CRUSHER PLANT

BEING BUILT

Work on This Structure Has Been Commenced—Real Estate Department is Busy.

The Water Power company has started the setting of the big crusher plant on the Illinois side. It is to be situated below the old road and near the dam. The railroad tracks running to the mixer plant have also been completed. They were constructed in order to convey material that will go into the concrete to this plant. One crib per day on the coffer-dam work on this side is the average now being maintained.

The company's office floor space was increased today when the building adjoining it between Main and Johnson on Third was vacated. It has been used for a barber shop. The second and third floors of this building have been occupied by the company for some time.

The real estate department has been extremely busy during the past few weeks. Many of the contracts, with property owners expire March 1 and the department has been closing them.

NAME FORGER TURNED UP

Clarence Westerfield Pays Over Nine Dollars to Father he Obtained at Bank Saturday Night.

FATHER SIGNS IT TODAY

LaRue Gets Three Thirty Day Sentences for Disturbing the Peace, Drunkenness and Carrying Gun.

To square himself with the police, Clarence Westerfield made settlement with his father, John Westerfield Saturday night for the nine dollars he received at the State Central Savings bank when he forged the latter's name.

Mrs. Westerfield, mother of the young man, told the police that she had sent her son to the bank with the check to get it cashed, but about this part of the performance, the father seemed to know nothing. It was after young Westerfield had been away from his home for quite awhile and the check was found missing that the elder Westerfield phoned the banks to stop payment on the order.

The State Central bank presented the check to John Westerfield today to be endorsed with his own name and an arrangement between father and son was made to save Clarence Westerfield from answering the charge of obtaining money falsely.

LaRue Gets Ninety Days.

Elmer LaRue, the young man who was arrested Saturday night in a Third street bar room, was arraigned in the superior court this morning to answer three charges against him: Intoxication, carrying concealed weapons and disturbing the peace. LaRue pleaded guilty to being drunk; his bond was placed at $100 for disturbing the peace of the Hooster Pool hall on Saturday afternoon, and to the charge of carrying concealed weapons, LaRue pleaded guilty.

The total time that will have to be served by him will be two thirty day sentences, sixty in all, in the city jail and thirty in the county jail for disturbing the peace.

Drunks.

Bert Corbin paid a fine of a dollar and costs for being intoxicated. James Wilson was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail for being drunk.

JOY SAYS ITS A BIG THING

Work of Selling Stock in Industrial Association Looms Up Before Committees.

"The big thing that looms up before the executive and finance committees is the sale of stock," said President C. R. Joy of the Keokuk Industrial Association today as he touched on the preparations that are being made for the hurry-up canvass this week.

"Keokuk will be given an opportunity of showing its hand. We expect to sell the entire block of $50,000 worth of stock in three days' time. The canvass will be made in the most systematic and effective manner possible and exhaustive lists are being prepared to carry out our plans.

"From what can be learned by the executive committee the men who are to assist in the canvass will be well received in their work. The people of Keokuk, in so far as we know, are prepared to meet the demands upon them."

Middle Aged Women With Youthful Looks.

(From the French Beauty Monthly) "There is no reason why the passing of every year should leave a mark on a woman's face. If there were a good reason for premature wrinkles and age discoloration of the skin, all women would be similarly affected.

"There are many women of forty who do not look more than twenty; there are many women in the twenties who look as if they were in the forties. A little care and attention will keep off the wrinkles, dark or yellow spots and other blemishes of the complexion for many years.

"Women who have been most successful in retaining their youthful appearance do not resort to paints, powders or other cosmetics. A simple yet effective complexion beautifier is made by dissolving an original package of mayotone in 8 ounces of witch hazel. Massage the face, neck and arms daily with this lotion and the skin will be fresh, fair, smooth and velvety. Wrinkles, wild hairs, patches and other blemishes can be prevented by the use of mayotone and witch hazel."

GEORGE GILMORE'S LIFE EXPLAINED

Death Shortly After Noon Today of Well Known, Highly Respected Citizen of Keokuk.

SEVENTY-SIX YEARS OLD

Was Nine Years Old When He Came to This City With His Relatives and Was Old Settler.

In the house in which he built, was married and had lived continuously for over half a century, George F. Gilmore, the contracting carpenter and old citizen of Keokuk, died this afternoon at 12:30 o'clock, after a life which caused one who knew him well to say that God never made a better man.

The breaking down incident to old age carried him off, and he was born seventy-six years ago in New York City. He was only eleven years old when his family came to Keokuk, crossing Pennsylvania and the Alleghany mountains by stage and canal, and coming the rest of the way by the Ohio and Mississippi rivers. That was before Iowa was a state and when Keokuk was an outpost of civilization. About fifty-two years ago he was married to Miss Tanzan Ackley in the home he had prepared at 1222 Orleans street, and there he lived and died.

He Lived a Model Life.

Mr. Gilmore learned thoroughly the trade of stair building when it was one of the most skilled branches of carpentry; later he worked at carpentry in general and became a contractor in the building trade. A few years ago he retired from active life and has been living quietly since then.

Among all his large acquaintance, he was respected and admired for his fine character. While he was not active in any church movement, he lived the sermon on the mount in his daily life to a remarkable degree. Straightforward, gentle, firm in his convictions, he treated others as he desired to be treated and his whole life was based on the Golden Rule. As a result he had very many firm friends in Keokuk where practically all of his life was spent.

He had five daughters of whom four are living, and he is also survived by four grandchildren. His daughters, all of whom live in Keokuk, are Mrs. W. E. Strimback, Mrs. F. J. Martin, Mrs. H. O. Courtright and Miss Carrie B. Gilmore. His wife died twenty-three years ago.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. L. C. Worley has returned from Peoria, Ill., where she has been visiting relatives and friends.

Frank M. Brierton of Burlington, visited Sunday and today with friends here and returned home at two o'clock this afternoon.

B. L. Auwerda has returned home from a business trip to New York.

A Great Aid in the Dairy

Professor Dean's first advice to dairy-men is—"Clean the pails, cans and separators thoroughly, at least once or twice a day." Soap and water remove surface dirt but they do not thoroughly remove all the little germs which sour and taint the milk. The greatest of all cleansers is Gold Dust washing powder. It not only removes all the visible dirt and grease, but goes deeper after every trace of impurity, and leaves the milk pails, cans and bottles really clean, wholesome and safe. Moreover, it does the work more quickly and easily than any other cleanser known.

MRS. GRIMSLEY'S SECOND EVICTION

Nothing to It Says Judge Hughes, Who Declares he Offered to Allow Old Woman to Live There.

ATTORNEY'S STATEMENT

Recites Incident That Happened at Morgan Street Home Friday—Does Not Object to Her Living There.

Judge Felix T. Hughes, who was made defendant in a $10,000 damage suit Saturday by Bernard A. Dolan, newly appointed guardian of Mrs. Louisa Grimsley, issued a statement today regarding the reported second forcible eviction of the old woman from the Morgan street house Friday.

"All there was about this is I thought best to have the property occupied and on Wednesday or Thursday a man came to rent it. I told him he could have it so on Friday a neighbor told me that some parties were moving into the house. At noon I walked up there and saw a woman standing in the door and I went up and found it was the wife of the man who spoke to me about renting the place. She was talking to Mrs. Grimsley who was standing back some three or four feet in the hall.

"The woman told me who she was and said Mrs. Grimsley wouldn't let her in, so she could see the house. I asked Mrs. Grimsley why she wouldn't let her in. She said: 'It's my house, and I want to live here myself.' "I told her is she wanted to, she could but that the house was big enough for both of you, and I'd rather have some one else live in part of it with her. Suppose you take one side and let this woman have the other."

"She said: 'I won't do it. I won't let anyone live in here but myself.' "That was everything that was said and done and the woman and I walked away.

"I think the next day noon I passed there and the door was open. I asked a man to put a lock on it, which I felt ought to do and not leave the door open with the house vacant.

"About evicting Mrs. Grimsley—that is all nonsense. I have not the least objection in the world to her living there."

This morning at the parish residence of the St. Francis de Sales church, Mrs. Mary Weisman and Mr. John J. Nodler were united in marriage at 6 o'clock by Rev. Dunnion. At 7:35 this morning the newly married couple left on their honeymoon trip for Chicago where they will spend ten days.

The bride is one of the best known and highly respected of the lady residents of the city, and has made her home here for a number of years.

To both him and his favored bride are extended the best wishes of many friends who will be glad to welcome them on their return to this city to make their home.

Greek Letter Party.

From the Galesburg Republican-Register of Saturday evening: The Illinois Delta chapter of Pi Beta Phi entertained Friday evening at their annual promenade, with perhaps fifty couples in attendance. The party was given in Elk's hall and the excellent music was furnished by Seelig's orchestra. In the course of the evening a program of sixteen dances, four extras was danced. The most charming feature was the Pi Beta Phi extra which came after the twelfth dance. The lights of the hall were dimmed so that the only light was furnished by the star suspended in the center of the room. The young ladies then appeared, each with a bunch of the fragrant Joss-sticks, and during the dance following the effect was most pleasing; on the second encore the orchestra played "Glow Little Glow Worm, Glimmer," and this added to the illusion materially. At the door the guests were greeted by Miss Lottie Steele and Harold Ingersoll. Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Raub, and Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Perry. The first extra was a favor dance; Miss Katherine Percy held a large basket filled with Yellow Jonquils with which the gentlemen favored their choice. The programs were dimly little affairs of black speech, with a large yellow cord, upon which was a little pendant of beaten brass engraved with the Greek letters, Pi Beta Phi. The patronesses were Mrs. P. F. Brown, Mrs. G. T. Salew, Mrs. R. A. Raub, Mrs. J. F. Percy and Mrs. J. Grant Beadle, and the guests

Daily Grain Letter.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Cables one-fourth higher. While the underlying factors spell 85c for May a moderate rally is due, one coterie of influential investors passed the word after Saturday's close that they believed short wheat should be covered and market given a chance to rally. Presumably one cent to two as it exists on the long side. Recent feature, has been lack of buying power the big pocketbooks have shown little interest. Pit may fessine. If weak early would avoid selling side of all grains. Only sixty days to May 1st and no signs of any deliver day angels who want to put wheat, corn and oats in their safety deposit box. Central west believe wheat due for a rally. March reserves are too near, however.
