

FIREMEN PUT OUT THE WATER

Street Between Thirteenth and Fourteenth on Fulton Was Flooded Last Night From the Rain

CELLARS TOOK WATER

With Lanterns and Sticks and With Hall all Around, Firemen Clear Out the Drains.

"It was so dark last night, you couldn't have seen your hand before you with a magnifying glass," was the remark of a fireman this morning. The night was a dark one, one of the darkest ever known in "these parts," and the unwary who were caught out in whirl pools without umbrella or arctic, had a pleasant time, not groping their ways about.

A downfall of 1.25 inches of rain was recorded at the meteorological office of the wet stuff, the heaviest rain here for some months. About 7 o'clock last night, the rain started descending with force and a real live summer cyclone was in progress during the evening and all during the night.

The Floods of Paris.

About nine o'clock, several of the neighbors living between Thirteenth and Fourteenth on Fulton streets, phoned to the fire station for help, the water having flooded the roadway and was slopping over into the yards and running into the cellars of the resident's houses in that portion of the city.

There was no alternative. The firemen have answered many calls during long and honorable service, and have battled victoriously with flames time and again, but they had never before been called to "put out" water. Going to the police station, however, they secured the assistance of the night driver and his rig and went to Thirteenth and Fulton where, with lanterns, they waded about for an hour in water up to their waists, trying to poke the accumulation out of the sub-drains and manholes along the gutters to get the water off the thoroughfare.

Several of the neighbors in that section, moved valuables from their cellars to the upper floors, the water having started to run in and was playing havoc with everything in its reach.

A good part of the water drained off the street during the night and this morning Street Supervisor Breney had a force of men working along Fulton, cleaning out the manholes and drains so that should another rain occur today or any time soon, there will not be as much danger from water standing in the street.

Trees Blown Over.

Several large trees were reported to the police, having blown over during the heavy wind and rain last night. Branches and large boughs are seen scattered through the streets today from last evening's elementary disturbance.

NERVY GYPSIES ENTER GROCERY

Took Fifty Cents in Cash From West End Supply Store and Then Didn't Pay for Groceries

OFFICERS MOVE THEM

Camp of the Swarth Tribe Located on Upper Main Street is Proving a Nuisance to Citizens.

The band of Gypsies who have taken up their residence on the outskirts of the city during the past several days are a bold brazen lot, evidenced by their actions this morning, when they entered the grocery store of Louis Sells at Fourteenth and Reid streets in West Keokuk and took from the cash register fifty cents while loitering about the store pretending to purchase groceries.

After taking the money from the cash register, the spokesman of the tribe wanted to pay Mrs. Sells who was selling the consignment, twenty-five cents out of the half dollar for one of the articles purchased. After procuring what groceries and necessities they wanted, the gypsies left the store without paying for what they had taken which in all amounted to about a dollar and a quarter.

The police were at once notified and Officer Fuqua went to the place on the Main street extension where the dark people were camping and made them come over with the amount of money due the West end grocery. Early this morning Deputy Marshal John Pierson went to the gypsy camp and ordered them to move which they promised to do after they had repaired a tumble down wagon which does service as a house on wheels.

The officers intend to get the gypsies, who are always a troublesome lot of fortune telling, sneaking lot of nomads, beyond the city limits where they will do no mischief.

UNCLE JOE'S RULES FOR LONG LIFE

Insurgents are Investigating One of Them Which Keeps Them Guessing.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Uncle Joe's Cannon's rule for living a long life are being carefully scrutinized today by the insurgents. They include: Learn to sing no matter how miserable.

Work—work with hands, feet, legs and brains.

Honor thy father and mother. Keep on a keepin' on.

These were contained in a letter to a club at Attleborough and the insurgents are wondering whether the "keep on a keepin' on" rule can be taken as a sign that Uncle Joe intends to follow this out and hang on to his chair in the house.

UMPIRES TO COME HERE ON MAY 4

Will Report to President M. E. Justice on that Day for a Consultation as to Local Conditions

AT KEWANEE CARNIVAL

Guest of Honor at Big Event Over in Town of Boilermakers—Jacksonville Looks Like Strong Bunch.

President M. E. Justice has notified his staff of Central Association umpires to assemble in Keokuk on May 4, the day before the season open, for instructions and assignments. It is not the intention of the executive to hold a school of instruction which has for its chief lesson an interpretation of the 1910 rules of the great American game, but merely to give them a little idea of conditions throughout the circuit and general rules which must be followed.

He is especially well pleased with the umpires who are to work, or at least start in the four cities on the opening day. Three of them are perfect strangers to Central Association fans, but are experienced and should be able to handle the indicators well. If past performances are any indications of what they will do in new territory.

In Kewanee Last Night.

President Justice was over in Kewanee last night attending the baseball carnival which is holding forth this week. He reports the event as being a big one and says fans there are enthusiastic, even more so than ever. Kewanee has been making plenty of noise of late Mr. Justice says they have every reason for so doing. Not only in Kewanee do things look encouraging, but throughout the circuit.

That Jacksonville Bunch

Several familiar faces are seen with the Lunatics. A they boarded a street car at 2 o'clock this afternoon "Red" Walsh, former, with Quincy could be seen. He looks better than ever. "Dummy" Hughes is also here with his first baseman's glove and promises to make good again this season. Morganthaler, the big left fielder, promise to swat some long ones if they put 'em in close to him. The big fellow broke up one of the last games Keokuk played at Jacksonville last season by depositing the sphere over the fence for a homer.

Every family and especially those who reside in the country should be provided at all times with a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment. There is no telling when it may be wanted in case of an accident or emergency. It is most excellent in all cases of rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by Wilkinson & Co. Pharmacy and J. F. Kiedalsch Sons.

OBSEQUES FOR E. R. DRAKE TODAY

Many Friends of the Family and Deceased Will Attend the Funeral Rites at Five O'clock.

Services will be held this evening at five o'clock for the late E. R. Drake at the family residence, 900 Morgan street. The last rites to be held in this city for the mourned citizen will be largely attended by many of the business men of the city besides others who knew Mr. Drake during his long life here.

Rev. Floyd Keeler of St. John's Episcopal church, assisted by former pastor, Rev. McIlwain, will be in charge of the services. A request that no floral tributes mark the close of the funeral rites here will be observed.

The body will be sent this evening to Catskill, Green county, New York, where the deceased will be laid to rest at the side of his wife's grave in the family lot at that place.

The following gentlemen will be pallbearers here this evening: Messrs. J. R. Carpenter, W. B. Collins, F. Z. Gosewisch, H. E. Ratcliffe, Dr. H. A. Gray, and Thomas P. Gray.

NO MORE GRAY HAIR

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made and used a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair, and are fast following suit. The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready to use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. As a scalp tonic and color restorer, this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers, and it can be bought for 50 cents and $1 a bottle at almost any first-class drug store, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by McGrath Bros.

UNEXPECTED DEATH OF JUDGE FEE

Well Known Centerville Citizen Who Was Veteran of the Civil War.

CENTERVILLE, April 15.—Judge T. M. Fee, ex-judge of the Second district, died of heart failure, at the age of 70, at his home in this city. He was taken sick Sunday, but his condition was not serious until Wednesday when his son Tom, of Bakersfield, Cal., was notified. The others of the family were here.

Judge Fee located in Centerville in 1862, soon after entering Co. G, 36th Iowa, General Drake's regiment. He was captured at Marks Mill and served ten months in prison at Tyler, Texas. He was twice elected judge and at the time of his death was a prominent candidate for the local postmastership, with the indorsement of Senator Cummins, a lifelong friend, their families being neighbors in Pennsylvania.

A few years ago he came very near receiving the nomination for supreme court judge. He was a prominent Odd Fellow, Knights Templar and in the Military Order of the Loyal Legion. For years he had an official position in the Methodist church. He was active in business affairs until last Sunday, being at his office and attending to his court work. Judge Fee leaves a wife, three sons and two daughters. The funeral will probably be held Saturday.

LATE AFTERNOON BULLETINS

KANSAS CITY, April 15.—After witnessing a performance of "The Eastside War," here last night, C. L. McCall, president of the Manufacturers' Brokerage Co., committed suicide in his apartments at an early hour this morning, taking an overdose of morphine. McCall and his wife had separated and his wife intended to file a divorce. The husband of the woman with whom McCall was infatuated was also going to file a divorce. Neither case was to be contested and McCall and the woman were to have been married after the divorce decrees were issued. The woman was with McCall at the theatre last night.

Progressive leaders in the First district have revolted from the attempt at detraction which has been made by Koltz, Garrett and other party disturbers and have assured Governor Carroll of their loyal support. The same facts are true in the Sixth district, Governor Carroll's own home, and they have promised him a vote of protest against the effort to make the office of governor a football for any game of politics which a few discharged and disappointed office holders please to play.

In this county already a strong non-factional organization has been launched in the interest of Governor Carroll and it is being claimed that a bigger vote will be recorded for him in Polk county than there was two years ago, when he carried it by a majority of 551. Every effort is being made in Des Moines to drag the senatorial question into the present campaign and it is meeting with indifference.

It was stated from the governor's office today that headquarters will be opened in a few days and the perfected organization announced.

DOUBTFUL ABOUT MORNING STAR

Captain Blair Says Report that Big Boat is to Carry Excursions is Not Settled Yet

REPAIRS ARE GOING ON

Can Tell Certainly When Overhauling is Finished—Boat to be Considerably Lengthened.

According to Mr. Ratterman the report which has been circulated in a number of newspapers lately as to the big steamer Morning Star which they say will be run as an excursion boat during the summer is not substantiated by facts.

Captain Blair himself told Passenger Agent Ratterman that he was not certain about the matter and would not be for several months, until the repairs which are being made on the boat are finished. The Morning Star is now over two hundred feet long but the intention of Captain Blair is to literally cut the boat in twain and make her fifty feet longer.

He states that he might run her as a packet boat to carry freight, and passengers, but of course the probability is that she will run as an excursion steamer, although Captain Blair's wife herself does not know what her husband intends to do with the steamer.

The matter will be definitely decided some time soon when the repairs have been sufficiently advanced. A dance hall will be installed if the present intentions of the owner are carried out and numerous other innovations which will make her the finest steamer on the river.
