Legal Entanglements of Grand Hotel Proprietor Grow More Complex As New Suits Are Filed.

INDIRECTLY CONNECTED

Application for Appointment of Guardian of George F. Davis Drags Into It the Name of Sanders Again.

And still the legal entanglements of Henry Sanders continue.

Today in the district court Clara M. Percell filed an application for the appointment of a guardian of her brother, George F. Davis, who it is alleged has been employed as a cook at the Grand Hotel, during which time Henry Sanders, proprietor, has failed, neglected and refused to pay the said Davis, declared to be of unsound mind, a fair compensation for services rendered.

The petition says that George F. Davis has been mentally unbalanced for the last ten years; that there is now due him money for his services at the rate of $12 or $15 per week for the period named.

Beacham, plaintiff, has brought suit in the district court against Clara Beacham and lodge No. 255, Ancient Order United Workmen, asking that a policy for $1,000 be reformed and made payable to her as the wife of Archie Clifton Beacham, deceased, and that all rights of Clara Beacham, a sister of the deceased, in and to the policy be cut off and forever barred.

Other Suits Filed. Barbara Applebaum has instituted an action against John F. Salzer and W. H. Van Fleet, in which she seeks to quiet the title in her name to lot 1, and the easterly 5 feet of lot 2, block S, Reeves, Perry and Williams addition. The property is on the corner of Sixteenth and Morgan.

DEEP-SEATED COUGH Cured in 5 Hours. New Home-Made Syrup.

Progress in medical compounds never ceases, and now it is stated by a prominent medical man that any deep-seated cough or cold on the lungs can be actually cured in five hours by the clock. Opium and morphine have been resorted to in the past, as relief measures, but now it is learned that the system must be treated to rid it of inflammation and congestion. A tonic laxative cough syrup does the work so quickly and thoroughly as to be almost magical. What heretofore has taken weeks to cure can be accomplished in hours.

KEOKUK OFFICERS FIND MISSOURIAN

Lancaster Man Wandered Away From His Home, Came to Keokuk And Then Went to Kansas City.

WROTE "BLUE" LETTER

Said He Was Going to be in the Bottom of the River, and Then Went to His Relatives at Kansas City.

The police here have succeeded in locating a Lancaster, Mo., man, Houghton by name, and somewhat of a politician at that place, who wandered away from his home there last Tuesday evening and while under the spell of a "spre" went to Kansas City, Mo.

The brother of the missing man came to Keokuk yesterday to ask the aid of the officers in finding the body of his brother, for he supposed that Houghton had ended his life. A letter had been received by the family of the missing man, who are living at Lancaster. In the written message which Houghton said was his last earthly epistle, the man said that within a few moments after mailing it, "I will be in the waters of the Mississippi." In the letter he also asked his wife to raise their daughter and two sons in the path of virtue and to care tenderly for them.

It was learned by the police here that Houghton had gone to Kansas City so the relatives of the family there were wired and they stated that the Lancaster man was there and would be home shortly. Houghton was accompanied back as far as Moberly, Mo., by relatives and from there he was met by Lancaster relatives, coming through Keokuk last night and leaving for his Missouri home over the Keokuk and Western.

Houghton had been drinking heavily of late, the police state, and it was while in a fit of despondency and moment of inebriety that he wrote the morbid letter, then took the train for Kansas City at 8:37 Tuesday night.

SANDERS ASKS HUNDRED MORE

Brings Counter Claim Against Nels Warner for Room Rent, Borrowed Money and Other Items.

CASE IS A QUEER ONE

Judgment to Have Been Passed This Morning at 10:30 But Ended in Session in Attorney's Office.

Attorneys on both sides were drifting hopelessly amidst much babbling at sea this morning in the check matter, presenting both Henry Sanders and Nels Warner as the principals. Sanders has now brought counterclaim against Warner for $250, which he sets forth in legal document, is due him for room rent, storage and money not returned. Warner, Sanders says, rented two rooms of him. For what purpose, the attorney for Warner declined to let the court hear at the confab between the defendant and aggressive side yesterday afternoon in the superior court room.

Should evidence be obtained proving that rooms rented by Warner for illegal pursuits, the counterclaim brought by the hotel proprietor will be not valid, it is claimed. Before leaving for Ft. Madison and other points last Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, Attorney T. A. Craig, who is acting in behalf of Henry Sanders, filed a pleading, setting forth that Warner's claim for $150 from the hotel keeper, did not set forth fully what the amount asked for represented in the matter of itemized account. The attorney for Warner filed a pleading in answer to this statement in answer to attorney Craig's admitting what had been set forth in the Sanders pleading.

Sanders was on the stand yesterday afternoon, and the affair wound up by Judge McNamara setting 10:30 this morning as the time that judgment in the matter would be given. After haranguing in the court room this morning for half an hour, the attorneys closed themselves in the office of Attorney Craig to talk the matter over and arrange some manner by which the case can continue with less entanglements.

LATE AFTERNOON BULLETINS

PARIS, Nov. 17.—Following the instructions of her murderer, Captain Maynier, conveyed to them in a special delivery letter, the police today found the body of the Baroness De Ambriouct, whom the captain had slain in her bedroom. "I have the honor to inform you that I have killed my fiancée," Maynier wrote to the police. "Go and find her. Now that I have had my vengeance, I intend to kill myself." The captain is missing and the police believe that he has made good his threat and killed himself.

FARE AT HARVARD IN 1850

Breakfast at Daybreak and Boiled Dinner Two Days in the Week.

The students lodged in the dormitories and ate at the commons. The food then partaken of with thankfulness would now be looked upon as prison fare. At breakfast, which was served at sunrise in summer and at daybreak in winter, there were doled out to each student a small can of un-settled coffee, a size of biscuit, and a size of butter, weighing generally about an ounce. Dinner was the staple meal, and at this each student was regaled with a pound of meat. Two days in the week, Monday and Thursday, the meat was boiled, and, in college language, these were known as boiling days. On the remaining days the meat was roasted, and to them the nickname of roasting days was fastened. With the flesh went always two potatoes. When boiling days came round, pudding and cabbage, wild peas and dandelions were added.

The only delicacy to which no stint was applied was the cider, a beverage then fast supplanting the small beer of the colonial days. This was brought to the mess in pewter cans which were passed from mouth to mouth, and, when emptied, were again replenished. For supper there was a bowl of milk and a size of bread. The hungry Oliver who wished for more was forced to order, or, as the phrase went, "seize it," from the kitchen.—McMaster's History of the People of the United States.

Something New For Coughs. Make it Yourself.

Until the discovery of the wonderful new drug product, mentholaxene, everybody had to rely on ordinary cough mixtures, usually composed of morphine, opium and the like; but now the most effective and popular cough syrup is made at home with essence mentholaxene. Here is the formula: Essence mentholaxene . . . 2 1/2 ozs. Granulated sugar syrup . . . 1 1/4 ozs. Buy of your druggist, or have him order it from the wholesaler. Two and one-half ounces of essence mentholaxene, empty it into a pint bottle and fill up the bottle with granulated sugar syrup. To make the syrup, use a pint of sugar and a half pint of boiling water, stir it, let cool and mix it with the mentholaxene. This makes a fine curative laxative cough syrup superior to anything you can buy at four times the price. Take in teaspoonful doses 8 to 10 times daily. It loosens the tightest cough in an hour and is fine for old people and for children for they like to take it, and by its tonic, cleansing, heating and laxative properties it prevents pneumonia, lung fever and other complications of colds. There is no case too bad for it to cure.

BROKE IN WEST END GROCERY

Frank Monicle Arrested Before Noon Today for Breaking and Entering Ben Bowden Store on Reid St.

PENNIES TOLD STORY

Quartette of Drunks, and Informations Against Owners of Dogs Completes Day's Court Business.

Just before noon today, Officer Fuqua went to West Keokuk where he arrested Frank Monicle, confessed robber of the Ben Bowden store at 1321 Reid street, Tuesday evening, last. Monicle is guilty by his own confession and evidence that has been obtained, of breaking and entering the grocery store.

Monicle entered the back door of the store after breaking the lock and stole quite a lot of chewing tobacco, cigars, gloves and 333 pennies. It was through the pennies that Monicle was caught. He tried to convert them into silver and asked a boy to take the pennies. The officers got next to this and worked all day yesterday on the case.

Monicle was taken to the station and locked up. His hearing will be set later.

In the Court.

The sentences returned on a quartette of drunks this morning were: Mordvitt, 30 days Langford, a man with a broken jaw and scarred countenance, 5 days; John Whalen, disorderly as well as drunk, 10 days; James Vaughn, plead not guilty and bond fixed at $100.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Daily Grain Letter. CHICAGO, November 17.—Cables unchanged. Market is purely an argument affair. Flour buyers are waiting for May wheat and refuse to be stirred up. Export demand still in the distance. The world will be well supplied on Argentine export surplus of sixty million, but the trade has to consult some influence. Later 30 to 32 million, crop cannot fully be sized up as yet. May wheat sold from 91 1/4 Nov. 9th to 98 on Nov. 16th.

Changes for rest of week may cover the 96 to 98 range. A serious return to bear conditions hardly apprehended. Corn—Bulges are awaited by bears; believe that corn will sell lower. Rally in May corn since the government report to 48c. Sell December and buy May contracts, as through lower prices are coming before the month of November expires.

Broomhall Cables—Wheat opened under pressure on weakness in America and predicted heavy shipments and values declined 3-4c lower. Later market ruled strong, with shorts covering, and buying by yesterday's sellers and prices advanced 1-4 from the opening, this buying was induced by a private cable received here; says unfavorable outlook in Argentine and reduced crop report. There was heavy buying by large London houses, and this caused shorts to cover freely.

Market continued firm, private estimates are for smaller world's shipments this week, other than American and the continent to bid freely for cargoes arriving with France. Middy, the market excited and strong, one-eighth higher than yesterday. Corn market easy, one-half lower on larger American offerings.
