The LATEST of BIOGRAPH SUCCESSES:
To Save Her Soul
The ROMANCE of A LITTLE CHOIR SINGER

There are two deaths, the physical and the moral, and the moral death is unquestionably the most fearful. Moral death crushes its victim eternally, and wounds those who are near and dear to the one crushed. How fervent should be our prayer "Lead us not into temptation", for temptation is the germ which inoculates us with the fatal disease of sin. Insidious and vulpine are the toxic allurements of temptations; and so powerful, that once given rein, no amount of resistance can subdue them.

The Greatest Success Since "FOOLS OF FATE"

NOTICE—No seats will be reserved Monday evening—Three complete shows will be given.

—Special program, all new, at the Bon Ton.
—The Roll-a-way is the place to enjoy yourself. Go there for an afternoon or evening of pleasure.
—An attempt was made to wreck the passenger train on the Illinois Central, near Manchester, Iowa, Friday night. Twelve ties were piled on the track at a curve, but the engineer was running slowly and was able to stop. It is thought to be the work of discharged workmen.
—E. Hicks is the gentleman now in charge of the Olympia's Roll-a-way skating rink. Enjoy yourself at this popular place of amusement.
—Delightfully attractive and cozy Colonial Theatre Beautiful.
—Bon Ton special program, see it.
—A Fort Madison dispatch says: J. A. Harris, who has practically confessed that he is the man who shot Mayor Carmody of Cedar Rapids, was brought to the Fort Madison prison to begin serving a life sentence Tuesday. Harris was convicted last Tuesday of the burglary of the Chas. F. Lubberger home. It was proven that the crook had a revolver in his possession when he entered the Lubberger home in the night, and this act is punishable by a life sentence in Iowa. He was in custody of Sheriff Loftus and Deputy Van Dyke of Cedar Rapids, although only thirty-three years of age. He served a term in the Joliet prison, and has been an inmate of other penal institutions.
—Every one can skate at the Roll-a-way now. No objection to the price. Skating ten cents afternoons, and evening admission free and skates fifteen cents.
—Colonial Theatre Beautiful, the talk of Keokuk.
—The river blocked at 10:25 last night and with a continuation of the cold spell the ice will start piling up along the shores making certain that winter is on hand.
