BACK TO FARM FOR POLICEMAN

Creedy Retires from the Force After Serving for the Past Thirty-Two Years.

ST. LOUIS, April 11.—After thirty-two years of service on the St. Louis police force, the last six of which were spent as chief, Edmund D. Creedy will today start for his farm near Gasconade, Mo., following his dismissal from the force on charges brought against him, and of which he was found guilty by the police board.

William Young, formerly a captain, was sworn in as chief. Sympathy for Creedy is expressed in all quarters. The charges leading to the chief's dismissal are insubordination, accepting a gift without permission of the board and failing to report to specific cases of neglect of duty.

Overlooked a Bet. WASHINGTON, April 11.—The feeling that somebody overlooked a bet when the administration failed to send a representative to Europe to meet Roosevelt, became evident today when it was known that Roosevelt and Pinchot had held a conference.

AEROPLANE AND AUTO COLLIDE

The Two Latest Inventions of High Speed Come Together for First Time on Record

PASSENGERS NOT DEAD

Airship Was Smashed But Automobile Top Saved the Occupants From Being Killed.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 11.—Losing control of a Curtiss aeroplane, which he was operating at a height of seventy-five feet, J. C. Mars plunged downward with terrific speed into the field of the aviation course here, alighting on top of a seven-passenger touring car, in which were seated three women and two children. The canopy top over the touring car saved the lives of the occupants, only one of whom was slightly injured.

The biplane was smashed into bits and Mars was caught under the wreckage, but escaped without injuries worse than a badly bruised and wrenched knee and a slight cut on his chin.

In an automobile when the aeroplane crashed into it were Mrs. Edward Ritter, Miss Edna Ritter, Louis Ritter, Mrs. Wilmer Smith and child, all of this city.

Mrs. Ritter was the only one to be injured, receiving a slight cut in the shoulder. Mr. Ritter was standing at the side of the car, having just finished fastening up the canopy top. He was knocked down by one of the planes of the flying machine.

CHINESE WAR FEVER IS HIGH

Tong War is on in All Its Fury in the East as Present and Trouble is Expected.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Thu Hsu, an undersized but powerful Chinaman was hustled to the Tombs today and charged with murder. A formal plea of not guilty was entered and he was taken back to his cell.

During the whole proceedings he watched the rear of the room, where several Chinamen were gathered. Squads of police guarded the Chinamen to prevent an attack.

The so-called Tong war is on in all its fury in the east. Old-timers in Chinatown say a number of murders are to follow in New York and Philadelphia.

It's Spring Fever. EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 11.—Scores of people in this community complain that they are unable to get enough sleep. In fact, in several instances people have slept for fifteen or twenty-four hours and still were sleepy. They attribute this inclination to sleep to Halley's comet.

Iowa Hotel Fire. DUBUQUE, April 11.—The Julien hotel was damaged by fire at 2 o'clock this morning, to the extent of $20,000. Several persons were slightly injured by jumping from the windows.

Two Good Blackhanders. WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 11.—Martin Gabriel, a member of the Black Hand, is dead, while his brother, Gus, is dying at the city police station. Vincent and Salvatore Cairore, two of their intended victims are under arrest. The murder is the result of an attempt to extort money from Salvatore.

PULLMAN RATES ARE TOO HIGH

Commerce Commission Decides that Traveling Public is Charged Exorbitant Price on Sleepers

UPPER BERTH RATES

Reduction is Demanded in Cars From Chicago and St. Paul to Western Points of Country.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—After an inquiry extending for over a year, the interstate commerce commission has reached the conclusion that Pullman car rates are too high and has ordered the Pullman company and the Great Northern Railway company, which operates its own sleeping coaches, to reduce the rates from Chicago to St. Paul and from St. Paul to Seattle and other western points.

The commission also decided that the rates charged for upper berths are too high, and orders a reduction of approximately 25 per cent. This is considered one of the most important decisions ever handed down by the commission, and the inquiry was undertaken with the idea that the whole Pullman car rate situation should be looked into. Therefore the commission gathered comprehensive statistics with reference to the earnings and capitalization of the Pullman company.

The decision of the commission leaves the Pullman company but two courses to pursue, namely, either voluntarily to reduce its rates throughout the United States or fight the decision in the courts, and it is expected that it will adopt the latter course. For a long time after the enactment of the Hepburn act the Pullman company, in numerous minor complaints, denied the jurisdiction of the commission, and it is probable that the company, before the first day of June, when the decision becomes effective, will take the matter into the courts.

RAILROAD BILL UP THIS WEEK

It is Predicted That It Will Pass Without Any Very Extensive Opposition.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The Townsend, or administration railroad bill providing for the creation of a commerce court and material enlargement of the powers of the interstate commerce commission, will be taken up in the house Tuesday. Representative Townsend expressed the opinion tonight that the bill will go through the house practically as it came from the committee by a substantial majority.

The democrats, headed by Representative Adamson of Georgia, ranking minority member of the committee, have served notice that they will oppose some of the provisions of the measure, notably that creating the commerce court. Such a body, the minority holds, is unnecessary because of the adequate authority given the interstate commerce commission.

Chairman Mann of the committee first was inclined to accept this view, but he finally signed the favorable report on the bill and will endeavor to engineer it through the house in line with the president's wishes.

The insurgents, who waged a successful fight on the rules, but who said that their opposition to the house organization would not go so far as to impede the progress of the administration's legislative program, will not fight the bill.

Representative Norris, (Republican, Neb.), insurgent leader said, that as the insurgents individually held different ideas on features of the bill they would vote for some amendments and against others.

Washington Workmen Decide to Create Politician Organization of Their Own.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 11.—Union labor promises to be a factor in politics in the state of Washington this year and in the future. A convention has been called by the State Federation of Labor to meet in Spokane on July 4, for the purpose of organizing a new party, separate and distinct from the republican and democratic parties and, as it is stated in the resolutions adopted by a recent referendum vote, without fusion or trading with them. It is given out, officially by D. C. Coates of Spokane, ex-lieutenant governor of Colorado, that candidates for congressional, state, district and county offices will be put in the field next fall. A. W. Swenson, a member of the Spokane Typographical Union, who is credited with originating the plan at the annual meeting of the state federation at Moquiam last January, said in an interview that the break between the wage earners and the old parties has been impending for the last two or three years, and it is now up to the workers themselves to nominate their candidates and elect them.

SAYLER JURY CANNOT AGREE

Was in Deadlock Today After all of Sunday Spent in Trying to Get Together

RUMORS OF BALLOTS

It is Said that Jurors Stood 7 to 5 for the Conviction of Dr. William Miller.

WATSEKA, Ill., April 11.—The jury in the Sayler murder case is still deadlocked after deliberating all of yesterday and a good part of last night. Early today there was no sign of an agreement. In spite of this, Judge Dibell today declared he did not look for a disagreement but expected a verdict would be reached some time today.

The first rumor was that the jury stood 7 to 5 for the conviction of Dr. Miller. It was later reported that the jury had reached a verdict on Dr. Miller but could not agree on the guilt or innocence of Mrs. Lucy Sayler and John Grunden.

ON MOUNTAIN STROLL

Gifford Pinchot Arrives at the Italian Villa and Tells Roosevelt What is Going on in America

PORTO MAURIZIO, April 11.—Gifford Pinchot, formerly chief forester of the United States, arrived unexpectedly today and this morning paid a visit to the home of Mrs. Carew, where he was given an enthusiastic greeting by Col. Roosevelt.

"Hello Gifford, well, this is fine," shouted the colonel. They clasped hands like long-lost brothers. It was almost a case of falling into each other's arms. Pinchot was hustled inside the house and the two reappeared in a few minutes and departed on a walking trip to the mountains. Their stroll lasted two hours and if the same strain that marked their conversation at the start, was kept up throughout the stroll, everything which has transpired in America must have been fully covered.

"Nothing to give out," was the message to the newspaper correspondents regarding the meeting. It is safe to presume that Pinchot made a full report to Roosevelt of the Ballinger incident and the insurgent movement that has developed. Pinchot let fall one remark that intimated that Roosevelt has not yet repudiated Taft.

NEED NOT FEAR DEATH PENALTY

Dr. Hyde Has that Much Consolation in His Trial for Murder of Colonel Swope

HE IS NOT AFRAID NOW

Does Not Fear the Outcome of the Case, and Believes that He Will be Acquitted.

KANSAS CITY, April 11.—State's Attorney Conklyn created a sensation shortly before noon in the trial in the Hyde murder case, by announcing that the state would not challenge two venemen who were opposed to inflicting the death penalty.

Accompanied by his wife and Miss Mary Flavin, a devoted champion, Dr. Hyde entered the court room. He sat at the press table and smilingly said: "I have nothing to fear in this trial. There can be but one outcome—acquittal."

The doctor and Mrs. Hyde laughed heartily at incongruities in the newspaper reports, which they read. The jury box was filled at 11 o'clock. At noon adjournment, Judge Latschew ordered the 150 veniremen to remain in the room.

Dr. Bennett Clark Hyde is on trial for the murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope, millionaire and benefactor of Kansas City, who presented the city before his death one of the most beautiful parks in the middle west. The charge of murdering Colonel Swope is but one of many indictments found against Dr. Hyde following the deaths of Colonel Swope, his nephew, Christian Swope, and cousin, James Moss Hinton, as well as the malady of typhoid fever that swept the Swope household and for a time threatened to exterminate the whole family. It is alleged that Colonel Swope came to his death directly as the result of a strychnine capsule prescribed by Dr. Hyde. At the same time it is alleged by the state that he placed typhoid fever germs in the food prepared for the family with the intention of killing them. As a motive for these deeds the state claims that Dr. Hyde desired to kill off the heirs to the Swope estate, as each death increased the share which his wife, Mrs. Francis Swope Hyde, daughter of Colonel Swope, would inherit. Mrs. Hyde, who is in no way connected with the charges against her husband, stands by him and refutes all charges as base slanders.

NIGHT RIDER WAS LEGISLATOR

Interesting Trial in Kentucky This Week of Twelve of the Members.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Great interest is being taken by officials of the department of justice in the trial of twelve alleged night riders, which will take place this week in Covington, Ky. A tobacco grower at Dry Ridge, not a member of the Burley society, attempted to ship his crop. He was waited on by masked men and asked to withdraw the shipment. When he resisted, the men secured his bill of lading and thus got hold of his tobacco, which they destroyed. One member of the night riders is a member of the Kentucky legislature.

He accidentally fell into the trap and was held a prisoner for 48 hours. When found by a hunting party, he was nearly frozen and delirious. He was brought here and given attention but there is slight chance for his recovery.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 11.—James alias "Reddy" Gallagher, a notorious burglar with a long prison record, was killed with a club after a desperate struggle, by a householder whose home he had attempted to enter.

Samuel Zeauquenan was awakened by his wife, who said a man was trying to get into a neighbor's house. Looking out Zeauquenan saw the man in a yard several doors away. Hastily dressing, he went to his cellar and picked up a long heavy club used as a lever in a wine press. By this time the intruder, failing to effect an entrance in the other house, had appeared at Zeauquenan's cellar window.

Running into his back yard Zeauquenan sprang at the stranger and a desperate struggle ensued. The burglar managed to secure possession of the club, but before he could use it Zeauquenan closed in on him and recovered the weapon. The burglar then ran to the street followed by Zeauquenan who, swinging the club, struck the intruder with such force that he was thrown against a lamp post, smashing the lamp. Uttering a moan of pain, the burglar managed to crawl on his hands and knees about a block from the scene of the encounter. There he was found by the police, lying unconscious with a fractured skull, and removed to a hospital, where he died. Detectives identified the body at the morgue as that of James Gallagher, alias Henry Walter, alias William Walter, alias John Hannigan, a burglar who, since his first conviction in 1887, has served four terms for burglary and was released early this year after serving two years in the Eastern penitentiary for a bold daylight robbery. Zeauquenan was held to await the action of the coroner.
