—With regards to the "fight" pictures which are causing much discussion among city and state officials throughout the country a Hannibal dispatch says of the prospects for showing them in that city: "That the city council will take such action as to prohibit the exhibition of pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight in this city is the belief of the ministers of Hannibal. At the meeting of the Ministerial Alliance yesterday the Rev. Russell A. Harty, pastor of the Fifth Street Baptist church, and the Rev. C. C. Grimes, pastor of the Park Methodist church, the committee appointed to wait upon Mayor John Dreyer and the aldermen to ascertain their views on the matter, reported that they were practically assured that no pictures of the big fight would be displayed in Hannibal. Thereupon the Alliance decided to leave the matter entirely with the city council, believing that it will prevent the showing of any fight pictures on the grounds that it would tend to incite race riots and that they are unfit for the public, especially children."
