EASY VICTORY IN OPENER, 31 TO 5

Purple and White Football Team Partially Atoned for Opening Defeat by Brilliant Saturday Victory.

FT. MADISON OUTPLAYED

McManus Dropped Goal From Field After Five Minutes of Play and Lead Was Increased to Even Quarter.

The lid was lifted and Keokuk got its first glimpse of 1910 football Saturday afternoon, when the purple and white warriors gloriously walloped Fort Madison high, 31 to 5, and in a measure atoned for the overwhelming defeat at the hands of Monmouth in the opening game of the season.

Taking the game on its merits, Keokuk had all the better of it in every angle of the game, but as for portraying the brilliant side of the ultra modernized football, both teams failed. The play for the most part was loose and the big gains made resulted from old style play and forward passes with the simple formations. Both teams were penalized frequently for illegal playing in the line and Fort Madison suffered severely from penalties inflicted on forward passes, most of the heaves going more than twenty yards, the limit established in the rules.

The brilliant end runs on hurry-up formations were nowhere to be found on either side, and with but few exceptions the quarterback received the pass from center as of old.

From a spectator's standpoint, and there were nearly four hundred of them in the warm sun along the side lines, the game appeared even the more exacting critics. Very seldom was time taken out except when it was necessary to peruse the code on questionable plays. Two players were stretched out on their backs, but hardly even a minor injury was recorded. From the standpoint of brutality in football the game was one free from any roughness. For this reason it was devoid of the ferociousness that has characterized previous struggles on the local gridiron and the rule governing flying tackles rather modified the stirring defensive play, especially in the open game.

Captain Hawkes, the most powerful forward on the Keokuk team, covered himself with glory by his masterful work, especially on the offense. Once he intercepted a forward pass and raced fifty yards for a touchdown; on a second occasion he plunged through the line like a catapult and carried the ball to a touchdown in a single effort. Second to him was the outstanding work of Quarterback McManus who dropped a pretty goal from the field, pulled off many runs of from five to twenty-five yards, hurled the ball for forward passes that went true into the waiting arms of an end, and last, but not least, ran the team like the best veteran the school has boasted of in recent football. The work of Davis and Bowby stood forth prominently, while Melnhardt in a tackle position, was a tower of defense. The backfield quartet—Wycoff and Pease at half, Hawkes in full and McManus in quarter—handled themselves together effectively.

The game was divided into four periods of ten minutes each. The intermission between the first and second halves and third and fourth halves was three minutes, and between the second and third ten minutes.

By the toss Fort Madison received the kickoff and defended the south goal. The kick was fumbled and a Keokuk man pounced upon the ball. The backs were hurled into the opposing defense for steady gains, but not enough to make the required ten yards repeatedly, and with the third down seven to go and the ball fifteen yards from goal McManus displayed his confidence by dropping back for a drop kick. He sent the pigskin true to its mark between the goal posts and the score sheet was darkened after five minutes of play. The early scoring came so suddenly that it was a revelation to rooters, who howled with delight. Score, Keokuk 3, Fort Madison 0.

Keokuk kicked to Fort Madison. Twice the visitors tried to penetrate Keokuk's stone wall defense, but were repulsed. Fort Madison punted and McManus shot a forward pass to Davis who raced thirty yards on the brilliant play. Feeling assured of the pass, after this success, Keokuk regotated many of them during the game. On the other hand Fort Madison worked this department without success, the ball on nearly every occasion being thrown blindly.

The cleverest play of the game was made by Keokuk, when in possession of the ball in midfield, and followed a kick formation. Hawkes received a long pass and feinted as if to throw a forward pass. McManus crossed back of him from the side and a moment later shot the oval fifteen yards down the field to Davis, who raced for a touchdown. None of the opposing tacklers got close enough to him to necessitate warding them off, but the clever dodging of Davis smoothed his path to behind the goal posts. Later in the game Bowby was handed the ball on a double pass and circled the end for a touchdown after a long run.

Outplayed in every department there was one player of the opposing force that made history for himself in Saturday's battle. He was Lette, the quarterback, a player of no mean ability. Twice his spectacular work brought the four hundred spectators to their feet. Once he raced fifty yards for the only five points made by Fort Madison, and this through a broken field, while a second time he intercepted a long forward pass and went seventy-five yards, but was nailed before crossing the goal. Final score: Keokuk 31, Fort Madison 5.

ALF ALLEN NOT IN JEFFRIES' CLASS

Evangelist is Able to Come Back After Being Pulled From the Gutter and Stood on His Feet.

AT Y. M. C. A. THIS P. M.

"What it Means to be a Champion," Will be the Subject of Alf Allen's Address Given This Afternoon.

So much is heard these days of being able or not being able to "come back." Jeffries was not able to "come back." There is one man who will be in Keokuk Sunday and during all of next week working under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., conducting shop meetings, and addressing the men's meeting this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. hall, and also Sunday, October 16, who was able to "come back."

This gentleman's name is Alf Allen, ex-champion of both the welter and middle weight pugilistic honors of Canada. He was always able to "come back" and has held such honors until he decided to give up the prize ring for work more to his liking, after being converted at the Torrey-Alexander meetings at Ottawa. He takes for his subject this afternoon "What it Means to be a Champion." Mr. Allen is assisted by Mr. W. K. Ray, at one time a notorious drunkard, and anything but a Christian. Mr. Ray devotes his time more especially to shop meetings, which will be held during the week at the mills, factories and wholesale houses, where large numbers of men are employed. These meetings have been already arranged for and during the noon hour of each day this week special addresses will be made at the places designated.

Mr. Allen will not only speak at the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon, but will also occupy the pulpit at the Trinity M. E. church this evening. Mr. Ray has been engaged to address the congregation of the Westminster Presbyterian church at the same time, both services to commence at 7:30 p. m. The men's meeting this afternoon should be largely attended as these gentlemen are powerful speakers and are putting into the Christian work all the reserve power and force once displayed in their former days. From photographs on display at the Y. M. C. A. one would think of Mr. Allen as the second Billy Sunday as his attitude on the platform would remind one very much of the ex-national league baseball player. There is something in store for men this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. at 3:30 p. m.

The male quartette will render special music for the occasion and the committee is working hard to make the evangelistic services of the week a big success.
