

KEOKUK MEN AT FIREMEN'S MEET

Big Event This Week at Davenport Was Attended By Fire Chief Anderson and Alderman Butler.

WORLD RECORD BROKEN

Council Bluffs Team Lower Mark in Half Mile Run, Coupling and Laying of Hose—Hundreds Present.

Fire Chief John Anderson and Alderman William Butler, a member of the fire committee, have returned home from the big firemen's tournament in progress this week at Davenport and from their words the affair was the biggest of its nature ever held in the state.

Chief Anderson this morning called attention to the big event and of the big interest manifested in it throughout Iowa and the thousands of people who were present from cities to attend it.

The feature event on the week's card was attended by Mr. Anderson and Alderman Butler and they had the pleasure of seeing a world's record smashed. It was the half mile run, laying of hose and attaching of nozzle. The event was won by Bonnie and Beauty, the Council Bluffs team which covered the distance and fulfilled the requirements in the remarkable time 1:13 4-5.

One by one the teams were brought to a skeleton stable erected in front of the amphitheater. The horses were unhitched and placed in stalls and the four men who were to assist in the run were seen to be in bed upstairs. When the signal was given, the game well being used, the horses were hitched and a run of a half-mile made. When the required distance was run a coupling was made and 150 feet of hose laid.

A team from Red Oak, Iowa, made the first attempt and finished in the time of 1:29. The Council Bluffs lowered that mark to 1:17, but a few minutes later the crowd burst forth when it was announced that the Clinton team had broken the world's record performing the feat in 1:14. Then came the Council Bluffs team and lowered the record 1-5 of a second.

While in Davenport the Keokuk fire chief and Alderman Butler were quite royally entertained and the former met many firemen of the state whom he had met on previous occasions during the thirty years of his experience as a fireman.

CITY NEWS

Harry Baker and Jack Baker, two brothers, who claim to be old soldiers and who live at West Point, were arrested this afternoon by the police on the charge of being drunk. They claim to have come down the Mississippi in row boats.

Word has been received by relatives in this city of the death of the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Spring of Rochester, N. Y., who died at the hospital in a suburb near that city on Tuesday of this week. The father will be remembered by many Keokuk people, having made Keokuk his home several years ago.

The chemical engine was called to Fourth and Carroll streets this afternoon on a still alarm, weeds being ablaze there, probably ignited by sparks from a passing engine.

Ed. S. Lofton returned home this afternoon from Davenport after being in attendance at the state convention of the Eagles. He was reading clerk during the convention.

THRONGS OF BUYERS CONTINUE.

The people of Keokuk and vicinity appreciate the great advantage McGrath Bros. obtained for them, in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to allow the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, to be sold at half price, 25 cents, and have bought hundreds of bottles.

Every bottle of the specific sold by McGrath Bros. has had their personal guarantee to refund the money if it was not satisfactory, but none has come back, showing the wonderful curative power of this remedy.

Unlike ordinary medicines for constipation and dyspepsia, the dose of Dr. Howard's specific is reduced after a few days' use, and the cure is soon complete and lasting.

Sent postpaid on receipt on price, 50 cents.

RICE BELL HOME FROM CONVENTION

Speaks in Glowing Terms of Far West and Big Elk's Convention Which Attracted Thousands.

WAS KEOKUK DELEGATE

While in Los Angeles He Met Former Keokuk People—Others From Keokuk Have Not Yet Returned.

Rice H. Bell, the delegate of Keokuk lodge 106, B. P. O. E., returned from the land of the golden west yesterday after being in attendance at the Elks' national convention at Los Angeles, for about three weeks. At the next regular meeting of the local lodge the past exalted ruler will make his report which will contain a thorough review of the convention as seen by him and many little funny incidents connected with the trip which befell himself and other Keokuk people.

The convention according to Mr. Bell's words this morning impressed him more deeply than any gathering or any event which he has ever attended, and he especially sounds the state of Iowa for the big triumphs of the convention. Not only was Mr. Sammis, of Mars, Iowa, elected Grand Exalted Ruler, but Mr. Bell is confident that the Ottumwa Fifty-fourth regiment band would have carried off first honors had not honors been heaped too strongly on the heads of Iowa's sturdy members of Elkdom.

In many ways was the trip of Mr. Bell a pleasant one for not only did he enjoy the convention, but he came in contact with former Keokuk people. He speaks of spending much time with Hugh H. Craig, who went to Riverside but a short time ago, and also shook hands with John Ward, who went to the west only last winter. The judge was greatly impressed with the west, especially its vast extent and would have preferred to stay there much longer but had to hurry home in order to enjoy a few days of the lodge's camp across the river.

He ran across all of the other Keokuk visitors to the convention, some of whom have returned home and some of whom are still climbing the mountains and watching the ocean.

L. E. Rollins and Roy H. King arrived home Saturday. J. W. Steiger and M. Garmo were to leave the coast on Sunday and should arrive before Sunday. Charles Lawson and Charles McMillan are still on the go in the west.

Cure Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. S. Nushbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever and doctor's prescription did not reach my case and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Wilkinson & Co.

BUTTON DISLODGED AFTER SIX MONTHS

Iowa Girl Swallowed a Common White Button and Lost Her Speech.

[Special to The Gate City.] MASON CITY, Aug. 6.—Miss Bernice Hunt almost choked to death last night but dislodged from her throat a button which had been there for six months. She had lost her voice and was suffering from severe pain. The button was a common white one, having worked down almost to her throat. It was dislodged and ejected from her mouth when she was struck a sharp blow on the back. She had been subject to choking fits at night for several weeks. Her voice is now returned and her throat causes no pain. The case had greatly puzzled physicians who said nothing could be lodged in the throat.

Men Cannot Stand Temptation. Toledo Blade: Nearly every man, at some time in his life has promised himself that he would never buy another cantaloupe. But the temptation comes again and he falls.

FIVE DOLLARS FOR A KEG

Poor Swede Trusted a Friend With Five Dollars to Purchase Beer and is Now Looking for the Man and Keg.

TOLD A PITIFUL TALE

Hunted Almost All Night in the Bottoms Across the River For the Man That Took the Five.

It might be called a breach of promise, just plain and simple breach, then again it might be a case of just take the "long green" and hike. Any way an honest Swede citizen, who thinks every body else ought to be honest also, is out five dollars which he may never recover. This Scandinavian citizen went across the river yesterday afternoon about four o'clock and asked the man at the toll house if he had seen a man (giving his description) come across the bridge during the day with a keg of beer. The Swede said he had given his friend (?) five dollars with which to purchase a keg and the two were to cross the river to Round pond and enjoy the beverage in the evening.

Of course the man at the toll house hadn't seen any one that would answer the description of the man who was to purchase the brew. The man from Sweden wore a disappointed air but started a systematic search of all the bottom lands on the other side of the river and up to three o'clock this morning was searching for the man with the keg of beer or the five dollars. He fell asleep by a log howl ever and was found this morning by a party of campers who set him on his feet and heard his story of how he had trusted his friend with the five spot and how his trust had been betrayed.

The men at the bridge were much amused this morning when talking over the incident and all are of the same mind, that the fellow who was entrusted with the five is now well on his way to some safe place where he will enjoy a keg with some one else.

Soldier Balks Death Plot.

It seemed to J. A. Stone, a civil war veteran, of Kemp, Tex., that a plot existed between a desperate lung trouble and the grave to cause his death. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough that stuck to me, in spite of all remedies, for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which restored my health completely. I now weigh 178 pounds." For severe colds, obstinate coughs, hemorrhages, asthma, and to prevent pneumonia it is unrivaled. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Wilkinson & Co. and J. F. Kiedalsch & Son.

O. O. NEWBERRY SUES FOR $13,000

Alleges That He Was Induced to Put Up Large Sum of Money on Fake Wrestling Match On August 14.

OTHERS INVOLVED IN IT.

On Another Count He Alleges That Farmington and Montrose Men Were Cognizant of Purpose of Deal.

Farmington News: Walter & McBeth signing as attorneys for O. O. Newberry, filed a petition at Keosauqua, Tuesday, claiming from Ed. S. Leach, T. S. Robinson, B. F. Ketcham and William Cook the sum of $13,000. The petition was not verified or sworn to. It alleges that Ed. Leach (of Montrose) and Robinson conspired to get him to go to Pennsylvania on a real estate deal, but upon his arrival August 14, 1906, induced him to put up his money on a fake wrestling match thereby defrauding him of $13,000.

In another count he alleges that B. F. Ketcham of Farmington and William Cook of Montrose were cognizant of the purpose of "the deal" and with intent aided and abetted in the same and participated in the spoils.

Newberry has talked a great deal about his "loss" and has frequently told many people what he could do to Messrs. Ketcham and Cook, through whom he borrowed part of the money he lost. Very few Farmington people believe Newberry's entire story. He says nothing about the others from whom he borrowed the remainder of the money, and only began to accuse Ketcham and Cook after receiving an anonymous communication, in which he was told to leave another sum of money in a scheduled place and he would then be instructed how to get his money back.

It is said that Ketcham and Cook may file a counter suit against Newberry, Rockwell, Carr and their attorneys, and others, for conspiracy to blackmail by means of fake and malicious law suits and threatened suits.

Need for Something Positive. Beware of making your moral staple consist of the negative virtues. It is good to abstain, and teach others to abstain, from all that is sinful or hurtful. But making a business of it leads to emaciation of character, unless one feeds largely also on the more nutritious diet of active sympathetic benevolence.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.
