OF THE N. Y. EVENING SUN SAID:

"At 'The Top o' th' World' you just lean back in your orchestra chair, give a sigh of relief and abandon yourself to an unusually jolly evening. There were more laughs uncorked in one act of 'THE TOP O' TH' WORLD' than you can hear in all the musical shows in town."
Sale opens Thursday morning. Prices: Evening 50c to $1.50; matinee, $1.00; children, 50c, to all parts of house.

LIFTS YOU ABOVE THE CROWD

The distinguishing mark of being well dressed is yours when your garments are made by the well known house of

Lowitz & Sons

Iowa's BEST Tailors

where you have the advantage of making your selection from an immense stock of high grade clothes, such as shown only by recognized first class houses, where only the BEST of CUTTERS and TAILORS are employed, making only the finest of garments.

The style of our production, the workmanship and quality of our materials are so far above the average and so-called Tailoring there is absolutely no comparison.

No more costly than inferior Tailoring, but far more appealing in every feature. If you are not already a patron of this well know establishment, one trial will convince you of what a difference there is in clothes.

See the new line of English and Scotch Suitings in the new color effects. Just received, the very latest for Sack Suit Wear.

THE HOUSE THAT KNOWS HOW TO MAKE CLOTHES

In about 10 weeks we move into the new "Baker" Bldg., No. 612 Main, which is now in course of erection--much larger quarters and being built as a most modern and metropolitan Cloak and Suit Store--Thursday, April the 12th, marks the opening date of one of the GREATEST REMOVAL SALES ever held in the city of Keokuk, and right in the midst of the season most interesting to women.

Over $15,000.00 of Ladies', Misses' and Children's ready-to-wear garments must be disposed of in the next few weeks. All Spring Merchandise at Absolute Cost. All Summer Wear also at most interesting discounts. Absolutely no Approvals or Exchanges at This Sale
Cloaks, coats, wraps, gowns, dresses, petticoats, sweaters, waists, capes, corsets, bust form, skirts, neckwear, collars, novelties, handbags, "yardage orders," etc., etc., etc.

Think of it, as early as April and such a snap for genuine bargains on useful merchandise. Remember the Early Bird Story. You know its a fact that the best numbers go first.
