CITY NEWS.
E. Chrestensen, Osteopath, Y. M. C. A.
—Our line of fancy boxes 50c, 75c, and $1.00 are very swell. Oak Hall Candy Store.
—Manager Frank Belt has signed John O'Brien, a catcher, who comes from the trolley league of St. Louis. He is touted as a clever backstop.
—Children's wagon and saddles at Sherwood's.
—Call for Rajah or Utopian chocolates in fine boxes, at Suttive Bros.
—Regular meeting of Keokuk lodge No. 13, I. O. O. F., Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting brethren fraternally invited. Work in the second degree.
—Harmonicas from 5c to $1.50. J. F. Kiedatsch & Son.
—Christmas play, Unitarian church, December 27, 7:30. Admission 10c.
—Clara, the little seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Casteel, 1216 Orleans street, died yesterday afternoon at two o'clock from appendicitis. The body was sent this morning to Griggsville, Ill. for burial.
—M. W. A. dance tonight. Agne orchestra. All rights reserved.
—Buy him an auto blanket or a lap robe for a gift at Sherwood's.
—You will enjoy your Christmas best if you make some one happy.
—There was a still alarm last evening at 7:45 and another at 10:10 o'clock. The first one came from the D. F. Miller residence, 610 North Fifth street. A burning fire called the department out. No damage. The second "still" came from James Cameron's stables, another burning fire: no damage being done.
—Services in the several churches tomorrow will be appropriate to Christmas day.
—Rajah or Utopian chocolates are finer than the "make-em-myself" kind. Only at Suttive Bros.
—Cartilage Leader: People in this section of the country are greatly interested in the big dam being built across the river at Keokuk, for its successful completion means a great deal for western Illinois. With the cheap electric power which it will furnish, trolley lines no doubt will be built in many directions and manufacturing industries will spring up in the surrounding towns. The electric power can be utilized by the farmers as well as the town people and there is no reason why the territory within a radius of fifty miles of the dam should not become the busy, hustling country that surrounds the Niagara Falls power plants in New York. An effort has been made to discredit the whole undertaking but developments within the last few months has dispelled all doubt as to the ultimate completion of the project.

Master Zoellner appeared at the Baptist church last evening in several violin numbers and his selections and rendition were received with several encores. One number was the Flower Song by Lange, Mrs. Zoellner playing the piano accompaniment.
