True Praise and Flattery.

The unctuous hypocrite is in such contrast with the man of honor as is the slanderer and scandal monger. The fair and open face of honest praise, the caress of true affection in speech, the thrilling verdict of solid fame and real glory, are as far away from flattery as the stars are from mud puddles.

HER WEDDING BRINGS TROUBLE

Woman Who Was Elected County Recorder, May Not Get to be Conducted Into Office.

ONLY ONE GOOD FIGHT IS A PECULIAR CASE

Her Opponent Contests the Election Because She Changed Her Name Between Times.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 28.—Because Mrs. Carrie Vaughn Anderson Lucas married W. W. Lucas, an Omaha traveling salesman, October 1, she may lose the office of recorder of Wright county, to which she was elected November 8.

Last spring Mrs. Carrie Vaughn Anderson made a single-handed fight for the republican nomination for county recorder. Pitted against her was an old campaigner, shrewd in all that goes to make up a successful politician.

Following the June primaries her name, Mrs. Carrie Vaughn Anderson, was printed on the republican ballots. On October 1, however, Mrs. Anderson was married in Omaha.

There is no precedent in Iowa for a decision in such a case. It seems probable that, no matter how the Board of Supervisors of Wright county decides, the affair will be taken through the district and supreme courts.

The sum paid for the collection was not divulged, but Prof. Muller said its purchase had been made possible by the generosity of Mrs. Charles Custis Harrison, wife of the provost of the University of Pennsylvania.

Beside this collection, Prof. Muller brought copies of 300 inscriptions found in the ancient temple of Philae. It was to have these inscriptions copied and later deciphered that the Carnegie Institution of Washington, D. C., sent Prof. Muller to the island of Philae six months ago.

Department of Justice Asks the Supreme Court to Outlaw It and Dissolve It.

PARLIAMENT HAS BEEN DISSOLVED

King George Suspends the Houses and New General Election for the People, is Called.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The department of justice appealed today to the U. S. supreme court, asking it to outlaw the sugar trust and dissolve it. The case is directed against the American Sugar Refining Co., and 27 other companies and corporations.

The petition states that the trust dominates and controls the sugar trade in violation of the trust law. The brief named directors of the main trust and other companies. Three women, Louise Havemeyer, Adelaid Frelinschusser and Electa Freed, are named.

Joseph Smith of the Mormon church is one of the defendants, by virtue of being a director of the Utah Sugar Co. The government petition makes a book of 217 pages. It sets forth that the company has a capital of ninety million. Its object are given as "to purchase, control and sell sugar, molasses and products of cane and beet sugar."

"Under the leadership of John Havemeyer," says the brief, "the companies determined to destroy the product of all others. They operated under trust deed which gave full control to 11 trustees. All subsidiaries gave their interests to the trust for a part of the fifty million."

IN THE BODY OF A WHALE

Texas People Have Banquet and Outdo Jonah Who First Started Such an Experiment.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The British houses of parliament were dissolved today by King George.

The dissolution of parliament and the calling of a new general election was forced by the liberals who are now in power. The liberals seek the abolition of the lords except as purely consulting body. They propose to enact a mass of legislation if successful.

"It is a cause of special satisfaction," he says that the fisheries case has been decided and that the award has caused increased good will on both sides of the ocean.

From the fact that the present cabinet dissolved parliament instead of resigning, it looks as if King George will abide by the decision. It is assumed that Asquith promised to refer the question to the people through a general election. If the liberals elect a majority of their candidates it will be proof that they want the lords abolished.

IN THE BODY OF A WHALE

Texas People Have Banquet and Outdo Jonah Who First Started Such an Experiment.

WAS 78 FEET LONG

Skin Was Prepared and Dining Table Arranged Inside For the Enjoyment of the Guests.

HOUSTON, Texas, Nov. 28.—Leaving this city in a specially constructed boat of light draught, the Olga, a whale in the interior of which a dinner party was given one evening last week is now going for a cruise of the Mississippi river and tributary streams. This monster of the sea has served to demonstrate that Jonah could have found plenty of room for shelter from the raging waves if he had encountered this specimen on the occasion of that tempestuous voyage.

It is no work of a fakir, this whale which has just made the trip down the Houston Ship channel, and those who were the guests at the banquet served in the roomy interior of the monster will not soon forget their unique experience. Illuminated with tiny incandescent lights, tables laid with snowy linen and dainty china, the banquet room was as well appointed as the swellest cafe in the land.

This whale was captured off Sabine Pass, near Houston, on March 8 last, by Capt. Plummer and the crew of his ship. With heavy hawsers it was towed by two powerful tugs to shallow water and was kept alive for several days. Following its death, embalmers were called in and efforts were made to preserve the mountain of flesh, but the barrels of embalming fluid injected into the monster failed of the purpose.

The whale was then removed and mounted upon framework, preserving accurately the outlines of the whale. From the oil tank back of the brain 100 barrels of sperm oil were taken. The whale measures 78 feet from nose to tail. The monster's blunt nose is 9 feet 3 inches high. The tail is 18 feet wide. Each fin is 6 feet long. The jaw bones measure 17 feet 6 inches and it is thought this giant monster, after carefully stepping over the great teeth, that one entombed fifty people. An exit has been made by opening a door in the side of the monster of the deep. The great skeleton has been preserved for exhibition purposes along with the mounted specimen.

How this big bull whale happened to wander into Houston waters, is a point Captain Plummer can not explain.

Founder of Packing Firm Which Bears His Name is Victim of Attack of Double Pneumonia.

HAD A HUMBLE START

Began Work in Packing House as a Boy and Worked Himself up to be a Great Business Man.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 28.—Michael Cudahy, founder of the packing firm bearing his name, died at 8:45 o'clock last night, at a Chicago hospital, of double pneumonia, which followed an operation for appendicitis three weeks ago. Mr. Cudahy had been ill for five days, the disease becoming serious early Saturday morning. The members of his family were at his bedside when death came.

Mr. Cudahy was born in Callan county, Kilkenny, Ireland, December 7, 1841. He came to the United States with his parents in 1849, the family settling at Milwaukee, Wis.

In 1855, as a boy of 15, Mr. Cudahy became an employe in a Milwaukee packing house, and this marked the beginning of his career in the industry in which he took a prominent part.

From a butcher Mr. Cudahy moved up rapidly to foreman, packing house manager and meat inspector. At this time he attracted the attention of the late P. D. Armour, and at the latter's solicitation came to Chicago.

In 1872 Mr. Cudahy was made a partner in the firm of Armour & Co. He continued in this connection until 1890, when he was instrumental in organizing the Cudahy Packing Company, of which he was made president. His brothers, John and Patrick, were associated with him. The firm established numerous branch houses and became well known in Milwaukee, Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, Wichita, Los Angeles, Sioux City, St. Louis and other packing centers.

Mr. Cudahy was interested in other lines of business. He was one of the chief organizers and president of the North American Transportation and Trading Company. He was well known as a clubman and friend of amateur sports. He was an enthusiastic yachtsman and golfer and a member of the Union League, Chicago, Yacht, Exmoor Country, Glenview Golf and Sheridan clubs, all of Chicago and vicinity.
