

"THE WOUNDS OF OUR TIME"

Lenten Lecture of Rev. George Gigginger, D. D. Last Evening at St. Mary's Was a Forceful One.

SYNOPSIS OF LECTURE

Priest said That Spirit of Godliness Decreases in Same Proportion That Spirit of Worldliness Increases.

A good-sized audience greeted Rev. Dr. G. Gigginger at St. Mary's church last night, where he delivered his lecture on "The Wounds of Our Time." He said that the spirit of godliness decreases in the same proportion that the spirit of worldliness increases. By "world" we don't mean the physical world, but the inordinate desires of man for carnal pleasures, riches, honors, etc. Christ shuts the world out from His prayers: "For you, I pray," He says to His disciples, "not for the world. The world has hated me; it will hate you also." St. John tells us not to love the world, "nor the things that are in the world." And which are the things in the world we should not love? St. John answers this question when he writes: "For all that is in the world is the concupiscence of the flesh, and the concupiscence of the eyes, and the pride of life." One of the greatest wounds of our time is what is called the social sin. Its root lies in our nature, which is corrupted by original sin so that there is a continued warfare between the flesh and the spirit. The devil will be a curse, and societies have been formed for its extermination; immorality is a still greater curse, but only scattered voices are heard in its condemnation. Rascally houses should not be tolerated in our midst, for both moral and sanitary reasons. Syphilis among men is more common than most people are aware of, and there is no perfect cure for it. Girls used to go home after school hours to help their mothers, now they run the streets, and especially Saturday nights many are out to catch whom they can. They catch and are caught; they get married and have a divorce. It is a very lamentable fact that the sins of the flesh are defended in our day by men of learning as a reasonable debt we owe to our nature. A certain philosophical school teaches that sin is not sin, but something we may all freely indulge in. Philosophers, poets, and the stage seem to find it to their advantage to appeal to the lower passions of man, which Christ told us to crucify. Another wound of our time is the craving for money. Money to-day is mightier than the sword. It makes laws and breaks them, almost with impunity. It controls the press, the council chambers and legislative halls, and even church doors are not always locked against it. It has become a blood disease that can be cured only by remedies prescribed by the heavenly physician.

Another wound is the pride of life or self-sufficiency to a degree of independence from God. The French parliament once voted God out of the French nation, but it had to vote Him back. All these wounds are mortal and require strong antidotes. The antidotes are chastity, poverty and humility, but their taste is bitter and many prefer moral death to them.

PROSPECT OF FACTORY COMING

Meeting of Directors of Commercial Club Being Held This Afternoon at 3 O'clock. A representative from quite a big factory which may move to Keokuk in the near future, is in the city to-day and this afternoon a meeting is being held in the Commercial club rooms at which the visiting gentleman is outlining the proposition to the directors. The concern is reputed to be a good one, employing about a half hundred men, and with quite a large advance contract on its hands. However, there may be a hitch between the factory's representative and the Commercial club and nothing is sure about the matter. In fact after a careful study is made there often arises points which do not seem to be met by either side. Hopes are being entertained, however, that the factory will be landed.

Stomach Misery for Over Six Years

Read what Mr. Hoffman, landlord of the Webster Hotel, writes. "I suffered misery and intense pains from stomach trouble for over six years, and all the doctoring that I did or medicines I used were of no avail until about two years ago, when I used a treatment of Mi-o-na. The first few days' treatment helped me greatly and upon using it a while I was made entirely free from any stomach trouble or complaint whatever. Since the cure by Mi-o-na I have regained my weight, I eat and sleep well, am never nervous, and my entire general health is much better."—Max M. Hoffman, Webster, N. Y., Aug. 2, 1909. Mi-o-na stomach tablets relieve distress in five minutes. They act like magic. They are guaranteed to cure sour stomach, gas eructations, heartburn, dizziness, biliousness and nervousness, or money back. For sale by druggists everywhere and by Wilkinson & Co. for 50 cents a large box. Try Booth's Pills for constipation, they never disappoint, 25c.

SWEDISH LUTHERNS ARE IN CONFERENCE

E. A. Peterson of This City is Attending the Meeting in Des Moines This Week. E. A. Peterson of this city is in Des Moines, attending the Iowa Conference of the Swedish Lutheran church of America. At this session, the question of whether the State Lutheran hospital will be located or not will be decided. Yesterday, Governor Carroll addressed the assembly. A number of other addresses will be made along the lines of practical church work. Those on the program are: J. Christenson of Kiroom, O. A. Elmquist of Chariton, A. Norrvon of Sioux City, C. J. Sodergren of Burlington, E. S. Sundquist of Shenandoah, J. A. Holmen of Essex, Felix V. Hanson of Red Oak, E. A. Peterson of Keokuk, M. J. Laurera of Mediapolis, C. J. Segerhammer of St. Louis, A. Gumborg of Ottumwa, Joel Olsenius of Fremont, C. A. Randolph of Stanton, C. E. Olsen of Albert City and J. O. Kindstrom of Alta.

Hoarse Coughs, Stuffy Colds, pain in chest and sore lungs, are symptoms that quickly develop into a dangerous illness if the cold is not cured. Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough, heals and eases the congested parts, and brings quick relief. Wilkinson & Co.

NEGRO MAN AND WOMAN HERE

George Roberts and Ethel Tadlock Who Were Arrested Tuesday Afternoon at Davenport, Were Here. BURLINGTON, Iowa, Feb. 24.—Geo. Roberts, who has been sought by the local police department for the past month in connection with an alleged betrayal of a girl named Ethel Tadlock, was arrested late yesterday afternoon by the police of Davenport. Robert's description was sent out broadcast and it was through this means that he was apprehended. The Tadlock girl, who was working as a domestic in a North Hill family, alleges that she became infatuated with Roberts, who represented himself to be the son of a St. Louis doctor and the possessor of plenty of money. The girl claims that Roberts induced her to go to Monmouth, where a wedding ceremony was performed, which it afterwards developed was bogus. The couple then left the city and parted at Keokuk. In the meantime the girl's father camped on the trail of Roberts and he has been active in assisting the police. He is greatly incensed at the conduct of Roberts and would no doubt take the law in his own hands had he the opportunity and administer a well-deserved punishment to the miscreant. Roberts has been married twice and is a generally all-around unsavory Lothario. He has served one term in the penitentiary and if the Tadlock girl will appear against him in the present case, he may have an opportunity to renew his acquaintance with the big bars. Chief of Police Hiltz feels that he has ample evidence to justify a prosecution of the case against Roberts and will go after the culprit or sender one of his men after him.

DOWNING, MO.

Hon. Mathew Coffey and sons, Henry and Charley, are visiting in Kahoaka this week. Henry Cook and Will Parker are in Kansas this week, buying Jersey cows. Miss Hazel Hinshaw, who is a student at a college in Mexico, Mo., spent Sunday with her parents here. Alex Barb has bought the Smith property now occupied by Oscar Gunday, and will move into it soon. Mrs. Mary Neel, who is spending the winter in St. Louis, was called here Monday, on account of the illness of her little granddaughter, Mary Lou Morgan. Tom Lenson, an old-time citizen of Downing, died at his home east of town Sunday morning. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Painter at the Camp Ground cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Henry Priest, a prominent young farmer, died at his home east of town Monday evening, from the effects of pneumonia. His death was a shock to his friends, as it was thought he was getting better. John Priest, a brother of Henry, and William Smoot, a brother-in-law, are seriously ill with the same disease. Also Mrs. John Priest is seriously ill with consumption and not expected to live more than a few days.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Feb. 24.—A sun scorched diary found beside the bleached bones of a skeleton on the American desert today reveals the fate of Carl Nelson for whom the Norwegian consul started a search last July.

FISHING LICENSES AFTER MARCH 1

It Will Cost Fifty Cents Per Year for Each Bait Net, Dip Net, Hook Net and Flyke Net.

CONTENTS OF THE LAW

Simple Fishing With Hook and Line no License is Required—Licenses Obtained From Deputy Auditor.

The fishing laws are effective March 1, and licenses for about every kind of fishing except that with a hook and line is required. The licenses can be obtained from Deputy Auditor Green Vermillion at the county court house. The content of the laws is as follows: You must pay a license fee for each bait net, dip net, hoop net and flyke net, 50 cents per year. For each 500 foot or fraction thereof of seine, $10 per year. For each pound net having more than 100 feet of lead on each side, $1 per year. Every net and each 500 foot or fraction thereof of seine must have a metal tag fastened thereon, and displayed in such a manner as to be at all times exposed to public view. These tags will be furnished by wardens at price of ten cents each and it will be unlawful to use any seine or net, not provided with such tags. You must not fish with any seine or net with mesh less than 2 1/2 inches stretch measure. You must not fish with a trammel net, and when found on Iowa shore will be destroyed. You must not take with seine or nets any black or white bass; any striped bass; any pike; any croppies or pickrelt less than 15 inches in length; or any catfish less than ten inches in length; no pike, bass or croppies between and including March 31 and June 1 of each year. No license is required to fish with hook and line. Non-residence must give bond to the sum of $200 with two sureties owning property in Iowa, or may make a cash deposit of $200, or provide bond of any surety company authorized to do business in this state. You must return to the waters taken from all fish not used and not allow them to perish. All license will expire on the first day of March following their issuance. Anyone violating any of the provisions of this act will be fined not to exceed $100, or by imprisonment in county jail not exceeding 30 days.

CITY NEWS

Blom's soap saves labor.—The fire department was called to Haubert's slaughter house, Seventeenth and Blondeau streets, at 12:45 this afternoon. The fire resulting from the thawing out of a pipe was very insignificant and was extinguished by the chemical engine. Funeral services for the late Frank Rooney were held this afternoon at two o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Crimmins and Chase. The very Rev. Father Gillespie had charge of the services. The following gentlemen acted as pallbearers: Sam O'Connell, John Delaney, George Ederer, and John Conery. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

CITY NEWS.

Blom's soap, made in Keokuk.—Miss Nanny M. Smith entertained county court attaches at a moving picture theatre party last evening, quite a number enjoying the affair. The Keokuk Baseball association desires to thank those who in any manner, shape or form contributed to the success of recent minstrel show. The list includes D. L. Hughes, manager of the Grand opera house, the Eagles hall, the cast which was composed of the host, end men, and members of the chorus, and others to assist in staging the big show. It was one of the most successful entertainments ever given by amateurs of the city.

PASSED AWAY OVER IN SIAM

Death of Mrs. Edwards Who at one Time Was a Resident of Warsaw and Very Popular.

THE LATE WARSAW NEWS

William Wheeler Died From Pneumonia and His Funeral and Burial Was Held on Wednesday.

WARSAW, Ill., Feb. 24.—A telegraph dispatch in one of the neighboring dailies announces the sad intelligence of the death of the young wife of Dr. Ralph Torrey Edwards in Phrapatom, Siam, where the doctor is in charge of the Siamese government scientific laboratory. Mrs. Edwards was taken ill about Christmas, with a severe cold, pleurisy developed and finally pneumonia, causing her death on January 5. About five years ago Dr. and Mrs. Edwards located here, shortly after their marriage, the former in a few months bidding fair to quickly establish himself in a fine practice. Our people gave them a glad welcome and they made many friends during their stay. They had not been here long when the doctor, who is a graduate of Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, Md., received a government appointment in Manila, P. I., where he distinguished himself in scientific research for the United States government. About two years ago he received from the Siamese government the appointment as director of the government scientific laboratory at Phrapatom, Siam, at a handsome salary. Thither he at once removed, and has built for himself an enviable reputation, and firmly entrenched himself in the confidence of Emperor Chulalongkorn. Mrs. Edwards leaves three small children, the youngest born in November last. Her death is particularly sad, so far from friends and home and in a heathen country. Her parents reside in Galesburg. No information has yet been received as to the doctor's plans. He has the heartfelt sympathy of this community in his sad and deplorable bereavement. The doctor is a member of Warsaw camp 340, M. W. A., and the clerk receives occasional letters from him, in the last of which the doctor said himself and family had always enjoyed excellent health. Mrs. Anna Johnson will leave today for St. Louis, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Miller. Charles Albers and wife will leave today for New York, and shortly after their arrival there will embark for Germany, where they will remain indefinitely. William Wheeler died yesterday. He had suffered some with appendicitis, lately was attacked with pneumonia, which caused his death on Tuesday last. He was forty-one years of age and leaves two daughters, aged eight and fifteen years, to mourn his death. Funeral occurred at 2 p. m. Wednesday, February 23. Rev. A. G. Martyn of the Presbyterian church officiating.

Stevenson of Iowa City, will be the guest of the afternoon. The Association work will occupy the attention of the ladies in conference.

Burlington Musician Marries. Keokuk musicians and society in general will be interested in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Bertha Klein of Burlington, which took place Tuesday noon in that city. Miss Klein, it will be remembered, appeared in Keokuk a little over a week ago, with Miss Clough, another musician of Burlington, to give an entertainment before the Monday Music club. A Burlington paper says of the nuptials: The marriage of Miss Bertha Klein and Mr. Karl R. Wundt was solemnized at high noon today at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Klein, No. 521 Summer street, Rev. Dr. Cardle of the First Presbyterian church, performed the simple ceremony in the presence of the family and other relatives. In keeping with the spirit of the day the house decorations were patriotic in tone and the couple plighted their troth under the canopy of silk American flags. The bride was attired in a gown of French mull and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was unattended. In addition to the flag decorations, red and white carnations and bridal roses predominated and the table decorations were of the same nature. Following the wedding ceremony a repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Wundt left this afternoon for a visit in eastern cities and will be at home at Boise City, Idaho, April 1. There are no announcement cards. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wundt are Burlington young people, born, reared and educated in this city. Mrs. Wundt's removal from the city will occasion sincere regret among her numerous friends. She is a gracious and talented young woman and will be especially missed in local musical circles, being an instructor of great ability. Mr. Wundt is a horticulturist of note. He has made this his life's study and is recognized as one of the leaders in this particular line. He is particularly gifted for work of this kind and is also a musician and a pleasing vocalist. It is the earnest wish of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wundt that their marital career will be long and harmonious.

Afternoon Tea Suggestions. For a dozen guests it is better to have the tea table in the reception room, for then all will be together and conversation will be more general. The hostess and her friend should wear pretty afternoon dresses, without hats, of course. The guests must keep on their wraps, unless they wear those that slip off easily.

Table at Side of Room. The tea table should be placed at one side of the room that there may be space enough to move about freely. Then a pretty linen cover should be spread over the top, though the whole surface need not be concealed if the table is of mahogany or a highly polished wood. In the center there should be a dish of flowers, high or low, as the hostess prefers, for as guests are not seated a high one will not interfere with conversation. Candles with fancy shades will make the table more attractive, lighted, and so arranged as to be opposite each other. Various small fancy dishes of silver or glass should contain nuts, candies and a few small preserved fruits. Each dish should be balanced by a similar one on the other side of the table.

Small Dishes Nicer Than Large. Several small receptacles for tiny cakes are prettier than two large ones. One round cake to be sliced by those who like round or fruit, is a real addition. Sandwiches of any kind one likes complete the list of refreshments. Tea, of course, is served, and chocolate also if one wishes, but the latter is not necessary. With a few guests it is expected that chairs will be provided in the room, but the only one at the table is for her who pours the tea. Guests are privileged to draw their seats about the table when tea is served. No maid is required in the room. The room will be prettier by artificial light than by daylight. You Needn't keep on feeling distressed after eating, nor belching, nor experiencing nausea between meals. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures dyspepsia, it strengthens the stomach and other digestive organs for the proper performance of their functions. Take Hood's.
