SHULTZ TOO MUCH FOR INDIANS

Galesburg Twirler Allowed But One Hit and Held Keokuk to a Nothing Count During Nine Sessions.

TWO DOUBLES WON GAME

Half of Hits Off Jaeger Came in a Bunch and Spelled Victory—It Was Grocers' Day, But They Were Absent.

Schultz's effective pitching defeated Keokuk, 1 to 0, and gave Galesburg the series in straight games; also making it five successive defeats for the Indians. It was Grocers' day at the park, but they all went fishing. The game was a great pitchers' battle between Schultz and Jaeger, the former allowing but one hit, while the visitors found the Keokuk twirler on four occasions. Two were for extra bases and came in the sixth, spelling victory for the enemy.

The work of both twirlers was magnificent. They were wild, however, and stolen bases and errors managed to place the box artists in numerous holes, out of which they worked with wonderful success. An evidence of this was shown in the fifth when Jaeger forced Brand to pop up a short one and Kommers and Blaesser to strike out with both second and third occupied.

New Men Did Well.

Three new players—one for Galesburg and two for Keokuk—were present in the lineup and played remarkable ball, especially Sensenbach, whom Keokuk disposed of in exchange for Sammy Grodnick. The youngster fielded like a fend. His stop in the ninth inning, which averted a tieup in the game and effected the third out, was a feature of the game. Ahring, playing shortstop for Keokuk, also displayed form and fielded perfectly. He also got the only hit of the day for Keokuk. Grodnick played his usual steady game, but had little chance to pull off any fast ones.

Both clubs made a bid for scores in the first round, but poor base running settled Keokuk when a good chance presented itself. Brand for the visitors walked, after Sensenbach was out on a short fly to Bresnahan. Kommers hit an easy one to third, when Bresnahan booted. Blaesser hit to short and Kommers was forced at second. Nickell flew out to center.

Ahring Singles.

Ahring got around for Keokuk as far as third, but was there caught napping. Morris walked to start things and Ahring singled, hitting a clean one to left, which passed between third and short. Miller attempted to sacrifice, but bunted straight at the pitcher and Morris was forced out at third. On a passed ball Ahring reached third. Miller stole second. Brand took a short throw and seeing Ahring playing off third, shot to the bag in time to nail him, and spoil Keokuk's best opportunity of the game. Reichle, who followed, went out, pitcher to first.

That was the last hit Keokuk got during the game. In the ninth Ahring walked, was advanced to second and stole third. Reichle was called out on the third strike and Grodnick grounded to Sensenbach. The ball looked like a hit for certain. Sensenbach covered a wide territory and made a fast throw, which Lotshaw cleverly handled, ending the game. The decision was a close one. Some contended the first baseman's foot was off the base and the decision was questionable.

PITCHER EDLICK RELEASED TODAY

Belt is Making Effort to Place Him With Macomb in I.-M. League, But May Retain a String on Big Fellow.

CHANGES HAVE HELPED

General Belief is That Belt Has a Stronger Aggregation With the Addition of Two Players.

Pitcher Edlick was released today by the Keokuk baseball management, and Belt is in negotiations with Macomb of the Illinois-Missouri league, with the probability that the big fellow will be sent there.

Edlick should have little difficulty making good in the I.-M. league. It was thought earlier in the season that he would hold down a permanent berth with the Indians, but with four veterans on his staff Belt could find little opportunity to pitch the big fellow. And then he did not show enough class to warrant his being carried. With a year's seasoning Edlick should make a strong twirler and it may be that Belt will keep a string of some kind on him.

The team as it appeared on the field yesterday looked good. Ahring at short is a clever youngster. He has a good eye for the ball, and sends out short hits. He is fairly fast on bases. Sammy Grodnick should hold down second to the general satisfaction of the management.

The present stretch of games at home has been the most disastrous Keokuk has experienced in a long time. The team has always had a faculty of taking things easy on the home patch, but the past week has been an exception to this rule.

BIG EXCITEMENT IN FIGHT CAMPS

Governor Gillette, Spurred to Action by Letters from All Over the Country, Puts Ban on July 4th Mill.

RENO MAKES A BID

Nevada Town, Where Prize Fighting is Permitted, Wired Offer—Mayor McCarthy Says the Fight Will Take Place.

Reno Bids for Fight.

RENO, June 16.—Reno made a bid for the Jeffries-Johnson fight when A. J. Allsworthy, theatrical manager representing the local business men telegraphed Rickard that this city would erect an arena. The Nevada law permits fights.

CHICAGO, June 16.—"I am running San Francisco. I am taking no orders from Gillette or his attorney general. You can bet your last dollar that the big fight will be pulled off in my town, just as advertised," said Mayor McCarthy, of San Francisco, while passing through Chicago last night on his way home. "The big fight will come off in San Francisco, July 4, you can bet your life."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—Spurred to action by the insistence of the protests from all parts of the country Governor Gillette took steps to prevent the championship fight between Jeffries and Johnson July 4. In a letter to Attorney General Webb, the governor expresses his disapproval of prize fighting in unmeasured terms, and directs that the aid of the courts be invoked in preventing the match, and concludes with a positive order that, in case the plea for a restraining order is not granted, and the fight is held, that the attorney general proceed to gather evidence to prosecute the principals and those interested in the fight for a violation of the penal code of the state. The latter declares the supreme court of California never denuded a prize fight and suggests that an opportunity be given it to do so.

This is taken to indicate the governor's intention to press his opposition to the end, and while the status of the fight is in an unsettled condition tonight, the sporting fraternity are much cast down, and it is generally believed the death knell to prize fighting in California, "the Mecca of prize fighters," according to the governor's letter, has been sounded.

Other Fights to be Stopped.

This was borne out by the fact that the governor telegraphed Webb later in the day to take similar action in the fight between Langford and Kauffman, scheduled for next Saturday.

Promoters Rickard and Gleason were taken completely by surprise. They had heard no whisper of the governor's intended action. After a conference with Webb, Rickard said he believed the fight would be held in San Francisco on the advertised date, despite the governor's orders. He would not say positively what the course of action would be until Webb handed down his opinion, yet Rickard has no intention of abandoning his effort to hold the fight here.

Expects Early Decision.

Rickard said Webb promised him, because of the great expense of erecting the arena, and other matters affecting the fight, that his opinion would be forthcoming without delay. Rickard expects it within two days. In the meantime he would make ready to take the fight to Nevada or Utah, if compelled to do so.

The governor, in his letter, declares the toleration of prize fighting in California is a disgrace to the state. When Jeffries heard of the governor's order he said, "I don't believe it."

The camp was thrown into an uproar. "I don't care where the fight takes place," declared Johnson tonight. "I am willing to go any place."

LOOK TO CLASS IN DUAL MEET

Impossible for Closest Followers of Dope to Pick Winner in Saturday Games at the Athletic Park.

A RETURN OF THE STARS

Among the More Prominent Ones Are Charles Hennemann, Sr., Rossi and Harry E. Ratcliffe—Entries Here.

With the Ottumwa-Keokuk Y. M. C. A. dual meet but two days off it is impossible for even the most studious dopsters to pick the winner. Some favor Ottumwa, while the majority of local sport followers pick the Keokuk bunch to gather enough points to defeat the team from the packer city.

The Keokuk team is not as well balanced as it might be and for this reason firsts must be secured if Ottumwa is to be defeated. There is extreme uncertainty about a number of the athletes who will carry the colors of the Keokuk association. They were capable of classy performances several years ago, but whether they will be able to duplicate their feats with but little practice is to be determined. If they go true to form there is little question but that Keokuk will carry away the honors; if not, the competition will be of the neck and neck variety.

Not in recent years has there been such an array of talent gathered together for a dual meet in Keokuk. Charles Hennemann, Sr., will be out to gather points in the three weight events. In practice last evening he toyed with the light weights and his marks assure an even break at least. H. E. Ratcliffe, the former Illinois hurdler, who held the indoor record there over the high sticks, is entered in one event—the 120 high hurdles, and it is likely that he will capture the race. A new man, a runner of some note, by the name of Rossi, has shown unusual form and is booked to show class in the half mile and mile. His speed is good in the hundred, and it may be that he will run this dash also. Strickler is counted on strongly for points in the mile, his favorite race, and should finish first or second.

Two other stars will be Charles Hennemann, Jr., and Charles King, both consistent performers who should win many points in the field events. The Ottumwa entries were received today. The Keokuk entry list has also been compiled, and both are given below.
