

DEATH OF JOSEPH GARRITY

Death Occurred at the Family Home 308 E Street at 10:15 Last Evening from a Hemorrhage of the Heart.

EMPLOYED AT FACTORY

Met With an Accident While at the Cereal Works Two Years Ago Which Was the Indirect Cause of Death.

Last evening at 10:15 occurred the death of Joseph P. Garrity, one of the younger citizens of West Keokuk, at his home, 308 E street. Mr. Garrity's death although not coming unexpected, came suddenly. About ten o'clock last evening he left the family to walk to the kitchen to secure a drink of water and had just returned to the room where the rest of the family were seated when he dropped to the floor in a dead faint in which he died. The physician called, pronounced death the direct result of a hemorrhage of the heart.

Joseph P. Garrity was born near Knoxville, Iowa, in 1877, and soon after moved with his parents to Keokuk, where he has since resided. He would have been 33 years of age the eighteenth of this month and was unmarried. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Garrity, and three sisters and two brothers. The sisters and brothers are: Mrs. Thomas Kilker, Mrs. George Yeager, Miss Maymie, Thomas, Jr., and John Garrity, all of this city.

Mr. Garrity has been a faithful and trusted employe of the J. C. Hubinger starch company for the past few years. It was while in their employ that he met with the accident that was the indirect cause of his death. On June 6, 1908, he was loading a car with starch when the gangway between the car and the platform became loose, throwing a truck load of about 500 pounds weight onto his chest. From this accident he had never fully recovered, but had gone back to work and had been working up to six weeks ago when he was again confined to his home, but was not confined to his bed.

Mr. Garrity has a host of friends among his fellow workmen and the citizens of Keokuk. He has been a constant member of St. Peter's church and took a great interest in all of its activities. Funeral announcement will be made later.

SOCIETY

His Birthday Anniversary. Fowler, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Phillips, was assisted in very enjoyably celebrating his eighth birthday yesterday by twenty-five little friends who called between the hours of four and six o'clock and indulged in the usual birthday jollities for young people. A pretty luncheon was served at an appropriate time and a handsome birthday cake, the delight of children, gaily lighted with wax tapers, was cut in honor of the occasion.

Croquet Tournament Saturday. Saturday afternoon at five o'clock, the croquet tournament will be held at the Country club. A number of entries for the games have been received by Mrs. Harry M. Phillips, clerk of the tournament, and some interesting and exciting plays among the wickets are expected.

Phi Lambda's at Bluff Park. Twenty couples of young people from this city enjoyed the dance given at Bluff park by the Phi Lambda Epsilon fraternity. Several automobile parties drove to the bluff and a number took the evening train up. The Agne orchestra was engaged for the occasion and the evening being delightfully cool and pleasant the time was enjoyably spent by those present. Following are among those who attended: Misses Madeline Narrelly, Madeline McGrath, Olive Morgan, Lillian Miller, Eunice Peters, Minnie Hartley, Lella McGaw, Ethel Curtis, Miss McMillan, Chicago, Gene Gaston, Mary McGrath, Adelaide Bartruff, Ruth Evans, Miss Unser, Chicago. Messrs. McGrath, Ellsworth, Pechstein, Dickey, Phillips, Warwick, Garrison, Horn, Worthen, Wyckoff, Merrill, Reddy, Hulskamp Strickler, Wilmering, Prouty, Musselman.

Mrs. Peterson for Guest. Mrs. J. W. Peterson entertained a company of twenty-five ladies at her residence, 712 Morgan street, on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. W. Bennington of Decatur, Ill. Choice refreshments were served and a pleasant social time spent with the hostess and guest-in-company.

Local People Marry in Quincy. The Quincy Herald tells of the marriage of a Hamilton young lady and Keokuk groom: Edward L. Roseberry and Miss Iva L. McNeill, some time.

Well Painted Property Honors Its Owner

WHENEVER you walk around town, it is natural to compare one man's place with another. The house well painted and in good taste will invariably create a better impression than a more pretentious place costing twice as much, but in need of paint—or with poor paint scaling off its sides. If it is important to paint, it is more important to use the best paint.

Southern

Pure White Lead ("Dutch Boy Painter" trade-mark) has made and kept its reputation as the standard for years, because it has resisted the weather, and because it is economical. Mixed properly with pure linseed oil at the time of painting, and tinted to any color or shade you want—then put on right by a good painter—your property will have new life, will last longer and will stand any comparison.

Our "Dutch Boy Paint" covers the subject thoroughly with pictures and text. Free on request.

DEATH OF MRS. JAS. FURLONG

Death Came After a Short Sickness of the Past Two Weeks of a Complication of Diseases Due to Old Age.

CAME FROM IRELAND

She Had Been a Resident of Keokuk for the Past 58 Years and Was Well-Known to All.

Mrs. James Furlong Sr. one of Keokuk's older and best beloved citizens passed to her last long sleep this morning at the residence of her son James Furlong Jr. at Twelfth and Fulton street. Death came as the result of a complication of diseases due to old age and after a sickness of two weeks she passed away during a restful sleep and without any pain, dying as she had lived, a quiet and unostentatious life. She would have been eighty years old December 22 of this year.

Mr. Furlong was born in Queens County Ireland in the year 1850 coming to America and Keokuk in 1852 and has been a continual resident since her first arrival. In 1854 she was married to Mr. Jas. Furlong who preceded her to the grave by forty years. To this union were born six children three girls and three boys. Mrs. Furlong's daughters have all passed to the great beyond. The sons are John W. Furlong of Chicago, Jas. A. Furlong and Joseph Furlong of Keokuk. Two sisters and one brother survive her. They are Mrs. M. E. Donnelly of Chicago, Mrs. Ann Keeley and Martin Murphy both of Keokuk. Besides the brothers, sisters and children, she is mourned by five grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Mrs. Furlong was a member of St. Francis De Sales church where she has attended worship since her first arrival in Keokuk. She was a member of all of the charitable societies of that church and took a great interest in the welfare of the worthy poor.

Mrs. Furlong's children were all at her bedside when she passed away. They have the sincere sympathy of the citizens of Keokuk many of whom Mrs. Furlong counted as her personal friend. Announcement of the funeral arrangements will be made later.

whose address was given to the marriage license clerk as Hamilton, Ill. were quietly married in this city at noon today, at the Vermont street M. E. church parsonage, by Rev. J. W. Miller, the pastor of the church.

Mr. Roseberry is employed in one of the leading drygoods houses at Keokuk. His home is at Hamilton, but he has been living in Keokuk for some time.

MANAGER HULL IS BENEDICT

Pleasant Young Gentleman Manager of the Keokuk Air-Dome Wedded to Young Chicago Lady.

KEPT MARRIAGE QUIET

Miss Julia Schultz, Fair Daughter of One of Chicago's Oldest and Best Known Families, the Bride.

Recently it just crept out that Manager Harvey G. Hull, the pleasant and superlatively agreeable gentleman, head of the Keokuk Air Dome Company, had become a benedict and since his marriage to a charming young Chicago lady has been made known Mr. Hull has been the recipient of scores of congratulations. This morning when approached by a reporter and asked to confirm the report that he was "married now" Mr. Hull admitted with a happy smile that it was so. Mrs. Hull was formerly Miss Julia Schultz of Chicago, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schultz of that city. Mr. Schultz being a prominent commission merchant on South Water street there for the past twenty years. Mr. Hull and Miss Schultz were united in marriage at the parsonage of Rev. John of the St. Paul church on Tuesday, July 12th. Their marriage was a quiet one and the beautiful vows taken while both young people were unattended.

Immediately they returned to this city and have been making their residence at No. 18 North Eleventh Street for the present. Mr. Hull said today that he and the winsome young woman of his choice, would have been married the first of the year, but later it was thought best to await the establishment of his new Air Dome in this city, before they were wedded.

It was on the first Sunday that the theatres of Keokuk were not open, July 10, that Mr. Hull seized the opportunity to go to Chicago and in just three days return with his wife to this city. The marriage was kept quiet but now that their hundreds of friends are aware of the march they stole, sincere congratulations and dearest wishes for a bright, happy future for Mr. and Mrs. Harvey G. Hull during their married life, are extended by all Keokuk.

—This evening at the Y. M. C. A. will be held a meeting of all the tennis enthusiasts of the city to try and arrange for a city tournament to be held this fall. Anyone who is interested in tennis in any manner is invited to be present. Keokuk in years past has developed some very fast tennis players, but the sport has declined in the past few years. At present there seems to be a great increase in the interest taken in the same and it is to increase this interest that the tournament is planned. There are several fine courts in the city and play will probably take place on all of them. The boys' department of the Association have planned a boy's tournament and all boys who desire to take part can do so by applying at the general offices in the Y. M. C. A. building Monday. The entry list is open to boys from 12 to 15 years of age.

—Margaretta Rockelman conveyed today by warranty deed the title to lot 8, Kibbourne addition, to John Rockelman.

—At 12:30 this noon a fire alarm was turned in from Twelfth and Morgan street where fire from a defective flue had caught the roof of a house owned by Dr. Gray and occupied by Jas. Whiteaker. The fire department made the run and soon had the fire under control by the use of a stream from the chemical. The entire roof of the building will have to be relaid as the fire had worked under and between the rafters to all parts and had eaten its way out in many places. The damage was confined entirely to the building, as Mr. Whiteaker did not have an article of household goods spoiled by either the fire or the stream from the chemical engine.

GREEK LABORER WAS ROBBED

Boarding Car on the Levee Entered and Razor and Money Taken, the Razor Being Afterwards Returned.

THE POLICE DOCKET

City Jail Was Filled to Almost Overflow Today With Those Who Had Committed Petit Offenses.

Recently a razor and $1.25 were taken from a Greek boarding car on the levee. Yesterday the razor was located in a barber shop on South Third street, the proprietor informing the police that it was in his possession, a young lad by the name of Russell Brown having disposed of it there. Brown is one of the three youngsters who is supposed to know about George Reddinger taking fruit and soap from a wholesale house in the city and claims to have received the razor from Reddinger the other day, with the understanding that it had been found under the bleachers at the ball park. Of course this was taken as popycock by the police. The Greek who lost the razor from the car, identified his shaving blade by several nicks in its cutting edge. The money has not been recovered.

Drunks Get Three Days. Everett Jolly and Pat Reardon, two sons of the 'ould sod' were taken in tow by the levee patrolman Officer Jake Park yesterday afternoon about three o'clock, both in a drunk condition. This morning they were sentenced to three days in jail by the superior court judge.

Dogs Bring Over $1,300. Over thirteen hundred dollars has been realized by the city to date, in dog taxes. Clerk Sandberg's and the account book of the chief of police show 956 dog licenses sold thus far. Those dogs killed number 165. Thirteen of those that have died by bullet or gas, were killed outside of the pound yard.

On the Rock Pile. There were thirteen prisoners locked up in the city jail this morning, the greatest number serving time and awaiting sentence in a long time. Daily the prisoners are walked to the rear of the station where they make little stones out of big rocks which are hauled away and put on the streets of the city to beautify the thoroughfares.

Hunting Her Father. Retta Fleischmann of 710 A Market Street, St. Louis, Mo., has written the police here asking for information regarding her father whom she thinks is here, Joseph A. Fleischmann. No such party is known to be in Keokuk at the present time.

SALOONS WERE CLOSED UP

Three Bar Rooms of the City Will Have to Suspend Operations Temporarily for Keeping Open on Sundays.

WERE THEY OPEN?

Officers of the Law are Certain That Proprietors of Closed Saloons Were Having Sabbath Business.

Temporarily and to give them time to think over the matter of keeping open their places of business on Sunday regardless of the liquor law of the state, three saloons were closed last evening, those of C. J. Hickey, 17 South Third street, W. C. Hewitt, 10 South water street and Ed. Galloway's Commercial hotel bar room and will remain so until the 18th of this month. Officers of the police department notified the proprietors yesterday they must suspend operations temporarily. Enough evidence has been secured against the three liquor sales rooms named, to justify the officers in closing them up. It is said but not enough definite say-so of those who are acquainted with the misdemeanors of the proprietors has been given out, hence only a temporary closing up of the places.

For some time the police officers have known of Sunday operations of the saloons and others are expected to follow the three of last night, should they be caught disobeying the saloon law.

THE WORLD'S MARKETS. Furnished by James E. Bennett & Co., Members Chicago Board of Trade and St. Louis Merchants' Exchange. LOCAL OFFICE—ROOM 2, GATE CITY BUILDING. PRIVATE WIRE. MISS. VALLEY PHONE 306. BELL PHONE 605.

Daily Grain Letter. CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Wheat—Shows considerable strength in spite of influential commission house selling and more or less hedging pressure on the hard spots. Local traders are generally bullish influenced by disappointing harvest reports from the northwest and the stronger foreign markets. Crop experts are now making guesses in advance of the government report in regard to total yield of wheat. One of the best prices the total at 640,000,000 to 624,000,000. A holding tendency has developed amongst the winter wheat farmers which will probably reduce the movement temporarily. We believe that wheat is a sale on rallies and look for a scalping market and downward tendency.

Corn—Covering by shorts advanced prices slightly, in spite of the favorable weather. Rains fell over a considerable section and have been of much benefit. Private estimates of the crop now range from 2,850,000,000 to over 3,000,000,000. Country offerings of old corn continue light and it is easy to maintain prices. Local traders are still bullish in spite of the promise for the new crop, but with such a good outlook we believe sales on the hard spots will be profitable.

Oats—Country offerings have fallen off and the market is under much less pressure. The east is taking oats freely from points east of Chicago and sales from this market are probable in the future. The country is holding off and is not disposed to sell oats for shipment except at advanced prices. We look for a scalping market which may work some higher, but believe oats should be sold on hard spots.

Provisions—Market was disposed to be heavy with a poor class of buying. Packers claimed cash demand was a little better and were moderate buyers of lard. There is little that is bullish in the situation and we believe that sales on the hard spots will be profitable.

—At 10:15 last evening, an alarm of fire was turned in from some where in the nine hundred block on South Ninth street. The fire department made a run to that locality but no blaze could be discovered. Then the chief and his men started on a blind hunt for the fire and went to Ninth and Franklin streets where the telephone operator directed them, several of the reels having gone there on the first alarm. The department finally wound up at the Father Gillespie residence on South Ninth but nothing could be found that looked like a fire and either some one tried to be cute and send in a false alarm or the central operator was misinformed.
