The twentieth annual Presbyterial convention of the Keokuk Presbytery of the United Presbyterian church ended this morning after one of the most successful and helpful meetings the Presbytery has ever held.

The convention opened this morning with a praise service. Owing to the absence of the leader, Rev. Curry of Crawfordville, Miss Glynn Rowan of Ainsworth led the service.

At 10 o'clock a general conference was held on the subject "At Work—Light On." Rev. D. L. McBride of Winfield presided.

Miss Nellie Moore of Columbus City took up the discussion of what each one can do to help the others.

The discussion of the mid-week prayer meeting was led by Rev. W. O. Fisher and he suggested as a means of helping the mid-week prayer meeting that all of the young people try to be present regularly and to feel a responsibility in the meeting.

Rev. Fred Elliot in the discussion of the Sabbath school helps headed all of the helps with a "B." Be present be prompt, be prepared, be a missionary, be willing, be friends, and behave.

Miss Alda May Sktner was unable to be present and lead the discussion of the special work but her paper was read by Miss Maxwell.

Rev. W. R. Sawhill of Washington, Iowa, was down on the program for an address on the subject of merging the junior work into the senior work, but owing to his inability to be present this part of the program was left out and the address by Rev.
