Harry Cook, one of the prominent bowlers of the city, yesterday pasted up an average that is worth notice, and will remain some time before beaten. The first game he rolled 227, second 215, fourth 194, fifth 221, sixth 210, seventh 246, and the eighth 185, making a total average for the eight games of 211.
The next annual poultry show of Illinois will be held at Springfield the first week in January. The premium list is now on the press and will be ready for distribution in a short time. The entry fee for single specimens will be $1, breeding pens $2.50, yard displays $3.50 and pigeons 25 cents. A feature of the show will be the exhibit of eggs and dressed poultry. The state association has employed six of the ablest poultry judges in the country to pass on all classes of poultry. The judges so selected are D. T. Heimlich, Jacksonville, Ill.; Theodore Hewes, Indianapolis, Ind.; W. C. Pierce, Indianapolis, Ind.; A. F. Kummer, Butler, Pa.; Charles V. Keeler, Winamac, Ind., and J. A. Johnstone, Petersburg, Ill. Robert Joos of Peoria will judge the pigeons and Frank C. Hare, editor of the Standard, Quincy, will judge the eggs and dressed poultry.

Every since the good New Englanders established the custom of an Autumnal Thanksgiving Day, clothes have been second in importance only to the turkey. It is the season when most people feel that winter clothes are necessary, and the many methods in celebrating the day make varied demands upon proper styles for all occasions. Whether Thanksgiving is to be expressed by attendance at divine worship, by taking a trip to the Illinois end of the Keokuk & Hamilton Dam, on the links, motoring, driving or eating turkey and "trimmin's," you can get clothes here correct as to fashion, appropriate to the event and pleasing to your particular taste.

Cheviot and Worsted suits in the new shades of browns and tans $7.50 to $30.00; Blue Serge suits, either fancy or plain $10 to $25; "Presto" Collar and other fancy styles of overcoats $7.50 to $25; Conservative overcoats $7.50 to $25; Raincoats $10 to $22.50—quiet or gray effects.

Our Boys Department

Affords mothers the best possible opportunities for fitting out their boys just as they should be for Thanksgiving; Clever styles, beautiful fabrics, thorough tailoring, unlimited variety and better values in suits, overcoats and referers at $2.50 to $8.50 than are shown elsewhere in Keokuk. Our store will be open Thanksgiving day until noon.

TOWN CRIER AS ARBITRATOR

Both Sides Used Him to Avert a Strike in the French Town of Saint-Pierre-d'Oleron. A strike which threatened in Saint-Pierre-d'Oleron, France, recently, was averted in a curious way. The washerwomen of the village engaged the town crier, who paraded the streets announcing that on and after September 22 the washerwomen would refuse to work for less than twenty-five cents a day and that, in addition, they demanded that their employers should "board" them. The "bourgeoises" of the village, a few hours later, also through the medium of the town crier, announced that the washerwomen would receive twenty-five cents a day, with food, as demanded, but that no coffee would be served to them. To this ultimatum the washerwomen replied—by town crier—that they would work for twenty cents a day, with food and coffee. The "bourgeoises" accepted the offer, and all is now lovely in Saint-Pierre-d'Oleron. Entirely Cured. "You don't get me on one of those roller coaster things!" said Mrs. Lapsling, with emphasis. "I felt all the time as if I was turning dropsy turvy!"

Enemy of Rattlesnake.

No resident of Arizona, New Mexico or Texas would kill a road-runner. It is firmly believed that the bird is the deadly enemy of that monster of the desert, the rattlesnake. The accepted tradition is that the road-runner and the rattlesnake are deadly enemies, and that the rattlesnake fears the road-runner beyond anything else.
