HUNTERS HAVE PRAYER ANSWERED

Fall of Rain Yesterday Will Greatly Improve Hunting in the Opinion of Nimrods.

Local nimrods say their prayers have been answered. They have been longing for rain since the hunting season opened and yesterday the first of it fell. The Sunday rain will improve hunting and make the season about Thanksgiving a lively one. It has been so dry during the past two weeks that dogs could not work to advantage.

BASKET BALL ACTIVITIES

Y. M. C. A. Team Will Soon Be in Shape to Open the Season's Hostilities.

A hard schedule confronts the Y. M. C. A. basket ball team this season, although no dates have been announced by Physical Director Zinn, who is arranging the games. Already LeHone, Okolona M. Pleasant and Burlington have been carded and dates covering these games will soon be announced. The season will not open until about the middle of December. The team captain is Paul King.

SUNDAY BASEBALL NOT A VIOLATION

Court of Criminal Appeals in Elaborate Opinion Holds That Game on That Day is Legal.

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 21.—The court of criminal appeals in an elaborate opinion written by Justice Ramsey recently held that it was not a violation of article 199 of the penal code to play baseball on Sunday, even where an admission fee is charged. This was in the case of ex parte Fred Rouquemoire, who appealed from the decision of the corporation court of Nacogdoches county. It appears that Rouquemoire was arrested in a complaint charging him with operating a baseball park and having a game of baseball played on Sunday in violation of the Sunday law. The case was appealed to the county court on a writ of habeas corpus and the county judge denied the writ on the grounds that there was some doubt as to whether baseball came within the provisions of article 199 of the penal code, and he passed the case up to the court of criminal appeals.

Pending a decision of the case by that court, bond was allowed Rouquemoire in the sum of $400 and the court discharged the relator on the ground that it was not a violation of the law to engage in a game of baseball on Sunday where an admission fee is charged. Judge Ramsey asserted that he does not attempt to pass upon the competency of the legislature to enact such a law, but that it is not now a violation of the statute. "It is known, of course," says Judge Ramsey, "that baseball is the most practiced, patronized and approved of all the games of exercise, and that it is the cleanest and fairest of all many sports, and excites rivalry in the youth of our land, and that in every village and hamlet many an ambitious youth dreams of the day when he shall equal if not excel Matthewson, Speaker, Cobb, Napoleon Lajoie and Hans Wagner. It is also well known that for many years in many of our larger cities baseball on Sunday has not only been frequently, but continuously played where an admission fee was charged. Now, it would have seemed in the light of these facts, if it had been the legislative intent to condemn this form of amusement and include it within the statute under consideration, that it would have been an easy matter to have done so in express words, and not left the matter at test, clouded in doubt. Again, it is worthy to be remembered, as a part of the political history of the times, that many efforts have been made in the last few years, in the legislature, to make the playing of baseball on Sunday an offense without success. It would seem that if it were already an offense that these efforts would not have been put forth. We have not felt it necessary, and indeed it would be out of place, to express any view as to whether baseball should be prohibited on Sunday, but have contented ourselves with deciding that under the statute as it now stands it has not been prohibited."

KEOKUK BOWLERS MAY ATTEND

Are Interested in Press Announcements About Big International Tournament at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21.—The eleventh international American Bowling congress tournament will be held in St. Louis Jan. 21 to Feb. 6, inclusive, 1911. Entries for the same will close on Jan. 6, 1911.

The problem of handling the A. B. C. tournament is not an easy matter. The St. Louis Tournament company has arranged to expend $25,000 to give the bowlers a successful tournament. They have secured the Coliseum, the finest building a tournament was ever held in, at a cost of $10,000, and they consider the rent dirt cheap. The alleys, pin machines, etc., as mentioned above, cost $3,000. A. L. Langtry has full charge of the office force, pin boys, score keepers, foul judges, etc. It requires forty men a day to set pins and eighty official score keepers. There are sixteen score keepers working on the public aerial score board at the time, so the public can see the score of every ball rolled during the tournament. Then there are sixteen scores ten feet back of the bowlers to keep check on the aerial score keepers. The bowling starts at 9 a. m. and continues until midnight. Two shifts of scorers and pin boys, with relief, are worked for seventeen days, so one can imagine the vast amount of bowling that takes place in a tournament of this kind. The office force checks each team and individual before he starts; his ball is inspected, weighed and stamped to comply with the A. B. C. regulations. The scores are checked and within half an hour after each squad leaves the alleys the newspapers have standings of all contestants to date. The daily papers and press association keep a large corps of correspondents during the tournament. There will be no less than twenty-four wires running into the Coliseum, and if a team or individual breaks the record, it does not take many minutes before every metropolitan newspaper in the country has the score.

SPECIAL COACH FOR THE ROOTERS

Half Hundred or More K. H. S. Supporters Will Make Trip to Fort Madison on Thanksgiving Day.

HAWKES SLATED TO PLAY

It Has Been Announced that Big Captain is Also Certain to be in Game for Final Football Clash.

A special coach will carry the purple and white rooters to Fort Madison on Thanksgiving day for the big wind-up of the season between Keokuk and Fort Madison. In order to get the required number necessary to secure the special accommodation a paper has been in circulation during the past few days, and has been signed by a half hundred or more of the loyal supporters who expect to make the trip. The Keokuk high school students are looking forward eagerly to this final football clash, although the only uncertainty of it all is as to the size of the score Keokuk will run up against their weaker opponents. The special coach and possibly two, will be attached to the north bound K line train in the morning. The purple and white camp has been thrown into a fit of joy by the announcement that Captain Hawkes may be able to participate in the closing battle. Hawkes has been out of the game for several weeks past and his absence has been keenly felt.

Saturday's Game.

The Burlington Hawk-Eye gives the story of Saturday's game by quarters as follows:

First Quarter.
The game started by Naumann kicking to Keokuk and Burlington holding them for downs. Then two line bucks and a forward pass netted a touchdown for Burlington by Elliott in 57 seconds. The ball was carried back and forth up the field and back until the whistle blew at the end of the quarter. Score: Burlington, 6; Keokuk, 0.

Second Quarter.

In the second quarter, Gross took Hogan's place, and, after a series of line bucks and forward passes, "Bally" went over for a touch down, and, of course, Naumann kicked goal. The ball was kicked to Keokuk's 10-yard line, and by a fumble B. H. S. got it, and Foxe went over for a touchdown. No goal was kicked. The score: Burlington, 17; Keokuk, 0.

Third Quarter.

In the third quarter the feature was a thirty-yard run by Kelly, plowing through the opponents' line, and then Matson went through for a touchdown, and, yes, Naumann kicked goal, and the next score was made by "Bally" after a series of line bucks, but no goal was kicked. The score: Burlington, 28; Keokuk, 0.

Fourth Quarter.

The fourth quarter lasted but two and one-half minutes, being called on account of darkness. The ball was on Keokuk's 3-yard line when the game ended.

The star for K. H. S. was Meinhardt, full back. The Keokuk fellows are sports, taking the defeat like men, and attended the dance given them by the B. H. S. This game shows the Burlington fans that Burlington has a good team, and since they beat Keokuk by a larger score than Fairfield after Fairfield played the full game and B. H. S. only played three quarters.

Crystal Gazing.

In Africa crystal gazing seems to be common. Mr. Lang cites a case from Madagascar where a woman is alleged to have seen a French vessel on its way thither and to have recognized its occupants weeks before the ship was in sight of land. The Africans of Fez used a vessel of water and at the present day a pool of ink is in use in Egypt.

JUSTICE SIGNS "CHUCK" FLEMING

Former Ottumwa Manager Will Hold Indicator in Central Association Next Season.

E. E. (Chuck) Fleming is the second indicator man to be signed by President M. E. Justice for the 1911 season. Fleming is by no means an unknown quantity in this section, both as a baseball player and an umpire. In 1907 he managed the Ottumwa Packers. The following year he worked as umpire in the Central, and last season he donned the mask and protector in the Northern Association and the Nebraska league. The selection of Fleming by Justice is believed to be a good one.

A Household Medicine

To be really valuable must show equally good results from each member of the family using it. Foley's Honey and Tar does just this. Whether for children or grown persons Foley's Honey and Tar is best and safest for all coughs and colds. Wilkinson & Co.

NELSON-MORAN HAS EYE OF FANS

Fifteen Round Battle Will be Staged Thanksgiving at San Francisco—Battler Not Strong.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Battling Nelson, the fallen idol of the lightweight division, and Owen Moran, the diligent little Briton, will furnish the topliner this week on the local fight card. The two clever boxers are billed for a fifteen round engagement on Thanksgiving day afternoon at Coffroth's arena. Interest in the outcome of the bout is unusually high. This is accountable by two reasons, but principally because the fans are anxious to get a better line on Nelson and his present ability. The fact that Moran is involved in the battle also adds to the interest being shown in the affair. The clever Briton is well thought of in this locality, for his work in previous bouts has always made a decided hit. Not a few of his ardent admirers are boasting a clean-cut victory for their man, and while this appears as somewhat of an impossibility, the Nelson rooters are not making any rash predictions.

A Reliable Medicine—Not a Narcotic.

Get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package. It is safe and effective. Contains no opiates. Refuse substitutes. Wilkinson & Co.

HOW BELT DOPES OUT POSITIONS

Wants Two Catchers, One of Them to be Able to Play the Field, is What He Says.

"I want two catchers next season, one of them to be able to play regularly in the outfield."

Thus quote Frank Belt, newly elected leader of the Keokuk Indians, who says that he is now in a position to temporarily drop his chicken business and give time to securing players for the 1911 hostilities.

From the above remark by the veteran it is believed that he intends to do very little active playing next season.

"I have been trying for four years to secure a good catcher," he continued, "and if I'm not successful next season I'll quit the game."

Crises in Life.
"It's a crisis in a young man's life," says the Philosopher of Folly, "when he has to decide whether to make a girl angry by trying to kiss her, or to make her angry by not trying."

KEWANEE OUT FOR A MANAGER

No Leader of Boller-makers Has Been Announced—Meeting is to be Held Tuesday Evening.

The annual meeting of the Kewanee Baseball association will be held tomorrow evening. The Boller-makers have no manager yet, but something definite is expected after the meeting. As previously announced Ted Price will not hold the reins, having decided to quit the game.

Both Speedy and Effective

Mr. Otto Paul, Milwaukee, Wis., says Foley's Honey and Tar is still more than the best. He writes us, "All those that bought it think it is the best for coughs and colds they ever had and I think it is still more than the best. Our baby had a bad cold and it cured him in one day. Please accept thanks." Wilkinson & Co.

TALE OF REIGN OF TERROR

Pathos of Little Nicole's Execution Overcame and Nearly Killed Spectator of Iron Nerve.

M. Lenotre's book on the experiences of the Gascon royalist, the Baron de Batz—an English version of which has just appeared—was first published in Paris some years ago, and it is surprising that it was not translated before 1910. De Batz was one of the strangest figures of the French revolution. He is said to have used his enormous wealth in bringing about distrust among the revolutionary leaders and in crippling finance, and thus had much to do with the end of the butchery. There was one terrible incident of the executions preceding the fall of Robespierre thus narrated by M. Lenotre in this volume:

"A certain man of great strength and hardness—one of these athletic people who are all muscle and have no nerves—wagered that he would watch the execution at close quarters without flinching. Whether he stood with the executioner or not I do not know. For a long time he bore it unmoved; but when little Nicole came upon the scaffold, and arranged herself upon the plank, and said gently to the executioner: 'Monsieur, shall I be all right like that?' his head swam and his sight failed him, his immense strength gave way, and he fell to the ground. For a moment he was thought to be dead and was carried home."

Spurious Superiority.

Dr. Johnson said of a certain Mr. Kendrick: "Sir, he is one of the men who have made themselves public without making themselves known." That is to say, all his fame rested on attributes he did not own, but possessed only as the jackdaw in the fable stuck the peacock's feathers in his tail.

The Philosopher of Folly.
"God bless our wives," exclaims the Philosopher of Folly. "Every time we lose our jobs they spread the news that we quit to accept a much larger salary elsewhere."

Bad BLOOD

"Before I began using Cascarets I had a bad complexion, pimples on my face, and my food was not digested as it should have been. Now I am entirely well, and the pimples have all disappeared from my face. I can truthfully say that Cascarets are just as advertised; I have taken only two boxes of them."
