

BRUGGEMAN IS SIGNED BY BELT

Former Catcher of the Burlington Team to Don a Keokuk Uniform—Signed Yesterday at Ottumwa.

JACKSONVILLE HOLDS

President M. E. Justice Had a Long Consultation Last Evening With Directors of Jacksonville Club.

Treasurer Louis Sterne of the Keokuk Baseball Association, received word this morning over the long distance that Manager Frank Belt has signed Catcher Bruggeman, last season with the Burlington club and who was traded to Rockford by Ned Egan for Lemon. Bruggeman and Pitcher Green quit Rockford a short time ago and as Belt had a line on the catcher he ordered him to report at Ottumwa for a tryout. Belt stated this morning that the former Burlington catcher displayed great form and is in condition to play at the present time. Catcher Wilson, who has been with the team since the first game of the season, has been released.

The change is one that will certainly appeal to the fans of the city. Wilson has the makings of a good catcher, but if the Keokuk team is to win the pennant this year Belt cannot afford to develop youngsters. That time is past. Bruggeman will fill the wants exceptionally well and if Mertens is secured the team will run away with the flag.

Bruggeman took part in 103 games last season and batted .209. During the entire season he made but seven errors and finished with a fielding average of .969. He clouted out 17 two base hits and three home runs.

The Salary Question.

President M. E. Justice was in Jacksonville last evening and returned home this morning after a conference with the Jacksonville directors regarding the salary question. A special from Jacksonville regarding his three hours consultation is as follows:

M. E. Justice of the Central association arrived in the city last night and met representatives of the board of baseball directors at the Dunlap hotel. The meeting was the purpose of discussing the salary limit and if possible arrive at some conclusion that would be satisfactory to the local board. The meeting failed of results. Only two of the directors and Secretary Taylor were present to meet Mr. Justice. They were President L. F. Randall and F. Ledford, who represented Jacksonville at the Hannibal meeting. Two newspaper representatives, representing the Journal and Courier, were allowed to hear the discussion, which lasted three hours. Attorney W. N. Hargrove, who has been employed by the local board, was also present.

Mr. Justice stated that he could see nothing for the local association to do out but by the decision reached at the Hannibal meeting or appeal to Secretary Farrell of the National Commission. He felt that when seven of the eight clubs in the league took a position which they believed was for the best interests of the league, that their decision in the matter outweighed any other consideration, even the provisions of the constitution. He also stated that he did not see how he could enforce the provisions of the constitution against seven clubs. He felt that when the annual meeting came next fall, the clubs would nullify any action that he might take even though it was in accordance with the provisions of the constitution. He was asked by Attorney Hargrove if this was not an admission that a very low sense of honor existed and that it reduced baseball to a basis of outlawism. Mr. Justice replied that he thought this was taking too strong a view of the situation. He simply believed that it was his duty as president of the league to carry out those policies, that in the judgment of a majority, especially a majority of seven or eight, were deemed for the best interests of the league.

Messrs. Randall and Ledford argued that it was taking an unfair advantage of a conscientious manager like Mr. Berte to permit managers to violate the salary limit when he had secured his players with a firm purpose to get under the limit. They also felt that there was no limit to which managers might not go in this matter and that such a policy could only result in working an incalculable amount of harm to the league as an organization and to the clubs individually. Mr. Justice did not agree on this point, but stated that if Jacksonville should increase her salary limit, the limit fixed at Hannibal, namely $1,445, he would see to it that none of the other clubs got beyond this limit. In this argument the local representatives replied that it was far better for the eight clubs to get down to a basis of $1,300 than for all of the clubs that were under $1,445 to raise to that amount.

There is a possibility that Jacksonville might agree to a 1,400 limit and it is believed that President Justice would use his good offices to induce the other clubs in the circuit to accept this compromise if Jacksonville would make this concession. The final action in the controversy will be determined only after a meeting of the local directors. There was the best of feeling in the conference between President Justice and the directors last night and there was nothing that bordered on a scene during the lengthy discussion.

AN UP-TO-DATE DRUGGIST says it is surprising how many old-fashioned remedies are being used, which goes to show that it is hard to improve some of our grandmothers' old, time-tried remedies. For instance, for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy, nothing equaling our grandmothers' "sage tea" has ever been discovered. Although, by the addition of sulphur and other ingredients, this old-fashioned brew has been made effective as a scalp tonic and color restorer. Nowadays when our hair comes out or gets faded or gray, instead of going to the garden or garret for herbs and making the "tea" ourselves, we simply go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. This preparation is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortland St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

Free—Two Broadway hits, words and music, will be sent anyone mailing us this advertisement and the names and addresses of four friends interested in a Hair Restorer—with a 2c stamp to cover mailing. For sale and recommended by McGrath Bros., Keokuk.

The Townsend-Sales wedding which had been set for Tuesday, June 29, is postponed until further announcement. Mr. Sales was to arrive in Keokuk from his home in Butte, Mont., within a few days, but has been sick in a hospital and is unable to make the trip. The latest word from him is that he is improving.

WHAT KIND OF BUSINESS IS THIS?

Those in Control of City are Apparently Trying to Dodge the Election.

It having been stated that the mayor and his advisors would not open polls in any of the wards excepting the Fourth and Sixth on July 1 for the special election, a committee was out today raising money to pay for the other four polling places, it having been claimed that the city could save money by having but two polling places. Sufficient money was soon raised among members of both parties and those who wish to vote for the commission plan may do so in their own wards on July 1. From the time that the commission plan of government first began to take shape in Keokuk, a certain element has been doing all in its power to stave off the election, postpone it, make it illegal or do away with it in some manner. There is no greater argument in favor of the plan than these actions which threaten to cause a small sized revolution within a day or so unless there is a change in front made. Revelations may be made on this topic tomorrow unless certain things happen.

RELIEVED OF CASH IN RAND PARK

John Summers, Twenty-Two Year Old Youth of Cantril, Iowa, Relieved of Money by Jim Wilson.

WILSON APPREHENDED

Was Taken Into Custody This Morning by Officers and Will be Brought to Trial—Summers is a Runaway.

An unseparated youth of twenty-two years hailing from Cantril, Iowa, and giving his name as John Summers, was easily relieved of his loose change last evening by Jim Wilson, a character well known in police circles of Keokuk, and who was arrested this morning by Officers Fuqua and Cahill and placed behind the bars of the city jail. Summers spent an evening in Keokuk which he will not soon forget. The robbery occurred at Rand Park according to the story told by Summers this morning to Deputy Marshal Harrington at the police station when questioned regarding the affair and the money taken from his person amounted to $6.50.

Summers, who is a young fellow not endowed with too sound a mind, arrived from Cantril, Iowa, his home, yesterday enroute to Bladinsville, Ill., where he was to visit with cousins. Last evening he met Jim Wilson on the levee and the latter struck up a friendly acquaintance with the country appearing visitor. In a friendly way Wilson told Summers that he had better leave the levee or some thing might bump him on the head and toss him in the river. Summers seemed to heed this warning and readily assented to a walk to the park.

Robbery in the Park. The two went to Rand Park according to Summers and when in a selected spot Wilson obtained a bar lock on his opponent, who made no defense, and forced him to the grassy mat for the count. He then relieved him of a $5 bill and a little silver money and said he would take care of it during the night.

Wilson and Summers returned to the levee and were told by the police there to go to the hotel and go to bed. Wilson escorted Summers to the Grand and obtained a room for him. Summers retired and Wilson dusted out with the cash. About 5 o'clock this morning Summers arrived at the police station and notified the police and later telephoned the police from the Union Depot that Wilson was in that vicinity. Officers Fuqua and Cahill set out and landed Wilson as he was coming up Johnson street.

Summers Ran Away. One of the police officers was in communication with Summers' mother over the long distance telephone this morning and learned that the young man had made another of his frequent runaway trips. She stated that he had left home in the afternoon with his money, which consisted of $9 and did not tell his folks. She stated that he was injured about six years ago and the result has been that he frequently takes a flighty spell and goes away from home. Mrs. Summers notified the police that she will send money for his railroad fare back to the city.

SALOON MEN ARE MISREPRESENTED

Captain L. A. Berryhill Says the Better Class of Saloon Keepers Are Commission Government Men.

CLERGY FAVORS PLAN

Others Among the Business and Professional Men Who Want to See the Plan Tried in Keokuk.

J. A. Dunlap cashier of the First National bank said: "I am heartily in favor of the commission plan. I think that if the county can be run on much the same basis as the city commission plan government, the county has three supervisors, that the affairs of the city could be run on the same plan, having three men directly in touch with the business affairs. One of the chief features of the plan is its economic value. Though the salary of the commissioners exceeds that of the aldermanic system, in the long run, it is cheaper for the citizens and a large amount of money could be saved through the commissioners being in direct touch with affairs of the city and more improvements take place at a decrease in expense."

Rev. George Giggler, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church said this morning regarding the commission plan of government: "I am in favor of the commission plan of government. I have talked with a number of gentlemen regarding the plan which has been tried with success in Houston, Cedar Rapids and Des Moines and believe that it is the best thing for the city of Keokuk."

The main arguments advanced by Father Giggler in favor of the plan, was that it does away with the present aldermanic system of government and puts the affairs of the city in the hands of men who are able to devote their whole time to the city's needs. Father Giggler said that he had spoken in general with a number of the men of his parish and those with whom he has talked regarding the commission government have been in favor of it.

Misrepresenting Saloon Men.

Captain L. A. Berryhill, one of the prominent liquor dealers of Keokuk said today: "The better class of saloon men of the city are in favor of the commission plan of government for Keokuk. It is the other class who do not care about the affairs of the city who are giving out the impression that all the saloon men of Keokuk are against the plan. I have talked with a number of brewers and saloon men and all are heartily in favor of it."

"I myself am willing to work to see the plan substitute the present city government and hope that it will win out. Certain of the saloon element are getting hold of the negroes of the city and creating a bad feeling among them regarding the commission plan. As a general rule however, the saloons that are living up to the law, the better class of saloon men are all heartily in favor of the plan."

"HELLO" GIRLS QUIT THEIR JOBS

Eight Exchange Girls of Mississippi Telephone Company Marched Out of Office This Morning.

ABIDE BY AGREEMENT

Banded Together a Month Ago and Decided to Quit If Any Member of the Party Was Discharged.

Eight young lady operators of the Mississippi Valley Telephone Company laid down their transmitters and receivers at 7 o'clock this morning and marched to the manager demanding their checks and notifying him that they were through. The manager deferred the payments for the time being and at a late hour this afternoon they solemnly made their way to the business office after several hours of idleness and once more demanded immediate payment of their salaries.

Today there were but two operators on duty at the telephone exchange, the chief and assistant chief operators, being forced to take the burden of a large part of the work, although they were assisted by several other employees of the company.

When interviewed by a Gate City reporter this afternoon one of the young ladies who joined the outgoing group stated that the girls were dissatisfied with affairs in the exchange and that trouble had been brewing for the past month, not of a financial way but of an internal nature. She added that some time ago the young ladies had pledged themselves to walk out at the first action taken to discharge any of them. One of the young ladies was requested to call for her check last evening and resulted in the young ladies deciding to abide by their agreement.

"There has been considerable excitement about the telephone exchange today and things have been in a rather unsettled condition. The present management is seeking new operators and it is impossible to tell at the present time what will become of the affair. Manager Brown departed yesterday to accept a position at Riverside, Calif., and his departure probably blew up the storm which has been approaching for the past month.

The young ladies who left today are the following: Anna Costello, Sadie Fox, Nellie Park, Mildred Courtright, Nellie Watson, Edith Johnson, Minnie Carmichael, Alice Brennan and Ella Landman.
