

DEATH OF MRS. JANE RINGLAND

Lovable Old Lady Who Was Well Known by Many Keokuk People, Has Been Called Beyond.

SHE WAS 85 YEARS OLD

She Had Been an Invalid For Many Years and Died Sunday After a Very Severe Sinking Spell.

A lovable and venerable old lady who had a number of Keokuk friends, was Mrs. Jane B. Ringland, who died Sunday at Mount Pleasant. She had often been in Keokuk when her son resided here and at Hamilton, and was well known in this vicinity.

The following from the Mount Pleasant News tells of her life and death: After a long period of illness which she endured with great fortitude, Mrs. Jane B. Ringland passed away yesterday at noon at her home at 509 East Monroe street.

Mrs. Ringland was one of Iowa's earliest pioneers and was eighty-five years of age. For years past she had been an invalid, suffering from complications which in her old age she was unable to overcome. For the last two weeks the end has been daily expected by the family, nearly all of whom have been by her bedside. A week ago she suffered a sinking spell, and all believed that she was summoned, yet she revived somewhat and has kept up during the past few days in a way unusual for one with so little vitality. The end came very peacefully at noon yesterday with her family around her bedside.

Mrs. Ringland had long been a member of the First Presbyterian church of this city. She was marked as a woman of strong personality, and had an equally marked fidelity for her Christian faith.

Mrs. Ringland was a sister of H. C. Weir of this city, and James P. Weir of West Duluth, Minn.; the mother of Dr. E. B. Ringland, Oklahoma City, Thos. R. Ringland, Weir Field, Iowa, Rev. Dr. A. W. Ringland, McAllister, Oklahoma, and Miss Anna M. Ringland of this city.

The funeral services will be held at two o'clock at the family residence.

Unimpeachable—If you were to see the unequalled volume of unimpeachable testimony in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla, you would upbraid yourself for so long delaying to take this effective medicine for that blood disease from which you are suffering.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Morning Glories" appeared at the Grand last evening, giving an entertainment that evidently satisfied the audience, which was not large. The comedians were clever and the singing superior to much that has been given at comic opera performances. If the manager of the show would cut out some of the conversation—do less talking and more acting—he would have an entertainment that would be acceptable to all classes. The costumes were fine and the play in general satisfactory.

A Dry Town.

Jos. M. Gaites is starring S. Miller Kent in a new comedy drama called "A Dry Town," by E. E. Dumm, a Columbus, Ohio, newspaper man. The theme is undoubtedly the most absorbing, and of the greatest interest to the most people, of any now before the public—it is the question of prohibition. Mr. Dumm has made the subject his life study, and while he has most pronounced ideas on it, he is also blessed with a keen sense of humor.

SCALP ITCHED AND BURNED FOR YEARS

Child of Four Would Scratch Her Head for Hours—When Fifteen It Got Worse—Hair Came Off in Spots—Hundreds of Dollars Spent in Vain—Cuticura Soothed Like Cold Water on a Burn and

CUTICURA REMEDIES CURED HER AT LAST

"When I was four years old a humor came out on my scalp. It would make a thick scab in one night, itching and burning terribly. My father spent many hundreds of dollars trying to find a doctor who could cure this humor, but none of them could ever help it even a little bit. At the age of fifteen years I had the measles, and after that the sore became more mature, and I had to soak my hair out before I could comb it. My hair came off in spots and my head was in a bad shape.

About this time a friend of my father suggested he try Cuticura for me. My father took this advice and bought the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent. I used them faithfully and to my surprise they stopped the itching at once, like cold water to a burn. In a week my head was clean from the scab but was very red and inflamed, but I had experienced more relief from the terrible itching and burning than ever before. I did not expect to be cured, as I thought that nothing could do that, but I had to use something all the time and Cuticura was cheaper than doctors.

After some time, to my surprise, I awoke to the fact that my head was cured. It was as free from the disease as though I had never suffered. I am now forty-two and have never had any sign of my old trouble since I was cured. I owe health, happiness and life to Cuticura. Every one thought it was incurable. I used to dream sometimes that I was cured but thought it never could be, but Cuticura made the dream come true. Fancy a child sitting up in bed until ten or eleven o'clock scratching her head! I couldn't help it either, the itching was so terrible, night and day. It is a wonder I lived through it, but I can prove all I have written by my old neighbors. Mrs. Florence E. Ames Getchell, Box 503, Hallowell, Me., Feb. 9 and 13, 1909."

and has written a story full of interest and comedy that will be portrayed by a number of characters that are strongly marked and are drawn from types in real life that are to be met with in every community in the land. The scene of the story is laid at Washington Court House, a small town in southern Ohio, and the characters of the lawyer, the district attorney, the judge, the Irish constable, the drug fist, the "boot-legger" and "milkman," all are in evidence.

Mr. Gaites has surrounded his star with a strong company of well known actors.

"The Great Divide."

"The Great Divide," William Vaughn Moody's extraordinarily successful drama of American life which has been declared by leading critics to be the best American play yet written, will be presented here under the direction of Henry Miller at the Grand.

"The Great Divide" has just closed an engagement of over 600 performances in New York, and is beyond doubt the most successful dramatic achievement of any American playwright.

Proof Positive.

A western newspaper man visited Washington recently and told the following story on former Representative Amos J. Cummings of New York, who was once city editor of the Sun. One Saturday night it was announced that all the saloons were to be closed next day.

Cummings called his star reporter, Murray. "Tom," he said, "go out to-morrow and find out if the saloons are selling liquor."

It was Thursday when Tom again appeared at the city desk. "They were," he reported.—Success Magazine.

Tabor—The old people and "shut ins" of Tabor and vicinity were given a free public dinner Wednesday by the Woman's Union of the Congregational church, and upwards of seventy were present at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Laird. The oldest woman present was Mrs. M. L. Starr, 91 years old June 29, the oldest man W. S. Knight, 90 years old Oct. 5. After the feast a group photo of the guests and hosts was taken.

The Bright Side.

A certain lady prides herself upon always looking at the bright side of things. "My dear," moaned her husband one day recently, as he tossed restlessly on his bed, "it's the doctor I'm thinking of. What a bill his wife be!" "Never mind, Joseph," said his wife. "You know there's the insurance money."—Bellman.

FIRST MEETING OF MUSIC CLUB

Members of the Monday Music Club Were Out in Large Numbers to Attend First Recital of Year.

AN EXCELLENT PROGRAM

Keokuk Best Artists Took Part in First Program of Season of 1909-1910—Officers of Year.

The first meeting 1909-1910 of the Monday Music Club was successfully launched last evening when the first musical program was rendered by a number of Keokuk's talented people. The program throughout was an excellent one and was as follows:

1. A—Memories of Home, Gutemann.
2. B—The Swing, Sudds—Messrs Zoellner, Van Ausdall and Miss Frye.
3. Piano solo, Nocturn—Miss Olive Strickler.
4. Solo—The Flower Song from Faust, Gunod—Miss Louise Culkin.
5. Solo—When E're You Walk, Handel—James Young.
6. Piano solo—A and B—Schuett—Miss Jane Carey.

Board Meeting.

Following the program a meeting of the board was held. The officers for the present year are Miss Elizabeth G. Ivin, president; James Young, vice president; Miss Jane Carey, secretary; Miss Martha Baldwin, treasurer.

Under the able jurisdiction of the above officers it is expected that the organization will enjoy another year of prosperity and enable musical loving people of the city to again hear some of the country's greatest artists.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product, has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed, because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States, in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

FORT MADISON BOY DIED FROM WOUND

Took Hunter's License Saturday and Accidentally Shot Himself Few Hours Later.

Late yesterday afternoon Deputy Auditor Vermillion received word from Auditor South of Fort Madison that Grant Swanson, who took out a hunter's license Saturday afternoon and had later shot himself, was dead. The Democrat of that place gives the following account of the accident:

Grant Swanson, an only child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swanson of 725 Fourth street, aged 14 years and 6 months, accidentally shot himself with a target rifle Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock, at the home, and died about six hours later at St. Elizabeth hospital.

The young man's death is a sad blow to the parents, who have the sympathy of the entire community.

Grant was an unusually bright boy, possessing a good disposition. He loved his home and was idolized by his parents. As with most American boys, he liked to hunt and was fond of the rifle. Saturday he took out a hunter's license and was anticipating some sport with his 22-calibre target rifle. He had been out about the barn in quest of rats and was just returning to the house when the accident occurred. In passing through a gate he attempted to close it with the butt of his gun, when it slipped and the hammer struck the gate in such a way as to cause the discharge. The ball passed through his bowels and upward through the stomach and into the liver. He was immediately taken to St. Elizabeth hospital, where physicians attempted to save his life by an operation, but their efforts failed and he passed away at 10:10 o'clock that night, almost immediately following the operation.

The funeral took place from the home at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. F. A. Gageby of the Presbyterian church officiating. Interment in Oakland cemetery.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears.
