

PROTESTED GAMES ARE THROWN OUT

President M. E. Justice Has Declared Null and Void Games Played at Waterloo Last Sunday.

PERCENTAGE NOW IS .602

Keokuk is Given Big Boost and Fourth of July Games Will Probably Mark Change in Positions.

Manager Frank Belt received word from President M. E. Justice this morning that the two games played at Waterloo last Sunday and protested by Belt had been thrown out and Keokuk is given quite a boost in the percentage column.

It will be remembered that Keokuk lost both of these games by the scores of 3 to 2 and 2 to 1 and Manager Belt protested, claiming that Waterloo had more than the limited number of men under contract.

Referring to the protests today and his action in the matter President Justice said that he had found Waterloo at the time with an extra man on the pay role.

If Keokuk wins today and Sunday we will be in good shape to battle with Burlington for first place on July Fifth.

Will Not Transfer.

Louis Sterne was in communication with Ned Egan today regarding the transfer of the Fifth of July games to Keokuk from Burlington. Egan stated that this could have been done a few days ago but the time was too late now to take such action.

The morning game will be called at 10:30 and the afternoon game at 4:15. This will give Keokuk fans an opportunity of going either to the morning or afternoon.

PHONEY DOLLARS PASS IN QUINCY

Kormer Keokuk Man Took in One and Others Were Swindled by the Counterfeits.

Quincy Whig: That circulators of spurious coins are operating in Quincy has become evident during the last few days when a number of counterfeit dollars have been passed on various unsuspecting business men.

F. E. Stannus, owner of the Quincy Rug works, and the sub-postoffice at Whitfield's drug store were each victimized receiving the bogus money the same day, which is indicative that the circulators are losing no time in making disposition of their coinage.

The dollar passed on the rug works was an excellent imitation and the services of an expert were almost necessary to detect the fraud.

The coin passed at the sub-postoffice was almost identical, but through the accurateness of clerks in both places, they were held up and the proprietors notified.

The mould in which the coins were cast bordered on perfection, the only obvious deception being in the quality of the metals utilized, and it required the closest scrutiny to denote a difference from the money in daily circulation.

By many of those who examined them, they were said to have been made of a most clever composition of lead and zinc.

Messrs. Stannus and Whitfield are not the only ones who were deceived by the excellent imitation, several other complaints having been made. The drug store was keeping the "dollar" in the money drawer and it was unintentionally given out as change.

Several have been detected and held up and will not be allowed to pass further, but just how many there are in Quincy at present can not be estimated, as owing to the almost perfect imitation, some of them may be in possession of people who do not suspect that they have been victimized.

LAFOLLETTE STILL AFTER ALDRICH

Besides This Attack, He Also Goes After the Proposed Corporation Tax Question.

MADISON, Wis., July 3.—LaFollette's attack on Aldrich in LaFollette's weekly published today, in an editorial on "Take Aldrichism to the Pinnacles" LaFollette says "It is time to begin to look after your United States senator no matter when his term of office expires. The men you choose in the next legislature are likely to be re-elected and it may determine the choice of U. S. senator who stand for progress against Aldrich or for Aldrich against progress."

He attacks the corporation tax and says the corporation tax would not have weight except for the fact that it is proposed by the president. "Those believing in the taxation of incomes are too clear in logic to be satisfied with a law applying to incomes, not according to size or whether earned or unearned, but according to whether they belong to corporations or individuals. Corporation capacity is a thing added to or decreased at pleasure and net incomes is a thing the most preposterous corporations may not have."

An avoidance of net incomes has already become an important part of high finance and if Taft's proposal is adopted it will be an essential part of the curriculum of every captain of industry."

MINORITY STOCK HOLDERS HAPPY

Court Protects Them by Refusing to Dissolve the Old Injunction of Last February.

CHICAGO, July 3.—The minority stock holders of the American Strawboard Co. of New Jersey from voting won a big victory when Judge Honore of the superior court, refused to dissolve the injunction issued by him in February preventing the United Board Co. of New Jersey from voting over five million worth of stock in the Strawboard company.

RAILWAY ZONE CASE UNSATISFACTORY

United States Does Not Like the Agreement Between China and Russia.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The state department, acting upon the basis of meagre telegraph reports, has indicated to China that in all probability the agreement reached by that government and Russia for the administration of the railway zone of Hardin will be unsatisfactory, necessitating a reopening of the question. The United States is sustained by Great Britain and other foreign countries will likely take the same view. The grounds of the objection are that the agreement practically leaves the control in the hands of Russia through the power of veto.

London Beer is Up.

LONDON, July 3.—Saloonkeepers in England raised the price of beer two cents per pint to meet the increased beer tax provided in the budget.

CHURCH PEOPLE IN A RUMPUS

Lively Time at Seventh Street Baptist Church Last Evening and Police Were Called Out.

PERSONAL ENCOUNTERS

Quite a Lively Battle Took Place Between Supporters of Both Factions—Cause of Trouble.

There was a miniature war last evening between the hours of 8 and 11 o'clock at the Seventh street Colored Baptist church, growing out of the split which occurred among the members a short time ago. The excitement came thick and fast for several hours and it was necessary to call the police to quiet matters. The encounter was not confined to words, but blows fell thick and fast and the porches of nearby residences were thronged with spectators watching the fracas.

The regular monthly meeting of the church was held last evening and Rev. Venerable, the pastor, scented trouble. The trouble came sure enough and then the fun opened up thick and furious. It seems, according to one of the well informed church members, that a number of members of the independent Mission Baptist church, an offshoot of the Seventh Street Baptist church, came to attend this monthly meeting with an object in view of making trouble. The business of the meeting was being transacted and these former members of the church attempted to have a voice in the business affairs. According to the member none of them had contributed to the rallies and other funds and they had missed communion three times, which made them no longer members of the church. The secretary refused to count their votes on various matters and personal arguments followed between members of both factions. It was not long before the discussions were being taken up quite freely by those present on both sides and soon the wrangling grew so hot that several began mixing things. The crowd swayed back and forth in the church and out of it and language of all kinds defied the neighborhood. Police arrived about 9:30 and at the time many of the members were engaged in heated arguments outside. The police ordered quietude and the members returned to the church. A little later hostilities were renewed and continued until late in the evening.

WE MAY GET A CHANCE TO VOTE

Income Tax Matter Will Possibly Be Submitted to the Various States.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—A vote will be taken by the senate next Monday on the question of submitting to the states the constitutional amendment authorizing congress to collect taxes on incomes. Resolutions on the subject introduced by Brown, of Nebraska, and Aldrich are pending. Brown today asked an immediate vote on his resolution. Aldrich was willing to provide there was no argument. McLaughlin of Mississippi, said he didn't believe a constitutional amendment necessary to authorize the income tax law and feared that three quarters of the states wouldn't vote in favor of it.

THE ROYALISTS WERE BEHEADED

Bloody Battle Was Fought on the Desert and Many Men Were Killed.

TANGIER, Morocco, July 3.—News was received here today of a bloody battle in the desert on June 28 between the Uladjema tribesmen, Loyal Sultan and the rebels of El Roghiss tribesmen. The battle raged from early morning until nearly day break. A dare devil charge by the rebels put the royalists to flight. Both sides were armed with modern rifles, and lost heavily. After the battle, the rebels beheaded the wounded royalists on the field and none escaped.

WHOLE FAMILY WAS MURDERED

Farmer, Wife, Daughter and Help Were Found Dead on the Farm.

ABERDEEN, S. D., July 3.—The dead body of John W. Christie, his wife, daughter Mildred and Michael Royanney, the farmhand, were found on Christie's farm today at Rudolph, eight miles from here. It is believed that all were murdered. The police officers occurred Aug. 2, 1907 when Christie is no clue. The bodies were found by John T. Royanney, father of Michael, when he went to look for his son.

The Knabe Piano. Nine persons out of ten who buy pianos are most concerned with the finish of the case. They minutely examine the carving and ornamentation, and calculate to a nicety how highly it is polished, saying with great satisfaction, "I can see my face in it." But if that be all they consider, their satisfaction is short-lived, because it is no impossible task to have profuse ornamentation and an extremely high polish on a case containing a decidedly inferior action—an action unworthy the embellishments of the case which contains it. In buying a Knabe Piano the most elaborate desires, as to ornamentation, can be satisfied, and the lustre of its finish is unsurpassable. Eight coats of varnish and twenty-one processes bring the Knabe Piano to its final stage of beauty—and, best of all, within the case is the world's standard of comparison. Made of the best materials that money can buy and skill adapt, the Knabe Piano tone is but the evolution of this perfection of parts, which, assembled under the personal supervision of the third generation of The House of Knabe, in the most modern and expensively equipped piano factory of the world, has won the approbation of two Continents and can neither be copied nor imitated.
