DAN CUPID'S BUSY MONTH

A Slight Slump From the Month of June Records of Last Year But the Little God is Satisfied.

TWENTY-FOUR COUPLES

Twelve Resident and Twelve Non-resident Couples Married During the Month Just Past.

Dan Cupid, the little god of love, didn't do as good a job for the month of June this year as he did last, nevertheless he succeeded in piercing the hearts of forty-eight new married and happy people and when interviewed this morning by a representative of this paper as to the slump in the matrimonial world, in comparison with the June 1908 record, seemed well pleased with his work, although the chubby little fellow with the darts in the quiver and the bow on his back stated that he had been taking a vacation during the last few days of hot weather, resting up so as to be in trim to leave for the Elks' convention at Los Angeles, on Saturday.

Out of Town Couples.

The out of town couples who came to this city to be married, equal in number the weddings that have been contracted between Keokuk parties during the present month, there being twelve couples from other states coming to this city to be married and the same number of Keokuk young people embarking upon the sea of matrimony.

Following are the names of those who have been made as twenty-four instead of forty-eight in the past month, which is supposed to be the banner season of the year for weddings, and it usually turns out so.

Jesse R. LaCroix, Nauvoo, and Edrie Thornber, Ferris, Ill. Walter Roudle and Ruth Griffith, Ciada, Ill.

Otha Stone King and Nora Stocker of Plymouth, Ill. James M. Reed and Katie Nolkitt, Quincy, Ill.

—Entire stock included in the Bode-Larson removal sale.

—The work of paving Third street from Main to Blondeau has been completed.

—The annual meeting of the board of education was held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the office of the superintendent.

—A card from Mr. and Mrs. John Vogt, from Niagara Falls, states that they were to leave that place on Wednesday evening for Hamilton.

—Everyone is going on the big moonlight on the J. S., to be given on next Tuesday evening by the Royal Neighbors and Woodman.

—With the adoption of the commission plan today, the starting of the water power this summer and the ball team winning the pennant this fall, Keokuk will become quite a noted place.

—The Emerson floating palace which showed at the river front last evening, gave a first class exhibition which was well attended. The palace is being towed by the steamer Robert Dodds.

—Ralph Leake left this morning in his canoe for a point across from Canton, Mo., where he will pitch a tent and enjoy several days fishing. He will be joined soon by Charlie King, and Ralph and Donald McGrath.

—A half dozen young men and women are making the nights miserable for residents on lower Blondeau street, by their screams and boisterousness each evening. Residents in that part of the city have taken the matter up with the police and will put a stop to the actions of the loud ones.

—Beginning today, the weather reports from all over the country are again being received in Keokuk and being posted by the local office. The full river record is also received now, after being shut off for some time.

—Arrangements are being made to have a big match game of golf at the Country Club on the Fifth of July or a tournament of some kind. Although many of the members will be out of the city it is expected that there will be a large number flock to the grounds in the afternoon and evening.

—A protest has been filed with the city clerk by the property owners fronting on or alongside Seventh street from the north line of Blondeau to the south line of Grand Avenue against the reconstruction of said street.

—Complaints of men spitting tobacco on the sidewalks and various business buildings after night are numerous and several of the business men have taken the matter up and will end the filthy practice. Ordinance No. 338 is not being enforced when this is allowed.

—Regarding the regatta which is to be held at Rock Island on Saturday of this week, a Davenport paper says: All arrangements have been completed for the regatta and river carnival to be held Saturday by the I. C. B. A. A meeting was held last night at the mayor's office and all committees reported that their work was complete. Several fine silver cups are to be hung up as trophies for winners of the prizes, the best decorated launches and other features to be considered.

—Hannibal Post: Although the Burlington's concrete plant in this city, which manufactures tiling, slabs and decks is not working full capacity because of the fact that the company is unable to secure half enough men, it is nevertheless turning out enough of the product to carry on the work on the bridges which was started some days ago. It is announced at the local offices that the Burlington plans to make numerous improvements on the bridges along the Hannibal division. The pile driver is now stationed at a point forty-eight miles north of St. Louis. The Burlington is having a hard time at present in getting enough men to carry on their road work. The pay of the section men was recently advanced but at that men cannot be persuaded to work.

—Nauvoo Independent: P. J. Kieran returned to the city Saturday, accompanied by W. B. Arundel of New York, treasurer of the Blake Contracting Company. The gentlemen will make their headquarters here, having fitted up offices for themselves and engineers. They will be here the greater part of the time during the summer, and will give the interurban matter their personal attention. We have no definite news regarding the interurban for this issue further than that Contractor Tibbitts and a corps of six men started out Monday morning to make a preliminary survey of the proposed trolley route from Carthage via Fawcett and Nauvoo in Iowa. It will take only a week or so after which the permanent survey will be made. We understand that money to cover the expense of the surveys has been deposited in the State bank. We can look for some definite news about the trolley very soon. Elsewhere in this issue appears a notice requesting all those having bills against the Federal Construction Co., the Western Illinois and Iowa Railroad Co., and the Nauvoo Water Works Co., to present the same by July 15.
