

COMMENT ANNUAL READY TOMORROW

The Comment Annual will be Ready for the Inspection of the Public Tomorrow. Afternoon.

MANY NEW FEATURES

The Publication will be New and Original in Many Ways—About Thirty Full Page Pictures Given.

The Comment Annual, the publication of the Keokuk high school pupils will be issued tomorrow afternoon and delivery of orders will be commenced at once by Manager Hayden and his score of assistants.

The Comment was issued twice a month all during the last school year instead of monthly as has been the custom and this disregard for former customs has been carried into the Annual.

There are eighty pages of the finest grade of paper with between twenty-five and thirty pictures, most of them full page cuts. There are individual pictures of the faculty, senior class and captains of the athletic teams, and groups of pictures of the athletic teams, both girls and boys, senior and junior class and all societies of the school.

There are stories by several of the high school students, the senior class history, prophecy, and will, and a short historical sketch of the teams and societies. The jokes are snappy and pertain to the life of the student body. They reach the point at which they are aimed and can be appreciated by all.

The staff is composed of the following students. Alberta Jester, editor. Ada Musser, G. A. A. editor. Chas. King, A. A., editor. Glenn Parsons, local editor. Norman Ringstrom, assistant local editor. Elizabeth Foelker, artist. Anna Hartwick, reporter. Dorothy Worthen, reporter. Irene Rollinson, reporter. Chas. Honse, reporter. Van Hayden, business manager and John Keidalsch assistant business manager.

CITY NEWS.

"The Love of Chrysanthemum," at Dodge tonight. Keokuk's talented young musicians who have been away during the past year, are home for the summer, and it is said that a concert will be given in the near future. Miss Florence Brinkman, Miss Hazel Salzer, and William Lester have been studying piano in Chicago, while William Farmer has been singing in grand opera in England. It appears as though Keokuk never had such an array of talent as at the present time.

NOTICE.

All parties having bills against Lee county, mail them at once to W. H. South, county auditor, Ft. Madison, Iowa. Mr. R. H. Hart, supt. Lee County Home, will collect bills, for purchases for the County Home. County warrants can be had at my office about June 11.

GEO. A. BRINKMAN, County Supervisor.

I wish to announce my candidacy for the office of representative, subject to the will of the republicans of the county at the coming primary election.

I respectfully announce to the republican voters of Lee county that I am a candidate for the nomination for sheriff, subject to the decision of the voters at the coming primary election. In case of my election I will appoint Henry Kesseler of Keokuk deputy sheriff.

FATHER GIGLINGER GOES TO EUROPE

Pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church will Leave Monday for His Native Land, Germany.

WILL VISIT HIS MOTHER

Keokuk Priest will Remain Away During the Summer Months, Returning About First of September.

Rev. George Giglinger leaves Monday evening for New York city and on Thursday of next week will set sail on the French steamer La Savoie for France and other European countries where he will visit during the summer months before returning again to his Keokuk parish in September.

It is principally to see his mother who is now past seventy years of age, that Reverend Giglinger goes to Germany, the elderly lady having had a paralytic stroke and not been in the best of health for some time, although much better at the present than a short while ago.

Father Giglinger's mother resides in southern Germany, Rosenheim, a city near Munich and only a short distance from Oberammergau where the Passion Play will be given this summer. It is the intention of Father Giglinger to again witness this wonderful play which he saw ten years ago during a sojourn in Europe.

The Benedictine Fathers of Burlington will come to Keokuk to occupy the place made vacant during the absence of Father Giglinger. They will remain until July when Father Ulrich Hauber of St. Ambrose college, Davenport, will come to this city to remain until the return of the regular pastor.

After his untiring efforts of caring for his prospering congregation, building a handsome new school and making many other improvements during his administration, Father Giglinger, it is conceded, is indeed deserving of the vacation which he is about to enjoy.

SOCIETY

A wedding that comes as a happy surprise to their numerous friends in this city was that last evening of Miss Anna Haggerty and Mr. Ell Rockefeller, both well known young people of this city. The couple stole a march on their friends, the wedding having been planned to occur next week and in order to spring a surprise the marriage was solemnized at 6:30 o'clock last evening at the residence of Rev. A. V. Kendrick, No. 820 North Ninth street. The bride and groom were accompanied by Miss Harriet Oldham and Mr. Amos Rockefeller as bridesmaid and groomsmen.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Haggerty, and is a member of one of the city's oldest and best known families. She is a young woman with a host of friends whom she has won and maintained through happy temperaments. The young gentleman of her choice is an employe of the Home Telephone company and a deserving citizen. Many friends here congratulate them and extend heartfelt wishes for a happy wedded life.

To Meet Brilliant Musicians. Miss Jane E. Carey will hold an informal reception at her residence this evening in honor of a number of Keokuk's brilliant musicians, who have been abroad during the past season. Among those who will be present will be Miss Helen Culver, William Farmer, Misses Forence Brinkman, Hazel Salzer and William Lester.

Initiation Tomorrow Evening. The Royal Neighbors will have initiation for several new candidates tomorrow evening. A social time will in all probability follow the initiatory work.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will brace up the nerves, banish sick headache, prevent drowsiness and invigorate the whole system. Sold by Wilkinson & Co., and J. F. Kiedalsch & Son.

See silk specials at Central. Way do they all go to Dodge? New altar laces just received at Central store. That they may have the honor of placing upon the collection plate at the national auxiliary meeting to be held in Cincinnati in October the amount of $1,500 in pennies, the woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal parishes in Iowa will make an active campaign for penny contributions this summer. The work of securing the 150,000 pennies is in charge of Mrs. J. E. Devin of Ottumwa. According to the pledge of the auxiliary each member is to give a penny a week to this cause, making a total of 52 cents a year. At the meeting of the state auxiliary held this week the auxiliaries of the Episcopal parishes voted to aid Mrs. Devin in her penny collection campaign. As a tribute to Bishop James Fielding Sweeney of Canada, who attended the diocesan convention and made an address before the state auxiliary held this week the auxiliaries voted to adopt the motto of the Canadian auxiliary, which is, "The Love of Christ Constrains Me."

New laces received at Central. The regular monthly meeting of the Benevolent Union will be held at the home tomorrow morning at 10:00 o'clock. New umbrellas and parasols for large or small ladies. See them at the Central store.

Another good audience greeted Thompson, the Egyptian, in the tent last night. These meetings are held every night excepting Monday. A good choir is furnishing excellent music and Prof. W. H. Wellcome is pleasing all with his beautiful solos. Mr. Thompson's handling of the subject "Is It Well with Thee and the Child," was wonderful, and every father and mother present must certainly know and feel their responsibility to their children. The subject for Thursday night is: "Doing God's Will."

Tigue's poultry house has opened fresh country butter and egg depot. There will be one game in the Church league tonight, between the Methodists and the Baptists. The Baptists are at present leading the league.

The program for the joint memorial day services of the Woodmen and Royal Neighbors which will be held on Sunday, was completed last evening. Rev. J. C. McCahn will be chaplain of the day.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Frederica Staucker were held this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the late family residence No. 1413 Concert street. The services, which were in charge of Rev. Jacob Neusch, of St. Paul's German Evangelical church, were attended by a number of friends of the deceased, who paid parting tribute by their presence. The body was taken to Warsaw at 2 o'clock, where interment was made this afternoon. The following gentlemen assisted as pallbearers: Messrs. Herman Spaan, Clarence Goodman, Charles Perry, John Haubert, Henry Pechstein and Charles Fuller.

CATCHER McMANUS IS NOT YET HERE

Secretary Sterne Goes to the Depot, but the Backstop Was Not to be Found.

Secretary Sterne meandered down in the vicinity of the Keokuk Union Depot this afternoon about the time the Rock Island train blew in from Des Moines, in the hopes of getting a glimpse of Catcher McManus, upon whom all Keokuk is pinning hopes for future victories.

But the new receiver was nowhere in sight. The secretary remained until the last tired traveler pulled himself from the last coach, but was not rewarded.

He returned to his office and wired Higgins of Des Moines, inquiring where the catcher was.

The Worst is Over. NEW YORK, June 2.—While many unconfirmed reports of trouble in some of the big stock houses were abroad today, the general impression is that the worst is over. It was anticipated that the railroads would be under big pressure for some time. The loss of yesterday totals several millions in over twenty railroad stocks.

Postal Bank Bill. WASHINGTON, June 2.—With a majority of the members of the house in favor of the postal savings bank bill, the passage of the measure today seems as possible as at any other time. A few of the insurgents are definitely against the measure with several of them openly in favor of it.

LATE AFTERNOON BULLETINS

[By the United Press.] DOVER, England, June 2.—Charles Stewart Rolles flew across the English channel today, starting from the English shore at 6:30 this evening, in an aeroplane.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 2.—Rep. Beckemeyer, who made confession No. 2 in Chicago that he received $1,000 for his vote for Lorimer and $900 from the jack pot has prepared a sensational confession for the Sangamon county grand jury that is said by States Attorney Burke to lay bare the entire jack pot conspiracy. It tells who handled the money and who shared in the distribution. As the result, a general dragnet will be thrown over the state, summoning in the members of the jack pot brigade, whom Beckemeyer has named. So important and startling are his revelations that Mr. Burke has decided to drop for the time being, all other matters and place the jack pot in the center of the stage. Beckemeyer has named a large number of legislators and it is said takes the prosecutor to the very lair of the men higher up.

NATIONAL AGENT THE K.S OF C.

Frank J. Sherlock of Davenport Will Address Local Council on Tuesday Night.

Word has been received by Grand Knight Joseph H. McNamara that Frank J. Sherlock, of Davenport, special national agent of the Knights of Columbus, will be in Keokuk on next Tuesday. NOTE OF DISCORD AT THE REHEARSAL

Francis is Booming Champ Clark, While Others Are Singing About Folk.

ST. LOUIS, June 2.—While the rehearsal of the "Folk for president" sonata which will be played tonight at a banquet here, was in full swing today, a clarion note from Bowling Green blew up in the breeze and resulted in the first discord in the Missouri democracy chorus.

Former Governor Francis started the discord by his speech at Champ Clark's home last night when he boomed him. Francis will not attend the banquet tonight and his action may take some of the wind out of the Folk boom.
