

MA. RIED TODAY IN CHICAGO

Miss Katie Schlotter and Alfred Patrick Took the Marriage Vow in the Windy City Today.

AT HOME NEXT WEEK

Cards Were Received by Relatives and Friends Here Today Telling of Wedding of the Young People.

Word comes today from Chicago of the marriage of two well known young Keokuk people, Miss Katie Schlotter becoming the bride of Alfred Patrick in the large city this afternoon and announcement received today saying that they would be home the later part of the week to receive the congratulations of scores of friends, on whom they stole a march.

Miss Schlotter and Mr. Patrick left Keokuk late Sunday night for Chicago where they are visiting at the home of an aunt of the latter, Mrs. J. L. Everest at 1926 Nelson street. Cards received by relatives of the two here today stated that they would be married today and a letter tomorrow would tell of the wedding which is to be a quiet one.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick will reside at 1920 Times street, where the groom has fitted up a pretty cottage home for he and his bride, and where they will be at home the first part of the coming week. They will remain in Chicago for a few days' visit.

The bride is the very attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schlotter who reside near Miller avenue on the Johnson street road. For the past seven years, since the establishing of the R. G. Schlotter floral store at 416 Main street, she has been in charge of that place of business and through her pleasing manner has won for herself a host of friends who will be happily surprised to learn of her marriage.

The groom is equally as well known as the bride, being an efficient and popular carrier of the Keokuk postoffice, having been recently promoted to the position of regular carrier on Route 12 of the city mail district. He is a young man of sterling qualities and has made for himself hundreds of friends through his pleasing personality.

Friends in this city will extend congratulations and wish Mr. and Mrs. Patrick every possible success in their newly wedded life.

CHARLESTON.

Our school is doing good work under the able management of Prof. Trump and Miss Kate Cochran.

Mrs. J. J. Walker of Keokuk is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Solars, who is in poor health.

Miss Ethel Winters, who has been visiting Eli Scott and family, left Friday for a visit with an uncle in Burlington. Miss Mabel Scott accompanied her.

Mrs. George Moore and children of Mt. Hamill came down Saturday morning for a visit with relatives. Mr. Moore joined them Saturday evening.

AGONY OF ECZEMA BEYOND WORDS

Whole Body a Mass of Raw, Torturing Humor—Hair All Fell Out and Ears Seemed Ready to Drop Off—Clothing Would Stick to Bleeding Flesh—Hoped Death Would End Fearful Suffering.

CASE SEEMED HOPELESS BUT CUTICURA CURED HER

"Words cannot describe the terrible eczema I suffered with. It broke out on my head and kept spreading until it covered my whole body. I was almost a solid mass of sores from head to foot. I looked more like a piece of raw beef than a human being. The pain and agony I endured seemed more than I could bear. Blood and pus oozed from the great sores on my scalp, from under my finger nails, and nearly all over my body. My ears were so crusty and swollen I was afraid they would break off. Every hair in my head fell out. I could not sit down, for my clothes would stick to the raw and bleeding flesh, making me cry out from the pain. My family doctor did all he could, but I got worse and worse. My condition was awful. I did not think I could live, and wanted death to come and end my frightful sufferings.

"In this condition my mother-in-law begged me to try the Cuticura Remedies. I said I would, but had no hope of recovery. But oh, what blessed relief I experienced after applying Cuticura Ointment. It cooled the bleeding and itching flesh and brought me the first real sleep I had had in weeks. It was as grateful as ice to a burning tongue. I would bathe with warm water and Cuticura Soap, then apply the Ointment freely. I also took Cuticura Resolvent for the blood. In a short time the sores stopped running, the flesh began to heal, and I knew I was to get well again. Then the hair on my head began to grow, and in a short time I was completely cured. I cannot praise Cuticura enough. I wish I could tell everybody who has eczema to use Cuticura. My condition was so terrible that what cured me cannot fail to cure anybody of this awful disease. If any one doubts the truth of this letter, tell them to write to me. Mrs. Wm. Hunt, 136 Thomas St., Newark, N. J., Sept. 28, 1908."

to spend Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Michael Morrissey, the past week.

Mrs. H. A. Christ, who was a guest of Miss Wolfenbarger the past week, returned to her home in Quincy, Ill., Saturday morning.

William Fowler and daughter, Mrs. Lulu Smith, of Montrose, spent Sunday with Frank Hopp and wife.

Mrs. George Kendall and children returned to Fort Madison Sunday afternoon after a visit with her father, Edwin Stevens, and family.

M. Helm made a business trip to Fort Madison Thursday.

Vermazen Bros. and families and R. B. Lamb and family spent Sunday with James Griswold and family near Viele.

Mrs. Martha Hamilton celebrated her eightieth birthday Thursday. She was well remembered by her absent children and her neighbors called to congratulate her upon her safe journey thus far.

Boosts and Knocks.

How comes it that the evil which men say spreads so widely and lasts so long, whilst our good, kind words don't seem somehow to take root and bear blossom? Is it that in the stony hearts of mankind these pretty flowers can't find a place to grow? Certain it is that scandal is good, brisk talk, whereas praise of one's neighbor is by no means lively hearing.—W. M. Thackeray.

END OF A RED NOSE

New Flesh-Colored Product That Heals and Hides Skin Imperfections.

A peculiar feature of poslam, a new skin discovery, is that it is naturally flesh-colored and contains no grease, so that when used on the face for the complexion, or for pimples, red noses, or any other inflammations, blemishes, or discolorations, its presence cannot be detected. It can thus be applied in the daytime, the natural color of the skin being immediately restored and the actual healing and curing process accomplished in a few days. It can be had of any pharmacist who sells pure drugs. Wilkinson & Co. make a specialty of it. Fifty cents' worth will answer either for the troubles mentioned or in curing ordinary cases of eczema. Itching stops at once.

Any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York, can secure, by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion over night and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

KEOKUK GIRL TAKEN IN TOW

Beatrice Smith of This City Dragged into Court in Hannibal and is Later Taken in by Holiness Mission.

WAS WITH MARRIED MAN

Girl Later Told She Must Attend Religious Services and Sunday School Regularly and Live Virtuous Life.

The following story concerning a Keokuk girl, is told in the Hannibal Morning Journal of today:

There was a pathetic scene in the recorder's office yesterday afternoon and one that will not soon be forgotten by those who witnessed it. It was when the case of the city against Fred Coontz, of Columbia, and Beatrice Smith of Keokuk, charged with rooming together, not being husband and wife was tried. Both of the defendants pleaded guilty to the charge and each was fined $5 and costs. Judge Harrison ascertained from the defendants that Coontz is a married man, has a wife and two children and that he received a letter from his wife last Sunday begging him to come home and support his children, although he claimed to be divorced from her. After both had been fined two ladies representing the Holiness Mission society, who were present during the proceedings, stepped up to the judge's desk and told him that they desired to take the girl, who is only twenty years old, and try to reclaim her. They begged the girl to accept their hospitality and pleaded with her with tears in their eyes, but the girl was stubborn and showed no inclination to go with them. They argued and pleaded with her for at least thirty minutes when she finally consented to go, but with the direct understanding that she would be subservient to their will. They told her that she must attend Sunday school and religious services and abandon her old associates and live a virtuous life. Judge Harrison told her that he would grant a stay of execution for 30 days and if she remained with the Holiness Mission and conducted herself as a lady the fine would be remitted, otherwise she would be rearrested and placed in jail to serve out her fine and costs. She finally left with the good Samaritan ladies, but evidently rather reluctantly.

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

The Junior department will have its first meeting of the year tomorrow in Bible study work, and will form the Bible study club under the direction of Miss O'Harra. The enrollment has been limited to fifty members of the Junior department and the sessions promise to be very interesting for the young folks. Meetings will be held every Wednesday after school.

Woman Author at Home.

Home-made jam is gradually disappearing from the twentieth century European household. And yet 60 years ago George Sand, who treated most of her domestic duties somewhat lightly, was discovered by a visitor wearing a cotton dress and a big apron, and skimming a panful of fruit destined for the jam-pot. "It is not easy work," she remarked. "I find it harder to make good jam than to write 'Valentine' or 'Mauprat'; but there are some tasks one cannot leave to others."

Had One Claim to Make.

"The things I say may not be very clever," says the Philosopher of Folly, "but I call the attention of the much-bored public to the fact that I haven't made a North Pole epigram yet."

True to Memory of Beau Nash.

The famous Beau Nash was at one time extremely fond of a beautiful girl called Juliana Papjoy, sometimes known as the Bishopstrow belle. She used to ride about the streets of Bath on a fine gray horse carrying a whip with many thongs, a fad which gained for her the title of Lady Betty Besom. Juliana was very kind-hearted and during the last five years of the beau's life she nursed him devotedly. After his death she vowed that she would never again sleep in a bed and took up her abode in a large hollow tree, where she lived for many years, earning a scanty livelihood by selling herb medicines and fetching and carrying. At last Juliana became very ill and, knowing she could not possibly recover, she felt an intense longing to die in her old cottage home at Bishopstrow. More dead than alive, she set out on this last journey, and managed to reach the house where she was born in time to die there.

Very Small and Struggling.

"What's this?" demanded the customs officer, pointing to a package at the bottom of the trunk. "That is a foreign book entitled 'Politeness,'" answered the man who had just landed. "I guess I'll have to charge you a duty on it," rejoined the inspector. "It competes with a small and struggling industry in this country."

WEEK'S TRIP FOR BASKET BALL TEAM

This is What the Committee in Charge is Planning For This Year's Y. M. C. A. Players.

PLENTY OF MATERIAL

Second Team Will be Very Strong—Princeville Here on December the 30th—No Captain Elected.

Everything looks favorable for a big season in local Y. M. C. A. basket ball circles. Already the committee has gotten together and planned for a schedule, a week's trip through the principal cities of Iowa being in view although no contracts have as yet been made. The candidates for the team will try out next week if arrangements can be so made, that the team will get plenty of practice. A game has been scheduled for this place on the 30th of December with the team from Princeville, Illinois, as the opponents. Owing to the abundance of good material the second team will be a strong affair and will be equal in strength to a great many of the first Y. M. C. A. teams of the country.

The basket ball committee is composed of Allen Sheldon, Paul King and director Chamberlain. Last night they got together and made arrangements for the trip mentioned above figuring all the little details out. The following is a list of the cities which they hope to visit: Burlington, Ottumwa, Des Moines, Davenport, Oskaloosa, and Cedar Rapids, making an even six towns. The week which they have selected as the most convenient of this tour is the second one in January. By that time a great deal of practice will have been secured and the various players will have time to arrange for a day off from their regular duties.

As yet there has been no captain selected and as there is lots of star material this will be a somewhat difficult task. By the time the men have worked together for a few nights it is thought that a selection will be made.

Smith-Dunlavy.

This morning at 6 o'clock at St. Peter's Catholic church occurred the marriage of Miss Annie H. Smith to being performed by Rev. P. J. O'Reilly, pastor. The wedding was attended largely by relatives. During the offertory Miss Alice Welsh sang an "O Salutaris," and during the mass Mendelssohn's Spring Song was played by the organist. The bride was attired in a pretty traveling suit of brown. Following the ceremony the couple and bridal party retired to the home of the bride's parents and enjoyed a luncheon. They departed at 8:40 o'clock for St. Louis on their wedding trip.

Both Miss Smith and Mr. Dunlavy are well known in Keokuk and have a large circle of friends. The bride is an accomplished young lady, while the groom is well known as a foreman at Hulskamp Bros., at which place he has been employed for a number of years.

Before leaving the city Mr. and Mrs. Dunlavy received congratulations from their many friends and relatives.

Kennedy-Minear Nuptials.

At 5:30 this morning a quiet wedding occurred at St. Mary's Catholic church when Miss Katherine C. Kennedy, the well known music teacher and organist, and Mr. Arthur L. Minear of Eldon, Iowa, were united in marriage by Rev. George Glingler, D. D. The wedding was attended by a number of relatives and friends and followed it a wedding luncheon was served at the bride's home, 1529 Des Moines street. Mr. and Mrs. Minear departed at 7:30 o'clock and will take a week's trip east, returning at the end of that time to make their future home in Eldon.

Miss Kennedy has a host of friends in Keokuk who extend congratulations to her at this time. She has been a music teacher for some time past and also organist at St. Mary's Catholic church. The groom is a railroad man at Eldon, being employed by the Rock Island.

The first one of a series of dances to be given this fall and winter by Messrs. P. L. Kennedy and Alba McCoy, was given last evening in Hawkes hall. An unusually large crowd of young people were present to enjoy this first one of the many that will be given and the fantastic toe held sway until midnight. At 7:30, an hour and a half lesson was given and from 9:00 until 12, assembly was held. Sixty couples enjoyed Mankind's Great Deed.

From Boston comes this wall for a long-suffering man: "God made the neck, man made the collar and the devil invented the starch." This generation boasts of many things accomplished by its predecessors as its own, but no genius has yet arrived to give suffering man a soft neck bandage, which is much more needed than aeroplanes and other curiosities.

When Life's Worth Living.

Have you ever felt so sick that you were sure something serious was going to happen? And then someone advised you to move your bowels; you did as instructed, and became suddenly well and cheerful. Then life seemed worth living again. But why not keep the bowels always open? It can be done. Use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as directed for such intermittent cases, and it will cure your tendency to constipation and so strengthen and tone the stomach and intestinal muscles that they will soon learn to do the work themselves. It has done this for thousands of people whose letters this paper has often printed. It will do it for you. At any rate, try it. A bottle can be bought of any druggist for 50 cents.

the evening's pleasures. An excellent dance program was furnished by the Agne orchestra.

In speaking of the recent marriage of Earl Morris, formerly of this city, to Miss Myrtle Field of Glidden, the Glidden Graphic has to say:

Wednesday afternoon, October 20, 1909, at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Coder occurred the marriage of their niece, Winifred Myrtle Field of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to Earl A. Morris, of Shell Lake, Wis., the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony being performed by Dr. Geo. Booth of the Presbyterian church. The room decorations were in green and white and presented a very pleasing appearance as the couple took their places under a canopy of smilax and white chrysanthemums to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Marjorie Fort.

The bride was beautifully attired in white chiffon with trimmings of Swiss embroidery and lace and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, while the groom wore the conventional black.

Miss Susie Hanna of Glidden, acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by Mr. Earl D. Prouty of Ames, as best man.

Mrs. Morris is well and favorably known here, having been one of the popular teachers in this county, and is a young lady of sterling worth and many accomplishments and one who has many friends wherever she is known.

Mr. Morris is a young business man, formerly of Keokuk, Iowa, where he has a large and appreciative circle of friends, whose commendations follow him wherever he goes. He was formerly a student at Ames Agricultural college and is a gentleman of education and refinement.

Only relatives and a few friends were present, the out of town guests being Mrs. Chas. Field of Cedar Rapids, Mr. Merton G. Morris and Mr. Fred Morris of Keokuk, Mrs. H. Baker of Pirmphar, and Mr. Earl D. Prouty of Ames.

Following the congratulations and good wishes of the assembled guests a dainty wedding supper was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Morris were driven to Carroll in an auto, where they boarded the west bound train for Omaha, Denver and the coast. They will spend the winter in California, after which they will return to Shell Lake, Wis., their future home.

The bride has many friends in this city and graduated from the high school with the class of '06.
