

OBSERVANCE OF WEEK OF PRAYER

Both Associations of Men and Women to Have Interesting Programs in Accord With Mandate.

INTERESTING ADDRESSES

An Annual Occurrence Will be Passed Fittingly in Keokuk and the Public is Invited.

This week the Young Men's and the Young Women's christian associations of Keokuk will observe, separately, the world's week of prayer, which began yesterday.

At the Y. M. C. A. there will be three noonday meetings at 12:15 on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. A light luncheon will be served.

On Friday evening, Nov. 18, a meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. building for men and women. This will be known as "Patriotic Day." Special music will be arranged. The general discussion will be "The Necessity for a High Standard of Morals in Politics," and will be handled by:

(a) Among National Politicians—Rev. Geo. C. Williams.

(b) Among City and Town Officials—Mr. C. F. McFarland.

(c) Among Individuals—Rev. J. W. Potter.

Each speaker will be allotted ten minutes. Mr. H. C. Brown will preside. This Friday meeting is open to all, and the hour is 7:30 o'clock.

The three noon speakers as they will appear in order, on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, are: William Aldrich, Brotherhood Day, P. C. Hayden, adult bible class, Dr. R. S. Reid, social service day.

At the Y. W. C. A. On Tuesday evening, a program will be given in the rooms of the Y. W. C. A. to which all are invited.

Miss Maude Immegart will speak on work in Africa, Mrs. H. C. Brown, Canada, West Indies and South America; Miss Helen Sloanaker, China and Japan; Mrs. Lapsley, European Countries, Mrs. C. D. Streeter, India; Miss Elizabeth Stotts, the United States, while Miss Hornish will speak on the work of the association and the advancement of christianity in the different countries of the world, in summary.

Following the program a social season will follow and refreshments will be served.

BIG INSURANCE CASE IS SETTLED

Local Agents Interested in Outcome of Litigation Involving a Heavy Insurance Risk.

Insurance men and officials of the national government have followed with interest the litigation in connection with the burning of the big distillery at Oskaloosa several years ago, and the attempt to collect the insurance. The Ottumwa Courier thus relates the final settlement of the case through a decision of Judge McPherson:

"By a decision handed down yesterday by the United States circuit court of appeals of St. Paul, the Hoover Distilling company of Oskaloosa, has won its suit against the insurance companies. The judgment for $92,000 secured in the United States court here has been confirmed by the higher tribunal. The decision of the higher court came in a telegram to Attorney James Devitt of Oskaloosa who was one of the counsel for the distillery people.

The cases grew out of the destruction by fire in Oskaloosa in May, 1908, of the Hoover distillery. The insurance companies refused to settle, holding that the value of the whiskey should be what it cost to produce it, not taking into consideration the value that age had given it, or the value that the methods employed in its manufacture and the name of Hoover gave it. The case was to have been tried by a jury before Judge Smith McPherson in the federal court here, the jury giving the distilling company judgment for the full amount of its claim, with interests and costs added, amounting in all to $92,000. The insurance companies appealed and the United States court of appeals has affirmed the decision of the jury. The attorneys for the distilling company in the case tried here were William McNett of this city, Burrell & Devitt and Major John P. Lacey, of Oskaloosa.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do not sicken or gripe, and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate woman or the youngest child. Notice of Incorporation. Notice is hereby given in compliance with section 1613 of the Code of Iowa as the same is amended in the 1907 supplement to said Code, of the incorporation of The Security Investment Company, with its principal place of business at Keokuk, Lee county, Iowa. The general nature of the business to be transacted is that of acting as agent for persons, firms and corporations in the care, management and sale of all kinds of property and for other purposes including the investment and accumulation of money; to act as assignee, receiver, depository, registrar for stocks and bonds; to buy, own, encumber and sell real estate; to buy and sell all kinds of stocks and bonds and investment securities; to guarantee the payment of mortgages; to issue debenture bonds secured by first liens on real estate; to contract relative to the accumulation of money and purchase of all kinds of property. For detailed statement of full powers see recorded articles of incorporation. The amount of capital stock, authorized is twenty thousand dollars, one-half of which—ten thousand dollars—must be paid in before the actual commencement of business. The remainder to be issued as authorized by the board of directors and to be paid for in cash. This corporation commenced its corporate existence on September 7, 1910, and will continue for twenty years or until September 7, 1930, unless sooner terminated as provided in said articles of incorporation. The management and control of the corporation is vested in a board of directors consisting of not less than three nor more than twelve; those serving for the first year are J. W. Anderson, J. O. Boyd, and Frances A. Anderson. The directors are to be elected annually by the stockholders at the annual meeting to be held on the first Monday after the first day of January of each year. The highest amount of indebtedness to which the corporation shall at any one time be subject shall in no case exceed two-thirds of its capital stock; this limit shall not apply to obligations secured by the actual transfer of real estate securities for the benefit and protection of the holders of secured obligations, nor to obligations secured by mortgages on real estate.

Private property of the stockholders shall be exempt from corporate debts. For a complete record of said articles of incorporation see corporation book 4, page 233 of Lee county, Iowa, records at Keokuk.

DON'T BE BALD.

Nearly Anyone May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair.

We have a remedy that has a record of growing hair and curing baldness in 93 out of every 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. That may seem like a strong statement—it is and we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test.

We are so certain Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will cure dandruff, prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and hair roots, stop falling hair and grow new hair, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid us for it in every instance where it does not give entire satisfaction to the user.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is delightfully perfumed, and does not grease or gum the hair. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. With our guarantee back of it, you certainly take no risk. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, McGrath Bros. Drug Co.

BROTHERHOOD GOES TO FT. MADISON

Trinity Young Men's Club Will Assist Up-River City in Starting Brotherhood There Tonight.

PROGRAM IS ARRANGED

Four Speakers of the Local Organization Will Make Addresses and Ft. Madison Has Program.

Eighteen members of the Trinity Young Men's Brotherhood will go to Ft. Madison this evening where they will be entertained by the new brotherhood that has been organized in that city by N. J. Bever, a former resident of Keokuk, and will also assist in giving the new organization a boost. The local brotherhood men will leave at 7:20 and return on the one o'clock train tomorrow morning.

Taking part in the program or addresses will be Rev. J. W. Potter, Prof. E. S. Patterson, C. E. Alling, president of the Trinity Brotherhood, and C. P. Dorsey. Each will deal with a subject relative to the work of the brotherhood and the Ft. Madison members of the organization which has been formed by Mr. Bever, will receive words of cheer and commendation for their new club. Mr. Bever was a former member of the brotherhood while a resident of this city, and since removing with his family to Ft. Madison, his interest in the splendid work has not waned. So it is with much pleasure that the Brotherhood of Trinity church will go to his city tonight, to assist the newly formed club there in having a good fellowship start.

A program has been formed by the Ft. Madison members which will be given in conjunction with that of the local brotherhood members. Refreshments will be served and an evening of bright pleasure is expected by the visitors-elect.

At the Grand This Week.

Monday, Nov. 14.—"Paid in Full." Tuesday matinee—"Uncle Tom's Cabin." Special school children's matinee, at 3:30. Tuesday night—"Uncle Tom's Cabin." Friday matinee—"The Rosary." Friday night—"The Rosary." Saturday matinee—"The Golden Girl." Saturday night—"The Golden Girl."

The Great American Play, "Paid in Full."

In recent years a few plays have made such big hits that two or three companies have been sent out in them, and in one instance four organizations were started, but the number lasted only a short time. That play was not big enough or popular enough to win public support for four companies, yet it was one of the biggest successes of the time. In this fact lies the proof that Eugene Walter's "Paid in Full" is the greatest and most popular play ever produced in America. All last season, beginning in August, 1909, and continuing until last May, five companies appeared in "Paid in Full" all over the United States. This same number is going over the country again this year. This adds a chapter to theatrical history never before written. It shows conclusively that "Paid in Full" occupies a place in public admiration no other play has held, and it is doubtful if another ever attains it. The broad interest possessed by "Paid in Full" is demonstrated by the fact that it scored as big a hit in one part of the country as in another. They like it as well in San Francisco and in New

SUNSHINE AND Scott's Emulsion are the two great creators of energy. You can get along without Scott's Emulsion if you have enough sunshine, but for the millions who don't get much sunshine, Scott's Emulsion is absolutely necessary. You can always get Scott's Emulsion. Get sunshine, too, whenever you can.

WASHBURN-CROSBY'S GOLD MEDAL FLOUR FOR THANKSGIVING BAKING. Illustration of a man with flour bags and turkeys.

Orleans and Minneapolis as they did in New York, where it ran for two years. Never has a play been in such demand for return engagements. In this respect it has a record unequalled in theatrical history. It has been played as many as five and six times in cities innumerable, and it is a wonderful illustration of its tremendous appeal that in every instance the audiences have been larger each time it has returned. Therefore its coming to this city will awaken deepest interest at the Grand opera house tonight.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin." Al. W. Martin's world's greatest production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will appear at the Grand opera house on Tuesday, Nov. 15, matinee and night. Mr. Martin has successfully solved the problem of combining the old and new "Uncle Tom's Cabin" into a big spectacular play that leaves out nothing worth retaining of either the straight method or the circus method. All the worthy features of the old landmarks are retained, while the thread of the story has been cleverly reconstructed making it more coherent; this with the introduction of a host of high class specialties thoroughly in keeping with the piece, goes far toward forming an evening's entertainment. It will be a real loss to miss witnessing. Over fifty people are with the company, and two Pullman Palace cars, each seventy feet in length, are used to transport this mammoth aggregation from city to city. A spectacular street parade showing the enormous resources of this attraction will be given at one o'clock tomorrow.

"The Rosary." At the present day when so many plays are being presented which deal with questionable subjects, it is a relief to turn to a drama which breathes purity and good fellowship and leads the way to a brighter view of life and humanity.

Such a play is "The Rosary," written by Edward E. Rose, expressly for Messrs. Rowland and Clifford, and produced by them.

The theme of the play concerns a man and a woman happily married and surrounded with every luxury that money and culture can secure. But the husband is an unbeliever, an atheist, without faith of any kind.

There is a jarring note in the household harmony, a personality at war with the peace and love of its members. No one notices this until a friend of the husband comes, Father Kelly, a priest of the modern world with a deep insight into human nature and a divine love for his fellow men. And when stress and trouble come, when the home is wrecked and husband and wife are brought down to the depths of suffering agony it is the priest's calm courage and faith that saves them, drives away the clouds of suspicion, doubt, mistrust, and brings them both into the sunlight of hope and love.

The play will be seen at the Grand opera house next Friday, matinee and night, and will be produced exactly as seen during its famous three months' run in Chicago, or as it is now being seen nightly at the Garden Theatre in New York City, where it is the talk of the town.

"The Golden Girl." "The Golden Girl" as a play is vibrantly youthful in its makeup. The scene chosen for the event is West Point during the graduation exercises, and being youthful, the story has to do with love and love's young dream.

The title role is interpreted by Miss Leona Watson, who is ably assisted by a brilliant array of talent, including such artists as Zeke Colvin, Lionel Lawrence, Lawrence Beck, Addie Dougherty, Clyde Hall, Harry Joyner, Earl Mountain, James Barry and many others equally as well known, with a beautiful chorus of nineteen hundred and ten debutantes. The musical numbers are a big feature with the production being melodious from the evergreen pen of Joseph E. Howard and soon the tuneful airs of "I Think a Woodpecker's Knocking on My Family Tree," and "Indian Love Song" will be whistled and sung throughout the city. At the Grand next Saturday, matinee and night.

FARMER'S WIFE HAD HEAP TO DO. Mrs. Shepherd Was in Bad Shape When She Could Not Stand on Her Feet. Durham, N. C.—"I am a farmer's wife," writes Mrs. J. M. Shepherd, of this city, "and have a heap to do." "Four months ago I could not stand on my feet, to do anything much, but at this time I do the most of my work. I took Cardui and it did me more good than all the doctors." "You don't know how I thank you for the Cardui Home Treatment. I wish that all women who suffer from womanly trouble would treat themselves as I have." Ladies can easily treat themselves at home with Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is easy to take, and so gentle in its action, that it cannot do anything but good. Being composed exclusively of vegetable ingredients, Cardui cannot lay up trouble in your system, as mineral drugs often do. Its ingredients having no harsh, medicinal effects, and being non-poisonous and perfectly harmless, Cardui is absolutely safe for young and old. Ask your druggist. He will tell you to try Cardui. N.
