Entertained Their Friends.
Friday evening at the residence of Miss Nina Hodge, Miss Hodge and Miss Helen Pamer Gray entertained about sixty of their friends at a jolly house party. The house was charmingly decorated in Hallowe'en style and all of those adornments that are found on an occasion of this kind bedecked the rooms. Choicest refreshments were served and the large company of young people were delighted with the entertainment provided for their pleasure.

Box Party Last Night.
At the high school building last evening, one of the most successful social events ever "pulled off" in K. H. S. was given, the affair taking the nature of a "box party." The halls and various rooms were charmingly arranged to present a scene of comfort and nicety for the guests, the members of the Quincy football team and the several out of town visitors who were in the city yesterday. The lunch boxes were auctioned off to the gentlemen present and the number thereon corresponding with one young lady holding a corresponding numeral was the purchaser's refreshment partner. Until a late hour the party made merry and Quincy returned home, doubly victorious, both in gridiron fray and from a social standpoint.

Lodges Enjoy Keokuk Hospitality.

Keokuk's lodge of Royal Neighbors outdid all previous efforts at entertaining, when on Friday evening they extended hospitality to Royal Neighbors camps of Warsaw, Hamilton and Montrose. About seventy-five members from these visiting lodges arrived during the evening and following lodge assembly, a banquet, both sumptuous and elegant in its arrangement, was served. A baked chicken and escalloped oyster supper with all of those trimmings which delight the fancies of the most fastidious was set before the guests in tempting style by the twelve committee ladies in charge.

The dining room was artistically decorated with the colors of the order, purple and white, large streamers of crepe paper and bells of these hues being used. Mrs. O. D. McMalins was chair-lady of all arrangements, and was assisted ably by the following ladies:

Mesdames Steiger, Wustrow, Dolan, Scott, Crane, Sargeant, Garrison, Athey, LaPorte, Lang, Singleton, Vaughan, Cochman, Brumbach, Nickles, Glasser and Dorlan.

Harry Samuels dispensed lively music for the guests who cared for dancing, and near the midnight hour the assembled Royal Neighbors and their guests departed homeward.

Lee Buttrey Marries.

At half past three o'clock Friday afternoon at Ft. Madison, occurred the marriage of a former well known and popular Keokuk young man, to a St. Louis young lady, Mr. Lee Buttrey wedding Miss Minna Clarkston at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. C. K. Fry, 937 Sixth street. Rev. Hiecke, pastor of the Christian church of Ft. Madison, performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few relatives, the groom being accompanied by his brother, Mr. Arthur Buttrey, and uncle, H. S. Dalgran, of Aurora.

Saturday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Buttrey left for St. Louis where they will spend a two week's honeymoon trip. They will make their home in Aurora.

The bride is a charming young woman, a former Pittsfield, Ill., girl. Though she is not as well known in Keokuk as the young gentleman of her choice, she is undoubtedly a worthy and lovable bride.

Mr. Buttrey, the son of Mrs. Bertha Buttrey, and of a former well known Keokuk family, is popularly known in this city, having moved to this city from Quincy several years ago. Recently, however, Mr. Buttrey has been employed in the coach department of the C. B. & Q. railroad company at Aurora, where he is one of the rising

FIT THE GROCER.

Wife Made the Suggestion.

A grocer has excellent opportunity to know the effects of special foods on his customers. A Cleveland grocer has a long list of customers that have been helped in health by leaving off coffee and using Postum.

He says, regarding his own experience: "Two years ago I had been drinking coffee and must say that I was almost wrecked in my nerves. Particularly in the morning I was so irritable and upset that I could hardly wait until the coffee was served, and then I had no appetite for breakfast and did not feel like attending to my store duties.

"One day my wife suggested that inasmuch as I was selling so much Postum there must be some merit in it and suggested that we try it. I took home a package and she prepared it according to directions. The result was a very happy one.

"My nervousness gradually disappeared and today I am all right. I would advise everyone affected in any way with nervousness or stomach troubles, to leave off coffee and use Postum."

"There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville" in pkgs. Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Will Give a Dance.

Messrs. Archer Miller and Eugene McGrath will be sponsors for a private dancing party to be given in Hawkes' hall on Wednesday evening of this week.

CITY NEWS.

The Keokuk police performed a clever piece of work in recovering the horse belonging to David E. Wiley, mention of which was made in this paper Friday evening, the animal attached to a surrey having been stolen from a place near the cereal plant. After probing thoroughly into the matter, Chief Schevers went to Alexandria yesterday morning and found that the horse had been sold to a man by the name of William Dart, for five dollars. Dart was reimbursed for his part in the deal and the horse returned to Mr. Wiley, who conducts a tent and awning establishment at Second and Main street. Cloma Ross, a lad eighteen years old, confessed to the police yesterday afternoon that he took the horse and buggy. The Bill Bunyan, a local character who bobs in and out of Keokuk now and
