Yours at hand. The proposed amendment to fish law did not go through; lost in the shuffle on the last day. So that we are now operating under the old law without the license clause which was declared by the Supreme court as unconstitutional. No license of any kind outside of Lake Michigan. Glad to hear from you. Truly S. P. BARTLETT.

JOHN W. ILER, WAR VETERAN

Passed Away This Morning at the Home of His Sister After a Lengthy Illness of Complications.

BORN IN QUINCY, ILL.

He Spent Most of His Life There and Came to Keokuk About Fifteen Years Ago to Live.

John W. Iler, a veteran of the civil war and a former resident of Quincy, and descendant of one of the early families of Adams county, died this morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. D. W. Haggerty, 1521 Carroll street. He had been falling for the past three months and had been bedfast for ten days. Death was due to complications.

The deceased was born in Quincy, Ill., October 6, 1841, and lived in that city the greater part of his life. He came to this city fifteen years ago from that place and had made his home with his sister ever since.

For four years and three months he served actively in the civil war, being a member of Company A, 10th Kansas Infantry, Veteran Volunteers. He was discharged August 30, 1865, at Montgomery, Alabama. Among the battles in which he took part are the following: Osola, Mo., Old Fort Wayne, Prairie Grove and Nashville.

Mr. Iler had never married and had been reared a Baptist. He belonged to the G. A. R. at Quincy and several other organizations, but during his life in Keokuk he had dropped active interest in them.

He was a conscientious man of many sterling qualities and qualifications and had a host of friends.

The surviving relatives are two brothers, T. T. Iler and G. W. Iler, both of Quincy, and one sister, Mrs. D. W. Haggerty, of this city.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home 1521 Carroll street, to which friends and G. A. R. members are invited.

The relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of Keokuk and Quincy friends in their bereavement.

Des Moines Tribune: William D. O'Connell, aged 22 years, died early this morning at his home, 845 Eighth street, after a long fight against tuberculosis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel O'Connell. His father is an engineer on the Rock Island railway. He has suffered from tubercular trouble for more than eighteen months and has been confined to his bed for about a year. He has a great many friends in Des Moines, being a member of the Phi Alpha Epsilon high school fraternity, of which there is a chapter in one of the local schools. O'Connell was a graduate of the Okaloosa High school and St. Mary's college, Kansas. He leaves besides his father and mother, two sisters, Mamie O'Connell and Mrs. George Utterson of Rosedale farm. Funeral announcement will be made later.

Henry Biddensadt, a youngster living on the edge of the city was badly injured about the face and head recently by the explosion of a whiskey barrel. Several whiskey barrels had been brought home and the little fellow out of curiosity decided to look in the bung hole of the barrel. He struck a match and inserted it through the hole when the explosion followed, blowing the barrel to pieces and cutting the face of the boy badly. The father of the boy who was standing near was struck in the side by a piece of the barrel but was not injured.

The picture enlarging graft is being worked again this spring and Keokuk people are being asked to give up photographs which are to be enlarged free of cost. But when the agent comes to deliver the picture, a frame must be purchased for a good stiff sum or the photograph is not returned. Complaints have been made to the police station of agents working the racket in the city again.

O. B. McNamee, division agent of the Rock Island, left this morning for Des Moines, after a short business trip to the city.

After Ambulance Chasers.

Clinton Herald: Commenting upon the fact that at the coming meeting of the Iowa State Bar association, it is proposed to take some action against the "ambulance chasers" who accept personal injury cases on contingent fees, the Dubuque Times expresses the belief that nothing will be done. Possibly in the light that action will be taken which will eliminate this practice entirely will not be taken. But the statement that nothing will be done is erroneous.

The Iowa State Bar association has done a great deal of good work during the past few years in the way of eliminating practices in the legal profession that are disgraceful and unprofessional. These things have been accomplished very largely through creating public sentiment against such practices and by making the people more fully acquainted with the methods pursued by certain attorneys.

And so in inaugurating a campaign against the "ambulance chasers" the lawyers of the state are going to do something. They are going to call the attention of the people to the work that is being done, create a sentiment against them, and thus clip their wings to a certain extent. The Times admits that "every town of commercial importance has its dishonest lawyers, who promote litigation, its ambulance chasers who make specialty of personal injury cases and who, for the sake of the contingent fee, induce injured men to risk all rather than accept a modest settlement." The state bar association has accomplished something when it caused the Times to discuss the matter at all. And it is going to cause other papers to discuss the matter, condemn the practice of these attorneys, and thus create a sentiment against such methods. In this way the members of the association are going to drive many attorneys out of the ambulance chasing business, for they are going to hesitate about continuing practices that are going to subject them to the scorn of the people.

Colds that hang on weaken the constitution and develop into consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures persistent coughs that refuse to yield to other treatment. Do not experiment with untried remedies as delay may result in your old settling on your lungs. Wilkinson & Co.
