MAN IN HOSPITAL DIED THIS MORNING

W. E. Pfening, Who was Found Unconscious by the Road Side Last Week Passed Away Today.

W. E. Pfening, the Council Bluffs man who was found unconscious at Fourteenth and Fulton streets, a week ago today, died this morning, at 11 o'clock, in Gracem hospital, where he had been ever since his removal on the day of his accident. Mrs. Pfening, wife of the deceased came here several days ago from her home in Council Bluffs to be with her husband and was with him this morning at the time of his passing.

The deceased was about forty-five years of age and was well known in his home city, being a member of the K. of P. lodge, and also of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

Some time ago, he had both limbs removed and had been wearing artificial legs. He had been representing the J. F. Rowley Artificial Limb company of Chicago up until the time he had been removed to the hospital.

Tomorrow morning the body will be taken to Mount Pleasant, where burial will be made.

"Generally debilitated for years, had sick headaches, lacked ambition, was worn-out and all run-down. Burdock Blood Bitters made me a well woman."—Mrs. Chas. Freitoy, Moosup, Mont.

PROGRAM FOR SANE FOURTH

Committee on Declaration of Independence Day Arrangements Have Arranged List of Events

BIG BALL GAMES HERE

Acquatic and field Events for the Fourth of July Listed Today by Program Committee.

PROGRAM

- Morning. 10:00 o'clock—Keokuk-Burlington baseball game at League park. 10:00 o'clock—Athletic field meet, Athletic park. 12:00 noon—Cannon ball and skyrocket picnic dinner, Rand park. Afternoon. 1:30 o'clock—Mimic torpedo battle and masked fire cracker parade, line of march starting from the Powder works. 2:00 o'clock—Motor boat races on river front. Five hundred dollars in candy fire crackers to be hung up for the winners of the different events. 2:30 o'clock—Swimming events in the canal near Price's creek. 3:00 o'clock—Baseball game, Keokuk vs. Burlington, at League park.

Evening

8 o'clock—Citizens watch party awaiting Halley's comet near the White ice house. 9 o'clock—Retire to cool smokeless bed rooms.

Notice: No fire crackers or noise of any kind allowed on the grounds, waterways or other places wherever the above program is being carried out. By order of Committee on Sane Fourth and Quietude.

From the above it will be seen that the idea of a safe and sane Fourth for Keokuk, with her water power dam under construction and her Commission plan in vogue, will be carried out as far as possible.

This morning several of the leading dealers of the city, in fireworks called at the offices of the city commissioners and informed Mayor Elder and Councilmen Gray and Schmidt that they would cancel all orders made for Fourth of July celebration provisions. As announced in Sunday morning's Gate City, Keokuk will have the sanest Fourth of July ever held here. The idea has been taken up with a will by those who have always wanted a safer celebration with shot and powder and those who are behind the movement will have the hearty support of the major portion of the city.

WILL NOT JOIN BRITISH MOVE

John Bull Wants Uncle Sam to Help Him in Making John Chinaman Behave.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Although there is some apprehension at the state department over the Chinese rioting, it is not likely that the United States will accept the proposal of Great Britain, officially reported today to join in a concerted movement to preserve order. At present it is not thought advisable to interfere in China's internal affairs.

COOK WILL BE HEARD TOMORROW

A Number of Keokuk Officials and Attorney with Minister will go to Davenport in Morning.

Deputy United States Marshal A. D. Durlap, County Attorney Theodore A. Craig, Chief of Police Henry Scheevers, John Tumety and Rev. Tornbloom will leave in the morning at 7:35 for Davenport, where they will be used as witnesses and will testify in the hearing of Elton A. Cook, the traveling man who recently took the bill book containing fifty-five dollars from the writing desk in the corridor of the postoffice, the property of Rev. Tornbloom, a Swedish minister here.

Cook was taken to Ottumwa a short time ago and was later returned here by the authorities until the sitting of the grand jury at Davenport, where it convenes this week.

Cook will be given a hearing, having had time to employ counsel.

AMUSEMENTS

"Ole Olson," honest, good-natured, whole-hearted and simple, but true and chivalrous as a Bayard, has long retained a firm grasp on the affections of theatre-goers and has survived enough years of continuous presentation to warrant the placing of this delightful character creation in the same category which holds "Rip Van Winkle," "Uncle Joshua Whitcomb," and others of that popular class. The play is a happy blending of humor and pathos, and a truthful delineation of the development of the untutored Swedish immigrant boy into an honest and respected American citizen. During the action of the play "Ole" will sing "Fair Land of Sweden," "Strawberries" and "Northland Lullaby."

MOODY PROPERTY WAS SOLD TODAY

Emily M. Huntoon, Plaintiff, Purchased it at Sheriff's Sale this Afternoon.

The Moody property on Timea street extending from Fifth to Sixth and comprising almost six lots, was sold this afternoon at a sheriff's sale and brought $3,865.50, the exact amount of the judgment including interest, costs, etc., granted against the trustees, John P. Hornish and E. M. Majors during the March term of the district court.

The highest bidder was Emily M. Huntoon, plaintiff in the suit, who secured the above judgment. She is an eastern lady and was represented by L. A. Parsons. But two other bids were made, one of them being for $3,000 by John P. Hornish.

LATE AFTERNOON BULLETINS

[By United Press.] NEW YORK, April 25.—Fritz Augustus Heinze will go on trial tomorrow on three combined indictments, containing 31 counts alleging misapplication of funds and over certification of checks while president of the Mercantile National bank. Judge Hough today sustained 31 counts in three indictments all bearing on dealings between Otto Heinze & Co., of which F. Augustus was a partner and the Mercantile bank.

Gambler Always Ascertains Whether Luck is with Him or Not Before He "Sits In."

"There is no use in trying to buck against bad luck," said the successful gambler as he set down his glass of vichy and milk. "If you see luck is going against you, drop out. If the fickle goddess of fortune is with you, who her for all you are worth. That's the whole secret of the game.

"I've been gambling all my life, and I rarely lose. Why? Because I never take a chance against bad luck. Luck is bound to be either with you or against you. You win or you lose. The chances of breaking even are mighty slim. And who wants to break even, anyhow?"

"Luck always runs in streaks. I can generally dope out whether I am going to be lucky or not, and when I know it isn't my time to win I simply don't play. How do I know? Well, I have a little system of my own, and I don't mind letting you in on it. Before I sit into a game I try out my luck in the seclusion of my own apartment. I take a deck of cards and start to play solitaire, Canfield against an imaginary banker. In five or six deals I can get an idea whether luck is with me at that particular time or not. If the cards are running consistently against me I stop and spend the evening at the theater, or chinning around the hotel lobbies. No game for me that night. On the other hand, if I see the cards are running my way I get into a game, and seldom quit a loser. It may sound foolish, but take my word for it, it's a pretty good dope to go by."

Had Good Reason for So Doing, But Landlady Received Something of a Shock.

"In spite of the fact that it's so common these days, it made me uneasy," said the woman who keeps lodgers. "The professional nurse who rooms at my house—the one with a great pile of light brown hair—was called out on an emergency case night before last. When I went up in the morning to do her room I found she had left her hair hanging by the mirror. I thought, of course, she was coming back, or would telephone for it, or send an A. D. T., or something. But the forenoon passed and no word came from the nurse. I kept going up to the room to look at that hair; it seemed to fascinate me, and then it got on my nerves. Don't know why, but I was obsessed that something had happened to the nurse. You know, they are such good lodgers—pay so well and out most of the time—that I take a special interest in them.

"So finally I thought to look in her call book and found that she had left her number. Then I telephoned her. I was a good deal relieved, and a little amused, too. You see, she had gone out on a contagious case, and she doesn't wear her best hair at such times—too much trouble to keep it disinfected, she says. But she was grateful to me for calling up. Wouldn't I please put it away in the top bureau drawer. She had not intended to leave it out."

Triumph to Americans. The English hostess for various reasons, the principal one being that she cannot help herself, now accepts the invasion of her American sister, the magnificence of her entertainments and the wonderful individuality of her costumes with equanimity, says a writer. The days are long since past when the American woman had difficulty in making a place for herself in English society, and past also are the days when she was treated as a curiosity and expected to act and talk after the manner of the immortal Daisy Miller. Nowadays she reigns supreme. In fact, it is fashionable to be American.

A Compliment Now. "But, mamma, you told me never to call a person a pig."

"But, daughter, that was before the price went up."—Houston Post.
