CITY NEWS.

—Ewer's Grand Leader, best 5c cigar.

—M. P. excursion to Quincy, June 17. Boat leaves 7:30 sharp.

—The fire committee of the city council held a meeting Monday evening and listened to the arguments of representatives of a number of fire hose manufacturers. The committee decided to buy four hundred feet of hose from each of the factories, after opening the bids received.

—Attorney H. A. Wright, of Clarence, Mo., representing wholesale creditors at Kansas City, St. Louis, Keokuk and Burlington, filed a petition in involuntary bankruptcy with the clerk of the United States district court, S. A. Birch in Burlington, against the firm of J. M. Swearingen & Son, of Brookfield, Mo. Deputy United States Marshal Joe O'Hearn departed for Brookfield this morning to serve the papers. Hon. F. W. Nepper, referee in bankruptcy, appointed Chas. K. Hart, of Brookfield, receiver of the stock of groceries.

—Keokuk people who expect to go to the Seattle exposition will be interested in the following item from a Burlington paper: Norval Prough, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Prough, of this city, returned this morning from Los Angeles, where he has been located for the past two years. On his return to Burlington he took advantage of the opportunity of visiting the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle. "The fair," he says, "is still young and many of the exhibits are not yet in place. As Seattle is so far west, there has been considerable trouble getting exhibits on account of the high freight rates. The grounds are laid out beautifully and the buildings are all that could be wished for. However, the fair is only about one-fifth the size of the St. Louis exposition but it stands for another thing entirely. It shows the development of the Pacific coast and the exhibits are mainly in that line."

CITY NEWS.

—Read the want column.

—Smoke Moeller's Silver Ash cigar.

—50th Iowa Band excursion to Quincy Sunday, June 20.

—Horace F. Mann has sold to Harriet Parks for $65, lot 5 in block 70 of Mason's lower addition, the property being on Missouri Avenue, between E and F streets.

—There will be no meeting of the Elks lodge tomorrow evening on account of the state convention at Dubuque, a dispensation having been secured to postpone the regular meeting of tomorrow evening.

—State Senator E. P. McManus and Thomas F. McManus left last evening for Iowa City to witness the graduation of Edward W. McManus, who will complete his college work today and receive a diploma as an attorney at law from the state university.

—A proposition is on foot for an improvement to the Des Moines river bridge and the city and the railway company will likely come to an agreement shortly for strengthening this structure so that heavier engines and trains can use it.

—F. C. Vetter, president of the Hawkeye Pearl Button Co., who has been in the city for the past several days, looking after the interests of the new button factory being erected in Keokuk, left last evening, for Kansas City to make contracts for shells to be used by the new plant which is to be in operation in several weeks time.

—The May meeting of the council refused to grant permissions to Edward Vincent to open a negro saloon in the Simpson house at No. 515 Johnson street. At the next meeting of the council the same request is said to be coming up again, a new application having been filed with the clerk. After July 4, the new saloon law will be in effect and there can be no more new saloons in Keokuk.

—Oscar Clute, who has been one of the leading shoe men of St. Louis and Chicago, a former Keokuk boy, has associated himself with the Bode & Larson Shoe Co., and will again make Keokuk his home, which will be good news to his many friends. The B. & L. Shoe Co. is fortunate in securing his services as he is a thorough shoe man and it is always a source of satisfaction to see the old-time Keokukians return to the best city in the state.

—The Quincy Herald of last evening said: A man who was arrested last evening at the C., B. & Q. station for being drunk and disorderly, gave his name as S. I. Taylor, but this morning when arraigned under that name told the court his right name was Herbert Clark and it was this that he signed on the jury waiver. Clark is rather a distinguished appearing man of slightly past middle age and claims to be a lawyer residing in Keokuk. After being incarcerated he acted very badly and broke down one of the bunks of his cell and rattled the door until he had to be threatened with the padded cell. This morning he was filled with remorse and had nothing to say in his own defense. He was fined with costs, $7.25.

—Bonaparte Record: The Des Moines river has recently caused considerable anxiety to lowland farmers and to residents whose homes have at times been invaded by the river. Recent heavy rains brought the river to a dangerous stage and has kept there gradually rising and falling, at times giving hope that the worst was over, but remaining at a stage where another rain would have caused much damage. At this time, Monday, the water is almost at the highest point reached this season. Part of Robt. Cresap's cornfield is inundated and Honey creek is navigable for half a mile or so. Reports from Des Moines and Ottumwa indicate that the river is falling at those points and that the worst is over unless a heavy rain should come, which is not probable. With the river at its present stage what would a rain such as we had in 1905 do to the river towns?

—Sixth Ward Primaries. The republicans of the Sixth ward will meet Friday evening, June 18, at Schouten's hall, corner of Tenth and Main streets, at 8:00 p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for alderman to fill the unexpired term of W. F. Brown, resigned, to be voted on at the special city election to be held on Thursday, July 1, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting. GEORGE S. MERRIAM, Committeeman.

—Fourth Ward Primaries. The republicans of the Fourth ward will meet at 220 B street Friday evening, June 18, 1909, at 8 o'clock p. m., to nominate a candidate for alderman to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of Chas. Off. J. E. MITCHELL, Chairman.

—DOGS. Notice is hereby given to all owners of dogs in the City of Keokuk, Iowa, that after the date of this notice that they must pay license on their dogs as the ordinance concerning same will be enforced. HENRY KESSELRING, Marshal of the City of Keokuk, June 5th, 1909.

—WANTED. Able bodied men between 18 and 35 years of age for service in Iowa National Guard. Call at the Grand Army hall, 8th and Main. Ray Phillips.

B. & Q. had a very unfortunate accident yesterday morning, when an ice cream freezer fell from a freight truck and mashed one of the fingers of his hand quite badly. The accident will incapacitate him for several days during which time his duties will be discharged by Ed. Mackey, Jr.

—Nauvoo Rustler: Squire Sommerhaider and wife spent the past several days with Keokuk relatives. Doll says Keokukites are enthusiastic over the water power prospects. Those Keokuk fellows are determined to push the thing through and the Rustler hopes they will meet with success, for its success means the success or our interurban.

The presentation will take place tomorrow at Dayton. The combined gold value is $247.85.

BASE BALL

The Pitcher.

Oh, say, the pitcher is the cheese, and he

Is fine to hang your lamps on when he stands

Out there and twirls the leather in his hands

Before he squirms and puts it up to be A strike, or ball, or any other thing, by gee,

His umps, the lobster, thinks he understands

Ain't like it looks to all the bunch of fans;

But gaff him, Birdie, what's the mutt to you and me?

And, say, there's nothing punk about the pitch;

It's him for what's the hot; he's got the nerve

To bang 'em at the batter, straight or curve,

Or rush 'em out to where the bag-gers stand,

And they won't find him sleeping at the switch!

Oh, Birdie, keep your eyes off; ain't he grand?

The Catcher.

Well, now, and will you please get on to those?

Ain't he the nery one to stand like that

And eat the leather goods right off the bat?

Say, Birdie, ain't he better than the Wild West shows?

And don't he look like cork and cotton grows

All over him? And listen, if that mask were flat,

How would the nose of him do for a mat?

Us for the catcher, Birdie, you and me, too, knows

A good thing when we see it, and we've got

It right before us now. If I could be A man like him, say, Birdie, would you—what—

Wow, look at him He's nipped a lick, and see,

He's banged it down to second—hear 'em shout!

Yell, Birdie, yell! He's put the whole side out!

CITY NEWS

—Dr. Colby, Dentist, over Younker's.

—Attend St. Mary's children's entertainment Thursday night.

—A car of Greeks went out over the K. & W. to Centerville this morning to commence laying new steel on that division.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lindley and three children of Clayton, Ill., will move to this city at once to take up their residence here.

—A number of Keokuk people are attending the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at present. A number of Keokukians are planning a trip west to visit the exposition in the near future.

—Hickory nuts will be very plentiful this year if the thousands of blossoms on the trees bearing this fruit count for aught. Those who know say that wild cherries will be plentiful this year also.

—At the meeting last evening of Morning Star Lodge, No. 5, Knights of Pythias, there was work in the Esquire rank. At the next meeting there will be work in the Page and Esquire ranks.

—John Paul of LaCrosse, a well-known lumberman, who often visited in Keokuk years ago, died Monday morning at Watertown, Florida, at an advanced age. The many Keokuk people interested in the lumber business when it was such a thriving industry here, will remember him.

—Republicans of the Fourth and Sixth wards should not forget the primaries to be held on Friday evening, at which the candidates for aldermen are to be named. The fourth ward voters will meet at No. 222 B street, while the sixth ward voters will meet in Schouten's hall.

—The graduating exercises of St. Mary's Academy will be held at the Auditorium on Tuesday evening, June 22. Don't fail to be present; a very interesting program has been arranged. The academic graduates are Ollis Radel, Nauvoo, Ill.; Hazel Beeler, Chicago; Mary A. Harrower, Burlington, Ia.; Alvera Vandenberg, Quincy, Ill. Commercial:—Marie Yeager, LaHarpe, Ill.; Ellen Moran, Chicago.

—A mortgage for $200,000 has been filed for record in Keokuk and also in Burlington and other places where the Mississippi Valley Telephone Company maintains exchanges, the mortgage being to Throp brothers of Minneapolis and issued for the sale of gold bonds for the purpose of paying off a previous bond in issue of $130,000 and providing a fund for future improvements in the system.

—Nauvoo Rustler: The Nauvoo Business Men's association held another meeting last Tuesday night at the council room and discussed the trolley question. The attendance was not large and it was the consensus of opinion that it would be useless to make a canvas for subscriptions until the trolley promoters liquidated all indebtedness now standing against them. Some were of the opinion that whatever amount was subscribed, should stand as an offer to any company that will build a line to our city. It was the opinion of all present that $100,000 could not be raised, but that $20,000 could possibly be secured. There is not the enthusiasm that should be manifested. Another meeting will be held tonight. Sister Mary, P. J. Kieran, Miss Lorraine Davis and George W. Fegers returned yesterday from their week's visit in Toronto, Canada. The parties still insist that the trolley prospects are bright. The Rustler has nothing of importance to give its readers. Like everything else, we are waiting developments.
